a favorite with the English Julie was there her last time

I think Jim Whistler would

I may change my plan would really prefer to come back on a French

The Maître d'Hotel. He was so tired a quatre quinquante

Dear Pauline

Here are a few research items.

The Streets have been turned into one way Streets. The Rue de Rivoli all runs towards the Champs Elysees, and the Rue St. Honoré runs in the other direction towards the magasins du Louvre.

I have just walked around in the neighborhood Hav'n't done the Champs Elysees yet. There are Policemen & refugees on the Streets

But I march with the Crowd As the Black Beetles & Buses move quickly. Thank Heaven there is a goodly number of the old Red Revolvers Taxis. So that one can have a little Room. You generally have to pick your taxi at a Stand they don't seem to roam the Streets. The Pue Castiglione is good for that is the stand runs down the middle of the Street & you can get one easily an average

In the Hotel many old men are employed and also the young ones. They are cheerful France and I think that generation if there is no other war will be the gay & witty Frenchmen of yore and bring back that spirit of joie de vivre to the

Dearest Mother

As I told you opening the presents, was just like Christmas I have always thought that you chose better than I do myself. The short jacket looks as if it had been designed by a European, the necklace is what I have been looking for unsuccessfully for myself & the cupid is adorable

After two fairly peaceful though busy weeks (I enjoyed the traveling as it is a distraction) last week was not so easy.

As far as Elisabeth was concerned I took her to the Dentist on Mon. Tuesday lunching first with her. She lost her temper with me, then Wednesday Aunt Annie Borne, who has just driven in from California and had been 2 in to see Elisabeth on Monday was in a state because Elisabeth had asked her to leave after a ½ hr and seemed to be much put out by to his neglect of her person and said she was herself to old and here on a vacation to bother further. I stopped in to see Elisabeth's Doctor who said that Elisabeth was in better physical shape and ~~was~~ very much stronger than she appeared. Miss Hays asked Elisabeth & myself for lunch on at the Playa on Friday, I was much surprised when Elisabeth accepted. But then she called her up in a confused fashion & then had hysterics on Friday morning, so I went alone. Miss Hargess is³ a most compassionate & understanding woman but I told her that Elisabeth was not up nervously to selling anyone for more than half an hour. She felt so badly that she could do nothing for her. She would have given her a nurse, several times a week if G. would allow it.

She is an exceptional woman.
and so very nice to me.
She took me to the movies the new musical with Pingu. Saturday the temperature went to 68 light rain & heavy fog. We went down to Long Island. Sunday much colder and clear and we drove up to see Mingan who is doing nicely

B. gave the day nurse $1.00 for a Christmas present. G. G.?

We went to a very nice cocktail party at Mrs Hill's that friend or rather friend of Edith's step-daughter who has a lovely apartment.
I had luncheon with Alice Hall last week. Marion has not been well an operation on her knee. Gilbert comes to Toronto Canada for television broadcasts. They are trying to sell their large country place. They have not lived there in years & their tenant has gone but Alice does not look very well financial worries I guess.
Today I let Dey go to the country alone as I wanted the day to myself to rest.

You will be back from Daytona when this reaches you. I want to hear about it and also the reception at the library. Do you eat alone at the hotel? Do you play bridge at night? Kenneth Dunt is losing interest in St Augustine. What other place does he like he seems to have a flare for the picturesque. I liked New Smyrna for a place not really South.

Dearest mother
I don't seem to have any other world does time go? Another week has gone by. One day I devoted to getting my wardrobe my order dressmaker, cleaners, Shoetman, etc.

I have also been through a fantastic

I bought in 1929 and the metal coils were hitting through, plus many troughs and bumps. It is like a Comrade that springs in the middle from two days then they call for it and eventually another arrives, then comes the workers around as a rock, they they read for it to soften it. Each time the grand man has to come up and lay the things around, then it comes back harder than ever. Workers telephone conversations, now they are calling for the mattress for day and I get a credit but have to start all over and choose another one. My bed sleeping unit cold about the two coldest days of

I did not feel like drinking cocktails to pep up and make conversation Monday Alice Kelly came to the

Dear Mrs. Lockwood,

Your nice letter I received a few days ago, inviting me for lunch on November 18, I will be there at 1 o'clock, and I look forward to see you again; you, and Polly, are such wonderful persons, amazing in every respect; healthy, young, and I mean "young" at your age, friendly, kind, and lovable.

My Crickets are leaving tomorrow for MAN-O-WAR for 5 weeks (I am getting rid of them for whole 5 weeks, har, har, har !) I call them "Crickets", because they make so much noise, I think it is the right name for them.

We are a small happy family, we live in harmony, in peace and love. Boris, is the happiest man in the world with his little Cri-cri (meaning Yulinka).

I wanted to have my own apartément

Dear Mrs. Surgee,

I am so thankful to have received an answer to my last letter from Beatenberg, & know that Elizabeth was well, - though naturally very much handicap with her broken hip.

But I am distressed to learn that you were leaving New York, and breaking up your Home at Sutton Place, which I know you loved, - the older one gets the more one clings to our habits + 'souvenirs', any way that is the case with me, naturally it will also be very hard on Elysabette, and all your friends.

I have not my old check Books with me here, consequently I don't remember when I sent the last check you mention, - & for how much.

If you still have it, just mail it back to me and I'll send you a duplicate up to date, also let me know how much you must pay for Elysabette private nurse.

When the time comes that her money gives way, - then we will see what can be done.

Meanwhile don't over tax yourself health, with moving, packing and fretting to get every done in order.

With hearty best wishes.

Affectionately,
Millie Hayes

Needless to say your night letter quite surprised me. I had written several times, first some two Christmas past asking if you received the bottle of special perfume which was given me and sent on to you then my address between that and other inquiries I have never had a reply, simply a letter before you would telling me of your attention but no future address, other than Florida.

I was most fortunate in finding after much searching this lower display in which I have an equally large ^{being some} therefore the portraits are hanging in their proper place. I have changed my orders regarding the disposition of the distribution of the portraits since receiving your wire and I am certain both Mary ^{and my lawyers} will see that you inherit same after I turn up my toes.

It grieves me to note that you have been upset as you have done so many lovely things for Tante Lala and are so very sweet & kind that I feel you should at last have love and comfort.
I can well understand dispensing with the ^{seemingly} most capable and devoted Miss Cowie and she evidently clearly understood. The Home is evidently giving S. S. B. interested attention and according to word from her she is doing nicely and seemingly contented. It is sad that I cannot assist but such is my plight however I am not in debt and not suffering from having to plan according to my income. I hope your Mother has remained well and active as I know she gives you much pleasure.
And Dix do someday drop me a few happened.

Dear Pauline.

It was so nice to hear from you & at last to know where you are.

Your sunny looks delightful & the view of the sea absolutely stunning. However I can well imagine that you miss your friends as you were here & bring up in New York and the usual daily trape such old associations.

We have had the most mild winter. All my crocuses are all in the hundreds boxes and all the other bulbs are following along.

I have not yet read up the papers the whole USA seems in the grip of a gigantic ice blizzard.

We liked a nice Christmas life - Julia still works very hard but I think it keeps her young & interested. We see a lot of our old friends & occasionally go over to Paris party you have less & partly for a change of atmosphere.

We acquired last year an old mill house in the County of Dorset.
We had much furniture since, & checked it to completely furnish it.
It has been great fun arranging it. We go there for long weeks each
