

Kentucky Kernel

Vol. XXI, No. 97

Established 1894

University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky

Independent since 1971

Friday, February 13, 1987

State minority services improve, officials say

Editor's note: This is the final article in a three-part series focusing on minorities. Today's article deals with the status of minority affairs divisions at universities across the state.

By THOMAS J. SULLIVAN
Staff Writer

Minority affairs officials at colleges and universities throughout Kentucky say they have made progress in expanding their operations.

But insufficient funding, inadequate high school counseling and apathetic students have hindered their efforts, they say.

In order for the departments to grow, they must receive consistent funding and attention, state minority affairs officials said.

"The initiative the state has taken in the last four years is in the right direction in terms of how much is spent and where," said Jerry Gore,

Special Project

Blacks at UK

director of minority student affairs at Morehead State University.

However, "money is always a problem," said Gore, who counsels a minority student population of 168.

Mike Elam, director of minority student affairs at Eastern Kentucky University, agreed. "I think that the state is spending a lot of money on this issue."

But "you can never have too much money," he said. "There is a lot of money that is owed to the minority students in this state."

Minority students have been denied scholarships in the past because they were competing with non-minority students, Gore said. Until recently, scholarships designated solely for minority students didn't exist.

Many of the state colleges and universities consider UK fortunate to have a black cultural center. UK has financial resources that aren't available at other higher education facilities, said W. Neal Simpson, minority student counselor at Northern Kentucky University.

With 760 minority students at EKV, a cultural center is a "definite need," Elam said. "I wish we could have (one). A cultural center helps to build that self-image and esteem."

Shirley Malone, director of scholastic activities for minority students at Western Kentucky University, said she thinks a cultural center "would be good for our community."

But Western doesn't have the funds available for that type of project, she said.

"The state could spend a little more" on minority affairs, Malone said. There are 860 minority students at Western.

Northern's program also suffers from insufficient funding, Simpson said.

At Northern, Simpson is the minority student affairs department. There are no other staff members in his department.

"When something goes wrong," he said, "the students come to me." Simpson doesn't even have his own secretary. He shares one with another office.

"Northern can do much more than it is doing," Simpson said. "More needs to be done, but whether it gets done is a different story."

Still, Simpson isn't bitter about the situation he faces. "That's reality at certain sectors; you just learn to deal with it."

Gore sympathizes with Simpson's position. He's been in the same position.

BLACK ENROLLMENT

Percentage of black enrollment at Kentucky's state universities.

Information compiled by: Thomas J. Sullivan

DAVID PIERCE/Kernal Graphics

"Last year, I was the department," he said.

But the Morehead department recently hired a minority student recruiter and three graduate assistants, Gore said.

Morehead also has a house on

See OFFICIALS, Page 8

Bachelor No. 3, John Tranter, hugs Bachelor No. 1, David Theil Jr., after losing a date with Kim Fortier in last night's Dating Game. Sam Simon, a magician/comedian from Pittsburgh, was the master of ceremonies.

Valentine's Day comes early with Dating Game

By THOMAS J. SULLIVAN
Staff Writer

In the true spirit of Valentine's Day, the Student Activities Board joined four happy couples in Memorial Hall last night.

Jim Lange, host of the original Dating Game, would have been proud.

The bachelors and bachelorettes were told to arrive between 7 and 7:30 p.m. They herded us into separate dressing rooms in the basement and told us to stay put. Many of us waited there for more than two hours.

We looked like a group of expectant fathers pacing the walls of a waiting room. We knew they were going to call our names, but not when.

Being a contestant on the Dating Game had one bachelor worried for weeks.

"At first I worried — what if I don't get picked?" said John Ballard. "Then I worried — my God, what if I do get picked? Then I figured what the hell, I'm gonna have fun anyway."

And fun was what the SAB had in mind for the entire evening.

Sam Simon, a magician/comedian from Pittsburgh, was the master of ceremonies for the evening. Although he succeeded in gaining laughs, he stressed that he is "a magician whose comedy comes from his magic," he said. "I'm not a comedian."

Many of the bachelors would have agreed with Simon's job description, as he raked them over the coals with cheap shots about cheap suits.

Soon the time came to go out on stage.

The questions were difficult. It's hard to think quickly with eight 600-watt bulbs shining in your face. Then there was also the fact that a crowd of about 200 people were at my feet with the personality of a lynch mob.

But for the most part, the experience was entertaining.

Connie Hall chose me, Bachelor No. 2, to be her date. So in a week, we'll be back in Memorial Hall for the Modern Jazz Quartet concert and dinner for a local restaurateur.

But Connie and I weren't the only happy couple to win last night. Jeff Barger chose Dru Thomas. David Andrew chose Melissa Kirby. And Kimberly Fortier chose David Theil Jr.

The group said goodbye with the Dating Game kiss. The first one in Memorial Hall, but not the last. Until next year.

Foreign TA policy reviewed by council

By BRAD COOPER
Assistant News Editor

The University Senate Council yesterday issued a recommendation to the administration that would prevent students from reviewing "classified" information about prospective international teaching assistants.

It also put on hold the proposal for a two-day break immediately preceding finals week until more information could be obtained. The proposal was sponsored by Cyndi Weaver, Student Government Association arts and sciences senator.

The council's recommendation wants to limit students' involvement in the screening and evaluating of international teaching assistants. Students would only be able to hear the graduate students speak to determine whether they would be comprehensible.

Among the information that would be considered "classified" would be students' scores on the Test of English as a Foreign Language and the Test of Spoken English.

If the proposed policy is approved by President Otis A. Singletary, all teaching assistants without

See POLICY, Page 8

Attorney general speaks of elderly victims' rights

By C.A. DUANE BONIFER
Staff Writer

Kentucky Attorney General David Armstrong believes the rights of crime victims have gone unnoticed for far too long.

But through two recent programs his department has helped institute, Kentucky's victims are "fighting back," he said yesterday.

Armstrong spoke to about 80 senior citizens of the Lexington community yesterday in 230 Student Center on "Rights of the Victim."

The talk was part of the Council on Aging's Donovan Forum program for students 65 and older.

"The main segment this criminal justice system has forgotten has been the victims' rights," Armstrong said. "In Kentucky, victims' rights are not going to be ignored."

Two reasons for this change are the two programs his office has helped to create, Armstrong said. One is the Right-to-Know legislation passed in Frankfort last year and the other is the new Older Kentucky Advocacy Division.

The Right-to-Know program gives crime victims certain rights "they didn't have before this," Armstrong said.

Under the provision, victims have the right to know when their assailant's case comes before the court. And if any property is stolen, it is returned to victims; if it cannot be, restitution is paid by the assailant.

DAVID ARMSTRONG

Victims are also allowed to submit a statement to the judge describing the impact the crime had on them.

If the assailant is convicted, victims are notified of the parole date and are allowed to issue a statement saying how they feel on the possibility of parole for the criminal.

The program was instituted after Armstrong attended nine hearings

See RIGHTS, Page 8

Miss Kentucky Valentine crowned

By BOBBI WOLOCZ
Staff Writer

Marilyn Lloyd was crowned 1987 Miss Kentucky Valentine last night before a full auditorium at the Student Center Theater.

"I didn't expect this at all," said Lloyd, a nursing junior and member of Delta Gamma sorority. She was one of 32 candidates who participated in the contest.

The pageant was sponsored by UK's Commuter Cats in order to bring off-campus and on-campus students together, said Karen Imboden, president of the group.

Lloyd's prizes include a $60 perm at Jerome's, a UK quilt handmade by Imboden and an overnight guest package for two at the Marriott.

"Being in the contest was fun," said Lloyd, who is a majorette for the UK marching band.

"I met a lot of people, and it wasn't like a competition at all," she said. "Everybody was so friendly."

The contestants were judged on appearance and poise while modeling casual and formal outfits. Judges also considered each student's scholastic ability and extracurricular activities.

Winners were also selected on the basis of their responses during an interview before the contest.

Lloyd, who plans to specialize in pediatrics after graduation, is interested in programs that fight teenage alcohol and drug abuse.

"I just want young people to know that they can avoid peer pressure and they don't have to get involved (with drugs) to be accepted," she said.

Lloyd is also a member of the Alpha Lambda Delta and Tau Beta Sigma honoraries.

Melanie Glasscock, a political science freshman, won first runner-up. Glasscock will receive 12 Brass A admission tickets, dinner for two at Max & Erma's and a gift certificate from Command Performance.

Glasscock, who was sponsored by Sigma Chi fraternity, is the feature twirler for the UK marching band and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Shawn Bridges, a math education sophomore, was named second runner-up. Bridges will receive gift certificates from Fur & Feathers and Specialty Warehouse.

Bridges, a Student Government Association senator at large, was sponsored by the Student Organizations Assembly. She is also a Lady Kat cheerleader and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority and the Student Development Council.

Shawn Smith of WKYT-TV announced the contestants during the modeling sessions.

Judges for the contest were Anne Nofsinger and Cindy Leonard, both Lexington Community College faculty members; Wanda Adams of UK's Student Organizations Center; and Steve Schmiedeknecht of Reflections photography services.

ALAN HAWSE/Kernal Staff

First runner-up Melanie Glasscock (left), a political science freshman, congratulates Marilyn Lloyd (right), the 1987 Miss Kentucky Valentine, last night.

INSIDE

The Wildcats prepare to face Florida away while the Lady Kats get ready for the Gators at home. See SPORTS, Page 2.

Thrash Can, Lexington's newest alternative to the local bar scene, officially opens this weekend. See PASTIMES, Page 3.

WEATHER

Today and tomorrow will be partly cloudy with highs from the mid 40s to 50. Tonight will be fair with a low around 30.

Sports

Cats hope to continue conference streak

By ERIC GREGORY
Contributing Writer

Eddie Sutton believes lightning can strike twice.

And he's hoping it will happen tomorrow against the Florida Gators. The Wildcats defeated Florida 67-62 at Rupp Arena in the first meeting of the two teams this season. But a late-game surge by the Gators, who are now ranked No. 2 in the Southeastern Conference, taught the Cats a lesson.

"We had a great game against them here, but we let them come back on us in the second half," said junior forward Richard Madison. "Coach Sutton just told us not to relax and keep the same intensity level the entire game."

"It's going to be a battle down there." The Gators, 19-6 and 11-3 in the SEC, are led by the outstanding perimeter player of guards Andrew Moten and Vernon Maxwell.

Maxwell, a 6-foot-4 junior, tops the Gators' scoring with a 22.5 game average. Moten, a 6-foot senior, follows his partner with 16.3 points per game.

ABOUT THE GAME

Opponent: Florida 19-6, 11-3 in the SEC

Time: 1:05 p.m.

Place: O'Connell Center

Ticket Status: Sold out

Radio Coverage: Live on WVLK-AM 590 with Cawood Leflord and Ralph Hacker.

TV Coverage: Live on SEC-TV (WKYT-TV Channel 27).

And after seeing Maxwell pour in 25 points and Moten chip in nine at Rupp Arena, the Wildcats learned firsthand who they would have to shut down to sweep Florida this season.

"They have two of the best guards in the league, and they're not just one-dimensional," said junior guard Ed Davender. "But they can be contained."

Florida's threat underneath is 7-foot-2 freshman center Dwayne Schintzius, who was held to seven points in his first meeting with UK.

According to junior center Rob Lock, Schintzius' height in the middle — combined with Florida's guard play — makes the Gators a hard team to defend. "Florida is an explosive ballclub, and they can really hit you quickly," Lock said. "We will just have to be consistent, patient and keep our composure throughout the game."

And as if the constant pressure provided by Florida's balanced team isn't enough, UK will also have to worry about the Gator fans.

"I've had some interesting mail about what the Gators are going to do to the Cats," Sutton said. "And there's no doubt that Florida is in the top three in crowd participation."

Taking the crowd out of the game is one of the things Sutton hopes his club can do early. But he's not going to change his game plan to do it.

"I think it will be very, very important to get ahead of them early... but we're going with the same plan," he said.

That plan will be based on solid defense, rebounding and keeping the UK squad that because a speaker is scheduled to talk in O'Connell Center Friday, the Cats will not be able to work out before the game.

"It seems ironic," Madison said, noting that the Gators have scheduled practice before the speaker arrives. "We're just going to practice here before we leave."

The Gators recently informed the UK squad that because a speaker is scheduled to talk in O'Connell Center Friday, the Cats will not be able to work out before the game.

"It seems ironic," Madison said, noting that the Gators have scheduled practice before the speaker arrives. "We're just going to practice here before we leave."

NBA players support drug crackdown

By BILL BARNARD
Associated Press

Larry Bird of the Boston Celtics, although a strong supporter of the NBA's anti-drug policy, says the league will never be free of drugs.

"There are always some guys you can't control, but if you can help a few, it's worth it," Bird said. "But believing there can be a drug-free league is just naive."

It is Bird's belief that despite the NBA's anti-drug policy, there are probably some players who are so drug dependent that no amount of education or penalties will help them.

On Jan. 13, Mitchell Wiggins and Lewis Lloyd, both of the Houston Rockets, were permanently suspended by the NBA for cocaine use. Michael Ray Richardson and John Drew had received similar penalties a year earlier.

Bird said he was not sorry to see Wiggins and Lloyd go because, in his opinion, they betrayed other NBA players.

"The league needed something like this to happen because it woke people up," Bird said. "It was too bad for the guys it happened to, but they didn't care about our league."

"There are always some guys you can't control, but if you can help a few, it's worth it. But believing there can be a drug-free league is just naive."

Larry Bird,
Boston Celtics forward

But Bird, like other players, believes the league's campaign to combat drug abuse is helping — to a point.

"The drug situation may be better than a few years ago, but it's still a problem because drugs are so prevalent in society," said Detroit's Isiah Thomas, one of the spokesmen for the league's "Don't Foul Out" education program. "It's not just a problem for athletes; it's even a problem in the White House."

"There's a percentage of every section and segment of life that takes drugs, and we (in basketball) have our percentage, too," Dallas' Mark Aguirre said. "I think it's a lower percentage than what's publicized, but we're nationally known and we get publicity when we falter."

Aguirre said the widely held belief that athletes are more vulnerable to drug abuse because they are well paid is a myth.

"Money is not really an issue," Aguirre said. "If you're a user, you'll get drugs if you have $20 or $100,000."

Several players — John Lucas, Walter Davis, Quintin Dailey and Chris Washburn — have been given NBA-sponsored treatment for coming forward and admitting their drug problems.

The anti-drug program, announced jointly in October 1983 by the NBA Players Association and then-Commissioner Larry O'Brien, gives players two chances to come forward for treatment of illegal drug use.

The first time a player is treated, he is given his full salary during the time of rehabilitation; the second time, he is suspended without pay; and the third time, he can be banned indefinitely from the NBA, with the possibility of reinstatement in two years.

This policy, NBA players agreed during interviews at the All-Star Game, is acting as a deterrent and they are pleased that the league took a stand against drugs.

"Four guys had their careers killed and players know now that they have to be careful," said Akeem Olajuwon, who had been a teammate of Wiggins and Lloyd on the Rockets.

"The drug problem is not as bad as it was earlier," Denver's Alex English said. "Guys are more aware of the consequences. Wiggins and Lloyd were an example to everyone."

"The drug situation is going to get better," Magic Johnson of the Los Angeles Lakers said. "Not letting guys play is a serious step. Other sports leagues talk about it, but don't do enough about it. In the NBA, guys realize that if they get caught, it's over."

Kats take on Florida, looking for win to spur late-season comeback

By C.A. DUANE BONIFER
Staff Writer

The Lady Kats hope to continue their uphill climb this weekend. Following an 88-80 triumph over Alabama Saturday night, UK raised its season record to 12-9 and 2-3 in the Southeastern Conference.

But, more importantly, it gave the Kats' confidence level a desperately needed boost.

"The win was definitely a big boost for us," said senior guard Sandy Harding following the win. "But after being idle for a week, the big question is whether UK can maintain its momentum tomorrow night. That's when the Kats entertain the Florida Lady Gators in a game at 7:30."

Lady Kat coach Terry Hall, however, questions whether her team has had any momentum all season.

"I don't think we have had a high or low point all season long," she said.

But if there is a time in the season to have a "high point," it might be now.

With the toughest part of their schedule behind them, the Lady Kats have six games remaining after tomorrow night.

Senior center Debbie Miller believes this is the time for the Lady Kats to make their run into March.

"I think everybody on the team is feeling confident that we can win the next six games," she said.

If the Kats are to sweep the next seven games, they will have to somehow correct the problem that has plagued them all season long — inconsistency.

Finding an answer to that dilemma has not come easy to the Kats.

In Saturday's game against Alabama, the Lady Kats led by 20 points in the second half before they fell apart, allowing Alabama to cut the comfortable lead to eight.

Miller said she cannot explain why the Kats have been badgered so much by inconsistency during the season, but she said the problem is more of an "individual" situation than anything else.

"I think everybody on the team is feeling confident that we can win the next six games."

Debbie Miller, Lady Kat center

"We just need to work on playing down from the opening tipoff," she said. "Each player has to prepare themselves in a different way and take some time out before the game to think."

Another problem the Kats have had this season has been finding someone to fill the forward position opposite Bebe Croley.

Freshman Shannon Freeman began the season as the other forward, but midway through the season, she was replaced by sophomore Pam Shrum.

However, neither player has been able to come through for Hall. In Saturday's game the two combined for only six points in 39 minutes of action.

Tomorrow night, Hall said she doesn't expect to make any changes at the post, as Shrum will get the starting nod.

Carol Higginbottom's Lady Gators are 10-2 games below the 500 mark at two games over, and are winless in the conference with an 0-7 mark.

Although Florida is not having a banner year, Hall feels the Lady Gators need to be approached with caution.

"I don't think they're playing real well at this point," Hall said. "But they have beaten us the last four years and that scares me."

Florida is led by its backcourt tandem of Susan Stoddard and Janna Bragg. The two guards are combining for 25 points a contest.

"They play real well," Miller said. "We definitely can't take them (Bragg and Stoddard) too lightly."

Tennis team dominates TCU in home opener

Staff reports

The 13th-ranked UK women's tennis team beat 25th-ranked Texas Christian yesterday at the Hilary J. Boone Indoor Tennis Center to improve to 4-0 on the season.

UK captured five of the six singles matches and one of the three doubles for the 6-3 win.

The Wildcats were led by Sonia

Hahn, who defeated TCU's Rene Simpson, 6-4, 6-1, at the No. 1 singles spot.

Tamaka Takagi, playing at the No. 2 singles spot, beat TCU's Teresa Dobson, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Beckwith Archer captured the No. 3 singles match for UK with a 7-6, 4-6, 6-4 win over Rhona Howett.

UK's Chris Karges won the No. 4 singles match over Mamie Ochoa, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4, and Helene LaBeller won the No. 6 singles for UK with a 2-6, 6-1, 6-2 victory over Melanie Breed.

Texas Christian's only singles win was at the No. 5 spot, where Margot Vandervelden beat UK's Carole Knudten 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

The UK doubles team of Hahn and Takagi defeated Texas Christian's Howett and Vandervelden, 6-3, 6-3, for the only UK doubles victory.

The Wildcats take on 19th-ranked Southern Methodist Monday at home.

UK coach Sue Rudd said the ranking is misleading, however.

"They have two girls in the top 50, Jennifer Satrock (ranked 22nd in the nation) and Jean Marie Sterling (41st in the country)," she said. "It will be a real battle. We really need good crowd support to pull it out."

UK tickets available Sunday

Staff reports

Tickets for Kentucky's three remaining home basketball games will be available to students Sunday at Memorial Coliseum.

Students with a validated ID and activity card can pick up tickets between noon and 4 p.m. Sunday and from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Guest tickets will go on sale for $6 Tuesday.

The three games are Vanderbilt (Feb. 18), Ole Miss (Feb. 28) and Oklahoma (Mar. 1).

GOOD READING! The Kentucky Kernel

EARN $20 TODAY with this ad
(for your first) Plasma donation and for 5 mos. inactive donors Earn Up to $85 for 1st five donations plasma alliance
204-S Oxford Circle 254-8047
Open Sun. thru Sat.

MOVIES ON MAIN
320 EAST MAIN 254-8010
An American Tail 9:45-11:45
THE MORNING AFTER 11:45-1:30
A NIGHTMARE ON ELM STREET 12:00-12:30

Kentucky Kernel
Editor in Chief: Fran Stewart
Managing Editor: Scott Ward
News Editor: Jay Blanton
Assistant News Editor: Brad Cooper
Editorial Editor: Cynthia A. Palermo
Sports Editor: Andy Dumstorff
Arts Editor: Erik Reece
Assistant Arts Editor: Wes Miller
Special Projects Editor: Sean Anderson
Photo Editor: Alan Lessig Adviser: Paula Anderson
Advertising Manager: Linda Collins
Production Manager: Rhonda O'Non

The Kentucky Kernel is published on class days during the academic year and weekly during the summer session. Third-class postage paid at Lexington, KY 40511. Mailed subscription rates are $15 per semester and $30 per year. The Kernel is printed at Standard Publishing and Printing, 534 Buckman Street, Shepherdsville, KY 40165. Correspondence should be addressed to the Kentucky Kernel, Room 026 Journalism Building, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY. 40506-00423. Phone: (606) 257-2871.

NOW-WE'LL PAY YOU TO ATTEND MEDICAL SCHOOL

In fact, we'll even pay you more than $600 a month while you attend. That's in addition to paying for your tuition, required books and fees. It's all part of the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. And here is how it works!

If you're selected for a Physician's Scholarship—from the Army, Navy, or Air Force—you're commissioned as an officer in the Reserves. While you're in school, you'll serve 45 days a year on active duty, gaining valuable medical experience. After graduation, you will serve three or more years, the length depending on the requirements of the Service selected and years of scholarship assistance received.

As an Armed Forces physician you'll receive officer's pay and benefits, and enjoy the advantages of working regular hours. You'll also see a diversity of patients and have opportunities to use sophisticated medical technology. But most important, while you're in medical school we'll help pay the bills. For more information, send in this coupon. There is no obligation.

YES! Tell me how the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program can help pay my medical school expenses. I understand there is no obligation. Mail this coupon to: Armed Forces Scholarship, P.O. Box 2865, Huntington Station, NY 11763-2762 9101

Check up to three:  ARMY  NAVY  AIR FORCE

Please print all information clearly and completely.

Name: First _____ Middle Initial _____ Last _____  Male  Female

Address _____ Apt. # _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone: Area Code _____ Number _____ Soc. Sec. No. _____ College: _____ Birth Date: _____ Day _____ Month _____ Year _____
Field of Study: _____ Graduation Date: _____ Day _____ Month _____ Year _____

The information you voluntarily provide will be used for recruiting purposes only. The more complete it is the better we can respond to your request. (Subject to 900-800 and 800-900)

$5.99 DINNER FOR TWO

offer good on medium regular crust pizza with your choice of TWO toppings AND also TWO large soft drinks. Eat in, carry out, or FREE DELIVERY. (Limited Delivery area) Expires: Feb. 28, 1987.

WE Mr. Gatti's DELIVER

Idle Hour
S. Limestone
Versailles Rd.
Wilhite Dr.
North Park

266-1172
252-8822
254-2008
276-5448
255-9603

The best pizza in town. Just say it!

PASTIMES

Erik Reece
Arts Editor
Wes Miller
Assistant Arts Editor

AROUND AND ABOUT

NIGHT SPOTS

Austin City Saloon — 2350 Woodhill Shopping Center. Tonight and tomorrow, The Greg Austin Band (country) will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $3 cover both nights.

The Bar — 224 E. Main St. Tonight and tomorrow, Top 40/disco music on a sound system, 4 p.m. to 1 a.m., tomorrow after hours from 1 to 3:45 a.m. Female impersonators tonight and tomorrow at 10 and 11:30, $3 cover.

The Bearded Seal — 500 Euclid Ave. Tonight, Bad Guys will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tomorrow, Repeat Option will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $2 cover both nights.

The Brass A Saloon — 2909 Richmond Road. Tonight and tomorrow, Scheemer will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $3 cover.

Breedings — 509 W. Main St. Tonight and tomorrow, The Metro Blues All-Stars will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $3 cover.

Bugatti's — 815 Euclid Ave. Tonight and tomorrow, The Trendells (Motown) will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $5 cover.

Great Scott's Depot — 684 S. Broadway. Tonight, Fancy Pants and 9 lb. Hammer will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tomorrow, Third Heaven and Happy Death will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

King's Arm Pub — 102 W. High St. Tonight and tomorrow, Liberty Road will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $1 cover.

Library — 388 Woodland Ave. Tonight and tomorrow, Thumper and the Plaid Rabbits will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $3.50 cover, $1.50 well drinks from 8 to 10 p.m., 95 cent draft beer all night.

Two Keys — 333 S. Limestone St. Tonight, Rebel Without a Cause will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tomorrow, Two Small Bodies will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. $2 men, no cover ladies.

WEEKEND CINEMA

An American Tail — Rated G. (Movies on Main: tonight at 7:45, Tomorrow and Sunday at 1:45, 3:45, 7:45.)

Black Widow — Rated R. (South Park: 1:20, 3:25, 5:25, 7:35, 9:30 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:30.)

The Bedroom Window — Rated R. (Turlfand Mall: 1, 3, 5:20, 7:35, 9:50 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:50.)

Crimes of the Heart — Rated PG-13. (Lexington Mall: 1:15, 3:20, 5:20, 7:30, 9:35 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:30.)

Critical Condition Rated R. (North Park: 1:25, 3:25, 5:25, 7:55, 9:55 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:50.)

Dead of Winter — Rated R. (Fayette Mall: 1:30, 3:35, 5:35, 7:40, 9:45 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:35.)

From the Hip — Rated PG. (North Park: 12:45, 3, 5:20, 7:40, 9:50 and tonight and tomorrow only at midnight. Also at Crossroads: 1, 3:10, 5:20, 7:35, 9:45 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:40.)

The Golden Child — Rated PG-13. (North Park: 1:10, 3:05, 5:25, 7:30, 9:35 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:35. Also showing at South Park: 1:25, 3:40, 5:30, 7:55, 9:55 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:40.)

To Kill a Mockingbird — (At the Worsham: 7:50 tonight and tomorrow.)

Legal Eagles — PG-13. (At the Worsham: 7:50 tonight and tomorrow.)

Light of Day — Rated PG-13. (North Park: 1, 3:10, 5:20, 7:45, 9:50 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:55. Also at Crossroads: 1:10, 3:20, 5:30, 7:45, 9:45 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:30.)

Mannequin — Rated PG. (North Park: 1:30, 3:25, 5:25, 7:30, 9:30 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:35. Also showing at Fayette Mall: 1:50, 3:40, 5:30, 7:35, 9:25 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:10.)

The Mission — Rated PG. (South Park: 2, 4:30, 7:25, 9:35 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:45.)

The Morning After — Rated R. (Movies on Main: tonight at 9:30, Tomorrow and Sunday at 5:45 and 9:45.)

Outrageous Fortune — Rated R. (Turlfand: 1:55, 3:50, 5:45, 7:45, 9:45 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:30. Also showing at Lexington Mall: 1:55, 3:50, 5:45, 7:45, 9:45 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:35.)

Over the Top — Rated PG. (South Park: 12:45, 2:45, 4:45, 7:45, 9:45 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:35. Also showing at North Park: 1:50, 3:45, 9:40 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:30.)

Platoon — Rated R. (South Park: 2, 3:50, 5:10, 7:40, 10, 10 and tonight and tomorrow only at 12:10. Also at North Park: 12:30, 2:50, 5:10, 7:40, 10 and tonight and tomorrow only at 12:10.)

Slaughter High — Rated R. (Fayette Mall: 2, 3:50, 5:40, 7:50, 9:35 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:15. Also showing at North Park: 1:40, 3:30, 5:15, 7:50, 9:40 and tonight and tomorrow only at 11:20.)

The Kentucky Theater — State of the Union tonight at 7:15; tomorrow at 5; Sunday at 5. Dancing in the Dark tonight at 9:45; tomorrow at 3:30; Sunday at 3. Top Gun tonight at midnight; tomorrow at 9:45; Sunday at 1. The Color of Money tomorrow at 1:30, 7:30; Sunday at 7:30. Tanya's Island tomorrow at midnight; Sunday at 9:30.

Compiled by Staff Writer Thomas J. Sullivan.

Local bar scene gets atypical alternative with opening of subcultural Thrash Can

By LESLIE ANN LYONS
Staff Writer

There's a new bar in town, and the locals are in for a culture shock.

At 117 Limestone, next to the Zebra Lounge and across from the Turf, lies a shocking hot pink structure known as the Thrash Can.

While paintings of skeletons, cartoon-like faces and what looks like a dancing dead head contrast with the black walls and the pink refrigerators.

And 1950s-style yellow and orange booths add character.

But manager of the Thrash Can, Suzy McCauley, is the real character.

Just under 5-foot-4 and usually wearing 3-inch spikes—which are just slightly thinner than her post-stick legs—McCauley is creator, assembler and instigator of the Thrash Can.

"We wanted to have a typical bar with dance bands and we met Suzy," said Julie Kader, who along with her husband, Mike, owns the bar.

Julie Kader, a Transylvania University graduate, said she never would have thought to open the unusual kind of bar, complete with slam-dance bands, that McCauley suggested.

But Kader said she likes what McCauley has done and thinks the Thrash Can is going to succeed.

Builders, painters and bartenders have been working on a voluntary basis. They've dealt with leaky pipes, electrical problems and smashed windows—without heat and pay—to make the Thrash Can a reality.

And it has been a reality since last Friday, when the doors were opened to the public for the first time.

Curious passers-by strolled in off Limestone to play a game of pool and listen to the jukebox, since there was no band.

But opening night at the Thrash Can was really no different than the week preceding it.

Bill Foley wandered in one night to serenade McCauley and her volunteers with his repertoire of "sad and lonely" songs. It was the first live performance at the Thrash Can.

Suzy McCauley is the creator, assembler, instigator and manager of the newly opened Thrash Can.

The bar is designed to offer out-of-the-ordinary entertainment in a somewhat bizarre atmosphere.

But tonight, at the official "Friday the 13th Grand Opening Party," Vale of Tears will crank out its unique jazz/thrash sound as the Thrash Can's first band.

Then tomorrow night, former members of Vegetable Miracle will debut as the Divina Swingers.

"We want to start out having local bands play," McCauley said, "then bring in out-of-town new wave and metal bands."

"And we want to get Bruce Springsteen off that jukebox," McCauley said she wants to let people of all ages in on Sundays. But the rest of the week it's "be 21 or begone."

That's it. One word—begone. Ironically, that was what was in the window of Sue's Bar, which oc-

"We want to start out having local bands play, then bring in out-of-town new wave and metal bands. And we want to get Bruce Springsteen off that jukebox."

Suzy McCauley, Thrash Can manager

cupied 117 Limestone for 13 years before the Thrash Can took over the spot.

Sue used to sit with her kerosene heaters, her refrigerators and less than a case of beer, McCauley said. And she would only sell the beer to a select few.

"If she decided not to sell it to you," McCauley said, "she had only three excuses. She had run out of beer, the beer was warm or she was about to close."

Support for the Thrash Can is obvious, she said, from the help that people have given her over the past several months and the enthusiasm that she has seen.

"Everyone needed a new place to go," she said, "and this is it. You're looking at it."

Los Lobos makes despair danceable on new LP

By ERIK REECE
Arts Editor

Light of the Moon Los Lobos/Slash Records (Warner Bros.)

Heartbreak and disillusion usually don't feel this good.

Los Lobos corralled T-Bone Burnett to produce their second LP, Light of the Moon, and the finished product has the effect of a tequila sunrise that reveals once again the problems of the day offset by remaining visions of the night before.

Wrap all of this despair around a jumpy, rockably hook, and you begin to get a feel for what it might mean to live and die nightly in shoddy bars near California's southern border.

Los Lobos comes to this album with empty hearts and a solid rhythm section that takes the edge off the downtrodden lyrics. David Hidalgo's acoustic strumming is accentuated by classic rhythm & blues riffs and a gritty falsetto sax that bursts in and out of these songs.

MUSIC REVIEW

The politics of Los Lobos are blatantly observant and simplistic. They don't propose answers, but question obvious depravity. The songs create probing vignettes strung together by beat-steady choruses.

"The Mess We're In" exemplifies such forms: "Bombs are bursting in a far off land/Fire in the sky, a soldier takes his stand/But who is to know about the rules that men make/For what honor and for whose sake/Don't know about this mess we're in."

"My Baby's Gone" and "Shakin' Shakin' Shakes" are frivolous jams that seem to depart from the slow guitar sound that is so representative of "the California sound."

"Set Me Free (Rosa Lee)" moves even further east with its bold horns and a gritty falsetto sax that bursts in and out of these songs.

"Prenda Del Alma" is a vintage Spanish tango sung in Spanish (though the lyric sheet does offer a translation). With the violin and the accordion, it sounds like the music played during the "Mexico" ride at the Epcot Center.

"River of Fools," the album's standout tract, is a solo acoustic guitar ballad that is the essence of a Mexican version of Springsteen's Nebraska. I guess a whole album of songs like this would be called Yucatan.

In any case, Hidalgo's lyrics are

PHOTO COURTESY OF WARNER BROS. RECORDS

'LIGHT OF THE MOON'

tender and thoughtful, employing an ethereal spirituality that is interspersed throughout the album: "A trio of angels holding candles of light/Guide the ship to an unknown shore/Sad soul riders with arms drawn tight/As they stopped for just one more."

UK's Sophisticates to present Broadway-style songs Sunday

By EVAN SILVERSTEIN
Staff Writer

The UK Sophisticates, a Broadway-style vocal and instrumental group, will bring their ensemble to the stage of the Center for the Arts at 3 p.m. Sunday.

The group, sponsored by the UK National Association of Alumni in accordance with the School of Music, will present an hour of singing and choreography.

Formed in January 1986, the Sophisticates consist of 15 students (12 singers and three instrumentalists), who auditioned for positions with the group. They each receive a $1,000 a year scholarship, which is provided by the Alumni Association.

The group performs jazz classics, show tunes and popular favorites.

With the focus on Broadway, the Sophisticates will perform such hits as "Puttin' on the Ritz," "There's No Business Like Show Business," and "When You Wish Upon a Star."

To add a big-stage atmosphere, the group dresses in flashy costumes like "Puttin' on the Ritz"—black skirts trimmed with rhinestones and shimmering blue sequins—offsets the black tuxedos, matching blue cummerbunds and bow ties worn by the male members.

Sunday will be the group's first performance of the semester. The Sophisticates annually perform at many alumni association functions.

"The Sophisticates are similar to ambassadors for the UK Alumni Association," said Sophisticate Julie Greenwell, an advertising junior.

Greenwell said because of alumni support, the Sophisticates have a responsibility to perform at alumni functions while maintaining a campus association.

"We needed a student performing group that could sing and entertain at alumni functions," said Jay Brumfield, director of alumni affairs. "We want the public to know that we have talented young people at UK."

Last semester the Sophisticates entertained at events such as the homecoming reunion banquet at the Radisson and the annual UK Fellows banquet in Rupp Arena.

This semester the Sophisticates hope to perform six to eight shows for the Alumni Association and in the Lexington area.

BLOOM COUNT

BY BERNE BREATHED

From the Heart

Scooter,
I love you more
today than yesterday, and less than tomorrow.
Sniffles
11

Glen
I can't wait till May 17th!
I'll love you always.
Lisa

Here's a belated Valentine across the miles. Hope it brings lots of smile!
Love you both!
Rita

Happy Valentine's

PKT David P.
Each Day is Valentine's with you & lots of LOVE + KISSES.
XX Cathy

To My Valentine-RATMAN Can't miss an opportunity to tell you I Love you and all your crazy & impre-dictable ways!!
Love,
CA-SUE

Kristin
My love to Miss WILLIE
Miss D
Miss T
Miss K

To my Prince John Michael Thanks for being my friend.
Happy Day
I Love you
YFAY!
Jackie

Sweetheart,
Our camera is white
OK is Big Blue.
My love for you will always be true!
Happy V-day my gorgeous V.G.
I love you!
Pepe 1-11
Only 4!

M.B.
I like to think of myself, Cupid.
It makes me wonder, if I am stupid,
Regardless what my thoughts may be,
My love for you is plain to see.
What I wish to try and say is I love you very much on this Valentine's Day.
LOVE MAM

Snuggle bunny - My love for you is very special. I love you so very much forever.
Snugglerabbit

Amy D.
Love is a very special experience.
I thank you for loving me and letting me love you. For the first time in my life I have felt love. Together
I know we will be very happy.
See you in a white dress on June 27.

Dr. Bob:
So you think you're an outstanding dentist and lover
And you think you'll be happy in Georg town with whomever Wake up and be my Valentine
forever!!

LISA: I LOVE YOU!
There is ONLY 3 MONTHS
TO GO 'TIL THE BIG DAY!!
GOOD LUCK WITH LAW SCHOOL ADMISSION, I LOVE YOU ALWAYS NO MATTER WHAT!
LOVE ALWAYS GLEN

XX Reid,
It's been a great 3 years. Thanks for the good times we had. Thanks for getting me through the bad Thanks for giving me so many wonderful memories.
Love Always ADD Patsy

Dear Alexander
This love note I'm sending is worth the spending because it's Valentine's Day and you should know in the worst way...
I've sent this with love with not a second to spare.
My heart is yours.
You know I'll always care.
I ask that you love me fill me with your smiles and in return...
you know I'll walk miles.
For, you are the one I love, Adore and Cherish without you I might very well perish.
Love your Woolley Monkey Tom

Ki Ki,
Today is the 13th do you need some love. Tomorrow is formal do you wanna...

Biff + Skippy
I'm your Buddy and I'm your Pal!
Love ya Lots,
Hoo Roe

Mr. DAVIES -
I Love you ALL THE WAY FROM CLEVELAND!!
- Miss HEFNER

Thanks for a great year as well.
Love, Steve
I hope you like this one Dear Steve

ADIT COBB: Missing you in Baton Rouge
To My Very Special Valentine You're my first and only Love WPB

Tom Diehl,
I love you so very much! Our love will last forever & always Donna
Combs

OG BRIDGET.
All I need is a miracle.
All I need is you!

HEIDI H.
I LOVE YOU,
I'M LOOKING FORWARD TO THIS WEEKEND FROM A SECRET ADMIRER

S.L.
YOU TURNED MY HEART UPSIDE DOWN. I'M LOOKING FORWARD TO J.F. SPRING

DIET John,
"You take my breath away"
Happy Valentines
Day
I love you,
Lizelle

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY
JEFF-NESS!
Looking forward to my 1st Big Mac on SPRING Break!
LOU ya!
Karie Pie

Don't wonder you to know that you mean more to me than anyone in this world I'm a Believer in Love

Frank,
I LOVE you!
I'm so glad you're
my valentine.
Love,
Julie

Dear Mark
"The world stands still when I'm with you."
Thank for the best year ever.
Love Always Tracy

Regina L. M.
HAPPY VALENTINE'S I'm watching
you!
AN Admirer

To Kathleen's Friend, Lover, and Mother to our Son;
the Best 7 years of My Life.
ILY

Bluto,
I love you even if you are dumb its been a great 2 months.
Happy Valentines
Day
Love
Sally

Duff, Thanks for the best 1 1/2 years of my life. You are the best friend
I could have ever had. You have stood beside me for so long and I know that I can never begin to fully thank you for everything.
You are a thoughtful, considerate person in every sense of the word and I will always be grateful that we met on that particular August day. I hope we have many more years to share together.

You,
Happy Valentine's Day
Cutie! Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
The champagne's chilling
just for you!
All my love,
Love

BUBBA, You are so special.
Too much is not enough. I love you!
TPO

Romy,
I love you more than anything.
Michael

To my Forever George,
Cupid blessed me twice,
When he sent you my way.
Not only can I say I love you
But also Happy Birthday!
Cupid was there again on the Happiest day of my life,
When he shot me on the stairwell
And you asked me to be your wife.
You're forever in my heart!
Love, Kristi

ADP:
Lil' Blood-Haired Girl!
Get ready for a HOT time Sat. Nite. We're going to have a TUB full of fun.
ILY, Scampson

Arthur Wayne, Never doubt how special you are, not only to me but to everyone
I know that you'll always be with me and that you have a part of me that no one else will ever capture.
Yours with love, Karen

Ron,
You are the best thing that has ever happened to me.
I love you more
& more every day You're the greatest!
Happy Valentines
Day
Love, Karen

YA POOP, I'M GLAD WE MET AND TOOK OUR CHANCES. I'M HAPPY FOR EVERY DAY WE'RE TOGETHER.
YOU KNOW I'LL ALWAYS BE HERE FOR YOU, NO MATTER WHAT MAY COME.
WOOF! LOVE WISER THAN MY DADS

KIM You slur your words sometimes but I love you anyway.
GREG

Ducky,
It's you I love
the best.
your better than all the rest.
I'll LOVE Always,
P.C.

Kim,
- SURPRISE, HONEY.
I PLAN ON MAKING-SURE YOU HAVE A VERY HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY. I LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART, HONEY
LOVE!!
BRIAN

Sweetie-cakes
I LOVE YOU!
Happy Valentine's Day!! yours forever
JMB

To my Precious
I LOVE YOU!!!
Happy
Valentine's Day.
Love
Bart

Toddler-
The happy police are after me & it's all your fault!
I love you!
Darlene
L.A.

Scott Cave-man
Is this Love?
Well, don't labor under Day
Cause, you've got it real!
And I'll tell you 29 times or more,
I Love You!
Dawn

Δ2 New Initiates
Cant wait till Sunday, but tonite
you can dance till your "HEARTS" content!!!
Δ2 LOVE, THE ACTIVES

Kathleen
You are so sweet & Dear to me,
My Heart you've given mine,
I know our Love was meant to be,
So be my Love & Valentine
I Love you
- Forever - Shafer

See,
You have fulfilled all my hopes & dreams,
I love you,
More

LYAN,
Just a little
"LUV" note to tell you how very special you are!
Love,
S.M.C.

You're too awesome Paige!
Love
Keith

TO Annette,
My FAVORITE ESKIMO. I'm Gonna get the rest of your heart!
Love, Steve

DANA, ROSES ARE RED
MISSES ARE GOLD
I KNOW THE TRUTH THAT YOU'RE NOT SO COLD.
YOU'RE SO PRETTY YOU'RE SO NICE
I'M REALLY PROUD TO BE DATING THE ICE I'LL KEV

Julie,
Happy Valentines
Day to my Love, my Day to my Pearl, my Girl, my Pearl, my Turtle Dove. Life with you is great it seems. I Love you more than Coke-N-Beans
All my Love
June

Major Luscious:
For Life, laughter, and the years...
I love you.
SuzetteBear

'87 Kob,
You're a really sweet guy. Please don't think I'm pushy, but would you be my Valentine?
Love,
L.T.

TO THE BEAUTIFUL PHYCHIC-
I LOVE YOU!!
HAPPY VALENTINES
DAY!
LOVE, POTATOE

AJ
THE ROSES TURNED OUT ALL WRONG
THE VIOLETS SEEMED SOMEWHAT GRAY
BUT "HEAVEN" IS STILL THE SONG
SO HOW ABOUT THIS SUNDAY?
SIGNED 10:00 AM
! WAITING

HAPPY V-DAY * MATTHEW! * HOW ABOUT A HOT FUDGE CAKE?!
GUESS WHAT!...
... target...
Luv ya!
Fred's friend

Palenie Lucille B., I loved you yesterday, I'll love you tomorrow and forever,
I love you today. I often you the only thing that is truly mine to give - my love. I am forever yours.
To borrow words from years, I love the changing borrow of your face and the pilgrim soul in you.
You are the best!
Mac Ruedraigh O'Flanagan

IN John F.
Happy
Valentines Day!
You're the sweetest dog-gone Valentine ever!
All my love,
Helly

Officials say minority departments need more state funding

Continued from Page 1

campus designated as a cultural center.

"We call it our Cross-Cultural Center," Gore said. It serves as a black cultural center for "white and black students."

Western has also made a recent move to expand its department. Phyllis Gatewood, Western's minority student recruiter, was hired two months ago. Before Gatewood, Malone acted as recruiter, as well as director of scholastic activities for minority students.

Lack of funds isn't the only reason for the low numbers of blacks in higher education. "One of the biggest problems is the awareness factor," Gore said. He said many potential black college students aren't aware of the funding available to them. Some don't even believe they have the intelligence to go to college, he said.

"A lot of the (black) students may not feel that they've reached the level of intelligence to go to college," Elam said. Financial aid is only a problem if the students don't know about it, he said.

"High school guidance counselors don't inform them about aid," minority administrators blame many of the problems on elementary and secondary school officials. "Not only does it start in high school, but in the junior high system," Malone said.

Simpson said problems could be solved if recruiters helped the students more.

"There is a lot of money that is owed to the minority students in this state."

Mike Elam,
director of minority student affairs,
Eastern Kentucky University

"I would try to reach (potential) college students early enough that the recruiter can help the student fill out the financial aid forms" and inform them of college requirements, he said.

Most of the problems are with the public high schools, Simpson said. "I think that the private schools deal much better (with student needs) than public schools," he said.

Private schools take the time to counsel minority students on their college potential. Public schools often don't take the time, Simpson said.

This is often because of "the lack of sensitivity and information on the need to further their education," Malone said.

Sensitivity is enhanced, Elam said, by staffing minority affairs departments with minorities. "I think it is important for students to see someone that they can identify with."

A minority member can relate better to the problems of a minority student, Elam said. In a lot of cases, the minority member will have experienced similar problems.

Melvin Turner, coordinator of education services at the University of Louisville, said "more minority faculty and staff should be hired." It's important for minority students to be able to relate their experiences to another minority member, he said.

Another problem is apathy among the black students already enrolled in college, Simpson said. "A bigger commitment is needed," he said. "We (at Northern) don't have as much apathy on our campus (as UK does). From a data standpoint, we've been very successful in talking to black students. I've been told we're better than UK."

With 97 minority students at Northern, Simpson said he beats UK in both numbers and percentages as far as participation in minority functions and programs. "We don't have as much apathy on our campus," he said.

"You can visit the campuses around the state and see where the commitment is and where it isn't in a couple of minutes," Simpson said.

"We're doing a heck of a lot of good things, but we could do more," he said. "You can always do more."

Israelis, Shiites attack Palestinian camps

By MOHAMMED SALAM
Associated Press

BEIRUT, Lebanon — Israeli jets attacked a Palestinian camp near the southern port of Sidon yesterday, and Shiite Muslim militiamen battled Palestinian guerrillas at refugee camps in Beirut and in the south.

In Damascus, officials haggled over how to get food into refugee camps that have been cut off for three months.

Police said two people were killed and nine wounded in the Shiite attacks on Palestinian camps in Beirut and near Tyre in south Lebanon.

A dozen Israeli fighter-bombers bombed two buildings used by the mainstream Fatah guerrilla faction near the ancient southern port of Sidon, police reported. Fatah is led by Yasser Arafat, chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Casualties from the Israeli bombing at dawn on the outskirts of the Mieh Mieh camp were given as one civilian killed and three people wounded, including two guerrillas.

There is no known coordination between the Israelis and the Shiite militia Amal, which is attacking the Palestinians on the ground, but they have the common aim of keeping the PLO from regaining the Lebanese base it lost in Israel's 1982 invasion.

In west Beirut, a prominent Syrian Christian politician, Jean Obeid, 50, was abducted yesterday. Police said gunmen in a white BMW intercepted his chauffeur-driven limousine on the seafont Raouche boulevard, fired at the occupants and dragged him out.

Police would not speculate on reasons for the abduction of Obeid, a former adviser to President Amin Gemayel on Syrian affairs.

Syria, the main power broker in Lebanon, has 25,000 troops in east and north Lebanon.

The bombing raid near Sidon was the fifth Israeli air strike on Palestinian targets in Lebanon this year.

Shiite militiamen have surrounded the Beirut camps and the Rashidiyyeh camp at Tyre in the south throughout the battle, cutting them off from supplies of food and medicine to replenish dwindling stock piles. For years the camps have maintained stores of arms and food, often in underground bunkers and tunnels, to see them through times of siege.

Fighting flared at the camps despite a cease-fire arranged by Syria under which the Palestinians would withdraw from Amal territory they captured when they broke out of camps near Sidon in November. Syria supports Amal and anti-Arafat Palestinian factions.

The truce agreement was reached Tuesday after reports that the besieged camps were running out of food and inhabitants were eating dogs, cats and rats. No firsthand reports on life in the camps are available because reporters cannot get through the Amal lines.

Policy

Continued from Page 1

language is not English would be required to score 50 on the TOEFL.

They would also be required to score 50 on the TSE and go through an extensive orientation program, which would help determine their ability to communicate with UK students.

Debate at yesterday's council meeting stemmed from a recommendation that Singletary asked it to make at its Dec. 11 meeting.

Among the changes that the council suggested the administration make in the proposal is a recommendation that students be allowed to screen and evaluate teaching assistants.

However, the council recommended that students not be permitted to take part in training and monitoring.

Some administrators, however, took exception to the idea that students would be evaluating other students.

"I feel uncomfortable having students decide who is employable and deciding who or who should not have access to a classroom," said Daniel Reedy, associate dean for academic affairs in the Graduate School.

"I firmly believe in the involvement of students, but I also believe that administrative functions are not the role of students."

Reedy said students should be involved in determining the policy for hiring international teaching assistants but should not have the right to be involved in the screening process.

SGA President Donna Greenwell, who used the issue of foreign-speaking teaching assistants on her campaign platform last year, said students should be allowed to evaluate the teaching assistants.

"Since they are the ones who are going to have to listen to these teachers, they should have the right to be involved in the screening," she said.

Pointing to her own involvement on the presidential and vice chancellor for student affairs search committees, Greenwell said the University has established a precedent for allowing students to screen job applicants.

"It is common for students to participate in the screening of administration officials," she said. "Students who are chosen to serve on (the international teaching assistants screening committee) will do a nice job, and it is essential that they have input into this process."

After almost six months of discussion, the council's recommendation moves the proposed policy on international teaching assistants one step closer to being approved in time for implementation this fall.

The council's recommendation will now be sent for approval to Art Gallaher, chancellor for the Lexington campus.

If Gallaher approves the recommendation, it will be written into the policy now being drafted by Paul Sears, a special assistant to Singletary.

Singletary can either sign the proposal, which would make it part of the Administrative Regulations, or submit it to the Board of Trustees for consideration.

In another move, the Senate Council decided to create an ad hoc committee to study the effects of a two-day "dead week" on the University.

The two-day break, which was endorsed by SGA Wednesday night in a 13-7 roll-call vote, could pose a variety of logistical problems to the University calendar, said Wilbur Frye, council chairman.

"This University is locked pretty tightly into the academic calendar and to change it, you'll have to change a lot of things," he said.

Frye told the council that he has heard a lot of "vehement" opposition to Weaver's proposal and that the only way it could pass in the University Senate would be to study the proposal thoroughly.

One council member, Loys Mathers, agreed with Frye, saying, "You must be as thorough as you can before it goes to the senate so it looks like you covered your bases."

Rights

Continued from Page 1

across the state that discussed the rights of the victim. The attorney general said he heard "horror stories" from Kentucky's citizens.

"Mad, they were, outraged and delighted to see someone who wanted to see change," he said. Armstrong cited several American citizens who have formed action groups that have lobbied for more victims' rights as a "strong force in change in America."

When asked if he felt such groups might overshadow the rights of the accused, Armstrong replied, "I think it is a concern that everyone needs to be aware of, but I'm not ready to say that is going to happen because the battle is not over."

During his three-year tenure as state attorney general, Armstrong said he has become increasingly aware of the legal problems encountered by the elderly citizens of Kentucky.

In response to these problems, Armstrong's office has created the Older Kentuckian Advocacy Division, a program developed exclusively to aid and educate the elderly.

Armstrong said he hopes the program will begin by mid-March.

"We (the office of the attorney general) are going to be an advocate for the older Kentuckian," he said.

Armstrong said the program will aid the elderly in areas rang-

"We (the office of the attorney general) are going to be an advocate for the older Kentuckian."

David Armstrong,
state attorney general

ing from long-term medical insurance problems to legal assistance.

"I think it's going to be a good program," Armstrong said. "I'm excited that this might be something the attorney general may develop and use in the future."

Armstrong, who is in the final year of his term as attorney general, is seeking the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor this May.

However, he promised that the new division would not be ignored.

"No matter where I am," he said, "I'm going to be up at the (state) legislature making sure they're working on it."

He also warned against future attorneys general who might attempt to do away with the division.

"If you let the next guy come along and do away with it, raise hell," he said. "Throw him out of office."

803 TONIGHT!

393 Waller Ave.
Imperial Plaza
233-1717

- 1.85 Pitcher
- 1.00 Mixed Drinks
- 25c Drafts
- 25c Kamikazes

(Now open Sunday for food 12 noon - 11 p.m.)

537 S. Limestone
253-0014

Friday Night
SALMON FILETS

Saturday Night
CHICKEN TALESE

ALFALEA

Friday FANCY PANTS
(formerly Squirrel Bait) and 9 lb HAMMER
Saturday THIRD HEAVEN and HAPPY DEATH

GREAT SCOTT'S      SCOTT and BROADWAY
DOORS OPEN at 7:00 pm      252-9514

ORIGINAL THIN AND CRISPY PIZZA
WEEKEND SPECIAL

JUST CALL

6.99

Lg. Original 2 topping
Lg. Original Supreme
Med. Original 4 topping

253-2111
Offer good only at 384 Woodland Ave.

FIRST CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE
1725 Bryon Station Rd.
Phone: 299-6300

Sunday School 9:30 a.m.
Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.
Evening Service 6 p.m.
Wed. Service 7:30 p.m.
Bryan Laymon, Sr. Pastor

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Central Baptist Church
Short Street at Walnut Englewood 233-1551
"The sower, the seed, and the sowers!"
by Dr. M. Glynn Burke

Youth Sunday
Chapel Service 8:45 Worship 11:00

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION
429 Columbia Ave.
257-3989
Contact: Twila Greene
Weekly Meetings:
(TNT) Tues. 7:30 p.m.
Lunch for $1.00:
(D and L Grill)
Thurs. 12:15 p.m.
Baptist Student Union
a place to belong

SOUTHSIDE CHURCH OF CHRIST
Bible Study 9:30 a.m.
Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.
Evening Worship 6:00 p.m.
Wed. Eve. Worship 7:00 p.m.
1533 Nicholasville Rd. 278-9533
ACTIVE AND GROWING MINISTRY TO THE CAMPUS
Church of Christ Student Group
Craig Culbertson, Campus Minister:
299-4607

ESPECIALLY FOR YOU...

The Christian Student Fellowship
at the University of Kentucky

Services...
Sunday Worship 11:00 a.m. at C.S.F.
Thurs. Bible Study 7:00 p.m. at C.S.F.

WOODLAND C.S.F.
COLUMBIA ROSE

Transportation can be provided. Please phone Warren Jones, Minister at 233-0313.

GOOD READING!

GO GO DANCERS
No Cover Charge
4-8 Mon.-Sat.
Starting Friday Feb. 13

With
Love

Allan (smile lines) loves - You're it! Happy Valentine's Day, Carolyn.
Angie of ADA with our Big Brothers, Happy Valentine's Day!
April, Happy Valentine's! From Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Don and Cort.
Barney and "the Gun" - I love you! Love, T.S.S.
Beauregard, good luck at your game! Happy Valentine's Day, K.L.
Betty, looking forward to meet snuggle session. Love, Al.
Big Tex, Happy Valentine's. Love the Tri-Club Society of America.
Brad, Happy Valentine's Day! Just be-cause I love you! Love, Steve.
Bridgett, I'm crazy for you. Dave.
Bryan, I love you (and the King) 'til I die. Sydney.
Bunny Rabbit, my only valentine. Happy Valentine's Day. Love, Teddy.
Cathy, Believe in our love under dream. Australia Love, Keith.
Chris, thanks for everything. I love you always. Casey.
Dear Lynn, who can eat my hamburger anytime? Love, Tula.
Evelyn, will you be my Valentine? I love you. Neeson.
E.P.A.R. - Phantasmagoric odd awes-ome, incredible, fantastic, unparal-leled, comfortable, fun, perfect.
Happy VD Mich! Your secret admirer, S.S. Love those feet!
My Brat, Will you be mine? Happy Val-entine's Day. Dallace.
Rapper - Happy V.D. Party with me, don't forget my contacts.
"INDY", you have my friendship, now take my heart. Michelle IV.
Jeff, I love you bunches and always will. Love, Sheila.

Kath, I'm so happy with you. I love you. Len.
Kimberly, love you! Will you be my valentine? Jan.
Liz, Happy VD your snower or mine? Love, Ted Bear.
Lori, You love I now always love and love forever.
Mike, thanks for a SUPER weekend! Katy in TX. Love, Li!
Mr. and Mrs. Cline thanks for Dee-Dee's great Eric.
Pamela, Love, sure is the greatest love of all. Bear.
Rhonda Cinderella, I hope you like this Valentine's Day. Doug.
Robert, You're a true friend. God bless Friends always. Kenny.
Robin, I just wrote, to say, I love you. Stephen.
Sig Ed Andy, Happy Valentine's. Love, the Big Book Crew.
Sonya, PJ says lets do lunch! Happy Valentine's Day.
Susan, Happy Valentine's Day sweet-heart! Love you Love, Curt.
Sydney, You're the best pal. I love you lots. Brian.
Ted Wilson, your love makes life better. Thanks. Cute Fox.
Terry, you're the only one for me! I love you.
To my sweetie, here's to three won-derful years. Love, Cinnamon.
Waste Product, Forget about Abby. Let's create. Happy Valentine's Day.

SWEETHEART SPECIAL
$5.95

One 12" one item pizza and two 12 oz. cans of Coke® for only $5.95!

Enjoy your hot, delicious pizza from Domino's Pizza with a special friend. No coupon necessary. Just ask! Not valid with any other coupons or offers. Expires: 2-15-87.

DOMINO'S PIZZA DELIVERS® FREE.

Drivers carry less than $20.00. Limited delivery area. ©1986 Domino's Pizza, Inc.

276-4437
1641 Nicholasville Rd.

269-9655
801 Euclid Ave.

RADIO FREE LEXINGTON'S GOT YOUR NUMBER and we're going to use it!

Your donation will help bring the new Sound of College Radio at UK

THE SOUND YOU WANT TO HEAR RADIO FREE LEXINGTON PHONE-A-THON Feb. 15-19

DIAL-A-VALENTINE
for your SWEETHEART

SEND a bouquet of Cookies - A Love Basket
- A bouquet of balloons!

Dial-a-Gift® CREATE YOUR OWN!
Gourmet candy, Decorated cakes
CALL 252-0230

124 Clay Ave.
Visa, MC, American Express

The Belle is the most,
We toast the Host!

Sigma Nu and Kappa Alpha Theta Spring Belle '87

KILLER
IBM Compatible!

COMPLETE 640K
IBM PC/XT Compatible Computer With Hard Disk Drive
$1095

Datalex
1220 VERSAILLES ROAD
LEESBORO, NY 40508 606-255-2298 OR 606-255-1522

Metro Barber & style shop

1463 Leestown Rd. in Meadowthorpe
252-8363

Student Special:
UNLIMITED USE $50.00
From now until Spring Break
Now's the time to get ready for Spring Break!

FUTURES FOR YOUTH 9-BALL BILLIARDS TOURNAMENT helped sponsored by SAE

Entry deadline Sat., Feb. 14 either by phone or at SAE.

Future for Youth 259-2744
SAE House 258-5442

Psst. Have you heard? The Kentucky Kernel is the 4th largest morning daily in Kentucky! Advertise in the Kernel. we bring results.
257-2872.

LIBRARY LIVE!
Euclid at Woodland Ave.
- Next to UK
254-8127

and THUMPER the PLAID RABBITS

WED-FEMALE DANCE REVIEW
THURS. MALE DANCE REVIEW
4 BLACKJACK TABLES

big daddy liquors

372 Woodland Ave.
In the University Plaza
Shopping Center

 SEAGRAM'S 7-CROWN 13.49 1.75 liter	 EARLY TIMES 5.59 750ml
 SEAGRAM'S VODKA 5.63 750ml	 MARTINI &amp; ROSSI ASTI SPUMANTE 8.49 750ml
 PEPE LOPEZ TEQUILA 5.49 750ml	 STROH'S 15 pk 5.19

red roses

Michler Florist

417 E. MAXWELL ST.
just 2 blocks from UK Campus
254-0383

BEARDED SEALE Tonight!
BAD GUYS

Saturday!
REPEAT OPTION

Friday Happy Hour
STAN GIBBONS
50¢ DRAFT $1.25 DRINKS

February Lunch Special 11-3
25¢ DRAFT
Soup and Sandwich w/chips
$2.99