Rebecca Boone, a pioneer and fitting helpmate for Daniel Boone who carved out a portion of the wilderness of Kentucky and made a home here. Born in Pennsylvania in 1736, Rebecca married Daniel in 1776. They moved to North Carolina, but the urge to explore the frontier caught the young husband, and he went west while Rebecca waited at home.

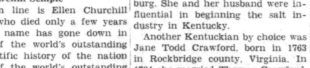

Mrs. William Coomes was a pioneer immigrant from Maryland, and settled with her husband in Fort Harrod, there, in 1775, she became the teacher of the Dame school, the first in Kentucky. A replica of that school with its earth floor, split log benches, and open fireplace may now be seen at the old fort of Harrodsburg. She and her husband were influential in beginning the salt industry in Kentucky.

Mrs. Mary Ann Gentry, a pioneer who married Thomas Crawford, born in 1762 in Rockbridge county, Virginia. In 1784 she married Thomas Crawford, on a horseback from Green county to Danville to have an ovarian tumor removed. This operation, the first performed in this country, was successful.

Mrs. Elizabeth Semple, a pioneer who died only a few years after her name has gone down in the annals of the world's outstanding scientists. Her husband was one of the world's outstanding scientists, the first to use the scientific method of the nation as one of the world's outstanding geographers. Models and reconstructions were based on this Louisville woman, one of the most famous of the country's pioneer women.

Mrs. Anna DeBerma, a pioneer who spent her time in the garden. Her husband was a pioneer in the field of geology. Her garden was one of the world's outstanding gardens. Models and reconstructions were based on this Louisville woman, one of the most famous of the country's pioneer women.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, a pioneer who hatched swinging Carrietta Moore Nation. She was a pioneer in the field of geology. Her garden was one of the world's outstanding gardens. Models and reconstructions were based on this Louisville woman, one of the most famous of the country's pioneer women.

The Fever Is Upon Us! Spring Blitz Begins In Balkans

As German troops moved into Yugoslavia and Greece this week-end, news from the Balkans became more goss than fact.

Direct communication with Berlin, Rome, Belgrade, Sofia, Budapest and other capitals was shut off and the only sources of information were short wave radio broadcasts from German propaganda stations and sketchy dispatches from Greece and Yugoslavia.

Only concrete news was that Belgrade, Yugoslavia's capital, had been heavily bombed three times Sunday and that the Yugoslavian and Greek troops, aided by British units, had made initial contact with the advancing Nazis.

Similar to the air demolition of Warsaw, the bombing of Belgrade was carried out by scores of German bombers and was not confined to military targets, dispatches said.

During the raid, Yugoslavian civilians stood in the streets and watched the planes and the bombing and cheered "We will win." The German radio said fires in Belgrade were "blazing beyond control."

In the land battles beyond the Yugoslavian and Greek northern frontiers, British troops were reported fighting side by side with the Balkan defenders. Nazi sources said their blitzkrieg units were advancing steadily along all fronts.

Greek dispatches insisted the Germans were being thrown back. Prediction of best military observers is that the Nazi mechanized units will sweep through the lowlands along Yugoslavia's northern border but will see a war of attrition when they reach the Yugoslav mountains.

According to Nazi foreign minister Von Ribbentrop, the invasion was caused by Britain's attempt to create another theater of war in the Balkans.

America's Secretary of State Hull thundered "Barbarous act" at the German government Sunday and promised United States supplies and arms to the defenders.

MUSICAL MUTTERINGS

Plains for a dance set here at UK next year are under consideration by the student body.

The King Sisters, featured with Alvinio Rey, were the first to play in the new version of Precipitately, better known as the Lullaby. The girls really give us the harmony.

Benno Goodman features trumpet-erootie Williams on another tune that is making the rounds these days. Oh Look At Me Now.

Reverse is an old honey Carmichael favorite. Lazy River, the goodie-hummers is working together much better now than it was a few weeks back.

While on the subject of Tommy Dorsey, we must again give the honors for the best record of the week.

Stacy plays fine piano and Mary Agnes Zebars, trained by Cliff Tuttle Zeta Psi Alpha probably will place Alpha Barnard at the post.

Tommy also gives us, in his rare hot trombone solos, and the five man sax section plays in a quite mellow manner.

Woody Herman sings the excellent lyrics on Everything Happens To Me, another T. Dorsey specialty.

This Is Where We Came In

As the students in the khaki suits crept forward in irregular lines they giggled and whispered things to each other.

Then, as they lay on the sides of Richmond road, the sunlight was warm and they felt content juggling the blank cartridges and working the bolts of their rifles.

Twenty-five years ago, things at the University were much as they are today.

Today it seems almost tragic that the students of 1916 should go on, quibbling over Hell Woods, yelling at basketball games, passing student loan bills, sitting under trees on the campus and arguing over class officers, while every minute the country was sinking deeper and deeper into an international mess that would not end until 21 of them were killed and many others wounded.

But still they went on. MOTION PICTURES FOR ENGINEERS

The use of motion pictures for the study of industrial engineering was started in the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering this week.

TWO SENIORS SECURE POSITIONS

"Pete" Moore and a legion of workers are busy now most of the time on the new baseball diamond getting it in readiness for the Michigan game Saturday afternoon.

KIPA TO HOLD CONVENTION

"First master your calling," said the speaker, "second be a lawyer, engineer, chemist, physician or KIPU; third, be true to yourself and it will follow that you can be false to no man."

All that is needed is a little push and dash by a Kentuckian" was the difficult question that was put to the KIPU representative, and he set out to find an answer.

The "chain of events" kept on building up, link by link. May 25, The British Military Bill, calling up of conscripted men from 18 to 41 years of age, became a law.

Class spirit of the right sort will be certain to result in better college spirit. Only a few years back the class games—football, basketball, and baseball—were hardly second in importance to the varsity games.

Meanwhile the war spirit was sweeping the nation.

NEW ORDER MAY AFFECT U.K. CADETS

A general order of the War Department has been received by President Barkley, outlining the Reserve Officers Training Corps act recently passed by Congress.

And the war came and the University men and women fought it with the feeling they were saving democracy.

And then we do the same thing again. B. A.

Cat Thinsies Prep For Hanover Meet

Aided by a sunny afternoon, Coach Joe Rupert put his track squad through their first lengthy workout Monday in preparation for their bid racer with Hanover Saturday afternoon on Stoll Field.

Faced with the problem of building a team almost wrecked by graduation and members dropping out of school, Rupert is optimistic concerning the team's six game schedule.

Under the direction of former U. K. trackman Paul Durbin, and Captain John Montgomery, some of the squad have been working out since the last week in February. Rupert has been busy with the football team prior to this week.

The closing of spring football has released several men for track work. Clark Wood, Allen Parr, Carl Althaus, Clyde Johnson, and George Schlegel are expected to report.

The greatest gap to be filled will be that in the high hurdle class. Bobby Scholtz, who has joined the air corps, was the cat hurdler last year. Rupert hopes that Mel Brewer or Carl Althaus will be able to replace Scholtz.

Express carriers in the United States began operations on a commercial basis as early as 1839.

CATS SHARPEN FANGS FOR TECH

Two Titts Slated With Jackets Here

Sharing the athletic spotlight this week with the track team, the University baseball nine is preparing for their two-game meet Friday and Saturday with a tough Georgia Tech crew.

Admitting that his squad was in poor shape for their scheduled game Saturday with Illinois college, Coach Moseley concedes his team a good chance of beating Tech in one of the games.

For the first time this season Moseley found his squad in full strength when he opened practice Monday. With the closing of spring football Phil Cutchin, Noah Mullins, and Bob Montgomery were able to join the team. Freshmen and other candidates also received their first workouts yesterday.

Moseley hopes to round his team into pretty good shape this week if the weather is favorable. Warmer weather and longer practice sessions should help the team in reaching top form, he believes.

Georgia Tech is reported to have a strong team this year. In their first game last Friday they mauled Tennessee 9-4 behind the 4-11 pitching of Plato Oliver. Saturday the Jackets again defeated the Volunteers.

Big guns in the Tech attack are Johnny Bosch, of football fame, Bill Hears and Howard Burpo, pitcher, who accounted for six of Tech's nine runs and five of the nine hits.

Research chemists at Kansas State college are raising cattle on a diet which substitutes powdered limestone for alfalfa.

Several bright and shining lights penetrated the gloomy weather that cloaked Stoll field Saturday. Although the elements conspired to hamper the boys and put the damper on the K-Club's hopes of using black ink for their entry of April 5, there was enough optimism left some place to feel that maybe 1941 won't deal too harshly with the Wildcats.

One of the reasons for the chamber of commerce viewpoint is the array of backfield material that Kirwan has on tap, and in particular, Mr. Crutchin's boy, Phillip. Pardon us while we gloat, but when a guy can stand on his own goal line and put a pigskin 92 yards away through the medium of his pedal extremity, then, brother, we think we have a right to gloat, boast, or float, the final decision depending upon the condition of our digestive apparatus, Shades of Kercheval! And in the words of one of the linemen racking down after the ball, quote: "I thought the damn thing never was coming down."

Backfield Dynamite

Besides Cutchin, who also can pass and run in no mean fashion, the Wildcat backfield will have potential dynamite in newcomers Tom Zinn, Charley Kuhn, Bill Kincaid, and Jack Farris, in addition to veterans, Noah Mullins, Claude Hammond, Bob Herbert, Junior Jones, and Ernal Allen. None of these had a real chance to show any stuff Saturday, but as they say down in the pool room, the stuff's there.

Jones, who has been switched from blocking back to a running job, did well enough to show that he can be a good running back. Bill Kincaid was impressive in his role of fullback. If Charley Kuhn and Bill Kessinger come up to expectations, the Kentucky backfield should be one of the best in the conference next year.

The Wildcat line probably will be the pivot upon which the Kentucky fortunes will turn next year. Parr, Althaus, Portwood, and Eblen should make the Wildcat flanks fairly secure and at the same time make themselves dangerous as pass receivers.

Big Clyde Johnson will fill John Eibner's place successfully at one of the tackles; Johnson played a very good defensive game Saturday. Clark Wood will probably occupy the niche on the other side. Charley Schifter, the best of the reserve tackles, will understudy one or the other.

Tough Guards

Jack Casner and Bob Beeler will take over the stand formerly occupied by Ike Willoughby and Bob Palmer. Both boys turned in creditable performances Saturday and if they continue their winning ways, our guards will be tough next year.

Kirwan will have little difficulty at the center slot. Sam Huette has had almost two years of varsity experience and Mel French is no rookie. Charley Bill Walker will complete the trio of centers Kirwan will have available next fall.

The Wildcats still fumble frequently with the bobbles coming at the most inopportune times. The blocking was shoddy Saturday but this may be attributed to the muddy going.

Dribbles

By HAROLD WINN

Abe Simon, the big man who was right in there for 13 rounds with Joe Louis last Friday, was somewhat upset when he learned that John L. Sullivan wore a one inch larger collar than he. You've only stuck your neck out once, Mr. Simon. It needs exercise.

Wildcat fans will remember Bernice Melton, the then in Kentucky's basketball side for the last two years. His teammates remembered him also and elected the "now you see it, now you don't" Tennessee forward their captain for 1942.

They may be the least of the sports fans, but they have to be darned near perfect for Uncle Sam to want them. Gregory Rice, great distance runner and former Notre Dame athlete, was declared unfit for military service. Other stars to miss the bugle call are Hank Greenberg of the Detroit Tigers—flat feet, and Morris Aronovich, Giant outfielder, bad teeth.

Tennessee's football coach, Major Bob Neyland, has been telling his friends that he wouldn't be surprised if he were called into active army service. Well, if he is, we wouldn't be surprised to see them try to move the school with him.

Rock-a-bye babies
In the league top.
But all depends
On McCarthy's flock.
For if pitching is prime,
The Indians will fall.
Down will come Tribe.
Feller and all.
Says Billy Conn, a coming stop in Joe Louis' "sock" of-the-month parade, "If he hits me, I'll just come up smiling." Sorta leading with your grin, huh?

Andy Kerr, Colgate's wily football coach, says that the coaches should be allowed on the field to call the plays. With the coaches using every method but Western Union boys, guess they might as well.

Undergraduates of today are seemingly tougher in their thinking and certainly less sentimental than were their older brothers, they say. Remersy B. Ogilvie, president of Trinity college.

Over 100 Books Added To Library

More than 100 books were added to the University library during the month of March, 90 of which were placed in the reference room, five in the browsing room, one in the periodicals stacks, and 11 in the rental collection.

Outstanding in the new rental collection are Irvin S. Cobb's "Exit Laughing," Upton Sinclair's "Between Two Worlds," Phyllis Bottemo's "Mansion House of Liberty," and Marcus Goodrich's "Delliah."

Picadome Golf Tickets On Sale At Phys Ed Office

Tickets for the Picadome Golf course may be obtained again at reduced price by University students and faculty members from the physical education department, Prof. M. E. Potter, head of the department, announced yesterday.

Priced at 35 cents each or three for $1, tickets will be good for any day except Saturday, Sunday, or holidays, Professor Potter said.

Approximately 1,000 tickets were purchased from the physical education department in a similar sale last year, according to a recent tabulation.

GOLF TOURNEY TO OPEN SEASON

Ten Matches Slated For UK Lynxmen

The Southeastern conference golf tourney and the Southern intercollegiate championship all rolled into one affair, will be the initial 1942 testing ground for the Wildcat linksmen.

The University of Georgia at Athens will play host to this twin meet, April 10-12. The tourney will start the Wildcats off on a series of 10 matches, the longest schedule ever planned for a University link team.

Although basketball, football, and bad weather have combined to keep the boys off the practice tee, Coach S. A. (Daddy) Boles' charges are at last beginning to get their swings in the groove.

Ramsey Reports

Lloyd Ramsey, winner of the Lexington city championship for the past two years and member of the 1940 golf squad, terminated basketball practice last week, and is now concentrating on mashie wielding.

Ernal Allen, also a top contender for the team. Made Farris, last year's No. 3 man; Granville Clark, member of the 1940 contingent and runner in the TVA golf tournament last year; Doc Bennett, senior from Bardonia and carry-over from last year's team, and Carlisle Myers, whose basketball knee injury left him free to concentrate on golf, are battling for berths.

This season's schedule is as follows:

- April 10-12—SEC tournament at Athens, Ga.
- April 25—Cincinnati, here.
- April 26—Miami State, here.
- April 28—Western, at Bowling Green.
- May 1—Western, here.
- May 2—Western, here.
- May 6—Miami university, at Oxford, O.
- May 10—Miami, at Cincinnati.
- May 11—Georgia Tech, at Atlanta.
- May 17—Miami, here.
