Two former University of Kentucky football luminaries will play with the professional Brooklyn Dodgers this fall. They are Ralph Kercheval, who was a Wildcat in 1931-32-33, and Bert "Man o' War" Johnson, who wore the Kentucky blue in 1934-35-36. Kercheval, a Wildcat fullback, has been with the Dodgers since his graduation and is ranked as one of the greatest halfbacks in professional football, mainly because of his superior punting. He holds the world's record of 91-yards in the air for a punt. Johnson is making his pro debut. He is a powerful line crusher and speedy ball carrier despite his 200 pounds.

* * * *

An unusual nickname is borne by Dameron Davis, University of Kentucky halfback. His teammates call him "Honey." That is the name bestowed on him by his fond elder brother, Bob Davis, when they were kids. Bob, also a Wildcat halfback, and a fine one, and "Honey" are inseparable companions. Both are exceptional college baseball players. Their home is at Dayton, Ky.

* * * *

Three University of Kentucky football stars also are basketball luminaries. Captain Joe "Red" Hagan, football end, starred as forward for Kentucky in the Knoxville tournament of the Southeastern Conference last spring. Adolph Rupp's Wildcats won the tournament. A reserve guard on that basketball team who will be groomed as a regular forward when basketball season rolls around is Bob Davis, sensational Wildcat halfback. Walter Hodge, fullback in football, is a regular guard in basketball.

The University of Kentucky football team has a player-coach in the person of Sherman Hinkebein, junior, ranking candidate for center. However, Hinkebein makes no pretense of being a football coach yet. This lanky 200-pounder last winter coached the Wildcat swimming team to a State championship. Unable to play football last season because of a growth on his foot, Hinkebein turned his attention to swimming. Although his university has no swimming pool, Hinkebein taught his swimmers in private pools and in the pools of neighboring colleges.

* * * *

At last the University of Kentucky has a red-haired captain for its football team. He is Captain Joe "Red" Hagan, from Louisville. Hagan is a 195-pound end, more familiarly known as "Smoky Joe." He is an all-round athlete; plays basketball and baseball. Big league baseball teams made overtures to Hagan this summer. He may accept one of the offers after his graduation.

* * * *

The University of Kentucky football team will do plenty of traveling this fall. They will roam from New England to Florida, meeting Boston College at Boston, Mass., and the University of Florida at Gainesville, Fla. They also will journey to Nashville, Cincinnati, and Tuscaloosa.

* * * *

Chet Wynne, University of Kentucky football coach, is the father of a son, Chet, Jr., and a daughter, Willow Wynne. The boy is called "Chris" because he was born on Christmas Day.

after the game...*

Hollywood's Most Polished Voice

HERBERT MARSHALL* TELLS HOW THE THROAT-STRAIN OF ACTING CALLS FOR A LIGHT SMOKE

"In a recent scene," says Herbert Marshall, "I talk two minutes on the telephone. This scene took half a day to 'shoot'—four hours of painstaking voice shading. But even after scenes like this, I find that Luckies are always gentle on my throat. It's only common sense for an actor—or anyone else, for that matter—to want a light smoke."

The reason that Mr. Marshall—and you—find Luckies a light smoke is that the "Toasting" process takes out certain throat irritants found in all tobacco—even the finest.

And Luckies do use the finest tobacco. Sworn records show that among independent tobacco experts—auctioneers, buyers, warehousemen, etc.—Lucky Strike has twice as many exclusive smokers as have all other cigarettes combined.

In the impartial, honest judgment of those who spend their lives buying, selling and handling tobacco... who know tobacco best... it's Luckies—2 to 1.
