

Nov. 14, 1953

Dear Jim,

I just got your letter today. so I am answering right away, but I had almost given up hope of an answer, but I forgive you, I will accept your excuse, if you will accept mine, in case I have to use one in the future.

You know I think we have one real thing in common if you are logical as you say you are I know I am. As for "no news is good news" that is true, but not when I'm waiting for a letter from you.

I'm glad you got as much of a charge out of my answers as I did writing them, it really

-2-

was real gone

I hope we really do meet someday, but as for you ever be stationed near me that's not too likely there are no Marine bases near here that I know of although they do have some Marines of over at the Charlestown Navy Base, and that's not too far from here, I know because a friend of mine goes steady with a fellow who is stationed over there. But I really would love to meet you.

When you tell me when you are leaving tell me the name of the ship, because the newspaper always gives the names of the troopship arrivals in San Francisco and that's where you probably will go, and I'll be able to know just when you arrive.

The main reason I always know when Halloween is coming is that it's Dad's birthday, so the place is usually full of relatives and stuff. I did go to a small party though not much and it broke up early, before twelve, but it wasn't too bad.

My brother is a lot he just brought me some ice-cream, want some, I'll save it for you till you come home O.K.?

He finally done the pictures for me and after seeing them I wish he didn't. The only way they look good is with the lights out and you can't see them. I look like who done what and left it. And besides that the wave I have in my hair picked them to collapse, did you ever see a sheep dog? I am trying to pick out the least miserablest one to send to you, by the way I am glad you got a pick out of the picture

I sent you with the application,
I have changed a little bit since then, and you can tell your buddies, that I am happy writing to you and I don't need any more letters, except from you.

By working you had over there, still on guard duty? Mora is on a fall cleaning spree and I guess you know, about what that is like.

The weather over here is beautiful it isn't warm, I guess you could say, brisk and the moon is shining a real pretty night.

Well if I don't stop soon I'll never finish this letter,
till I hear from you again

Love

Red.

P. S. Don't forget those pictures
you promised me, I want.

Received here
at

Air Mail

RUSH

BOSTON, MASS
NOV 15
9-PM
1953

Prof. J. J. Price 1123032
~~MTACS - 2 MACG. 2 F.M.A.W.~~
~~40 FPO San Francisco, Calif~~

1556 LINCOLN AVE
LOUISVILLE 13, KY.

RUSH

Miss Helen Storer
823 Saratoga St
East Boston 28,
Mass.

JTA
MAY 1911

RUSH

RUSH

One

Nov. 17th, 1953

Dear Jim -

I received your letter today and I was surprised to hear from you so soon. The mail service sure is swell!

Speaking of your handwriting - gosh it is not so bad. I'll never forget how Joey fooled me! We'd been going together about 2 weeks and he wrote me a letter. I'd never seen such a beautiful

(over)

Dave

handwriting! And from them his handwriting has been atrocious!!! Honestly Jim,
I guess he was just trying to impress me but my God, was I shocked. (By the way, even your handwritings resemble each other!) ha! ha!

Joe's up for Sgt. now. Sure hope he makes it. He's conducting his own classes in radio now and from what I hear, he's quite (over)

three good. Gee, it's nice to have one "brain" in the family!!

I guess you know by now that Betty (Mrs.) Reader had her baby. It's a 6 lb. 5 oz.
girl, born Sunday morn. (5:15 am)

the 15th of November and they're calling it Cindy Marie. (I heard that for the facts?)

It seems that this is the season for babies, but so far, Jay and I have (over)

~~Power~~ not had such good luck. I feel like I can speak this way to you, Jim, because I considered you the big brother I never had.
(Mom lost him in an auto accident; I don't think she or Dad ever got over it.)

I surely hope you do make it home for Christmas; that would be the best present ever for Janie, your Mom and you, too! If you do you can be sure, we'll blow
(over)

Five a few tubes come
New Year's, huh???

I'm fixing "goulash" for supper tonight. You know, hamburger, green pepper, onion, tomatoes and macaroni in casserole form! Good cook, huh? No kidding though,
I want you and Janie up to supper after!

By the way tomorrow
is our anniversary! 4 months. Marriage is a funny thing - sometimes it (over)

It seems like 6 months is quite a long time but mostly it seemed like it's been forever because you can't realize life without your "partner". The things I've done, the people in my hair, everything seemed to be in another world.

Don, you'll love it and I'll be the proudest matron (also) of honor ever when you and Jamie get married!!

I believe I did mention that you wouldn't (over)

~~James~~ know me, didn't R? Hair short - brown - and Q lose it!

Speaking of hair, Guy as I guess you didn't know, is quite sparse on the top of his head. That's a result of wearing the helmet over there (hope it doesn't happen to you!)

He's now using "Lucky Piglet" and his hair is getting thicker and he's so proud! Bless his heart! I know you'll (only) right like each other!

Guess I'd better go -
my hand is about to fall off! Be good and stay sweet and Jay and I will
"see you soon, if not sooner!"

Love,
Eddie
K

839 South 234 St.
Louisville, Kentucky

1556 LINCOLN AVE
LOUISVILLE, KY

WR
WR

C/o J. J. Price 1123032

~~MTACS-2 MACG-2 FMAW~~

40 F.O.D.

San Francisco, California

22nd June, 1953.

Dearest Jimmy,

I recieved your most sweet letter the other day and I'm very very glad to hear from you, I had not working in the Village Bar, because there is no place a girl like me, I'm just keeping home every day, there is not much to do, so I'm thinking about you all the time. When I seting in a room alone Your picture smile to me from on a table near my bed, and some time I feel it like talk to me some thing.

Well, Jimmy, If you can come back to Japan very soon, please Let me know by letter before you come back , or elce I can't see you, maybe I'll go to see you at station, or Village Bar. which you like.

I think I'll close for now.

Love

Miss Nakayama

P. S.

I set you two bottle of whiskey few days ago, and if you want more whiskey please send me money you know I'm broken now. Send me another picture of yours.

Misae Nakayama.
333, 4-chome, Motomachi,
Naniwaku, Osaka, Japan.

VIA AIR

Cpl. Jesse J. Price

MTACS-2 MACG-2 FMAW

c/o FPO San Francisco, Calif.

