Dear Carolyn.

Now that the snows and is cold, I think with pleasure of our meeting last week + the little fire in the room. It was most enjoyable.

Here are a few books I have seen well reviewed - esp in the Saturday Review. If you have, or get, them, I would enjoy reading them.

- on ord Benjamin DeMott - Hells and Benefits
- on ord Dwight Macdonald - Against the American Grain.
- 10-2-62 + 7.31.62 } Alped Kazin - Contemporaries (809 K189)
- 2 C being cat } ~~Mary McCarty - on the contrary. not~~
- 041 } ~~Mary McCarty - on the contrary. not~~
- 1961 } ~~Mary McCarty - on the contrary. not~~
- on ord. Ottiero Ottieri - The Men at the Gate.
- on ord. John Strachey - The Strangled Cry.
- Have in box 4 on ord. - Heydecker and Keel - The Nuremberg Trial
- on ord. C. Wighton - Heydecker.
- on ord E.B. White - The Points of my Compass.

That is quite a list - of course I don't expect to see them all - but in case you get some, please remember me. Best regards + blessings always. into
