MONSTER SHAKESPEAREAN PAGEANT TO BE PRODUCED ON CAMPUS NEXT TUESDAY

English Club Will Be In Charge of Celebration Which Will Bring Before the Public the Best Dramatic Talent the University Boasts

POETIC SPOT NEAR AG BUILDING SCENE

A huge Shakespearean pageant, honoring the ter-centenary celebration of this great author's death, will be held on the campus next Tuesday, May 16, at 2:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the English Club of the University, of which Miss Rebecca Smith is chairman. This is the first really big Shakespearean thing ever undertaken by the University and probably one of the best this State has known. The one outstanding feature of the pageant is its conservative admission—within the reach of everyone—FREE—absolutely FREE, and all are urged to be present when the "curtain" rings up on this spectacular production.

Hamilton, Transylvania, Sayre, the people of Lexington and the State at large have been invited to attend and an enormous audience is expected.

Though the production is under the English Club the parts have been filled by students from all departments of the University and the principal characters are members of the Strollers, or have taken part in local amateur performances heretofore.

The program will consist of authentic Shakespearean dances, under the personal supervision of Mrs. R. L. Stout, physical director of women, in the University, music, Shakespearean songs and scenes from the following plays of the noted author's repertoire: "As You Like It," "Winter's Tale," "Midsummers' Night's Dream" and "Tempest."

An executive committee, composed of Miss Frances Jewell, Prof. Farquhar and Professor Dantzier, assisted by a student committee of Mr. F. O. Mayes, Miss Nancy Innes, Mr. John Marsh and Miss Christine Hopkins, of the Graduate School, have charge of the production and this in itself assures an enjoyable afternoon.

It is possible that a half-holiday will be declared in order that all students may attend the pageant, but should this holiday not be given the students who have afternoon classes are requested to come later. The performance will begin promptly at 2:30 and it is hoped everyone will be in attendance and settled by that hour.

The setting for this huge spectacle

PROF. JONES EDITOR OF LATIN TEXT BOOK

A publication of Lyons and Carnahan which will be of interest to University students, is "The Story of the Gallic War," edited by J. Remsen Bishop, principal of the Eastern High School, Detroit, Michigan, and T. T. Jones, head of the Department of Latin, University of Kentucky.

In addition to the usual four books of Caesar there are selections relating to the customs of the Gauls and Germans, also extracts from the Lives of Nepos. The book is calculated to inspire and instruct the reader, and will no doubt be much used in high schools, particularly in Kentucky.

Professor Jones' friends are much gratified by the scholarly work he has presented and feel that he has reflected much honor on the University.

TENNIS TEAM GOES TO GEORGETOWN MAY 13

Net Artists In Good Condition and Interesting Match Expected

PLAYERS TO BE PICKED

After a lapse of several years the University of Kentucky has again launched forth into tennis realms and confidently hopes to see this branch of athletics firmly established once more.

Three or four representatives will go over to Georgetown Saturday to meet the Black and Gold net artists. Two sets of singles and a set of doubles will constitute the match. Wabash College will send her tennis team here on May 16 and Georgetown College will be here for a return game May 20. Arrangements will be made with the Woodland Park officials to reserve one or more courts on the afternoons of those days, as the University courts will not be completed by that time.

The team has not been picked yet and will not be until Friday. Among those who have been picked are Hart, Kinne, Karl, Harbison, Lang, and Anderson.

It is hoped that a large number of fans will accompany the team to Georgetown Saturday to root for the "Blue and White."

IMPORTANT MEETING.

A joint meeting of all the literary societies on the campus will be held at Patterson Hall Saturday night. The public is invited to attend.

McBRAYER WINS IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

Will Compete For $600.00 Prize in National Peace Contest

CREDIT TO UNIVERSITY

J. J. McBrayer, a sophomore in the College of Law, was the winner of the Southern and Southeastern Peace Oratorical Contest which was held last Friday at Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Representatives from fifteen of the largest colleges and universities of the country competed in the contest and the fact that Mr. McBrayer succeeded in winning reflects considerable credit on him and on the University.

Five of these contests were held in various parts of the United States and the winners of each will meet in New York on May 20 to compete in the National Peace Contest. The winner in this will receive a cash prize of $600 in addition to the oratorical championship of the universities and colleges of the United States.

Mr. McBrayer, who is only 19 years of age, is an orator of considerable ability and his many friends in the University are confident that he will win the National Contest. The University is to be congratulated on having such a brilliant speaker in whom to place its hopes of winning the oratorical championship of America.

ARBOR DAY AND TAP EXERCISES ARE HELD

Annual Pledging Ceremonies of Senior Societies on Campus

CLASS PROPHECY READ

Arbor Day and Tap Day exercises of the Lamp and Cross and the Staff and Crown, senior honorary fraternities, were held on the campus last Friday morning. An all-day holiday was given in honor of the occasion and practically the entire student body of the University was present.

O. M. Edwards, president of the senior class, officiated in the Arbor Day exercises. Miss Rebecca Smith read the class prophecy and G. C. Wilson, representing the senior class, delivered the senior address and presented the Arbor Day spade used in planting the tree to William Shinnick, who accepted it for the junior class, with a short address.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT MONDAY NIGHT EVENT

Performance Postponed To Allow Time For Rehearsal

QUARTETTE FEATURE

According to an eleventh-hour announcement made by Manager "Doc" Rice, the University of Kentucky Glee Club will give its initial performance Monday night, May 15, in the University chapel instead of Friday night as previously announced. The postponement was due to the fact that Director C. L. Bennett is desirous of putting on the finishing touches this week-end before sending his celebrities before the spotlights.

The best musical talent obtainable in the University is included in the cast. Rehearsals have been held for the past two months and with a final rehearsal Friday the gleemen expect to round into first-class shape for the opening performance.

Although the Glee Club is strictly a male organization the management has engaged Miss Elsie Bennett, of the Lexington College of Music, to sing several numbers. Miss Bennett is one of Lexington's most talented singers, and it is the belief of many that her numbers will gather the bulk of the applause. The University quartet will render three numbers, as well as the "Scrap Iron Quartet."

Instrumental music will be rendered by the Mandolin Club. Mr. Edwin Cobb has been engaged to render selections on the violin. These are but a few numbers of the excellent program being prepared for the performance in chapel Monday night.

Tickets will be on sale within a few days. The admission will be twenty-five cents to all.

The battalion was out in full uniform and stood at parade rest during the pledging exercises. The University band furnished music during the festivities.

The pledging exercises of the Staff and Crown were held first and the following were chosen: Misses Helen Burkholder, Mary Hamilton, Linda Purnell, Frances Geisel, Rachael Bohrer, and Jane Dicey. The society gave its annual luncheon at the Phoenix Hotel Friday noon.

MUSIC CLUB HOLDS ITS LAST MEETING

Large Audience Enthusiastic Over Excellent Program Rendered

The last meeting of the Music Club was held at Patterson Hall Tuesday night. A large audience enjoyed the program, which was unusually attractive. Among those present were: Dean Hamilton, Miss McLaughlin, Professor and Mrs. Grehan, Professor and Mrs. Butt, Professor Noe and Professor Zembrod. After the program, refreshments were served. The program was as follows:

1. Piano Solo—Venetian Barcarolle, Godard. Miss Nancy Stagg.
2. Violin Solo—Mazurka, Milnaiski. Mr. G. S. Sprague, accompanied by Miss Sprague.
3. Vocal Solo—Violets, Wright. Miss Helen Burkholder, accompanied by Miss Geisel.
4. Piano Duet—Menuetto, Beethoven; Lohengrin, Wagner. Misses Neville and Beard.
5. Violin Solo—"Somewhere a Voice is Calling," Tate. Mr. E. S. Cobb, accompanied by Miss Geisel.
6. Sketch—Cyril Maude, Miss Christine Hopkins and Mr. Waverley Briggs. Incidental music by Miss June Sale.

At the close of the regular program, Miss Burkholder, by special request, sang "Mavis," Miss Nancy Stagg played Wagner's "Evening Star" and Miss Vennie Duley gave a humorous reading.

The Music Club, which is a new organization, has accomplished a great deal this year under the capable leadership of the president, Miss Susanne Beitz. Miss Hamilton, who was responsible for its formation, believes the club has laid a strong foundation and will become a permanent organization in the University.

WILDCATS SECONDS WIN FROM TIGER KITTENS

Pitching of Corn and Bating of Thompson Are Features

The Wildcat second string of national pastimers ably supported the good name of the University of Kentucky by trouncing the Georgetown second team on Stoll Field Tuesday afternoon in a rollicking, good contest by the score of 3 to 2. The set-to was replete with good plays and excellent pitching by J. Franklin Corn, who took up the burden where hurler Thompson left off.

It was a scrap all the way. Victory, however, was made possible in the ninth inning with the score tied, when "Fats" Thompson drove a pitched ball into deep center field for three bases. An infield tap by Corn scored Thompson and gave the Kittens a triumph.

NEW PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL IN CHARGE

The 1915-16 Pan-Hellenic Council has resigned in favor of the new council which will act as a governing body of the Pan-Hellenic Association for one year. An important question which will come before the council at its next meeting is the matter of pledging men before they become matriculates in the University. It is expected that a rule prohibiting pre-college pledging will be passed.

The new council and officers consists of B. F. LaMaster, Pi K. A.; Howard Evans, S. A. E.; H. C. Simpson, Sigma Chi; Harold Pulliam, Sigma Nu; W. L. McKee, Kappa Sigma; McClarty Harbison, president, Kappa Alpha; Bart Peak, secretary, A. T. O. and P. Y. Hutchinson, treasurer, Phi Delta Theta.

CO-EDS PLAY TWELFTH NIGHT ARTISTICALLY

Philosophian Society Wins Deserved Honors With Shakespeare Play

COSTUMES EXCELLENT

"Twelfth Night," as produced by the Philosophian Literary Society in the Armory, Saturday night, was excellent from the viewpoint of acting and of scenic effect.

The cast, composed entirely of girls in the society, was coached by Miss Christine Hopkins under whose able direction the play was staged. The costuming was accurate and charming, showing to good effect among the sylvan scenery.

As Duke Orsino, Miss Anna E. Lewis showed decided talent. Her voice is one of the best which has been heard in Lexington amateur circles.

Miss Ina Darnall filled the attractive role of Viola with her usual ability, and made a most "fetching" courtier.

The most finished and accurate work in the cast was that of Miss Alma Bolser as Malvollo. She made this rather minor part stand out distinctly by her interpretation of it.

Miss Marie Becker as Olivia, Miss Aline Kavanaugh as Aguecheek, and Miss Edith Sachs as the Clown, were also unusually good in their parts.

The entire cast was:

FORTY MEN TO MAKE TRIP TO BLUE RIDGE

University Y. M. C. A. Making Plans For Fund To Send Delegates

EXPENSES ITEMIZED

The Blue Ridge Club of the University, composed of those students who have attended the summer conference at Blue Ridge, N. C., is making an effort to have forty men to represent Kentucky State at the conference this summer. An endeavor to raise a fund is being made, so that each student may be able to borrow the larger part of his expenses, which he agrees to repay one year after he graduates from the University.

The cost of the entire trip from Lexington and return, can easily be kept within thirty-three ($33.00) dollars. The different items are as follows:

Railroad fare, round trip.....$10.80
Board for conference period.... 12.50
Conference registration fee 5.00
Incidental spending money..... 4.00

Total cost$32.30

For two dollars one can stay over and make the trips to Biltmore and to Mt. Mitchell after the conference closes.

Ten thousand delegates from the colleges east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers have met during the last five years at Blue Ridge for the summer conferences.

These delegates represent practically every school of importance in the entire Southland and perhaps in no ten days will such an opportunity be presented to meet so many men and women and talk with them about the different Southern schools and colleges.

Many of the speakers bring their wives and families with them, and all help to make the social life of the

STUDENTS' FORUM

Editor Kentucky Kernel:

It may be a source of pleasure to you to know that your track team made quite a favorable impression on their recent visit to Vanderbilt. In fact, it has been a matter of much comment among the students here. They contended gamely for every inch of ground and at the same time the sportsmanlike conduct of every man, from the coach down, was indeed noticeable.

Those of us who know Jno. Tigert, however, expected as much. The authorities here declined a more attractive proposition in order to grant his wishes in the recent meet.

We hope the day is not distant when every Southern college can boast such a man.

Very sincerely,
W. J. ANDERSON,

LOAN FUND IDEA IS INSTIGATED BY SENIORS

Commendable Movement To Help Needy Students Is on Foot

The members of the senior class have placed on foot a movement to set aside a student loan fund which, in the future, will be available to those needy students who desire to secure an education at the University.

Although this is not the first loan fund ever started at the University, it bids fair to prove the most successful. An evidence as to the success of the movement, is apparent in the readiness with which the members are signing the petitions now in circulation.

By the terms of this petition each signor agrees to make payments as follows: $5.00 one year after graduation; $5.00 two years later; $10.00 annually for four consecutive years, and for the last two years of the decade $15.00 each.

It is part of the plan to allow the student $100 a year for four years, the period of the college course. The full particulars of the plan have not been developed, as yet.

The beginning of this worthy plan now about to be carried out by the senior class owes its origin to the fact that there are now a large number of students who are working their way through school.

HIGH SCHOOLS START TOURNAMENT TODAY

Track Meet Will Be Feature on Stoll Field Saturday

Representatives from at least twenty-five high schools will take part in the annual Interscholastic Tournament May 11, 12, 13.

Preliminaries for girls in music and readings will be held in the University chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with finals tonight at 8 o'clock. Preliminaries for boys will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and finals in the evening at 8 o'clock. All arrangements are complete for the track meet which will be held on Stoll Field Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Professor D. N. Terrell and Herbert Graham will be in charge of the track meet. Entries have been received already from Bellevue High School, Stanford, Junction City, Nicholasville, and others. Louisville, Lexington, Frankfort and a number of the larger schools also will send representatives.

W. P. Tuttle, head field coach of the Blue and White, will be referee of the meet. He will be assisted by B. W. Roth, Clerk of Courses.

TWO MEN TO GET M. A. IN AG. COLLEGE

Professor J. W. Whitehouse, of the class of '14, and present head of the Animal Husbandry Department of Berea College, and Hal F. Bryant, also of the '14 class, who is now engaged as State Field Agent of West Virginia, are among those who will be given their Master's Degree in the College of Agriculture in June.

The work of Professor Whitehouse at Berea has been remarkable. Under his direction a large number of boys have made several trips in the Blue Grass Region, visiting all of the large stock farms of this vicinity. Professor Whitehouse also has charge of the large dairy at Berea and plans are being made to operate this dairy on a practical and paying basis. The poultry work under his supervision has made great advancements.

Mr. Bryant in his work in West Virginia has had excellent opportunities for coming in touch with the farmers of that State.

MISS McDANELL WAS CALLED HOME BY MOTHER'S DEATH

Miss Lavinia McDanell was called to Cincinnati Friday morning by the serious illness of her mother, who died soon after her arrival there.

Miss McDanell is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Science and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Society. It is probable that she will not return to the University, but her many friends here extend their deepest sympathy to her at this time.

KAPPA GAMMA TO GIVE TEA.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority will give an open tea on the afternoon of May 17. All students and faculty members are invited.

NOE AND GRIBBEN ARE AUTHORS OF NEW SONG

COPIES SELLING FAST

Eugene Gribben and Cecil Noe, sophomores in the College of Arts and Science, have composed and published a song in sheet music form, entitled, "Back to Zanzibar." The words are by Gribben and Brown Ransdall, a Lexington High School student. The music is by Noe. The song was introduced and featured by Floyd Thorne in the High School Minstrel last Friday night.

The contract for publishing the music was sold to the Blue Grass Music Publishing Company for a handsome sum, and the music is on sale at Kresge's Five and Ten-Cent Store. The demand for this latest song hit is strong and its success is assured.

The song is in attractive sheet music form, with a design on the back which was drawn by Gribben, who has quite a reputation as an artist as well as a musician and composer.

PURDUE STUDENTS VISIT UNIVERSITY

The students and faculty members of Purdue University, eighty in number, were in Lexington three days of this week, during which time they visited the Experiment Station and the University. In their tour of inspection they were accompanied by Professors J. J. Hooper, E. S. Good, and W. S. Anderson, of the Experiment Station faculty.

The students were favorably impressed with the University and especially with the Experiment Station and Agricultural College, which rank high among other universities. During their visit the Purdue squad visited the most important farms in Central Kentucky.

The Kernel Changes Hands.

The Kernel is fast approaching the end of its most successful year. Only one more issue remains and the 1915-16 staff has kindly consented to allow next year's management to take charge and under their direction learn some of the details of "getting the paper out."

The new editor feels that this year's forces deserve the commendation of every student and faculty member who is interested in seeing the University represented by a live publication. It has been stated often this year by those who know the newspaper business that the Kernel is one of the best college papers in the country and that all past performances have been eclipsed by the men and women who compose the staff. Every member is to be congratulated on the excellent work accomplished, but we believe that the success of the Kernel has been due more to the untiring efforts of the editor-in-chief and the managing editor than to any others. Mr. Corn and Miss Crabbe have worked faithfully and have given their time and energy without reservation to the work of bringing out the paper regularly every week. The make-up, the English, the editorial policy and the comprehensive news service the Kernel has given this year are all due primarily to the efforts of these indefatigable workers. To those who are not familiar with the difficulties of college newspaper work the accomplishments of this year are not so apparent as they are to those on the inside, but we are sure that the student body will join us in thanking every member of the staff, and in particular the two members mentioned above and the business manager.

The members of next year's staff who have been selected so far are announced this week, and the remainder will be printed next week. All those named are familiar with the workings of the newspaper and we feel that the paper and the University are fortunate in numbering among our students newspaper "men" of such calibre. It is hoped that next year's Kernel will be as successful as this year's has been.

A Source of Shame.

The Arbor Day and Tap exercises were a complete success. The weather was ideal, the attendance was large, and every part of the celebration was carried out with smoothness and precision.

The day, as a whole, would have been ideal had it not been marred by an unfortunate incident, which left a bad taste in the mouths of all students who have the good of the University at heart, although it in no way hindered nor detracted from the success of the exercises.

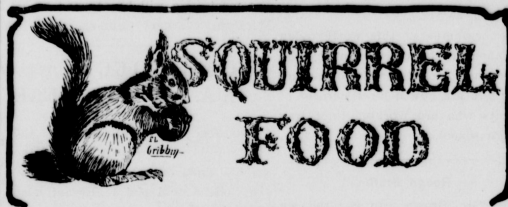

The battalion had received orders to appear in the morning for parade. When the companies were called to attention it was evident that nearly half the cadets were absent.

The absence of this large number was not a matter of chance but the result of a concerted agreement among a number of students deliberately to disobey orders on the occasion. For several days preceding Arbor Day, pledges containing an agreement for a general disregard of orders were circulated among the cadets to be signed, with the understanding that they were to be void unless signed by one hundred persons. A few signatures were gotten, but the majority of the delinquents lacked the courage to sign a paper which might be incriminating. As a result, the pledge plan was discarded and oral agreements were entered into by the in-subordinates.

The movement and the spirit that prompted it cannot be too severely condemned by every fair-minded student. It is a source of regret that such a thing could take place in the student body of the University at a time when every student activity seems to be on the upward path.

It is perhaps too radical to say that so large a body of men is entirely without sense of honor or of duty to its Alma Mater. The greater part of the absentees probably acted thoughtlessly and without consideration of the seriousness of their offense. It is fairer to place the more serious charge upon the leaders of the movement and to deprecate the fact that Kentuckians allowed themselves to follow such leadership.

Spring cometh, and the days that once were dreary
Grow balmy and the woods and fields grow gay.
And men who work grow dreamy-eyed and weary
And yearn to break away.

All heavy-eyed they sit and droop and ponder
And gaze upon the warm and hazy sky,
And yearn to quit their daily work and wander,
And stretch their arms and sigh.

But though the April sky be warm and hazy
And birds are singing all the live-long day,
The balm of Springtime never makes me lazy—
I always feel that way.

Blind Leads the Blind.

Goncher College has inaugurated a course in "love and marriage." The forty seniors admitted to the class showed an evident shyness when asked for testimonials but nevertheless the class promises to be a success. Undergraduates express skepticism over the qualifications of the instructor, Dr. Welsh, as she is a spinster.

Walk by on the Other Side, Mabel.

This spring weather is certainly hard on "pep." Two students were lounging out on the front grass and languidly smoking.

Second Stude (slow and tired-out like): "Is that so, Pete. Swell dame, huh. I'd sure like to see her. Too bad I ain't facing that way."—U. of C. News.

KENTUCKY MINERS TO MEET IN LEXINGTON

First Aid Contest Will Be Held on Stoll Field Saturday Afternoon

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Mining Institute will be held in Lexington Friday and Saturday of this week. The annual first aid contest of the society, in which teams will be entered from a number of coal corporations of the State, will be held on Stoll Field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Prominent speakers from various parts of the State will be in attendance and Ivan P. Tashof, secretary of the institute, is anticipating the largest attendance in the history of the organization. Reduced rates on all railroads will be allowed the delegates.

AG. SOCIETY

The Agricultural Society met Monday night in its last regular session of the year. Mr. Nelson, this year's editor of the Kentucky Agriculturist, gave a talk which if followed will make the paper second to none in its class. Mr. Cregor spoke of the evolution of agriculture from the Garden of Eden to the present day, also the evolution of textile from the original flax.

After this program the following officers were elected:

Editor-in-chief of Rural Kentuckian, I. C. Graddy; assist editor, Kirtley; business manager, Sutton; assistant business manager, J. E. McClure; president of Agricultural Society, Jno. P. Ricketts; vice president, B. B. McIntier; secretary, A. L. Cole; corresponding secretary, R. A. Hunt; treasurer, S. J. Stokes; sergeant-at-arms, J. E. McMurtry.

VISITING DAY AT MECHANICAL HALL

The College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering will hold the annual visiting day Friday, May 12, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. All the students and faculties of the other colleges are cordially invited to attend and inspect the work and methods.

All laboratories and shops will be in operation, enabling the visitors to secure a comprehensive idea of some of the practical work done in acquiring an education in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering. All drawing rooms and class rooms will be open for inspection, and while these may not prove as interesting as the shops and laboratories, they will be of some interest, representing some phases of the work.

An exhibit of industrial moving pictures will be given in the lecture room of the New Chemistry Building from 2:00 to 3:30 p. m. This is given primarily for the visiting high school and grammar school boys, but will be open to all visitors.

Also Dough.

"What's a stag, Clarissa?"

"A stag, dear heart, is a beast without any doe."

OUTING PLANNED FOR ENGINEERS

The faculty and the four classes in the Mechanical and Electrical Engineering College are planning a trip to High Bridge or some other point near Lexington in the near future. This will be a revival of the old custom of having an annual picnic for the engineers. The orchestra will be taken along to furnish music, and everybody who can get one will take a girl to help him dance away dull care. There will be boating, fishing, baseball and other sports.

WESTINGHOUSE.

At last Saturday's meeting of the Westinghouse Society Mr. L. K. Frankel was the principal speaker. He chose as his subject, "Gas Engines," on the plea that engines of this type were so common and so few know anything of their operation, it would prove of interest to all. The talk was illustrated by blackboard drawings and pictures.

Professor Cassidy was also present at the meeting.

UNION SOCIETY MEETS LAST TIME THIS YEAR

The Union Literary Society held its last meeting for this semester, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. There was much business of importance transacted. The secretary and treasurer made a report of the business of the year which was very satisfactory to the society. The society has adopted an entirely new plan in conducting its business and it has proved a success in every respect.

The following seniors were given certificates for attendance and service rendered to the society: H. Felix, W. D. Her, E. J. Elmer, C. R. Barker, L. H. Nelson, and Carl Zerfoss. In accordance with an established custom, juniors were selected to present the certificates to the seniors. Those chosen were as follows: C. E. Clark, J. V. Chamberlain, H. Schaber, J. T. Gooch (senior), R. C. Scott and Bart Peak.

The following officers were elected for the first semester of next year: J. V. Chamberlain, of Uniontown, president; C. E. Clark, of Owensboro, vice president; H. Schaber, of Newport, secretary; R. C. Scott, of Lexington, treasurer; J. B. Hutson, of Murray, corresponding secretary; M. C. Finney, of Frankfort, prosecuting attorney; E. E. Kelley, of Owensboro, librarian, and J. M. Robinson, of Lexington, janitor.

European Success With Nitrate

European farmers use 600 pounds to the acre of a fertilizer containing 4 1/2 per cent of available Nitrogen.

American farmers, on the average, use 200 pounds to the acre of a fertilizer containing 2 per cent of mostly unavailable Nitrogen.

The average European yield of Wheat, Oats, Potatoes, and Cotton in Egypt, is double the American yield.

The difference is due to amount of available Nitrogen applied per acre.

Lamp and Cross.

The Lamp and Cross dance in the Gymnasium, Friday evening, was a unique and enjoyable occasion. The guests of honor were the ten juniors who were tapped that morning: William Shinnick, McClarty Harbison, Curtis Park, George Gumbert, Bart Peak, George Hill, Than Rice, W. T. Radford, Oren LaMaster and Ben Mahoney.

The hosts were the active members of Lamp and Cross: W. W. Clark, J. F. Corn, H. F. Cromwell, H. D. Graham, W. J. Harris, G. McCarty, W. L. McKee, G. M. Pedley and K. P. Zeffos.

Each fraternity in the University decorated a booth in its colors, while the entire gymnasium was bright with black and gold and the emblems of Lamp and Cross.

BENTLEY YOUNG GOES TO CLEVELAND PAPER

Former University Student Leaves Lexington Herald For Ohio Journal

Bentley Young, former city and State editor of The Lexington Herald, has accepted a very attractive offer from the Cleveland Leader, one of the most powerful Republican journals of Ohio and the country, and assumed his duties on that paper last Sunday.

Mr. Young took up newspaper work while he was a student at the University, where he was enrolled in the College of Mines and Metallurgy. After completing his work here he secured a position on the Courier-Journal staff, where he worked until eight months ago when he became a member of the reportorial staff of the Herald. When P. T. Atkins, then city editor of the Herald, accepted a position on the Courier-Journal, Mr. Young was promoted to that office and his work was so satisfactory that he was recently promoted to the telegraph and State editor's desk.

Mr. Young's rise in the newspaper world has been remarkable, and his many friends in the University wish him success in his new work.

PROF. MOULTON MAKES SCIENTIFIC ADDRESS

A feature of the closing meeting at the third annual session of the Kentucky Academy of Sciences held at the Civil Engineering Building Saturday afternoon was the illustrated lecture given by Professor F. R. Moulton, of the Department of Astronomy at the University of Chicago, on "Recent Discoveries in the Sideral Universe."

The meeting was attended by over a hundred members and visitors and the lecture by Professor Moulton was declared one of the finest ever given at the University.

In addition to the program which consisted of talks and reports made by various members of the Academy, the election of officers and new members was held. The newly-elected officers were: Professor A. M. Miller, president; Professor Garnett Ryland, of Georgetown College, vice president; Alfred Peter, secretary; Professor P. P. Boyd, treasurer.

DR. TUTHILL TALKS TO LABOR FEDERATION

Dr. Edward Tuthill, of the History Department, made an address before the Blue Grass Federation of Labor last Friday night on the subject, "Bottle-smashers and the Economists." Dr. Tuthill brought out the point that the labor leader who always breaks his pop bottle with the idea that he is "making trade good" is only temporarily improving the glass trade, that the wealth of the nations is in useful articles and that to destroy useful goods is to destroy wealth.

Tomorrow evening another meeting of the Labor Federation will be held and Dr. A. S. Mackenzie, supervisor of the Friday night lectures, is to have another excellent speaker on hand.

DELEGATES ELECTED

At the regular Sunday evening service of the Y. W. C. A. the following delegates were elected to represent the association at the Blue Ridge convention to be held in June: Linda Purnell, Lelah Garret, Marie Becker, Vivian Delaine, Mildred Graham, Helen Burkholder.

SECOND GAME IS WON FOR KENTUCKY

Georgetown Again Defeated By Score of 8 to 6

PARK IS INJURED

The University of Kentucky defeated Georgetown College in their second baseball game of the season Monday afternoon at Georgetown by the score of 8 to 6. This is practically the same score that was handed out in the first game between Kentucky and Georgetown this season on Stoll Field.

Both teams gave their hurlers poor support, as six errors were made on each side.

Server started the game for Kentucky but was relieved by Grubbs in the third when he had gotten himself into a hole. Grubbs got along very nicely until the eighth, in which frame the Georgetown lads started a rally which netted them three tallies. But their disastrous fourth inning when Kentucky had piled up five tallies, was too much to overcome.

Although the game was won, Kentucky suffered a serious loss in the fifth inning. Henderson, of Georgetown, slid into Captain Curt Park's knee with his spikes and injured this valuable player to such an extent that he will be incapacitated for the rest of the season.
