

William R. Meade
This Churn
designed by
William R. Meade
Third Bishop of Lexington and built under his direction.
The first service was held Easter Sunday, the year of our Lord 1969
Designed by

O how amiable are thy duties thou Lord of hosts, my God, desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord; my heart with rejoice in the living God the sparrow hath found her an and the swallow a rest, when she when young, even thy altar O Lord, my King and my God, what dwell in thy house always praising thee. Bless whose strength is in thee that are thy ways, who go O Lord, use it for a we one filled with water from strength to strength to the God of gods one of them in Zion hear my prayer, O