Rogers, Hammerstein Music Featured In First Concert

Solomon To Play Thursday Night

The Central Kentucky Community Concert and Lecture Series opens at 8:15 tonight in Memorial Coliseum with "Rogers and Hammerstein Nights." At 8:15 Thursday night the series will feature Solomon, the pianist.

"Rogers and Hammerstein Nights" includes numbers from such Broadway success as "South Pacific," "Oklahoma," "Allegro," "State Fair," "Carousel," and "The King and I."

Crane Calder, who has arranged and conducted all Rogers and Hammerstein symphonic programs touring the country since 1948, will direct tonight's production.

A concert orchestra, and chorus of 14, and four soloists are included in the company of "Rogers and Hammerstein Nights."

Four Soloists Will Appear

Leigh Allen soprano from the New York cast of "South Pacific"; Carol Jones, mezzo-soprano from the Robert Shaw Chorus; Earl Williams, tenor from the New York cast of "Oklahoma"; and André Calneyn, baritone from the New York cast of "Miss Me Kate" are the soloists.

The program will be divided into two parts. The first part will include the overture to "Allegro," "The Great Night for Singing" and "It Might as Well Be Spring" from "State Fair"; "Suite from 'Oklahoma'; and "June Is Bustin' Out All Over," "If I Loved You," "When I Married Mr. Bones," "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "Soliloquy" from "Carousel."

After the intermission, the group will present "March of the Children," "I Whistle a Happy Tune," and "Hello, Young Ladies of the King and I." "A Wonderful Guy," "Younger Than Springtime," "There Is Nothing Like a Girl" ("Ballade") and "The Enchanted Evening" from "South Pacific," and "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" ("Sunrise") from "The King and I." "Out of My Dreams" and "People Will Say We're In Love" and "Oklahoma," from "Oklahoma."

Solomon
Pianist Scheduled Thursday

Solomon, who will play Thursday night, made his debut as a pianist when he was eight years old. At that time, he played two concertos in London's Queen's Hall. When he was nine, he was invited to play before the British Royal Family in Buckingham Palace.

The son of a London East End tailor, Solomon first came to the United States in 1928 for a concert tour. He returned in 1939 for the "New York World Fair," where he played the first world performance of the Arthur Bliss Piano Concerto, at the request of the composer, who traveled from England to hear it.

Solomon was awarded the Order of Commander of the British Empire during World War II for his many charity concerts, and for his entertainment of British troops.

Performed Near Firing Line

At times he performed within a mile of the firing line in France and Germany. Besides his work with the Forces, he continued his career as an air raid warden in his home country.

In 1946, Solomon toured India and

Lances Will Feature Clyde Trask's Band

Clyde Trask's orchestra will be the feature attraction at next Friday night's Lances Carnival dance. The dance follows the annual Carnival held on the intramural field.

Thirty fraternities and sororities will sponsor booths. Each organization will also have a candidate for queen. In preceding years the girl who sold the most tickets to their booth was awarded a trophy. As an added honor, the candidate was named Queen of the Carnival.

This year Lances is having out of town judges to pick the Queen. She will be chosen on the basis of personality, appearance, and charm. The winning girl will be given a trophy separate from that awarded to the winning booth.

Profits Proceeds Scholarships

Profits from the Carnival and dance are used for scholarships. Recipients of the scholarships are chosen on the basis of need and worthiness. Any male student is eligible.

Last year Lances gave two scholarships, one for $400 and one for $300. Lances was founded in 1902. The

SGA May Cut Funds For Kyian, K-Book

Appeals By Publications To Be Heard Monday

The Kentuckian and the K-Book face cuts in their appropriations from the Student Government Association unless the two publications can show cause why their budget appropriations should remain the same. The decision was made at Monday night's meeting on a motion by Jess Gardner, a member of the SGA Budget Committee.

A proposed budget, drawn up by Gardner, President Bob Smith, and Bill Wilson, in conference with Comptroller Frank D. Peterson, was presented to the SGA for approval. The budget called for $5350 in expenditures, a cut of $150 from last year's budget.

President Smith explained to the group that the SGA receives $60 cents from each student each semester, and that the enrollment this year is lower than in past years, from 9450 to 9050. The SGA funds were correspondingly lower.

Only $4500 will be incoming from students this year, Smith said, and the remaining $800 deficit will have to be taken from a reserve fund built up from the unused balance from former years.

Rhodes' Tests To Be Held In December

American Students To Be Awarded Study At Oxford

The annual competition for Rhodes Scholarships will be held in all the states in December 1951. These scholarships, authorized under the will of the South African diamond millionaire, Cecil Rhodes, will be awarded to a certain number of American college students on the basis of superior ability in both scholastic and extracurricular fields.

Valued now at $50,000 sterling, these scholarships are available for use at Oxford University starting in October 1952.

Students who qualify under the GI Bill may expect the same benefits at Oxford as they received at an American university.

An appointment to a Rhodes Scholarship lasts for two years, with a possible third year made available to those whose records and plans of study make such an award available.

To be eligible, a candidate must be a male citizen of the United States and unmarried, between the ages of 19 and 25 on October 1, 1952, and have completed at least his sophomore year by the time of his application. In addition, he must receive an official endorsement of his college or university.

A candidate may apply either in the state in which he resides or in the state in which he has received at least two years of his college education before applying and plans of study make such an award available.

Applications must be in the hands of the state committee no later than Nov. 3. Final selections by district committees will be made on Dec. 15. Copies of the Memorandum of Regulations, application blanks, and other information may be obtained at the office of Dean M. M. White, Room 128, McVey Hall.

Foreign Affairs Program Given By Government

The Department of State has announced its fourth Foreign Affairs Intern Program. The program is designed to give outstanding college seniors and graduate students work experience and training for a career in the field of foreign affairs.

In order to be eligible, students must file an application to take the U.S. Civil Service Commission Junior Management Assistant examination before Nov. 13. Then the student should advise the local nominating board that he is interested in being considered as a nominee.

The UK nominating board consists of Dr. Amy Vandenberg, Joseph H. Schwendeman, Irwin T. Sanders, Thomas D. Clark, and Susan Carter. Their duty is to select those candidates worthy of the program. A student must be approved by the committee and pass the examination to be considered for the Foreign Affairs Intern Program.

Students in the fields of international relations, political science, economics, business administration, public affairs, and related fields will be of value.

The training program includes nine months of specialized instruction at the Foreign Service Institute, observational assignments, work assignments within the State Department, preparation of special reports, and periodic seminars and conferences.

With the completion of these programs, the trainee will be transferred to a division within the department. Salaries start at $2000 to $3800 for entrance level positions.

Representatives from the Kentuckian and the K-Book will appear at the next SGA meeting to air their side of the issue.

UK Chess Club Meets Weekly

The University Chess Club now meets at the YMCA Building, 239 E. High Street. The meetings are held each Thursday evening from 7 to 10 p.m.

Any chess player or student interested in learning the game is invited to visit the club and participate in its activities. Townpeople and faculty members are also welcome.

Many activities have been planned for the coming year. The club is sponsoring a national chess master to play an exhibition and be available for consultation on individual problems. Later in the year there will be a club championship tournament for about six years.

The Chess Club is headed by the Dr. Fred Payne, who is the state champion chess player. The vice president is Dr. Dudley Roberts of the Psychology Department. George Robert, professor of agronomy, is the secretary and treasurer.

The Chess Club has been organized for about six years and now has a membership of 15.

UK Livestock Judging Team Participates At Ohio State

The University Livestock Judging Team gained further experience this past weekend by participating in a training contest at Ohio State University. This is the second outing for the eight members of the team.

This was not an official judging contest, but part of a round robin with members of the corn belt schools. These schools are Ohio State, Illinois, Michigan State and Purdue. By these training contests the teams of the different universities are preparing themselves for the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago in November.

The first competition for the University team was the Southern Intercollegiate Livestock Judging Contest at Memphis, Tennessee Sept. 21, 22. They finished second there among nine teams.

Suky Striving To Improve Card Section

Suky has announced that the card section show at the half-time of the games will henceforth be synchronized with a minimum of oral comments. From now on the leader will use the public address system only to announce the number of the next formation.

When he raises the card in his hand it will be the signal for the members of the card section to raise their cards. When he lowers his card it is the signal for the cards to be lowered.

Dave Bere, president of Suky, expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the card section last week. He said, "In order for the students to actually see what they are accomplishing, films of the show will be taken at one of the forthcoming games," he announced.

For his third group, Mr. Holloway will sing Massenet's aria, "Vision Fugitive," from "Herodiade."

Budget Cutting Will Be Problem

Due to the drop in student enrollment, SGA has already been forced to cut its budget by $150. Now it is faced with the problem of making reductions in what have been its more or less permanent appropriations so that it can have a surplus to take care of organizations which may have a real need for the money later in the semester. The job of deciding just where to make the cut will be no easy problem.

The following are a few things we think SGA members should take into consideration before they decide definitely where to make the needed cut.

1. The Kentuckian, which has been receiving $500 of the budget, has already signed contracts in expectation of that amount. Any reduction in the Kentuckian would have to be made in the pages not paid for by organizations, the junior and senior picture pages, and the photographing for these pages has already started.

2. The House President's Council, which is to receive a total of $450, proposes to spend approximately $200 of this amount for a vocational conference. This conference was not held last year because of scheduling difficulties although money for it was included in that year's appropriation. Whether or not this money has been spent or remains to be used for this year's conference we do not know.

However, we think that if the Kentuckian and the K-Book must show reason why they should receive their appropriations the House Presidents Council should show that this year's conference will be an improvement over those of the past, which have attracted little or no student interest.

Vocational guidance is of course needed, but a counselor who would consider individual student problems seems the answer rather than a conference which in the past had to be made compulsory before a respectable attendance could be obtained.

3. SGA's secretary, who receives an annual $1750 salary, is responsible mainly for taking care of parking violations at the University. She also does typing and mimeographing for the organization. Since the students have only about 150 parking spaces, such an expenditure seems a little high. It is very doubtful that her work is of such a technical nature that it could not be handled by several University students working part-time shifts. At prevailing student wages this should result in a $600 or $700 saving.

4. The $300 set aside as a special fund for defraying the loss of the recently sponsored student dance could very possibly be eliminated if the succeeding dances which have been planned were managed so as to realize a small profit. This should not be too difficult, since it is unlikely that SGA will have to go to any great expense such as hiring two name bands for any of the remaining dances, now that the idea of all-campus dances has been well received by the student body.

It appears entirely possible that by cutting some of the less necessary items of the budget, SGA might not be forced to reduce its appropriations to organizations which have a more pressing need for the money and might even be able to retain some money for worthy causes which may have need of funds later in the year.

UK Fans Show Pep But At Wrong Time

Coach Bryant may feel that he has himself a team now; that fans will no longer refer to it as "ours," but we can't agree with him. However, after the conduct of the UK rosters at last Saturday's game it wouldn't surprise us if the team refused to claim the fans.

A certain amount of disagreement with the officials is to be expected, especially when one team is penalized more than a hundred yards, but when it becomes necessary for the state police to escort the referees from the field we are inclined to believe that the fans have gone a little too far.

Kentucky fans, never noted for their sportsmanship, certainly did little to improve their standings Saturday. Evidently the outburst at the close of the game was meant in some way to show their support of the Wildcats, for we seriously doubt that more than a handful actually felt that the officials had made any intentionally bad calls. If this was the case, the fans made a mistake.

Just as spectators cannot respect a team that plays in an unsportsmanlike manner, so can a team have little respect for fans who refuse to play the role of loser without blaming the defeat on the officiating.

It is time that UK fans learned that the Wildcats are a young inexperienced team, and as such are certain to make mistakes and receive penalties. Cheering during the game might do the team some good, but not amount of booing after the final whistle can help anyone concerned.

Sign Those Letters, Please

This week the Kernel received two letters that could not be printed because they were not signed. If the writers will send us their names we will be glad to print the letters in the next issue.

The Kernel withholds names on request, but does not print unsigned letters. Letters pro or con on any subject of student interest are always welcomed.

The Students Speak

Student's Wife Says UK Band Unnoticed At Saturday's Game With Georgia Tech

Dear Editor:

A note of profound sympathy to the Marching 100 and Warren Lutz, whose hard work and tireless efforts for marching perfection went unnoticed in Saturday's game.

For the benefit of those whose fickle attention was centered on the "card tricks" at the half, your band executed some brilliant and novel maneuvers to the tune of new and beautiful arrangements, while last year's sponsor gave her place to the present sponsor in what should have been an impressive scene if anyone had bothered to watch.

The card entertainment was different and clever, but hardly worthy of sacrificing the artistry of the band. Perhaps at the next game the stunts could be switched to coincide with the National Anthem. Just one more thing — I have no connection with the band. I am just a student wife.

Music Lover.

Killing Of Squirrel Angers Observers

Dear Editor:

Last week we two saw a terrible thing occur on the campus. Some boys killed a squirrel with a rock. This was not difficult for them, because the nearly tame squirrels living on the campus have learned to trust the students. And too, this was not difficult because of man's advantage over the small animal hunt free-living animals—animals that have a chance to use their natural instincts to escape and to protect themselves.

Killing Of Squirrels

We feel that the killing of this squirrel for no purpose whatever is a very inhumane act. It is in our opinion, not only a violation of the law, but a violation of the rights of others. The majority of the students get a great deal of pleasure from watching these creatures playing in the trees.

This killing was a very audacious act, and showed a lack of feeling and sensitivity. No intelligent college student would do such a thing. Two squirrel lovers.

Wildcats To Meet Mississippi State In Conference Tilt Tomorrow Night

Kentucky's three-beaten Wildcats will try to regain some badly needed prestige here tomorrow night as they tangle with the Maroons of Mississippi for the first night game of the season.

The Cats, who have managed to win only once this season and that at the expense of little Tennessee Tech, will be after the Maroons who last week upset highly rated Georgia Tech.

This was the Maroons' second victory in three tries, losing only to the Volunteers of Tennessee 14-0 two weeks ago. The Maroons attack was led by Frankie Branch, a 136-pound quarterback, who shapes up to give the Wildcats a hard evening on Stoll Field.

Although an underdog in the Georgia tilt, the Maroons struck quickly—much like Kentucky in their 13-7 loss to Georgia Tech Saturday—and scored a touchdown in the opening minutes of play, then threw up a tight defense and held Georgia scoreless.

The earlier loss to Tennessee can be attributed to a blocked punt and a fumble, both deep in Maroon territory. Outside of these two touchdowns, the vaunted Volunteers who were rated first in most pre-season polls failed to dent the forward wall of State.

Maroon Defense Great

The Maroons will bring that same great defensive unit to the Bluegrass Saturday in an effort to avenge a 48-21 licking the Sugar Bowl champions gave them last season. Although the Cats managed to maul State, the Maroons tallied more points against the mighty Cats than any other single team last season.

Coach Paul Bryant in commenting on the Maroons, said "they are the dark horse of the Southeastern conference and the most underrated team in the conference."

Statistically, State has one of the heaviest lines the Cats has faced this year and last year had one of the best defensive records in the nation.

With Kentuckians seeing many scoring threats fizzling out on the opposition's five, 10 and 15 yard stops, it remains to be seen if the Babe will be able to maneuver around or through this line to striped pay dirt.

Game Important To UK

This game could very well prove to be the banana peeling for the Cats as a loss could send them into oblivion this season.

Fans can steal a cherry smile, however, after rooting what Tech coach Bobby Dodd said about his charges following their first scrimmage Monday after the game with the Cats. Coach Dodd stated that every player either had a patch or bruise on him and he listed several doubtful starters, which attest the hard charging of Kentucky's play.

The Cats will be out Saturday to try and defeat some of the warm weather fans that Coach Bryant so aptly called them.

A win over the Maroons might very well prove to be the spark to ignite the Kentucky attack that has fizzled so badly most of the season so far.

Tilley Tallies

Football Coach Is Allowed One Error In Three Years

By Chuck Tilley

The Georgia Tech game revealed one thing — UK is loaded with quarterbacks and coaches.

The big topic of conversation around the campus the past week has had to do with the fatal fourth down play of last Saturday. The consensus of opinion is that it was the wrong play.

As things turned out, it was the wrong play. It may have been the turning point of the game. And second guessers have been quick to point that out.

It is all water over the dam now and as we look back, we can see it only one way. The best coach-quarterback combination in American called that play. In 1949 that combination called the plays which led the Wildcats to the Orange Bowl. Last year the same team found its way to a Sugar Bowl championship. They will call it more this year which will be right. We think they are entitled to one mistake in three years.

It was a bit of masterminding which saw Harry Jones at fullback in the Tech game. On the eve of the game, Coach Bryant announced to newsmen that Allen Felch, a 200-pound freshman, would start at that position. The Tech coaches showed surprise but Bryant insisted that the Maroons attack was led by Frankie Branch, a 136-pound quarterback, who shapes up to give the Wildcats a hard evening on Stoll Field.

Although an underdog in the Georgia tilt, the Maroons struck quickly—much like Kentucky in their 13-7 loss to Georgia Tech Saturday—and scored a touchdown in the opening minutes of play, then threw up a tight defense and held Georgia scoreless.

The earlier loss to Tennessee can be attributed to a blocked punt and a fumble, both deep in Maroon territory. Outside of these two touchdowns, the vaunted Volunteers who were rated first in most pre-season polls failed to dent the forward wall of State.

Maroon Defense Great

The Maroons will bring that same great defensive unit to the Bluegrass Saturday in an effort to avenge a 48-21 licking the Sugar Bowl champions gave them last season. Although the Cats managed to maul State, the Maroons tallied more points against the mighty Cats than any other single team last season.

Coach Paul Bryant in commenting

Felch was the man for the job. The pre-game lineup listed Felch, with advance reports at hand describing the power which Felch packs, the Engineer defense was surprised for the quick opening plays with the 160-pound Jones breaking away.

The necessity of IA was again demonstrated. It was already known he could play fullback with the best. But few suspected he could also play a fullback. He made Coach Bryant look good in placing him in that job.

Besides running well at two positions, he grabs passes like an end and kicks the points after touchdowns.

During the spring he teams with twin brother Larry to form UK's shortstop-second base combination.

The shower room version of the Marine's Hymn which escapes from the football dressing room is for the benefit of Tony Wrann, a member of the B squad. Tony was recently discharged from the Leathernecks at Camp Lejeune, N. C., where he played service football.

A native of Gary, Ind., Tony saw service in the Pacific Theater during the war, was discharged, but called back into the reserves and sent to Japan. The current rotation plan of the Marine Corps allows the ex-serviceman to be able to use the knowledge he acquired while playing football — Leatherneck style.

Touch football got underway on the intramural field this week and Intramural Director Bill McCubbin expressed satisfaction with this fall's program.

There is a lot of fun in these games and it would be worth your while to watch the games. How about picking a team, watching the schedule, and going down to cheer for the fellows.

There are a lot of high school hot-shots passing the ball around and you'll see some good games.

In previous years several games have been forfeited because teams failed to appear for the games but this year's lineup looks like a well knit organization and all indications point to a good season ahead.

Cross Country Team Cards Four Contests

The renewal of the UK Cross Country team, which is in its third year of training, is beginning to show signs of strength with 14 men reporting for practice daily and more expected to sign up in the next few days.

The training is under the direction of the Spiked Shoe Society, Jay Wallace, president of the society and captain of the UK track team, is in charge of the group. As runner-coach, Wallace will appear with the team as well as conducting training sessions. Dr. Don Benton is advisor for the group.

Among the outstanding member of the team is Delight "Speedy" Price, a distance runner on the track team and a member of last year's NCAA championship basketball team. Price intends to devote all his time this year to track.

Bradbury Looks Good

Jim Bradbury, the winner of the 1949 100-yard dash, Turkey Trot, is also on the squad and is being counted on heavily by Coach Wallace.

Other men who have looked good in early drills are Tom Weiste, Ray Jones, Ralph Hoovermail, Doug Adkinson, Jim Bartram, Van Nuis, Joe Coffman, Tom Sandace, Ben Cohen, Jack Christian, and Dick Rundall.

Wallace said he is looking for other prospects for the three-mile, five-mile and 10-mile runs. Anyone interested may contact either Wallace or Dr. Benton at Alumni Gym.

Sweater awards will not be given but points will be allowed which will count toward a major letter in spring track.

Four Meets Have Scheduled

Four meets have been scheduled for the fall, each of which will cover the three-mile course.

The first meet will be Nov. 3, at 11 a.m. against Cincinnati at Lexington. On Nov. 10 the team will travel to Berea College, Marshall College, a member of the Ohio Valley Conference, will appear in Lexington Nov. 17 at 11 a.m.

On Thanksgiving Day, the UK runners will participate in the Shamrock Run at Louisville.

Power Shown In I-M Touch League

The Intramural touch football season got under way last Monday night in the fashion there was team spirit personified and terrific line blocking to say nothing of the beautiful passes completed. In the opening games, Phil Kappa Tau PSK lost to PDT; TKE edged LXA and the All Stars forfeited to the Rebels.

Tuesday night, PKA whipped SPE, KA won from ASP and ATO beat the Triangles. The following is a rundown of the games.

PKT 98 — ZBT 0

Phi Tau ran through the ZBT's with ease as Pete Massie passed them to a 20-0 win. PKT scored all 20 points in the first half on two TD passes by Massie to Gene Neff and one to Larry Bevins. Poor pass defense plus three pass interceptions, led to ZBT's downfall.

SAE 50 — AGR 0

In the second game of the evening, SAE wreaked destruction on the outmanned but game AGR's 50-0. Leading the SAEs was C. M. Newton and Skippy Whittaker who combined to score four TDs. Frank Ramsey caught two passes and Mandt took one for touchdowns. Last year's champs looked as if they could go on to win this year but that is to be seen as all the teams are capable of shocking an upset.

PDT 15 — PSK 0

The third game found the PDT's overcoming the inexperienced Phi Sigs 15-0. The Phi Delts had a good solid team bolstered by the sterling line play turned in by Bill McCann, a stalwart for the last three years. Outstanding on offense was Messner who tossed 2 TD passes to Dick Zessler and Denny Steiner.

The Phi Sigs had a nice passer in Bill Nix but had little help in the receiving department. With a little practice, they could probably turn into a pretty fair unit.

The best game of the evening from the classroom standpoint was the game in which TKE edged out LXA 1-0 in a sudden death overtime. The line play was ferocious and the blocks aggressive. The line play of Maurice Van Meter and Art Jacobs were the bright point in the TKE defensive machine. Fred Mosberger shone for the Lambda Chi cause. The Tekes put up a stiff pass defense, but were weak in offense with Gene Bouchy and Al Luppinietti carrying the brunt.

The regulation time ended with the score 0-0 and the overtime was made necessary. The Tekes made 24 yds. in their series and then the LXAs, with fourth down up, needed just 3 inches to win. The Tekes defense stopped them for a five yard loss and that was the game.

The last game on Monday's card was forfeited by the All Stars to the Rebels for the use of two ineligible players.

PKA 18 — SPE 0

Tuesday night saw the Sig Eps and the Phi Kaps doing battle to the tune of 18-0. Phi Kaps. The PKA offense was top notch with Don Donohue and Gene Auen carrying them to victory. The Sig Eps, due to poor pass defense, just weren't in the game. On the second play of the game, Donohue passed to Auen for 30 yards and a score. The Phi Kaps look as if they'll be the team to beat in their division but only the future will be able to tell.

KA 7 — ASP 0

It was just a case of superior reserves as KA beat Alpha Sigs 7-0. KA scored their TD and extra point in the second quarter on a 25 yard pass from Louie Beard to Willie Rouse with Howard passing to Rouse for the extra point. The game was a wide open defensive game with neither team showing much. The bright points were the defense put up by both teams. Outstanding performers were turned in by Don Williamson and Louis Beard.

ATO 15 — Triangle 0

ATO went to town at the expense of the engineers as they threw up a tough defense and scored early in the second quarter on a 40 yard pass from Jack Coblen to Lee Baker in the end zone. Mark Lockett ran around end for the extra point. It wasn't until the last quarter that the ATO's scored again on another Coblen-Baker pass. The Triangles had an outstanding player in Joe Simon, but they were weak in offense due to the lack of timing.

Tommy Adkins Named Player Of The Week

By Don Armstrong

"Wildcat" is the word for Tommy Adkins. Even in the heart-breaking defeat Kentucky absorbed at the hands of Georgia Tech last week, the Corbin sophomore never gave up the Kentucky cause, kept fighting like a demon from his defensive fullback post.

Time after time the 190-pound Adkins ripped into the jacket of offense with his vicious tackling, stopped Tech ball carriers in the tracks. We have a soft spot in our typewriter for that kind of spirited competition.

A quiet, unassuming type of guy off the field, "Airy"—as he likes to be called—was quick to catch the attention of the Kentucky coaching staff in his performances as a Trosch Kitten last season. The venerable Bear regards Adkins as one of the finest prospects among upcoming sophomores.

Tommy's actions last Saturday singled him out as "player of the week." Adkins, Gene Donaldson, and Larry Jones provided some bright spots for fans who watched the bleakst afternoon of football on Still Field since the 1949 Tennessee game.

In addition to his stellar work against the Tech ground game, Adkins was also sharp on pass defense. One time in particular, Adkins was on the line of scrimmage when Jacket quarterback Crawford cut loose with a bullet aerial. Tommy went high into the air and raked the football to the turf, almost intercepting the ball.

Tommy compiled an enviable record at Corbin high school, where he participated in football, basketball, and baseball. He was picked to the second all-state team as a Junior, and in 1950 was chosen the runner-up as outstanding player of the East-West grid class at Bowling Green.

Adkins plans a career in some type of athletics after graduation from Kentucky. He says he would like to coach or teach physical education.

A guard in high school, Adkins was moved to center when he enrolled at the University. He played the pivot post for the freshman team last year, but his ability as a defensive player has belittled him as a defensive fullback on the varsity lineup.

WAA Will Hold Swim Meet October 25

The WAA intramural swimming meet will be held on Thursday, October 25, at the pool in Memorial Coliseum. It was announced that one hundred eighteen WAA members will compete in the contest.

Each entrant must practice three times before the event. The pool is open from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday for these sessions.

Each girl may enter diving and three other events. Entries must be in the WAA office by 1 p.m. Oct. 25, naming each girl and the event she is going to enter.

The contest will be divided into two swimming divisions. The first division consists of varsity or residence hall teams. The second division consists of individual entrants who are not entering a team.

Each division will have its own winner and the winners will not compete against each other.

Bowling Begins At Wildcat

WAA bowling games began Monday at the Wildcat Bowling Lanes. Division A bowls on Monday and Division B bowls on Thursday from 5 to 6 p.m.

Four girls are on each team, and have two lines at each meeting. Each team must bowl a total of six games. If teams are unable to play at the designated time, they should call Bula West, 4117, or Cissy Murphy, 2-7912.

Dom Fucci Returns To UK As Frosh Football Coach

Dom Fucci, a standout defensive back and kicker on last year's Southeastern Conference and Sugar Bowl champions, has been hired by Coach Paul Bryant as assistant freshman coach.

Fucci's job will be to work with the defensive frosh backs, and to scout high school teams in search of outstanding prospects.

Obviously happy at his appointment, Fucci said it was just what he has been hoping for. He wants to make a career of coaching, preferably in the college ranks.

Fucci expects to receive his degree in January, and then, like most other young men, he has a date with his uncle. He was commissioned in the Air Force ROTC last spring.

While playing for the Wildcats, he earned the title of the Billy Goodman of college football, seeing action as an end, halfback, quarterback, defensive back, and punter. He particularly excelled in the latter two positions.

All American Baseballer

A star catcher and outfielder for the Cats, Fucci was named to the first annual All-America team, the only UK baseballer so honored.

He spent the summer playing with a New York Yankee farm club, and then tried out with the Washington

Conference Grid Kings Lose Claim To Nobility

By Bill Podkulski

Southeastern Conference pre-season kings have tumbled from their thrones and leave doubtfulness among their fans as to whether the teams will regain their nobility.

At the start of the season Kentucky was honored as seventh best team in the nation on the Associated Press poll. But the conquerors of mighty Oklahoma for the Sugar Bowl crown, last Jan. 1, are now a three-beaten team. The unlucky Wildcats bowed to an undefeated Georgia Tech 13-7. Coach Bobby Dodd's Yellow Jackets showed plenty of talent and staked UK's hopes of another bowl bid this year.

Alabama, rated among the top three powers in the SEC falled again in their bid for recognition and were squeezed out by Vanderbilt 22-20. Halfback Dick Foster's 25 yard field goal in the third quarter gave Vandy the margin. 'Bama was rated ninth in pre-season polls.

Vols Still No. 3

King of the pre-season pick was Tennessee. After an unimpressive win two weeks ago the Volunteers slipped to third place. However, Gen. Neyland's boys held to the Number 3 spot by trampling unbeaten Duke 26-0 Saturday.

Underdog Mississippi State turned on an undefeated Georgia and downed them 6-0. Frankie Branch, State's 125-pound quarterback, sparked the Maroons' first-quarter, five-play touchdown drive that proved to be the Bulldogs' downfall. Georgian quarterback Zeke Bratkowski pegged 39 passes to set a new conference record for an individual. He completed only 14. Harry Gilmer's 37 passes for Alabama against Tennessee in 1946 was the previous mark.

In inter-conference games LSU nudged Rice 7-6 in a tight defensive game. Back east, Mississippi blasted Boston College 34-7 and out west, Florida romped over Loyola of California 40-7. The Tulane Greenies registered the only defeat to an outsider. Quarterback Larry Isbell scored one TD and assisted for two others in masterminding a brilliant 27-14 victory over underrated Tulane.
