'FATHER AND THE BOYS' AT LAST FACE THE FOOTS

Stupendous Stroller Spectacle Finally Appears With Fitting Flourish

BE SURE TO SEE IT

The cast of "Father and the Boys," said to be the best ever selected by the Strollers, under the splendid management of "Bill" Shinnick, is ready for the initial performance of the play to be given tonight at the Opera House, after two months of hard work.

The play itself, George Ade's masterpiece, is considered by many who have seen it produced, the funniest bit of comedy ever put on the stage. The story of the waking up of "Father," who is eight years behind the procession, until he leads a life too gay for even the "boys" to follow, presents many possibilities. With a roulette game and a real horse race it does not lack spice. The "girls" play quite an important part too, with the happy culmination of three romances in the last act.

Emery Frazier, as "Father," is very clever in his part. He plays most naturally the character of the staid business man, who, for the sake of the "boys," enters into the things they enjoy, and has such a good time at it that they have to beg him to settle down once more. Mr. Frazier had a part in last year's Stroller play, "Charlie's Aunt."

Miss Rebecca Smith, as "Bessie Brayton," the breezy Western product, who "does stunts" at parties for the "high-uppity-up" crowd, could not be surpassed. Miss Smith has been prominent in other Stroller plays.

Waverly Briggs and Leonard Taylor as "the boys," are well fitted for their parts. Waverly Briggs as Billy plays the languid society man to perfection, while Leonard Taylor in the role of Tommy, the sport, is a husky young athlete.

The girls' parts, Emily Donelson and Frances Berkeley, are well taken by Misses Mary Turner and Alice Gregory. Miss Johnnie Cramer, as Mrs. Peasley, makes a most exacting housekeeper.

Major Didsworth, in the hands of Jim Farmer, becomes a real villain, with a most fascinating "English accent." Willie Lee Smith is the typi-

CLARENCE EGBERT IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Slight improvement was reported last night in the condition of Clarence Egbert, superintendent of printing in the University, who suffered a paralytic stroke at his home, 613 Central Avenue, Monday night.

Mr. Egbert is considered the best paper authority in the South and is often called out of the State to give his services as a paper expert. During the three years he has been connected with the University Press, Mr. Egbert has been the means of saving the University and Experiment Station several thousand dollars which was being expended on publications printed elsewhere.

E. L. GILLIS ATTENDS REGISTRARS' MEETING

Kentucky Man Is Secretary of National Association of College Officials

ON EXECUTIVE BOARD

Esra L. Gillis, Registrar of the University, will leave for New York Sunday, to attend the seventh annual meeting of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, of which he is secretary.

It is expected that one hundred leading colleges and universities of the country will be represented when the association convenes at Columbia University April 18, 19 and 20. Mr. Gillis will go early to be present at an important meeting of the executive committee.

The program as announced by President Walter P. Humphreys and Secretary Gillis calls for papers and addresses by Clyde Furst, secretary of the Carnegie Foundation, and Professor Charles R. Mann, a research expert; Dean Schneider, of the University of Cincinnati, and Dr. Philander P. Claxton, Federal Commissioner of Education. The purpose of the association is to provide by means of an annual conference and otherwise for the spread of information on problems of common interest, and to promote the professional welfare of its members. The great interest that is being manifested in the work is indicated by the steady growth in membership from every portion of the United States.

MICHIGAN GAME WON BY "WEATHER MAN"

Wildcats Will Meet Ohio Wesleyan For First Game of Season

ANNOUNCE SCHEDULE

Even the pessimist, who had prophesied an unmerciful trouncing for the Kentuckians at the hands of the Michiganders and a bribed umpire, experienced a severe shock when that unscrupulous official, Father Weather, "snowed under" the Wildcats. Not until the Northerners had departed for the Sunny South, did the locals recover sufficiently to brush the snowflakes from their eyes and realize that no arrangements for a future game had been made.

On account of this post mortem visit of winter, "Pety" Moore and his assistants have again been busily engaged preparing the diamond for the opening game of the season. Likewise, Coach Tuttle has been adding some finishing touches to the training of his Cats.

With the additional three days' practice before the initial fray with Ohio Wesleyan, he feels confident that the scalps of the Ohioans will become the possession of the Kentucky Wildcats on Thursday, April 13.

Blood once tasted, the Cats cannot help but take a second victory from the Ohio lads on Friday, April 14.

Coach Tuttle has announced the following line-up for Thursday's game: McClellan will pitch, with Senator Crum receiving; Captain Park will hold down first base with Roark and Schrader covering second and third respectively. "Red" Spaulding will guard the left field with Frazier in center and McIlvain in right.

With the exception of the pitcher the line-up will probably remain the same for Friday's game. For that contest the box will be filled by Server, Cooper or Grubbs.

The official baseball schedule, as announced by Doctor J. J. Tigert, follows:

April 13 and 14—Ohio Wesleyan at Lexington.

April 18—Georgetown College at Lexington.

April 21 and 22—Ohio State at Lexington.

April 26—Western Reserve University at Lexington.

LYCEUM COURSE IS GOOD OFFERING

Don't forget the Lyceum musical offering in chapel April 14. This fifth number of the Lyceum Course promises to be one of the very best attractions of the entire program. The singers are artists of no small attainments and considerable reputation.

The program that will be rendered follows:

- Ave Marie ("Cross of Fire") ..... Max Bruch
- Miss Marguerite Stegemiller.
- Arabesque, No. 2
- Dance ..... Debussy
- Miss Inez Gill.
- Legende ..... Wienlawsky
- Miss Emile Rose Knox.
- Wie ein Grussen ..... Mehrkens
- A Sacred Fire ..... Russell
- The Cry of Rachael ..... Salter
- Miss Marguerite Stegemiller.
- Ballade, A Flat Major ..... Chopin
- Miss Inez Gill.
- Indian Lament ..... Dvorak-Kreisler
- Caprice Viennois ..... Kreisler
- Miss Emile Rose Knox.

UNIVERSITY MEN TO SPEAK AT K. E. A.

Alumni Dinner at Hotel Watterson a Reunion For Old Grads

LARGE ATTENDANCE

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association will be held at Louisville, with headquarters at the Henry Watterson Hotel, April 19-20, inclusive, the general subject of discussion to be "Economy and Efficiency in Public School Education."

The University of Kentucky faculty members who will be prominent at the meeting are Dr. Edward Tuthill, President of the Department of History and Civics of the association, and Prof. George Roberts, President of the Agriculture and Horticulture Department. Both are on the executive committee.

Professor McHenry Rhoades, twice president of the association, will give a two-minute talk at the meeting of the former presidents. He will also speak on "College Graduates as High School Teachers" before the Department of Higher Education, of which Dr. John J. Tigert is secretary.

In the Department of Language,

STUDENTS TO PRESENT SHAKESPEARE PAGEANT

Scenes From 'Tempest,' 'As You Like It' and 'Winter's Tale'

OUTDOOR STAGING

A May fete performance, probably the most unique of the hundreds of celebrations in honor of William Shakespeare, ranking in standard with the highest universities, and out-ranking other productions in originality of conception and execution, will be given Tuesday afternoon, May 16, 1916, at 2:30 on the campus of the University of Kentucky, under the auspices of the English Club of the University.

Not only does the English Club's pageant expect to measure up to the highest standard of selection of plays, and acting, but to excel in producing in combination the most delightful scenes of four of Shakespeare's notably charming comedies. From "As You Like It," Rosalind, Celia, Orlando and Touchstone will emerge from the forest of Arden to talk of love; "Winter's Tale" will visualize the dainty, lost Perdita, and the dashing Florizel; the delightful calm of "The Tempest" will be embodied in the bringing to life of Prospero, Miranda, Ariel and Ferdinand; and "Midsummer Night's Dream" will produce not only the fiery Queen Elizabeth, Theseus and his spouse, Hippolyta, but also the joyous comedy of Quince the carpenter, Snug the joiner, Bottom the weaver, Flute, the bellows-vender, Snout, the tinker, and Harnelng, the tailor.

These scenes are to be interwoven with Shakespearean music and dances, a may-pole dance, fairies' dance and a rendition of the famous Morris dances to be featured. Mrs. R. L. Stout will train the dancers.

The executive committee in charge of the "pageant," the name by which the entire production will be known, is composed of Professor L. L. Dantzieler, Professor E. F. Farquhar, and Miss Frances Jewell, acting with this committee, is the student group representing the three upper classes and the graduate school, Mr. F. D. Mayes, Miss Nancy Innes, Mr. John Marsh and Miss Christine Hopkins.

The chairmen of the various scenes and the casts, which have been selected from the best talent in the University

KENTUCKIAN WILL BE "BEST EVER"

"Well, confidentially, it is just about the biggest and best thing of the year, or last five years," was the remark of one who has some inside information of the Kentuckian.

When interviewed by the Kernel representative on the subject the editor-in-chief said: "Get out, I am busy!" Mr. Cullen, business manager, said, "Graham is busy now putting on the finishing touches, and won't talk, but I assure you it will be the 'biggest and best ever.' There are to be some rare things in the way of snapshots, and the 'fun corner' of it is really clever.

"There is color work in the book that is unsurpassed. The cover, semi-flexible in straight grained leather, is an innovation that you will like. Fraternities, sororities, clubs, societies and all athletic teams are represented in this book as never before.

"Now, I could talk to you all day about the many attractive features, but the main point is this: The Hustlers' Contest is closed. Many persons bought Annuals from those in the contest, but the business staff is going to take hold now, with the determination of getting 400 or 500 more subscriptions. Of course it would please us just as much to sell everything during the few days following May 15, when the books will be out of the press, but our order must be in about April 25. I expect the sale to run around 800 copies. It may go higher than that, but we can not get any more copies than the number ordered before the book goes to press.

"There. You see now the reason why everyone must get in an order early. President Barker and the faculty have given us their earnest support, and I know the book will be unequalled by any other college annual."

Students who have never bought an annual before have dragged out "rusty dollars" to pay the business staff for reserving a copy of the 1916 Kentuckian. Subscriptions have been received also from alumni in Missouri, Colorado, New York and elsewhere. Local alumni also have given the assurance that many more "old grads" will take this means of getting in closer touch with their Alma Mater.

MELCHER GIVES TALK ON GERMAN CASTLES

Dean Melcher delivered an illustrated lecture on Heidelberg, Cologne and Paris to German students in the photography room of Mechanical Hall Monday morning.

The students in these classes have just finished reading "Karl Heinrich" and the description of Heidelberg Castle and student life at Heidelberg University aroused so much interest that Dean Melcher and Professor Cannon selected 55 of the pictures they collected during their visits in Europe, and by means of the projectoscope showed the cathedrals castles and universities of Germany and France to their interested students, and to the many other pupils who had heard of the lecture and desired to hear it.

"K" SWEATERS TO BE AWARDED IN CHAPEL

Seniors Will Not Get Their Rewards Until Commencement Week

Doctor Tigert announces that the chapel hour on Friday, April 21, will be given over to the awarding of "K's" to the under-graduate football men of the 1915 team and to the 1916 basketball squads. An address and an appropriate presentation speech are being planned. The senior "K" men and women will receive their rewards commencement week.

A recent ruling of the Athletic Committee provides that a man is entitled to a "K" sweater on first making an athletic team and to a "K" certificate thereafter until his senior year. If a successful candidate for the "Varsity" in his senior year, he will receive his second sweater.

K. E. A. SPEAKERS.

Doctor Mackenzie will deliver an address on "Are There Modern Classics? Shall We Study Them?" Miss Mary Sweeney will give a talk before the Home Economics Department, and Professor L. L. Dantzier will address the annual meeting of the Kentucky Folk-Lore Society, of which he is president.

President H. S. Barker is a member of a committee on "How to Finance a State School System." Doctor Tutthill will make a report of the committee on "History in the Grades" before his department. Professor Noe is on a special committee on "Teachers' Institutes in Kentucky," and Doctor Mackenzie is a member of the Resolutions Committee.

Important speakers at the association will be President G. Stanley Hall, of Clarke University; Dr. G. D. Shayer, of Columbia University; Chancellor James H. Kirkland, of Vanderbilt University, and Miss Ida Tarbell, who will speak on "Give the Girls a Chance."

The second annual dinner of the alumni of Kentucky University, held in connection with the K. E. A., will be given Thursday evening, April 20, at the Henry Watterson Hotel. The dinner had an attendance of 77 last year and 125 are expected this year. It will be a convenient reunion for University alumni, especially from Western Kentucky.

ADA MEADE OFFERS SPRING STYLE HINTS

"I certainly am glad to hear that the young ladies are going to turn out this edition of the Kernel," said Manager Gurnee of the Ada Meade, when interviewed by a fair member of the staff yesterday, "particularly so because I have something of great interest to tell them."

"Coming Monday is another one of those splendid tabloid musical comedies from the pen of W. B. Friedlander and Will Hough who wrote the season's greatest previous successes, "The Night Clerk" and "Tickets Please."

This one is called "The Four Husbands," and if reports from Chicago are any criterion, it is the best one of the lot. Now for the particularly interesting point, every one of the sixteen girls in the show had their gowns specially designed for them by a syndicate of Chicago and New York modistes. Don't forget the date, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and also the fact that all seats will be reserved. I might add that the leading man is quite a matinee idol, has grey eyes and a pompadour, but that might cause complications, so we won't mention it." —(Adv.)

"Midsummer Night's Dream," chairman, Professor E. F. Farquhar; Queen Elizabeth, Katherine Mitchell; Theseus, Franklin Corn; Hippolyta, Mary Sayre Williams. Other members of the cast are yet to be selected.

"The Tempest," chairman, Rebecca Smith; Miranda, Rebecca Smith; Prospero, Emery Frazier; Ariel, Dew Flanery; Ferdinand, Ector Lawson. "Winter's Tale," chairman, Professor L. L. Dantzier; Perdita, Jane Farrell, Florizel, Harold Pulliam.

Franklin Corn will act as Master of the Revels, and Falstaff portrayed by J. L. Hammond, will make merry throughout the afternoon.

The date has been happily chosen between the week of senior an undergraduate examinations and admission to the performance being free, it is hoped the entire student body will assemble for such revels as the campus has never seen before and will doubtless never see again.

TRACK TEAM ROUNDS INTO GOOD CONDITION

Hickerson, Hogrefre, Haydon and Their Team-mates Show Class

GEORGETOWN MEET

Daily work-outs and an increasing amount of interest among the aspirants for berths on the track team indicate a victory for Kentucky in the dual meet to be held with Georgetown College on Stoll Field April 29.

Tireless efforts on the part of Mr. Stack, the physical director, who is in charge of the track squad, and his assistants are being put forth to produce a winning team. Their chief desire and aim is to atone for the defeat received at the hands of Georgetown last year.

Mr. Stack states that no unusual developments have been observed within the past week, but a steady improvement is noticeable. Consistent training and regular practices are rapidly developing a speedy team.

As to the individual candidates, Woods, Hogrefre, Mayhew and Clark, the long distance men, and Mullen and Logan, the quarter-milers, are all holding their own.

Hickerson, with the discs and hammer, and Faulkner and Lancaster with the weights, are right in the game. Grabfelder is working to make a sprint record all his own. Charles Haydon and Karl Zerfoss in their respective feats of mid-distances and vaulting promise to maintain their records made in other activities. Marshall and Brittain are showing good form on the hurdles.

Mr. Stack also says that at present there are no prospects whatsoever for a dual meet with Vanderbilt.

FATHER AND THE BOYS STROLL UP TO CHAPEL

Father and the boys were all at chapel Friday morning, and heard Doctor Tigert champion the cause of the Strollers.

Harking back to the days when he began his theatrical career with George M. Cohan and Richard Mansfield, Doctor Tigert declared that college dramatics should be encouraged from the viewpoint of the student who participates, of the spectator, and of the institution which benefits from the favorable publicity of such performances.

Mr. William Shinnick, stage manager of the Stroller play, "Father and the Boys," which will be staged April 13 at the Lexington Opera House, appealed to the student body for its support, and warned it of the rare opportunity offered in this play.

The members of the cast were seated upon the rostrum, and a large crowd was present.

Alumnae Club.

The April meeting of the Alumnae Club of the University of Kentucky was held at the Phoenix Hotel Saturday, May 28 is the date set for the annual party to be given for the senior girls.

DARK SECRET.

There will be another student rally in chapel Friday at the regular hour, with music and yells and the ceiling as the limit for enthusiasm. The yell leaders will be on hand to help out in the celebration.

President Barker, Doctor Mackenzie and others will be speakers. The purpose of the meeting is still a dark secret, but it is certain that it will be a "joy fest."

UNIVERSITY PUTS OUT MANY PUBLICATIONS

Recent Numbers of Papers Show Marked Improvement in All Lines

SENT OVER STATE

Five University publications besides the Kernel and Kentuckian, is not a bad showing for Kentucky. These are "The Transit," from the college of Civil Engineering; "The High School Quarterly," from the Department of Education; the "Bi-Weekly Farm Bulletin," from the Extension Department of the College of Agriculture; "The Kentucky Alumnus," and "The Rural Kentuckian," the first copy of which will appear this week.

"The Transit" is published monthly by the students of the College of Civil Engineering. W. M. Adams is the present editor-in-chief. The articles in this magazine deal with anything of interest in civil engineering. Each class is represented on the staff, which is made up entirely from the student body. "The Transit" has been published for a number of years, but has gained particular notice in the last two or three.

Professor Noe is editor-in-chief of the "High School Quarterly," which promises to develop into a real literary magazine. The April number, one of the best, contains an excellent article on the meaning of the "Ancient Mariner," by E. E. Wood, President of Cumberland College. One of Professor Noe's latest poems, "Aphasia," appears in this issue, and a masque by Professor C. P. Weaver, arranged for presentation in high schools. Professors Terrell, Baker and Melcher have articles relating to their respective subjects, in the same number. This magazine has been in publication only two years, but has made great progress during that time.

The Extension Department of the College of Agriculture is putting out the "Bi-Weekly Farm Bulletin," 5,000 copies of which are published and sent to the pres and farmers all over the State. The paper contains practical information on all agricultural subjects. Miss Rebecca Smith, senior in the Department of English, edits it.

Another paper from the College of Agriculture will appear this week, the "Rural Kentuckian." Leon Leonian is editor-in-chief, and Miss Elizabeth Farra represents the Department of Home Economics on the staff. It will be published under the auspices of the Agricultural and Home Economics Societies, and is devoted to the interests of the college students as well as to the farmer at large. The Experiment Station will publish the results of its experiments through this paper, which will greatly enhance its value.

The "Kentucky Alumnus" is published monthly and sent to all alumni members. It is chiefly designed to keep them in touch with the University and with each other. The last three numbers have contained "Sketches on the Origin and Growth of the University of Kentucky," by Dr. Jas. K. Patterson, which are very interesting. Mr. J. D. Turner, editor of the "Alumnus," is responsible for its vigorous editorial policy, and the work of Miss Margaret McLaughlin of the Department of Journalism, deserves special mention.

These publications bring to the people of the State an idea of what the University is accomplishing and it is justly proud of them.

Y. M. C. A. FORMS BIBLE CLASSES AND BLUE RIDGE CLUB

W. A. Ganfield, President of Centre College, spoke to the University men Sunday night in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, on "Moral, Muscle and How To Use It." About sixty boys were present and enjoyed a half hour of gripping oratory.

Bible study classes for the men who signed cards during the Robins' campaign will meet once a week in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Professors Tigert, Noe, Boyd, Freeman, Rowe, Bryant and Anderson will take charge of the classes and the "Call to Service" will be used in the work as a text-book.

A Blue Ridge Club has recently been organized by the University students who have been to Blue Ridge Summer Conferences. Great results are expected from this co-operation.

MARGARET INGELS IN CLASS BY HERSELF

Miss Margaret Ingels, senior mechanical, received special notice in the Sunday Leader as the only woman mechanical and electrical engineer in the United States.

When asked by the reporter if she were sorry she took the course, Miss Ingels replied: "No, I'm not. There were some things to give up that were hard at the time, but I haven't missed them much. The worst feature is that it keeps me away from the other college girls and I haven't any real girl friends at all."

To the all important question, "Will you ever marry?" Miss Ingels replied: "No! It will be four years before another leap year, and by then I hope to be independent."

BARNSTORMERS.

John March and William Shinnick addressed the young ladies of Sayre College Tuesday morning on behalf of the Stroller play to be presented April 13. Mr. Shinnick spoke to the students of Morton High School last week.

Greetings.

We, the staff of the Girls' Issue of the Kentucky Kernel, here, with formally make our bow to the University at large, but most particularly to the masculine element in our midst! Not humbly, however, nor reverently, nor even apologetically as the last-named contingent, we feel sure, undoubtedly expects us to do, but with faces beaming with pride and self assurance and hearts aglow with the realization that our edition is far superior to any ever before issued by this University, with the possible exception of that gotten out by the girls in 1915.

If, in boasting thus, we appear unbecomingly conceited, we earnestly request that our critics be lenient and reflect that we have only the example set by the regular Kernel staff, to follow and we find ourselves wondering, with kindest intent, if a more conceited, self-satisfied body of honest citizens exists, than that composed of our contemporary brethren. They have requested that in our issue we stick as nearly as possible to the path they have so nobly hewn this year, and have beseeched us with tear-dimmed eyes not to lower the high standards they have steadily maintained nor in any way besmirch the Kernel's good name lest it reflect discredit on them. We have done our best. Believing their greatest fort and strongest policy to be self-assurance and self-satisfaction, we have adopted a similar one and feel sure that under their guidance we cannot fail to bring credit on our institution. We know that after perusing our columns every student will go to chapel. We are equally sure every matriculate in the University will straightway read the new dictionary recently advertised in these columns. Likewise, every man will automatically become a self-appointed custodian of our "crazy-quilt" bulletin boards and finally they, each and every one, will be inspired to purchase at least six tickets to "Father and the Boys."

What Next?

In getting out the Girls' Issue this week we have become more and more impressed with the remarkable strides woman is making in every land along every line. It is not our intention in saying this to throw bouquets so directly at ourselves by any means, but rather to take up the subject from a less evident phase and call to the minds of our readers the great concessions that are being made to us.

Foremost, woman has, by mere man, finally been accorded a soul. That means something, but it is not all, woman has, during the last two centuries developed (?) a mind and the actual power to use such a faculty intelligently. Not too intelligently, we hurriedly add, in an effort not to misquote our masculine friends, but after all, intelligently enough in some States, the climate being wholly to blame for the rapidity of development of course, to be permitted equal suffrage, and as yet nothing dire has resulted. We do not, however, lose sight of the fact that in all probability the attendant calamity so confidently predicted, will fall upon the nation in due time. Creatures who have so recently acquired both soul and mind are not of a variety to be reckoned with with any degree of confidence.

Getting back, however, to our local territory, woman suffrage having no place there, we are profoundly impressed at our importance in our own University world, so much so that we beg the august readers of our paper to stop for a moment and read that out of the thirty-six editions of the Kernel each year, girls of the University are accorded the privilege of issuing one. We are proud of the place we have assumed. We believe concession on the part of the men of this institution is as important in the history of woman as the discovery of her soul and we have asked that our readers, as a whole, reflect on the situation, but now we particularly beseech the women of the University to realize their opportunities and to feel deeply grateful to those who have conceded them. It is a triumph, yet we urge them not to receive it in a triumphant manner, rather we urge that they show their appreciation in a most maidenly manner, and on every opportunity that they are fortunate enough to be accorded, to bow humbly to the donors of such a gift in honest appreciation of the recognition they have received in being allowed to issue one thirty-sixth of the Kentucky Kernel for 1916.

that there are two seniors who believe in preparedNESS.

Isn't that the most tactless thing could be said?
Why, "auburn" or "Titian," or anything else
Would be better than calling it "red"?

Who's Who.

The co-editor deploras the omission from this year's Kernel of the old Who's Who Department which paid enduring tribute to the stars of the senior firmament. Therefore, we offer a few well deserved tributes to prominent members of '16.

Noys E. Discord.

Noys E. Discord is the most prominent member of the senior class. He has dominated all '16 class meetings and made his influence felt among all factions. In social affairs, elections and class publications he has been the best liked person in the class.

Polly Ticks.

There has never been a better loved or more popular person in the class of '16 than Polly Ticks. The men pursue her, and the girls try to keep up with her. She has been versatile, too, and has shone in athletics, dramatics and social spheres.

FINNEY CALLED HOME

Carroll M. Finney, a student in the Journalism Department, was called home to Frankfort Tuesday morning by the illness of his mother. He left immediately for her bedside, and at the last reports she was seriously ill.

PRESIDENT DABNEY, OF U. OF CINC., TALKS IN CHAPEL

Dr. Charles William Dabney, President of the University of Cincinnati, addressed the student body in chapel Tuesday morning. "Preparedness" was the subject of his talk, and, unlike the cry going out through the whole country for military preparedness, he discussed preparation of the whole man.

Doctor Dabney traced the evolution of nature and said it was so with each living being. Nature, theology, history and philosophy teach that the whole universe has to be prepared, and he divided his talk into three departments.

He first said that physical preparedness was the most essential thing in life, and before military excellence could be obtained, good health is necessary. He did not dwell on intellectual preparedness, for he said that as the students are in the University for the purpose of learning, that phase of his talk was unnecessary.

Preparedness of character in the end is the most important, as the world is a school of preparedness for heaven and it is a prepared place for prepared people.

DECORATOR TALKS TO "HOME EC" STUDENTS

Forty young women of the Home Economics Department attended the lecture given Tuesday night at E. L. March's store, by George N. Connell, head of the interior decorating department of that store.

Mr. Connell gave the talk at the request of Miss Ruby Buckman for her class in Home Decoration. He described in detail the complete furnishing of an early English Georgian house, showing the type of wall coverings, draperies, upholstering and floor coverings appropriate for the various rooms. Mr. Connell gave some valuable suggestions in regard to the relative values of color and the comparative difference between hue, tone and shade.

Plans for a modern bungalow will be made by Miss Virginia Anderson, and Mr. Connell will show the class how the house can be furnished for $1,000.

MOVEABLE SCHOOL IS HELD BY H. E. DEPT.

The first moveable school from the Home Economics Department was held at Stamping Ground Friday and Saturday by Misses Sweeney, Buchanan and Chinn, of that department.

The demonstrations of cooking, sewing and labor-saving devices were held in the high school building, and although there is no department established for that sort of work, great interest was shown. The country women from surrounding counties wish to join the high school class when one is founded.

Next year it is hoped that teachers can be sent out to take charge of such work.

CHAMBERLAIN AND CRUM GET OFFICES OF STATE DEBATERS

J. V. Chamberlain was elected president of the Kentucky Interscholastic Debating Association; J. W. Neal, of T. U., vice president, and Frank Crum, secretary-treasurer for 1916-17, at a meeting of the executive committee, Saturday afternoon, when arrangements were also made for ordering the medals for the successful teams of the year, Centre and Transylvania.

PARK "MAKES GOOD" ON ST. LOUIS SQUAD

The usual spring avalanche of complimentary notices about Jim Park has begun, and we quote from the Lexington Herald of April 11:

"Jim Park, according to news received here yesterday from St. Louis, has been placed on the regular hurling staff of the Browns. At least a dozen highly-rated mound stars were with the Browns on the training trip this season, and Jim must have shown some "stuff" to be made a regular."

ADJOURN MEETINGS.

The Patterson and Union Literary societies adjourned their regular meetings Saturday evening to attend the session of the I. P. A. conference in chapel.

The editor-in-chief of the Mt. Sterling High School News is a girl.

YOUNG FEMINISTS LAUD THEIR SEX

If one desires information concerning the knowledge being poured into the minds of High School maidens in the surrounding districts, let him read the following extracts, taken from essays written by pupils of one of our Home Economics seniors, who goes out one day in each week to enlighten the young ladies. The subject assigned was, "The Efficient Woman."

"She should have courage and will-power to prevent her from being cast aside and pushed backward by the masculine gender, who are ever ready to take advantage of those physically weaker than themselves.

"Women are appreciated very little now compared to their value, even in this age of knowledge, but what would this world be without them?"

"She should have her rights but never degrade herself by obtaining them.

"The Bible says it is not good for man to live alone, but does not mention woman—hence women should be trained to become self-sufficient."

KATHLEEN SULLIVAN GETS H. E. POSITION

Miss Kathleen Sullivan will go to Richmond this week to be an assistant in the Domestic Science work in the Eastern Normal School. Miss Sullivan gets her degree in June and will be able to complete her work by returning to the University three days out of the week. The remaining days she will spend in Richmond.

Miss Sullivan came from Richmond four years ago to take work in the Home Economics Department and since then has been a student of high standing and scholarship. She belongs to the Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Doctor Kastle's Talk.

Dr. J. H. Kastle, whose address at the Lexington Public Library, scheduled for March 23, was postponed on account of illness, will deliver his lecture, "What Shall We Eat?" April 20.

CHEMISTS TO MEET.

The thirty-second regular meeting of the American Chemical Society will be held on Thursday, April 13, at the Experiment Station at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

The following program will be rendered:

"Note on the Occurrence of Gallium," by Dr. R. N. Maxon.

"A Recent Discovery with Reference to the Bang Bacillus," by Professor E. S. Good.

"The Separation and Estimation of Polysulfides and Thiosulfate in Lime-Sulfur Solution," by Mr. S. D. Averitt.

MECHANICAL NOTES.

F. C. Bitgood, Cincinnati representative of the Babcock & Wilcox Boiler Company, gave an illustrated lecture to the members of the A. S. M. E. Monday morning on "The Boiler of 1916."

The Watt Society for juniors held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Members of the society conducted an interesting program.

The Westinghouse Society for freshmen will be addressed by J. Ray Duncan on "On the Trail of a Kilowatt" at the meeting Saturday morning.

MINING NOTES

The College of Mines and Metallurgy of the University of Kentucky is now offering a course in practical mining, which opened April 3 and ends May 7.

This course is especially organized to meet the needs of miners, mine foremen and superintendents. Those wishing to take the mine foreman examinations will find this course of great assistance in improving their technical qualifications.

Some of the topics emphasized in the course are: Mine ventilation; testing mine explosions; rescue and relief work after explosions.

A certificate will be given for all work done in this course.

The Kentucky Mining Society will give a smoker to the practical miners in the eight-weeks' course, Tuesday evening, April 18, at 7:30.

The high school extension work of the Mining College also starts this week. Lectures will be given on "The Natural Resources of Our Country" at the Cynthiana and Frankfort high schools by instructor Ivan Tashoff of that department.

MRS. A. C. ZEMBROD FEATURED BY PRESS

Mrs. Alfred Zembrod, a prominent club woman of Lexington, and chairman of the Art Department of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, was the subject of a lovely picture in the Sunday edition of the Herald.

Mrs. Zembrod initiated the movement to establish a permanent art museum in Lexington. It was due to her energy that the Art Loan Exhibit was held here last spring during a meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs, at which exhibit Kentucky artists were invited to enter and compete for the prizes offered.

BLUE RIDGE LECTURE.

Many students enjoyed the beautifully illustrated lecture on Blue Ridge given in chapel Tuesday night by Mr. J. W. Berghold, State Travelling Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

The pictures shown were illustrations of the beautiful country in and near the Blue Ridge Association grounds where the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. summer conferences are held. The attractive buildings and pictures of delegations attending these conferences were shown, and some of the Kentucky men and girls were recognized in the pictures.

The purpose of the lecture was to arouse enthusiasm sufficient enough to send forty men and ten women to represent Kentucky at the 1916 conferences.

KEYS AND THIRTEENS.

On Friday night the Keys and Mystic Thirteens, the honorary sophomore and junior organizations, will entertain their pledges and friends at a dance at Buell Armory. This promises to be one of the foremost social events of the year and extensive plans for its success are being made.

Attractive programs announce the fact that every odd dance from the first to the eleventh will be no-breaks, the tenth and thirteenth being reserved for the pledging services of the organizations. After this there will be break dances only.

PHILOSOPHIAN PLAY.

Rehearsals for "Twelfth Night," the play to be given by the Philosopher Literary Society May 3 on the Patterson Hall lawn, are being held regularly and a good cast is manifesting much enthusiasm under the direction of Christine Hopkins.

The play promises to be the best ever given in the history of the society and all the characters are well adapted to their parts. Miss Anna E. Lewis, who appears for the first time in college performances, is excellent in the part of "Duke Orsino," while Miss Darnall, well-known as a young lady of much ability in theatricals, is cast for the difficult role of Viola.

Miss Kathleen Sullivan, as "Olivia"; Miss Alma Bolser as "Malvollo"; Miss Celia Cregor as "Sir Toby Belch" and Miss Edith Sachs, as the "Clown" show skill in handling their parts. Other minor characters of unusual excellence are: Misses Marie Becker, Elizabeth Farra, Vivian DeLaine, Mary Hamilton, Nell Crawford and June Sale.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. held its regular weekly meeting Sunday evening at Patterson Hall. The subject for the evening was the "Life of Paul." Different phases of the apostle's life were discussed by Misses Sarah Harbison and Louise Ramsey. Miss Mildred Graham was leader.

MUSIC CLUB.

A very interesting program was furnished by the Music Club Tuesday night at Patterson Hall.

Miss Nell Stucky gave several selections and the male orchestra also played.

Everyone is invited to attend future meetings and hear excellent music.

SUPT. O. L. REED TO SPEAK FOR FRESHMEN

Professor O. L. Reid, Superintendent of Public Schools in Louisville, will speak in chapel Tuesday morning, April 18, under the auspices of the Freshman class. Mr. Reid's subject will be "The Day's Work" and those who have heard him before know his power as a speaker.

PATTERSON HALL NEWS.

Miss Lena Clem spent the week-end with her parents at Bedford.

Miss Willie Wood Taylor will spend the week-end with Miss Frances Steele at Winchester.

Miss Mamie Starling Boulware, of Shelbyville, spent Thursday and Friday as the guest of Miss Charlotte Willis.

Miss Jessie Cummings will spend the week-end in Louisville with her parents.

Miss Mollie Johnson spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Maxie Johnson.

Miss Folsom McGuire was a visitor last week at Patt Hall.

Miss Eliza Piggott spent the week-end in Louisville and several days at her home in Irvington.

Miss Zula Ferguson spent several days last week visiting her sister in Louisville.

Miss Maude Harman had Miss Grace Morris, of Richmond, as a guest for the week-end.

Miss Eliza Clay Mason spent the week-end with her parents at Winchester.

I. P. A. CONTEST STILL UNDECIDED

The oratorical contest of the Kentucky Inter-collegiate Prohibition Association, held in chapel last Friday night has not been decided yet, as one of the judges has not rendered his decision.

The University was represented in the contest by J. J. McBrayer on "Our Great Internal Destroyer." J. L. Early, the Asbury College representative, addressed the association on the subject of "Uncompromising Conflict." "Prohibition, a National Defense," was the subject chosen by Leonard V. Buschman, of the Southern Presbyterian Seminary; "The Paramount National Issue" by Joe C. Jenkins, of Georgetown University; "The Dawn of Victory," by Paul N. Demaree, of Kentucky Wesleyan, and "America's Greatest Enemy," by Richard C. Miller, of Berea College.

Between the orations, the audience of more than 300 persons was favored by musical numbers selected by the Berea Male Quartet, the Asbury Male Quartet, and a Girls' Quartet from the University, and solos by Miss Helen Burkholder and W. Lee Smith.
