JULIAN M. CARROLL

Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky

JULIAN MORTON CARROLL became Kentucky's 58th governor on December 28, 1974, succeeding Wendell H. Ford, who was elected to the U. S. Senate. Carroll then won a full four-year term in the 1975 general election. Born in McCracken County in 1931, he attended Paducah Junior College after graduating from Heath High School. He was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1954 and received his law degree from UK in 1956. Before becoming governor, Carroll served three years as lieutenant governor and ten years as a member of the Kentucky House of Representatives. He is an active member of the Optimist Club and a former Jaycee. He attained the highest office in Kentucky for laymen of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1966-67 when he was named moderator of the Kentucky Synod. The Governor and his wife, Charlann, have four children.

H. FOSTER PETTIT

Mayor
Lexington-Fayette
Urban County Government

H. FOSTER PETTIT served two years as mayor of the City of Lexington and was a leader in the consolidation of the city and county governments. He was elected mayor of the Urban County Government in November 1973.

President of the Kentucky Municipal League for 1976, Mayor Pettit is also active with the U. S. Conference of Mayors and the National League of Cities. He was awarded the Optimist Cup in 1976 and the Chamber of Commerce Citizen-of-the-Year citation for 1975.

As chief executive of the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government, the mayor is authorized to supervise, administer and control all departments of government.

The mayor is elected on a non-partisan basis every four years. He is responsible for the proper administration of all services of the government. He is assisted principally by the Chief Administrative Officer and commissioners of the six departments.

A native of Lexington, he is an attorney who served three terms as a state representative. He resides on Richmond Road with his wife, Marion, and four sons.

University of Kentucky President

Cliff Hagan
Director of Athletics

"I've been preparing for this all my life," CLIFF HAGAN said before taking over as athletics director at the University of Kentucky in 1975. Hagan succeeded Harry Lancaster as director after serving as assistant director for three years.

Hagan's path to the athletics directorship began in Owensboro, Kentucky, where he established a then state high school tournament record of 41 points in leading Owensboro to victory over Lafayette in the championship game of the 1949 state high school tournament.

At UK, he played on teams that won 86 of 91 games and an NCAA championship (1951). The 1954 team, undefeated in 25 games, elected not to participate in the national tournament.

Now in his eighth year as president of the University of Kentucky, DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY is a Mississippian whose route to the Bluegrass State curled through Louisiana, Texas, North Carolina and Washington, D. C.

He came to Lexington from a position as University of Texas vice-chancellor for academic affairs. Previously, in Washington, he had been director of the U. S. Job Corps in the early stages of its development before moving to the American Council on Education as vice-president. He had gone to the capital in 1964 after three years as chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The UNC appointment terminated Dr. Singletary's first association with the University of Texas, this a seven-year stay that saw him, as a young historian, rise rapidly in rank from instructor to full professor and begin the shift to administrative work, first as associate dean and later as assistant to the president.

The Kentucky president, and his wife—the former Gloria Walton, met when both were students at Millsaps College. He later earned master's and doctoral degrees at Louisiana State. The Singletarys have two daughters, Bonnie and Kendall, and a son, Scott.

Joe B. Hall

*University of Kentucky Wildcats
Head Basketball Coach*

JOE B. HALL'S record as Wildcat head coach for the past four years stands at 79-36. During the 1976 season his team won the National Invitational Tournament and ended the year with a 20-10 record.

Hall became No. 1 varsity assistant and head freshman Coach to Rupp after Harry C. Lancaster was named permanent athletic director Feb. 1, 1969. His record with the freshmen was 60-15, including an undefeated (22-0) season (1971-72) which resulted in the Kittens being crowned National Freshman Champions by the Basketball News.

During his first season as head coach, the Wildcats won their last nine conference games to sew up the SEC title.

His ten-year coaching record is 155-92. Broken down, it shows a 57-50 five-year mark at Regis, a 19-6 record at Central Missouri, and a 79-36 four-year record at Kentucky.

A popular personality on the clinic and convention circuits, Hall also has had much international exposure. In addition to the Globetrotters tour in 1951, and the "Down Under" tour in 1974, he has helped conduct basketball clinics for the U.S. Army in Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska (1968) and at Ramstein Air Base in Frankfurt, Germany and the RAF Base at Mildenhall, England in 1975. He also was Olympic Trials coach under Hank Iba at the Air Force Academy in July 1972 and is a member of the 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

Coaching Assistants

DICK PARSONS

DICK PARSONS, in his fifth year as Joe B. Hall's No. 1 assistant, returned to the University as baseball coach in 1969. Before giving up his position to join basketball on a full time basis, he molded a team (1971) which established or tied 15 school records.

LEONARD HAMILTON

Much of Kentucky's defensive prowess on the court can be credited to the talent of LEONARD HAMILTON, a third year assistant, who came to UK after three years as an assistant at Austin Peay State University.

JIM LONG

A native of Detroit, Michigan JIM LONG joined the UK staff last year as junior varsity coach and scout. In addition to his coaching duties, Long lends his talents to recruiting, scouting and directing UK's summer basketball camp.

ROY DON WILSON
Trainer

Entering his seventh year at UK is ROY DON WILSON, who came to the University after serving two years as trainer at The Citadel. A native of Texas, he is a graduate of Amon Carter Riverside High in Fort Worth. He received his B.S. degree from Texas A & M with a major in physical education and a minor in business. He is married to the former Patricia Jane Cotter of Houston. They have a son and a daughter.

WALT McCOMBS
Trainer

Returning to UK after a three-year absence during which he served in a similar capacity at Clemson University is WALT McCOMBS. Assigned primarily to basketball, McCombs also works with Wilson on the football field. A native of Belton, S. C., McCombs is a graduate of Parker High School and a 1971 graduate of The Citadel, where he was student trainer for four years. He was assistant trainer at UK in 1972 and '73. He is married to the former Shelby Burriss of Belton.

Transfer—will sit out year.

There's nothing wrong with a little materialism.

We'll admit it. One of the selling features of Army ROTC is just plain cold cash . . . nearly $2000 during your junior and senior years of college. There's also the opportunity for full-tuition scholarships. And a $10,000 a year salary as an Army officer when you graduate.

But we've got other good things to offer you, too. College courses which challenge you both mentally and physically. Management training and experience you'll find valuable in civilian as well as military jobs. And instant leadership responsibility in your first job after college.

If any of this interests you, check out Army ROTC. And even if you enroll just for the money, you'll graduate with something worth a lot more . . . gold bars of an Army officer.

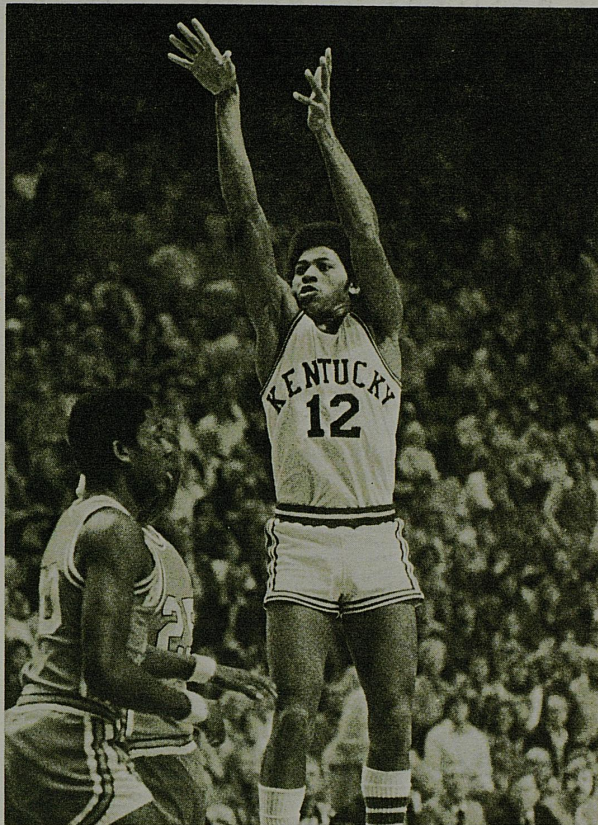

ARMY ROTC. LEARN WHAT IT TAKES TO LEAD.

Rumpelstiltskin

"Rumpelstiltskin," a delightful contemporary opera adapted from the well-known German folktale, will be premiered Jan. 21-23 at the Lexington Opera House.

Presented by the University of Kentucky School of Music, the music for the two-act opera was written by Joseph Baber of the UK music faculty and libretto is by John Gardner, professor of English at Southern Illinois University.

The opera is a collaboration of the UK Opera Workshop, directed by Phyllis Jenness, and the UK Orchestra, conducted by Phillip Miller. Horace Kelley, director of the Stephen Foster Story, is responsible for stage and technical direction.

"Rumpelstiltskin is a bit sophisticated for children, despite the nature of the story," Miss Jenness said. "Musically, it is somewhere between an opera and musical comedy and full of delightful, singable tunes."

The German story tells how the gnome, Rumpelstiltskin, threatens to take the first-born child of Aurolia, the miller's daughter, if she cannot guess his name.

In addition, the opera cast includes the royal family, their courtiers and knights, the villagers, and even a dancing bear.

Performances for the opera are set for 8 p.m. on Friday and Sunday, Jan. 21 and 23, and 2 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 22. Tickets are $3.00 for the floor and first balcony, $2.00 for the second balcony, and $1.00 for UK students with ID cards, and children. All seats are reserved.

For further information concerning tickets, telephone (606) 258-4900.

Mail orders are now being accepted. Make checks payable to the University of Kentucky and mail to Rumpelstiltskin Tickets, 300 Rose Lane, Lexington (40506).

*The Wildcats Lost
To Georgia 86-81
February 9, 1976
In Athens*

The last time the Wildcats faced the University of Georgia Bulldogs was February 9, 1976 in Athens. The Cats came away on the losing end of an 86-81 decision.

The Wildcats connected on only 11 of 23 attempts at the foul line, missing a potential four points in the last 3:50. Kentucky still had a 79-75 advantage when Mike Phillips failed to connect on two free throws after being fouled by Georgia's Lucius Foster.

Seconds later, Larry Johnson missed two from the foul line and Georgia put in six straight points for the win.

It was Georgia's first win over the Cats in nine tries.

Senior Reggie Warford totaled 15 points in addition to getting four assists. Mike Phillips gathered 18 points while controlling both boards and James Lee had 12 points to go with his 12 rebounds.

Georgia's Jack Dorsey put in 24 points despite a sore leg to become the Bulldogs seventh all-time leading scorer.

The Wildcats dropped three games during that road trip—to Tennessee, Georgia and Vanderbilt.

In the series of games between the two schools UK leads 54-9 since 1921. UK's biggest win margin was 77 points (143-66) in '56. Georgia's largest margin—11 points (71-60) in '50. In Lexington Georgia has won one and lost 25. In Athens, UK has won 16 and lost 6. Coach Hall's record against the Bulldogs is 7-1.

Cawood REFLECTS

(PUBLISHER'S NOTE: The Popular "Voice of the Wildcats", CAWOOD LEDFORD, is in his 24th season as play-by-play announcer for the University of Kentucky. Cawood, sports director for WHAS radio and television since 1958, has been broadcasting since 1951. He is recognized as a sports authority throughout the nation.

This column will appear in each Wildcat Tipoff this season, as "Cawood Reflects" on Wildcat basketball.)

CAWOOD
LEDFORD

"Kentucky's home floor winning streak started against Ft. Knox on January 4, 1943, following a loss to Ohio State two nights earlier. Before Georgia Tech snapped the string the Wildcats had posted a national record 129 consecutive victories. All told since the Ohio State loss, the Wildcats have won 396 and lost only 39 at home. Since Memorial Coliseum became the home floor at the start of the 1950-51 season the record is 312-39. In Rupp Arena the record is 4-1.

Since the Wildcat record dated back over twelve years most of the people who came to the Georgia Tech game on January 8, 1955, had never seen them lose. They might have heard them lose on the radio—didn't have television then to any great extent.

Georgia Tech came in here to play and I remember that I sat around that afternoon looking up a lot of things on subs that hadn't played much because I was sure they'd get into the ballgame early. As it happened Georgia Tech intercepted a pass right at the end of the game, drove down, made the basket a layup and won by one point and at the end of the game it must have been a full minute before a single soul moved from his seat. They sat there in absolutely stunned silence. They could not believe it.

WALTER DANIELS—15

WALTER DANIELS established himself as one of the top guards in the SEC in his freshman year. Named to the All-SEC Freshman Team last year Daniels averaged 15 points per game and handed out 81 assists in his initial season. He also totaled 404 points in his freshman year—good enough to rank him in the top 20 among all-time Bulldog scoring leaders for points in one season. He became the team leader almost immediately and effectively directed the Bulldog offense.

LUCIUS FOSTER—42

LUCIUS FOSTER started all 27 games for Georgia last season in the pivot. He averaged 12.6 points and 8.1 rebounds and set a school record for the most blocked shots in one game (9 vs. Ole Miss.). Foster had a single game high of 31 points against Oregon in the consolation game of the 1976 Indiana Classic at Bloomington and was the only non-Indiana player named to the Indiana Classic five man All-Tournament Team.

Head Basketball Coach

In his fourth year as head coach of the Bulldogs, JOHN GUTHRIE has sparked enthusiasm for Georgia basketball among students and townspeople as well.

Guthrie, 36, worked as a Bulldog assistant four seasons and became one of the most well-liked and most respected men in Georgia athletics. His popularity among high school coaches and players throughout the state of Georgia is testament to his youthful zeal.

The close rapport and respect between him and his players is evident both on and off the court.

Born July 9, 1940, Guthrie has been associated with athletics for most of his life, either as a player or coach.

Director

RUSSELL RICE was named sports information director at UK in May, 1969, after serving two years as assistant to Ken Kuhn, who retired after more than two decades of service with the University. Rice came to the Wildcats from The Lexington Leader, where he was a general reporter eight years and sports editor five years. A native of Paintsville, Ky., he won letters in football, basketball and baseball at Van Lear High. After serving with the U. S. Marines in World War II, he attended Kentucky Wesleyan College and received his bachelor's at the University of Kentucky in 1951. He has served as manager of the NCAA Mid-East Basketball Tournament (1968), president of the Southeastern Conference Sports Information Directors Association and chairman of the Basketball Hall of Fame Committee of the College Sports Information Directors Association and was recipient of the 1971 Churchmen's "Sportswriters of the Year" award.

Rupp Arena - New Lair For The Wildcats

"The Coliseum is giving way to progress and a growing fan interest in Kentucky basketball," said Joe Hall, "I played in old Alumni Gymnasium and spent 11 years in Memorial Coliseum as an assistant and then head coach and I am looking forward to an exciting future that awaits us at the Civic Center."

"There will never be another Memorial Coliseum . . . there will never be another Alumni Gym . . . but hopeful, we will have the Kentucky spirit and exciting basketball in the brand new 23,000 seat Rupp Arena."

Lower seating and concourse plan, High Street elevation. All public facilities serving Rupp Arena are located on this concourse. This includes restrooms, telephones, first aid station, drinking fountains, and refreshment stands.

Arena Information

FIRST AID

The University of Kentucky and the Lexington Center provide for your convenience and welfare, a First Aid Station on the Purple Concourse. Persons with any type of chronic medical problem are requested to leave their name and seat location with the nurse on duty at the First Aid Station. A person in need of assistance with a health emergency should report the situation immediately to an usher. Doctors on call and other individuals who might expect an emergency call are requested to leave their name and seat location at the will call window of the box office prior to entering Rupp Arena. In the event of an emergency, you will be notified at your seat. In order that the activities and program in Rupp Arena not be disrupted, paging over the public address system is not possible.

CARDIAC CARE

In cooperation with the University Medical Service, the University of Kentucky provides a cardiac resuscitation program at all UK basketball games.

LOST AND FOUND

Lost and found articles should be reported or turned in to an usher or a security officer. You may wish to write to the director of arena security and describe lost articles which will be returned if found.

NO HORNS

Horns are not permitted in Rupp Arena and will be picked up at the entrances. Be considerate and allow your neighbor to enjoy the game. Keep portable radios at a low volume.

U. K. Student Code of Sportsmanship

We, the students of the University of Kentucky, having an abiding faith in the value of intercollegiate athletics as an instrument in promoting friendly relations among universities, do adopt this code of sportsmanship:

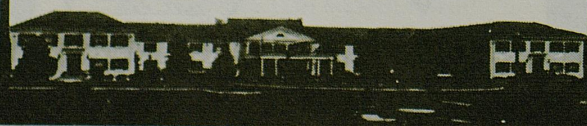

- (1) Winning or losing, an athletic team of the University of Kentucky will have our continued and wholehearted support.
- (2) We expect our teams to measure up to the highest ideals in sportsmanship, and we pledge that our conduct shall be equally praiseworthy.
- (3) The visiting team and coaches, and the officials are our guests. As such, they deserve our respect, courtesy and hospitality.
- (4) We shall always abide by the regulations of the University governing the use of the athletic facilities.
- (5) Bearing in mind the rich athletic traditions of the University of Kentucky, we pledge ourselves to a standard of conduct which will uphold and expand this tradition for the future.
- (6) We call upon all who join us in the support of the University of Kentucky athletic teams to join us likewise in support of this code.

Maybe you didn't know that Ashland is more than an oil company . . .

We're America's leading independent refiner and marketer of petroleum products. We have seven modern refineries with a combined crude oil processing capacity of approximately 400,000 barrels a day . . .

We're a chemical industry leader; we operate chemical and mineral product manufacturing and distribution facilities in 28 states and 13 foreign countries . . .

We're the world's largest highway paver, a versatile construction company and a builder of offshore drilling platforms and drill ships . . .

We're one of the top 10 coal producers in the nation with interests in Alabama, Illinois, Wyoming, Kentucky, Tennessee and West Virginia . . .

. . . but you should.

Ashland Oil, Inc.

Ashland Oil . . . Kentucky's largest corporation, with sales in excess of $4 billion.
