Dear Carolyn,

If you have in the library Walker Percy's new novel
The Last Gentleman - look at pages 26-28, a very funny comment on museums. Victor might enjoy it though it might be hard to get into its crazy style without an introduction. A good book. I have been meaning to write but have bruises in the elbow & my back is still sore? don't write much yet. How are you both? How is Victor?

I think of you often, maybe we can get together later in the Summer.

My very best wishes + blessing to you both.
