HIGH SCHOOL TRACK MEET GREAT SUCCESS

Kentucky Interscholastic Association Holds Second Annual Meet on Stoll Field.

LOUISVILLE MALE WINS "A," STANFORD WINS CLASS "B."

The second annual track and field meet of the Kentucky Interscholastic Association was held last Saturday afternoon on Stoll Field. The fair weather brought out a crowd estimated at 1,500, and it was the consensus of opinion that the meet was a success from all standpoints. The 1913 meet was considered a success at the time, but the 1914 event entirely eclipsed it; this year one hundred entries being sent in from seventeen schools, while last year there were only twenty-five entries from thirteen schools.

As in last year's meet the high schools were divided into two classes, Manual and Mañ High Schools, of Louisville, Lexington and Paducah, falling in Class A, and the smaller schools in Class B. In several instances, however, the Class B men were forced to better the Class A records in order to win.

Although no records were made in the meet all the entries acquitted themselves well. The Class A star was Weber, of Louisville Male, who by making twenty-three of his team's forty points enabled them to win the team cup. Louisville Manual finished second with thirty-two points, Paducah showed with twenty-two and Lexington High finished last with twenty points.

In Class B Stanford succeeded in winning the team cup, making twenty-five points, with Springfield and Lawrenceburg second and third respectively with twenty-two and twenty-one points. The other schools finished in the order named: Maysville 19, Shelbyville 13½, Cynthiana 9½, Madisonville 9, Mt. Sterling 8, Elizabethtown 5, Catlettsburg 1.

The events and winners in each follow:

120-YARD HIGH HURDLE.

Class A—First, S. Weber, Louisville Male. Time, 0:18¾. (Only man competing).

Class B—First, Embry, Stanford High; second, Sparrow, Lawrenceburg High. Time, 0:20 2-5.

POLE VAULT.

Class A—First, Smith, Lexington High; second, Weber, Louisville Male; third, Garrett, Louisville Manual. Height, 9 feet 9 inches.

Class B—First, Frazier, Lawrenceburg High; second, Parker, Madisonville High; third, Durbin, Cynthiana High. Height, 10 feet.

100-YARD DASH.

Class A—First, Miller, Paducah

MISS IVA BOREING SUDDENLY SUCCUMBS

Friends Believed That She Was in Good Health When Sad News Reached Them.

Miss Iva Belle Boreing died at Condon, Oregon, Sunday night, after an illness of five days of ptomaine poisoning.

The sad and startling message was received at the University Tuesday morning with general regret by all who had known "Joe," as she was affectionately called, and who remembered her as one of the most beautiful and attractive girls that ever attended State University.

She was born and reared in London, Ky., and was a magnificent type of the graceful, beautiful women for which her State is famous.

While at the University she was always active in student interests and attained remarkable standards as a student. In 1910 and 1911 she won the gymnastic tournament trophy cup

"PYGMALION AND GALATEA"

Students Will Stage Dances and Greek Play at Lexington Opera House.

SATURDAY NIGHT, 8 P. M.

On Saturday night, May 16th, at 8 p. m., in the Lexington Opera House, one of the most beautiful productions ever staged in Lexington, will be given and this brilliant performance is the work of University students.

The Greek play, "Pygmalion and Galatea" will be given, followed by original classic dancing. The entertainment is primarily for the Student Loan Fund of the University and should therefore interest every student. The prices have been purposely lowered, the lower floor being 75c and 50c, and the entire balcony 25c. As this production is for the students, and by the students, we feel sure that

TOURNAMENT MUSIC CONTEST AT AUDITORIUM

Solos, Quartets and Instrumental Selections Open the Second Annual Tournament.

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS GIVEN

The second interscholastic tournament ever held under the auspices of the University began last Thursday night with the contest in music at the City Auditorium. A number of high schools were represented and an excellent program was rendered. Judge Lyman Chalkley presided at the opening contest and in opening the exercises expressed a deep appreciation that so many schools had sent boys and girls to contest in music.

On this occasion eight gold medals were awarded. Two went to each of the winners of the piano solos, Mr. Carl Bricken, Shelbyville, and Miss Ruby Cason, Cynthiana. Only one medal was to be presented to the winner of the piano solo, but since the decision was a tie the management prepared medals for each. The winner of the vocal solo was Miss Lucile Smith, Maysville, who rendered the beautiful song, "If I Were a Rose," in an exceedingly pleasing manner. Allen Boblett, Springfield, singer and sprinter, was given second award for his delightful selection, "Come Where the Lindens Bloom." "The Sixth Air" was given by each of the violinists, and they showed extraordinary ability in handling the bow. In this first place was given to Allen Ament, Elizabethtown, and second award was given to Fay Bricken, Shelbyville.

Throughout the programs four quartets rendered one selection each, which added much interest to the program. The Cynthiana quartet, composed of Messrs. Ruby Cason, Gaylen Poindexter, Thomas Renaker and Joe Clark were given medals for the best quartet. The program was one that could, no doubt, move the breast of a music lover. It also showed that the high schools are doing much in directing their pupils along musical lines.

The program was as follows:

1. Piano Solo.....Schumann Carl Bricken, Shelbyville.
2. Quartet: "Wandering in the Woodland." Maysville—Ernest Zeigler, Anna Calvert, Hermann Calvert, Edith Hoeflick.
3. Vocal Solo: "Come Where the Lindens Bloom." Allen Boblett, Springfield
5. Piano Solo: "Midsummer Night's Dream." Ester Ort, Maysville.

ANOTHER DOGFALL Volunteers and Wildcats Each Get a Game.

Great Series for Pitchers.

(Orange and White.)

On Friday afternoon the Volunteers and Wildcats played the first game of their series here. The State squad had an easy walkaway with a score of 10 to 1. The Volunteers could not connect with twirler Park's twisters, although "Dad" Dawson pitched a splendid game, errors on the part of the players preventing us from keeping the score down. Dad chopped off 16 men and allowed only 8 hits, while Park fanned 11 men and gave up 5 hits.

In the second game Tennessee picked up a bit and showed the Kentuckians what could be done in the line of baseball, running off with the game to the tune of 6 to 2. Hutcheson went in the box and succeeded in getting 17 strike-outs to his credit. Park again went in for Kentucky, but our boys found him and pounded the pill all over the field, Tommy bagging a home run. Park was relieved in the 4th period of play by Woodson, who did not have anything but a glove and a husky look, so the Volunteers romped on him also.

Coach Brumage has one of the best college pitchers we have seen here for some time, but he seems to be the whole team.

KY. MINING INSTITUTE HELD MEETING AT STATE

Closed Saturday Evening With First Aid to Injured Contest After Two Days Work.

The Kentucky Mining Institute opened its second annual meeting Friday morning, May 8, at the University. The Institute was held this year in joint session with the United States Bureau of Mines and the American Red Cross Society. The meeting, together with the annual First Aid Meeting, on Saturday afternoon, was highly successful and a source of much satisfaction to our Mining Department.

Vice President B. R. Hutchcraft presided at the Institute Friday, due to the absence of the president, W. L. Moss. The principal addresses of the day were made by: Major R. U. Patterson, Medical Corps, U. S. A., on "American National Red Cross in First Aid and Accident Prevention," I. P. Tashof, of State University, on "Mine Safety in the Lake Superior Copper District;" E. Drennan, of Jenkins, Ky., on "Mine Motors;" C. W. Strickland, of Sturgis, Ky., on "Some Other Difficulties;" W. H. Cunningham, of Ashland, on "The Workman's

ORCHESTRAL AND SPEAKING CONTEST SECOND EXHIBIT

At City Auditorium, Friday Night, and Rendered a Splendid Program.

SIX AWARDS GIVEN.

The second meeting and contest of the High School Tournament was held at the City Auditorium last Friday night. On this occasion was decided the winners of declamations, readings and orchestral selections. Three gold and three silver awards were made to the winners of the respective features. The program was composed of three different features and was equally as good as the first musical program. The contest opened with a "Tournament March," rendered by the Lexington High School Orchestra, who was given second place in the contest. However the decision between this orchestra and the one from Manual High was not made by the judges as the instructor of the Lexington orchestra played with them. Each orchestra gave selections that would lend grace to any musical festival.

Miss Julia Rodman, Mt. Sterling, was given first honors in the reading contest.

The four readings on the program were of a high class and every one was worthy of first prize for their performance. Of the six declamations, Junius Caldwell, Louisville Manual, whose declamation was "Repeal of the Union," was given first prize, and Mr. Roy Barnall, Madisonville, was given second place.

The declamations show that the High Schools of the State have able speakers. These are also developing the are and the association will provide for debates to be held at next year's tournament. Many high schools have students that can debate as well as declaim, and in the future the debate will be the important feature of the tournament.

The program was as follows:

1. Tournament March—A. Hall—Lexington Orchestra.
2. Declamation, "Scrambled Eggs," Herman Calvert, Maysville.
3. Reading, Julia Rodman, Mt. Sterling.
4. Music, Louisville Manual Orchestra.
5. Declamation, Julian Riffe, Hustonville.
6. Reading—"Woman in the Shoe Shop," Aleen Kavanaugh, Lawrenceburg.
7. "Sunny South Medley," Lexington Orchestra.
8. Declamation—"Repeal of the Union," Junius Caldwell, Louisville Manual.
9. Reading, Hager Celia Cregor, Springfield.

BEN ALI THEATER

KEITH VAUDEVILLE.

As the season draws nearer to a close the Keith vaudeville performances grow better with each succeeding week, and the attendance also increases, especially the popular family matinees, for which a special price has been made of 10, 15 and 25 cents. The bill for the last half of the week, commencing with the Thursday matinee, is an unusually good one and is sure to prove one of the most pleasing yet presented, containing as it does the names of some of the most popular entertainers now appearing in this popular form of amusement. The Benaliscope will show a novelty in the motion picture line. The Aldo Brothers are billed as "Phunny Gymnasts," and "Phony Wrestlers" and from the advance press notices they live up to their billing. Manny and Bell are two young ladies who sing and dance well and are comediennees who know how to hand out their "stuff" in a manner that stamps them as entertainers of merit. Golden and Hughes are black face comedians who have a very humorous act that is shorn of all horseplay and is worth while. They are styled the "McIntyre and Heath of the vaudeville stage." Perhaps the most pretentious act on the bill is that presented by Florence Tempest and company in a bright sketch in which Miss Tempest wears some very beautiful and bewildering costumes and impersonates a number of theatrical and vaudeville stars, one of the best being that of Vesta Tilley. Milt Collins is a famous Dutch comedian and orator, his orations being productive of unlimited fun. The Six American Dancers appears in a number of dances representing the different periods in American history. Redford and Winchester close the show with a comedy juggling act that is a scream. Matinees are given daily, commencing Thursday.

CINCINNATI AND WILDCATS CROSS BATS

Friday Afternoon For the First Time of the Season.

3:45 STOLL FIELD.

The Varsity base ball club from the Queen city will come to Lexington to meet the Wildcats on Stoll Field Friday afternoon for the first game of the season between these two clubs. Well to be remembered the last time when Dana's troops marched upon Stoll Field. These base ball players are coming with a firm determination to be victorious in the contest.

The Varsity nine are in excellent condition and Mr. Brummage will have a superb team for the contest. Cincinnati has played excellent ball all season and hold an excellent record of games played in Ohio. If you enjoy our great National game, make a visit to the athletic field on this Friday afternoon.

SENIORS WIN FROM JUNIORS

Final Score 11-7.

In a game that went to and fro as a wave on a small pond made by a school boys' pebble, was played by the Seniors and Juniors on Stoll Field Tuesday afternoon. The Seniors took the lead by two runs and not until the fifth did the Juniors lead. Preston pitched a good game for the Seniors and Woodson played his usual game. Ralph Morgan and Caywood twirled for the Juniors. At the close of the ninth inning the game was tied and the tenth was played in twilight, thus Petrie had no opticals and could not reach the field.

The Juniors did not play, as they had practiced with the Varsity and left all chances of other class games until another cycle is reached. The Seniors will meet the winner of the Freshman and Sophomore game if the dispute is ever settled or another game is played.

PROF. NOE RETURNS.

Prof. J. T. C. Noe returned last Saturday from a four days' trip to Webster and Owen counties, where he delivered a baccalaureate address before the graduating class of the high schools at Providence and Wheatley. Prof. Noe very often is called to leave their such addresses and will leave Monday for other such addresses.

C. E. BLEVINS WILL GO TO GEORGIA TECH.

To Be Associate Secretary of Student Y. M. C. A.

For some weeks the officers of the Young Men's Christian Association at Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, one of the largest universities of the South, have been in correspondence with Mr. C. E. Blevins, recent president of the State University Y. M. C. A., and the latter has accepted a call to that University as Associate Secretary.

This Association requires two men to conduct its activities, the General Secretary being Mr. H. F. Comer. The Association is housed in a magnificent building costing $75,000.00, of which amount $50,000.00 was presented by Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Under the able leadership of Mr. Blevins, the local association of students has made marked progress along some new lines, and his aggressive policies have resulted in a splendid year of achievement. His leaving

TRACK MEET SATURDAY

With Tennessee on Stoll Field.

The track team from Tennessee will meet our track team on Stoll Field Saturday afternoon. From the records of the two teams for this season the meet promises to be full of interest and close at all stages. So far for the year we have lost and also won from Tennessee athletes and this will be the final contest until we go to Knoxville next Thanksgiving.

The team is ready to start and at the first blast the Wildcats will claw up the track in order to bring another victory to State.

LECTURE AND CONCERT AT CALVARY BAPTIST

Prof. J. T. C. Noe and Mrs. Mary Hawkins Dantzler to Assist.

TUESDAY, MAY 19.

The Calvary Baptist Church, corner Rodes Avenue and High Street, have just completed plans for a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment in their main audience room, Tuesday, May 19, 8 p. m., under the auspices of class No. 7, for the benefit of the building fund, given by Prof. J. T. C. Noe of the University. Mrs. Mary Hawkins Dantzler, vocalist, Lexington, Ky., Prof. Wayland Graham, Prof. Stratton, Mr. Ben Keenan, Mr. Richard McCude, Mr. Wm. Clayton, Miss Smart, Mrs. C. E. Collins, Frankfort, Ky. Prof. Noe's lecture will be from the book of Esther. Mrs. Dantzler's vocal selections, and the sextette from Frankfort, all artists, will certainly afford this congregation an opportunity seldom offered.

As a member of the Alpha Xi Delta she was active in fraternal circles and in her Junior year was honored by membership in the "Staff and Crown," the honorary Senior society of the University.

She graduated last June from the College of Arts and went out to her duties as teacher in the High School at Condon in September, making her home with her cousin, Mr. W. D. Hammock. Her aunt, who had cared for her since the death of her mother, when she was very small, moved to Condon with her last September and was with her at the time of her death.

The funeral services were held at Condon Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

PURDUE STUDENTS HAVE ARRIVED

About seventy-five students from Purdue University, accompanied by Dean J. H. Skinner, of the Purdue College of Agriculture, arrived at the University last Monday. In the opening exercises they ushered forth a few, strong yells for their own university and for the State University. They have made an extensive survey of the Experiment Station and farm, while at the University. They have also visited Elmendorf and seemed to enjoy the beautiful Blue Grass scenery around the city of Lexington.

BEGINNING OF VILLA'S CAREER AS AN OUTLAW

At the death of his father, Francisco, or Pancho, was left in charge of the Villa ranch in the State of Chihuahua and with it assumed the responsibility of his mother and a young sister, the latter a Mexican beauty of coquettish tendencies. Becoming enamored of the county sheriff of the city of Chihuahua, the girl eloped with him. Forgetful of the marriage ceremony the couple fled to the mountains. The enraged Pancho, with an escort of cowboys and a priest, pursued the runaways. Overtaking them, he forced matrimony upon the unwilling sheriff, then handing him a shovel, commanded his brother-in-law to dig a grave. That horrid task completed, Pancho shot down the terrified bridegroom and rolled his body into the pit.

The incident was lurid enough to startle authorities hardened to crime and lawlessness and it was necessary for the murdered effectually to absent himself from the justice that was soon on his trail. With that escape began his life of bandit and marauder. For fifteen years he roamed the Durango and Chihuahua Sierras. Porfirio Diaz had bid $20,000 for his head and the inspired rurales tracked him from hiding-place to hiding-place. Villa himself told me much of this period. "I have had forty-eight encounters with the rurales and killed thirty-seven of my enemies," said he.—From "Pancho Villa, Man and Soldier," by N. C. Adossies, in the American Review of Reviews for May.

PRACTICAL FEATURES OF SCHOOLS OF JOURNALISM

Work in other schools of journalism is just as practical as that at the New York. At Marquette University students accompany regular reporters as the latter make their rounds in Milwaukee. Students at the University of Wisconsin take regular news assignments on two of the daily papers of Madison. The Seattle Times has a Sunday page which is written and edited by the students in the Department of Journalism at the University of Washington. At the University of Pittsburgh, where the journalism courses are under the supervision of T. R. Williams, managing editor of the Press, students not only do work for his paper but also help out at times on other dailies in that city. Arrangements have already been made to have the journalism students at Western Reserve University supplement the teaching of the classroom with practical work on two daily papers of Cleveland. Some of the Western universities, like Missouri, Indiana, Kansas, etc., have printing plants and issue daily papers. These publications are to be regarded not as ideal papers, as some shallow critics try to imply, but as practice sheets in which students may print classroom exercises.—From "Schools of Journalism," by James Melvin Lee, in the American Review of Reviews for May.

DISCIPLINE.

"How do you get your constituents so thoroughly accustomed to implicit reliance on your word?"

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum, "I made 'em understand at the outset that if they didn't accept my statements they'd have to listen to a long string of statistics.—Washington Post.

A "Boob" is a Lemon's affinity.

Jokes rush in where sermons fear to tread.

Barking "Antis" seldom bite.

IDENTIFIED.

A small boy with a rather lonesome expression walked into the county clerk's office in Denver, says The Times of that city. He gazed about him for a few minutes, and finally approached a deputy.

"Please, sir," said the lad, timidly, "have you seen anything of a lady 'round here?"

"Why, yes," answered the officer, "I've seen several."

"Well, have you seen any without a little boy?" continued the lad anxiously.

"Yes," replied the deputy.

"Well," said the little chap, as a relieved look crossed his face, "I'm the little boy. Where's the lady?"

HOSPITALITY.

The appetite of the guest was a keen one, and he was doing full justice to the excellent dinner provided by his host. The little daughter of the house watched him open mouthed for awhile. Then finally she smiled on him brightly and said:

"Oh, I do wish you were here to dinner every day!"

The guest beamed with satisfaction. "Do you, my dear? Why?" he inquired.

"Because," came the unexpected reply, "there won't be anything cold to eat tomorrow."—London Tit-Bits.

NOW AGAINST THE WALL.

SOPHS ISSUE NOTICE.

A false report has been circulated to the effect that the Freshman-Sophomore base ball game was forfeited to the Freshmen.

In behalf of the Sophomore class we desire to make the following statement:

The point at issue was a decision as to whether Grubbs should play as a member of the Freshman team. The Sophomores based their objection upon the inter-class rule which states that no Varsity player shall participate in any class game or contest.

The Freshmen refused to play without Grubbs; so why not declare the game forfeited to the Sophomores? If any forfeit is to be given it belongs legally to us.

If the Freshmen can muster sufficient courage, we are willing to play on any date agreed upon.

 Her tongue is not dependable,
 She's quite too self-dependable.
 It is not recommendable,
 And yet—and yet—

OF COURSE IT'S UNDENIABLE

That woman is divine;
 To sweet delusions liable,
 With heart extremely friable,
 Timid and meek and pliable;
 But mine—but mine—

If I should go Republican,
 And she go Democrat,
 Our home would be a bubbly can
 Of fizz and fret that doubly can
 Confuse a poor Republican,
 On where he's at.

Besides she's not attainable,

 Although it's not explainable,
 My love is unrestrainable,
 But she's just not attainable;
 So I'll forget.

INTERSCHOLASTIC TOURNAMENT.

The Second Annual High School Meet was a brilliant success. The institution put forth a strong effort to have all high school participate and many were present that made an excellent showing of the work being done in music, speaking and athletics. At this time two special contests were added to the tournament, the first in music, while the second was in public speaking and orchestral music. The first two were exhibitions fit to please any audience, where they could be pleased with music and the spoken word.

The track meet, in which many schools in each class entered, was exciting from the first flash. These schools showed much ability in all features of the meet. The University is justly proud that so many were present to contest for the awards that had been prepared for them. This tournament was larger and greater than on last year. The committee plans to make more extensive contests for the future and have more high schools to enter the contest. The auguries were good. The time has come when we no longer spend our moments exclusive in our own sphere, but attempt to introduce the students of Kentucky High Schools to some of the features of college life. The students of State are from nearly every corner of this Commonwealth and all attempted to make these high school representatives spend joyful hours while they remained in our precarious city.

At this age of progress a man must be trained mentally and physically in order to be educated. Very seldom does a weak body possess a strong mind. By the double exercise we develop both simultaneously as we grow into manhood.

With the passing of this event the University extends their appreciation to all who entered in any contest. It is with much pleasure that they prepare these tournaments and rejoice to have the High Schools as our guests once during the collegiate year.

OUR ALUMNI.

Until recently we have heard but very little of our Alumni. Time has wrought a change and the Alumni of State have begun an active work in connection with their Alma Mater. A great part of this grand movement is due to Mr. J. I. Lyle, of New York, who has toiled unceasingly to bring his fellow Alumni into active service. We appreciate what they are trying to perform and are more than jubilant over the plans that they have outlined for the benefit of all concerned.

After all a working Alumni is the greatest asset to any university. It is from their work that we are represented to the world. It is also through their co-operation that we are able to advance with the progressing world. We believe that with a few years our Alumni will meet at commencement, hundreds at a time, as we are about to meet for the first time. The University is coming into closer relation of these that they guarded or a while and as they return all will rejoice at their coming and once more will all spend merry moments at our beloved institution.

CLASS GAMES.

Class games at State have long been an important character in class affairs. It is seldom, if ever, Seniors and Juniors dispute about arrangements for contests or what shall or who shall not play.

There is an old custom that says that no Varsity man shall play on a class team. This custom is still in vogue but with the new adoption of decisions made by the class managers we can decide more definitely who is entitled to play with his class.

The controversy of the Sophomore-Freshman was brought about by the Sophomores refusing to abide by the decision of the managers. Has not this council veracity enough to decide who is a Varsity player? Often men who have played in Varsity games assist their class team. Because a student is given a try-out he should not be disqualified to play with his class. We will be glad to see the final game finished, so we may be able to determine the class championship.

Education does not consist of knowledge alone. It is the mental capacity of being able to establish and maintain harmony between ourselves and the world.

MOUNT VERNON

Mount Vernon passed into the hands of the Mount Vernon Association just prior to the war between the states. It was purchased from the Washington heirs for $200,000. Of the purchase money about half was raised by Edward Everett through his lectures and the balance by the ladies of the association. Each state represented in the association has a special room in the mansion. The place is kept in faultless repair and vandalism is made well nigh impossible by the careful watching. During the war Mount Vernon was, by mutual consent, neutral ground, and the wearers of the blue and the wearers of the gray often met before the tomb of the great American, and who was loved equally by north and south.

WHO'S WHO AT STATE

H. N. Woodson.

A big man is usually a friend of the people. H. N. Woodson, from his first days at the University, has ever been surrounded by a host of kind friends. When he was a Freshman, then in youthful days, he was more like a man physically than many Seniors. Woodson began in athletics during his Freshman year and without any previous training made good on the Varsity football team in his Sophomore year. It is not necessary to call to mind his glorious work in the line during his last two years. He has always been a tower of strength at guard. "Big" Woodson not only played with the pigskin but beginning on the mound for his Freshman team he has made his way to the Varsity box and for the last two years has twirled for the Wildcat club.

Woodson, not as so many, did not quit at athletics, but has been valuable in other activities. He has been a valuable member of the Patterson Literary Society, where he has been an active member. In his preparation of the legal profession, which comes after the arts course, he has affiliated himself with the Henry Clay Law Society and there kept up his usual record of good work.

Though he be large he is active, and can easily pass through a small window. He is the possessor of a kind disposition and the world will find an active member in this, our most worthy friend.

Edwin T. Proctor.

Any list of students who have "made good" in our University life would be incomplete without the name of Edwin Thomas Proctor. He came to us in 1910 from his home town of Leitchfield, Grayson county. Although absent one entire year, he graduates with the '14 class, leaving behind him a multitude of friends and an enviable collegiate record.

"Ed Tom," as he is familiarly known, has led, from the beginning, a busy life. His field has been one of varied activities, in addition to his full share of purely academical work, in which for sound thought and reasoning he has invariably excelled. Always alert and thinking straight to the point, he has ever been ready to give an opinion on any subject, sane but logical, and forcefully expressed.

Affiliated with the Union Literary Society "Ed Tom" made a most valued member. He has also been associated with the Henry Clay Law Society, Exchange Editor on The IDEA staff and it is as present Editor-in-Charge of the 1914 "Kentuckian," the undoubted success of which should be attributed to his editorial ability and untiring labor. As the University's representative for the Rhodes Scholarship he was barely "nosed out" of that much coveted honor. He is a member of the Delta Chi fraternity.

Personally he is liked by every one. Sunny of disposition, he has a pleasant smile for all and a jolly "hello" on every side. Girls and boys alike find his presence a pleasure. The campus or the dancing floor finds him naturally and gracefully "at home." "Ed. Tom" is a constant boost for the University and one whom we all like to number among our friends.

His work here has been classical and in the department of law. Out in the world he is sure to succeed for success comes to him who is prepared. He is one of the Senior class who will be sorely missed; he has made his stay impressive.

SENIORS TAKE FINALS

This is a memorable week with all Seniors at State. For days have they toiled to meet the last "quiz" and now the day is at hand. The Seniors began these examinations Monday morning and all will be over Saturday. In their toils and troubles they have the sincerest sympathy of their friends that they pass this last barrier as they have triumphed on previous occasions.

MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL

PRESIDENT OF SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMING

Will Address Members of the Senior and Junior Classes on Friday.

Mr. Fairfax Harrison, President of the Southern Railway System, will talk to the Senior and Junior classes of the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, Friday, May 15th, at 11:00 a. m. His subject will be "Obligation of Education."

Those who know Mr. Fairfax Harrison, say that he is a very charming and interesting speaker. A speech of his at the present time will be doubly interesting to Southerners, for he will very probably have something to say in regard to his statement made some time back that the Southern Railroad is going to spend $10,000,000 in the near future, developing its roadbed and equipment.

Mr. Harrison is one of the big men of the South, one of those men who is to do a great deal to help develop the potential resources of the South.

The college is very fortunate in having Mr. Harrison talk to the upper class men, for there is nothing, perhaps, that will give young college men an impetus towards acquiring knowledge more than to come in contact with a fine type of modern and successful business man, and hear him express his ideas on important topics of the day.

PURDUE "AGGIES" VISIT MECH. HALL

Men From Dean Anderson's Alma Mater Serenade Him With Lusty Cheers.

A big party of Agricultural students from Purdue University, who were visiting State Monday, found time in the afternoon to visit Mechanical Hall and serenade their old Alumnus, Dean Anderson. Splendid spirit was evidenced and the cheers were supplemented by "Rahs" for "State" and "Kentucky." Not to be outdone, the Seniors threw open the doors and answered in kind with a "S. U. Ky." a "Locomotive" and a "Fifteen for Purdue." While their stay was very brief, the visiting "Purdites" left an excellent impression upon those who met them. Their thoughtfulness in looking after and honoring an alumnus was an incident worthy of emulation.

E. R. SWEETLAND COACH AT TULANE

Mr. E. R. Sweetland, who left State about a year ago, and had for three years put out winning teams in foot ball, basket ball and track, is now coaching the Varsity teams at Tulane University, New Orleans, La. After Mr. Sweetland left State he coached the University of Virginia foot ball team with which he had good success. Tulane is to be complimented for being able to obtain a director as Mr. Sweetland and we can now claim that his teams will be strong candidates for Southern athletic honors.

UNION LITERARY SOCIETY ELECTS

Officers for First Term of 14-15.—Closed With Interesting Program Last Saturday Night.

The closing program of the Union Literary Society rendered Saturday night was very impressive and entertaining. This meeting brought to a close the most successful year in the history of the society, both in attendance and quality of work done. The program consisted of farewell reminders by the Seniors. These were very touching and highly enjoyed. Diplomas for work done in the society were issued to ten Seniors, and a smoker and feast was also given.

The following program was well rendered:

"What the Society Has Accomplished," O. J. Jones.

"What the Society Has Meant to Me," Norris.

"A Reminder," J. H. Hewlett.

"Crossing the Bar," Stonewall Jackson.

"Farewell Address," Joe Roemer.

The election of officers who shall serve the following year was held. The highest honor, that of president, was placed upon Mr. Clyde Taylor.

Mr. Taylor has been a faithful and energetic worker in the society, and the place is well deserved.

The officers to serve during the fall term are:

President, C. P. Taylor.

Vice President, J. W. Wesson.

Recording Secretary, D. T. Robards.

Prosecuting Attorney, H. D. Felix.

Treasurer, Bally.

Librarian, H. Schrader.

Janitor, O. W. Crowder.

PATTERSON SOCIETY HOLDS LAST MEETING

On Saturday night the members of the Patterson Literary Society held their farewell meeting for this year. For many of the men it was the last appearance in the hall and there was an air of sadness in the speeches all through the evening. C. X. Johnson related in his quaint way, some "Reminiscences" of his experience. W. F. Woodson told the society, in a few earnest words, "What the Society has Meant to Me." G. C. Wilson discussed the bright outlook of the Society. J. Wolf told of some of the events that happened this year. C. P. Nicholson reminded the members of their duty and B. D. Sartin, with his usual eloquence, bid the Society goodbye in his valedictory.

The following officers were elected for the next term:

President, A. B. Liebovitz.

Vice President, J. Love.

Secretary, Harney.

Treasurer, J. Wolf.

Corresponding Secretary, C. J. Nicholson.

Intercollegiate Representative, C. J. Nicholson.

Marshal, O. S. Edwards.

Chaplain, O. R. Willet.

FRESHMAN DEBATE FRIDAY NIGHT

The Freshmen from the Union and Patterson Societies will meet on the platform Friday night for their annual debate. The Patterson Freshmen won this contest last year and each team is working for this victory. They have been working diligently and these lads will present much food for thought upon the question, which is: "Resolved, that the right of suffrage in all National, State and Municipal Elections should be restricted to an educational qualification."

HYWELL DAVIES GOES TO COLORADO

Mr. Hywell Davies, Purchasing Agent of the University and Experiment Station, left last week for Colorado. He went since he was invited to investigate the present mining troubles. Two men were sent, the other being Mr. W. R. Fairly, who has been for twenty-five years in the service of the miners in adjusting labor troubles, while Mr. Davies has been interested in adjusting troubles from the employers' view. These two arbitrators were sent by the Secretary of Labor and will endeavor to bring about an amicable settlement of the trouble.

FORFEITED GAME TO FRESHMEN 9.0

Sophomores Refuse to Play.

After battling to a tied score in the first class base ball game last week, between the Freshmen and Sophs, the last game was last Wednesday afternoon forfeited to the Freshmen. The Sophs refused to play with Grubbs in the box for the Freshmen, so the umpire forfeited the game 9-0. At a meeting of the managers of the different class teams it was voted by a majority that Grubbs be allowed to pitch for the '17 players. The Sophomore team would not back up this decision of their managers, thereby losing their chance at the game.

The Freshmen team will go to Cynthiana tomorrow to play the High School team there. Next week they will meet the Lexington High School team. The wearers of the Orange and Black have been showing up well in games played, and a successful season is expected.

Compensation Law," and by Prof. C. J. Norwood, Chief Mine Inspector, of Lexington, on "The New Mining Law."

The noon hour was delightfully spent by the members at luncheon in the Army, prepared and served by the young ladies of the Home Domestic Science Department of the University. The day was fittingly brought to a close with a banquet at the Phoenix Hotel in the evening. Hon. Johnson N. Camden, of Versailles, acted as toastmaster, while short addresses were made by Secretary John G. Cramer, of the Commercial Club, President Henry S. Barker, of the University, Mr. Frank D. Rash, President of the Kentucky Mine Owners' Association, and Mr. Van H. Manning, Assistant Director of the United States Bureau of Mines. Numerous guests were present and the Institute closed its first day's session very satisfactorily.

Saturday afternoon on Stoll Field the spectacular side of the meeting, the First Aid to the Injured Contest, was held in an entirely successful manner. Preceded by a parade of all contesting teams, from the Union Station, the events began about two o'clock. The teams competed in five events, selected by the judges from the 24 for which the teams had trained.

The prizes were numerous and handsome. The cup for the team making the highest average, was won by the W. G. Duncan team of Graham; the second prize by Continental Coal Company No. 1. In First Aid to the Injured all teams showed great skill and training.

Two tests in the Explosion Gallery concluded the program. They conclusively proved the great advantages of modern mining methods.

Representatives from each class will take part. In the dances there are, from the Senior class, Misses Ruth McChesney, Sallie Pence, Sue Matthews; from the Juniors, Florence Hughes and Bessie White; from the Alumnae, Misses Sara Carter, Eloise Ginn and Mary Ford Rodes. In the play, the Sophomores are represented by Franklin Corn, Marie Louise Michot, Ina Darnall and Rebecca Smith; and the Freshmen, by the class vice-president, Miss Frances Geisel. From the Senior and Junior classes are Tom Hedden, Elsie Speck, and Christine Hopkins.

Some of the dances to be given are "Psyche," "Bavarian Princess," "Maid of the Mist," "Fireflies," "Supplication," "Annie Laurie," and the "Tyrolese"

The setting will be the temple of Dionysius in the garden before the house of Pygmalion, a Grecian Sculptor. In the center of the temple stands the statue Pygmalion has recently made—Galatea. The gods bring the stone to life, in answer to his ardent prayer, and the complications that follow the coming into the sordid, jealous world, of a creature as absolutely innocent as the little statue maid, are both ludicrous and pathetic. The involved situations are finally solved by Galatea's turning voluntarily back to stone again, as she realizes she is not fit to line on this worthy world.

The costumes are by a noted Cincinnati costumer, and requisitely correct in every detail. The gown worn by Miss Hopkins, in the role of "Galatea," was designed by a Kentucky sculptress, Enid Vandell, and executed by a famous New York modiste.

Mrs. Robert Stout has charge of the performance, and it is her sincere wish, and that of the players, that the student body will appreciate this work that is being done for the University, and support the enterprise by coming out in large numbers on Saturday evening. Opera House, 8 p. m.
