

To Editors: The news in this Bulletin is prepared for the press and is released for publication on receipt.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY PRESS BULLETIN

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Lexington, Ky.

PUBLISHED BI-WEEKLY BY THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY.

November 1, 1919

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

Vol. III. No. 2

COOPERATIVE COUNCIL OUTLINES ITS PROGRAM

In the meeting of the Co-operative Council of Kentucky held in the office of the President of the University of Kentucky the following legislative program to be presented to the Legislature was determined upon:

Thru the suggestion of the Consumers' League that two bills, the eight hour a day bill and the Minimum Wage bill, to be determined by a member of each industry was introduced.

Thru suggestion of the Federation of Women's Clubs a civil service bill on which a federal agent is to work; a bill to raise the age of the protection of girls to 18; and for additional funds to be appropriated for the purchase of equipment for Pine Bluff, at Shelbyville, to which girls formerly at Greendale Reform school have been removed, was determined upon. Also a desire was expressed to cooperate with the Library Commission. And suggestions were introduced for an appropriation for adequate dormitory room for the girls at the University, for equipping a laboratory in the Home Economics Department, and for the provision of a juvenile attendance officer for schools in each county of the State.

The Co-operative Council is a body composed of representatives of the various agencies in the State associated with social welfare work in any way. Its personnel is composed of representatives from the National Child Labor Board, the State Board of Public Welfare, the Consumers' League, the Federation of Women's Clubs, the State Board of Health, and the Welfare League of Louisville.

The purpose of this society is to unite the social workers of the State for the purpose of procuring a thorough and constructive social program.

About 25 of the most prominent people of the State were in attendance, among whom were Dr. A. T. McCormick, secretary of the State Board of Health; Ballard Thurston, Manager of the Red Cross, stationed at Louisville; Dr. Milton Board of the State Board of Health, Bureau of Venereal Diseases; Dr. J. F. Smith, professor of Social Science, Berea College; Miss Linda Neville, Society for Protection of the Blind; C. E. Gibbons, National Child Labor Committee; R. P. Halleck, Kentucky Consumers' League; Professor King, American Red Cross at Berea; Miss Mabel Ellis, Raymond Fuller, and Doctor Edmund Clopper and W. H. Swift, National Child Labor Association; Professor Carl Hunt, Berea College; Miss Lida Hafford, American Red Cross; Mrs. Lafon Ricker, President Federation of Women's Clubs; Miss Alice Lloyd, Community Club, Maysville; Doctor J. S. Lock, Kentucky Tuberculosis Association; Elwood Street, Director of the Welfare League, Louisville; Doctor Harry Best, Director of American Red Cross, University of Kentucky; Professors Weist and Cleland, Economics Department, and Doctor F. L. McVey, president of the University.

CAMPUS TO BE HOOKED UP WITH THE WORLD

Direct messages from Berlin and other European and Oriental points will be received in the near future by students of the University of Kentucky who are setting up wireless apparatus for a receiving station.

Twelve students in the College of Engineering interested in wireless telegraphy have organized a club and are meeting twice a week until the station is completed. Within a few days they expect to be in communication with universities in other states.

DRAMA ACTIVITIES INVITE EMULATION

The pamphlet, "Community Drama, Little Theatre, and Pageantry Service," published by the Department of University Extension of the University of Kentucky for the purpose of aiding in and encouraging the production of drama throughout the State, has been commended by the National University at Washington. Requests have been made for a number of copies to be sent to various colleges throughout the country who are conducting extension departments.

The substance of the publication sent out by the University is as follows:

(1) The University will make suggestions regarding the production of pageants and plays by communities and organizations of amateurs in schools, colleges, churches and other organizations.

(2) The University will lend copies of pageants and plays for examination. The organization wishing service in this regard should tell us the type of production it desires. We will then recommend several plays or pageants and send copies. The copies are to be returned as soon as the play is chosen and a supply of manuscripts ordered.

(3) The University will lend books on the production of plays and pageants. These will be helpful to teachers and others who have local pageants and high school dramatics in charge. Bibliographies for reading and study will also be furnished on request.

(4) In a limited number of instances the University may send a representative to assist in organizing and producing a pageant or a community theatre or dramatic club. No charge except expenses will be made for this service.

(5) The University will assist in organizing local centers of the Drama League of America by sending literature, model constitutions and work programs and by securing the assistance of the Organization Department of the Drama League of America and of the representative of the League in Kentucky. This service may be secured merely by the payment of expenses.

UNIVERSITY PARTICIPATES IN HOME SERVICE PROGRAM

A distinctive feature of the State Red Cross Conference which was held in Lexington October 16-18 was practical demonstration day held at the Lexington Country Club in which members of the faculty and students of the University took prominent part. Demonstrations in cooking were given by Miss Marietta Eichelberger of the Home Economics staff and Miss Virginia Croft, a student in the department.

A playlet entitled, "Home Service in Action," was also given by the students in the Home Service Department. These students were trained by Miss Pauline Wherry who came from Cleveland especially for that purpose.

FRESHIES WIN TUG-OF-WAR

After three minutes of combat the Freshman Class of the University of Kentucky, succeeded in pulling the Sophomore Class thru Clifton Pond in the suburbs of Lexington, at the annual tug-of-war held last week to decide supremacy of the two lower classes.

TAU BETA PI PLEDGES MEMBERS FOR THE YEAR

The following members of the University of Kentucky Senior Class, were pledged to the Tau Beta Pi, honorary Engineering fraternity, at its regular fall pledging period, held in the college chapel, Friday, October 24: R. S. Parks, Richmond; C. R. McClure, Lawrenceburg; J. T. Guthrie, Mount Sterling.

R. M. Dealtry, of Brazil, was pledged as the Tau Beta Pi scholar of the Junior class who had maintained the highest scholarship in his first two years.

The Tau Beta Pi is the highest honor possible for a man to obtain in the engineering college. Two pledging services are held a year in which men who have made the highest records in the junior year and one man who has made the highest record for his Freshman and Sophomore years, the Tau Beta Pi Scholar, are admitted.

Active members of the fraternity are: C. W. Gordon, Lexington; N. W. Knight, Louisville; R. W. Waterfill, Lawrenceburg; J. C. Morris, Lexington; D. W. Choate, Covington; E. E. Elsey, Lexington.

SOLDIER-STUDENTS EXEMPTED FROM DRILL

Men students of the University of Kentucky who served in the army or navy during the war will not be required to drill in the University battalion for the rest of the present semester, pending congressional action.

In addition to the twenty-five disabled veterans in the student body, sixty men students saw service in this country or in France. Many of these feel that they have had sufficient military training. Exemption was granted to service men by the University council.

Uniforms were issued to students Wednesday. Owing to enrollment of additional students recently requisition for more uniforms has been sent to the War Department.

SHORT COURSES OFFERED IN AGRICULTURE AND ECONOMICS

Short Courses in Agriculture and Home Economics will begin November 3 and continue until February 27 at the University of Kentucky. Neither entrance examination nor high school graduation is required and preparation is being made for enrollment of a large number of students.

The following courses are being offered in the College of Agriculture: Soil Management, Crop Production, Gas Engines and Tractors, Farm Sanitation, Plant Diseases, Breeds of Livestock and Judging, Livestock Feeding, Dairy Production, Dairy Manufactures, Poultry, Diseases of Livestock, Killing and Curing of Meats, Injurious Insects, Bee Keeping, Fruit and Vegetable Growing, Farm Management, Agricultural Economics, Marketing and Market Organization.

In Home Economics the courses are to be: Principles of Cookery, Cooking for the Sick, Dietetics, Clothing, Dressmaking, Home Sanitation, Home Management, Cafeteria Management.

TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE

Armistice day will be celebrated at the University of Kentucky at the chapel exercises Tuesday, November 11. A speaker of prominence will make the address and there will be suitable patriotic music.

EXTENSION COURSES COVER WIDE FIELD

As a distinctive departure in educational work, the University of Kentucky is offering correspondence courses in a wide field of educational activities. The object of this department is to provide, at the smallest possible expense and in the most practical manner, the highest type of education possible to the citizens of the Commonwealth who are unable to attend educational institutions. It is held that the University of Kentucky should be in close relationship with the homes of the State to the end that any citizen might feel free to call upon the University for any assistance which the institution can render.

The list of courses includes Agriculture, Art and Design, Botany, Economics, Education, English, French, German, Greek, History, Latin, Mathematics, Mechanical Drawing, Mining and Road Building.

A complete description of the courses appears in the bulletin of the Department of University Extension, and anyone interested may obtain one from Wellington Patrick, director of this work.

SENIOR COURT GIVES OUT LIST OF RULES

Rules to direct the behavior of all underclassmen and intended for the welfare of the University of Kentucky have been issued by the Senior Court of the University of Kentucky with a promise of dire results if they are disobeyed. Offenders will be called before the senior court to explain any departure from the path of righteousness.

The more important rules in brief are: Freshmen shall at all times assume a respectful and deferential attitude toward upperclassmen; underclassmen shall attend every athletic rally; no member of the University shall use the paths for short cuts across the grass; no person shall paint numerals on or otherwise deface the walls and buildings of the University; no freshman shall "break" a Senior at a dance; and no one but Seniors may wear corduroy trousers, mustaches, carry canes, or appear on the campus uncovered.

UNDERCLASSMEN ELECT OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

The following officers have been elected to lead the Sophomore class in the University of Kentucky for the present collegiate year: Albert Hukle, Lexington, President; Margaret Harbison, Shelbyville, Vice-President; W. G. Ketauer, Leitchfield, Treasurer; Margaret Smith, Maysville, Secretary; Walter Morris, Lexington, Cheer Leader.

The officers of the Freshman class for the year are: J. Frank Wilson, Lexington, President; Miss Anna Belle Hall, Maysville, Vice-President; Miss Virginia Griffith, Ghent, Secretary; L. T. Pottinger, Auburn, Treasurer.

BOOK STORE ON THE CAMPUS.

Among improvements at the University is the new book store in the basement of Administration Building. It is a branch of the University Book Store of the city and is under personal direction of Frank Battaille. The store handles all books and school supplies needed by students and its proximity facilities the procuring of the right books by the students.

KENTUCKY CITIES CALL FOR EXTENSION LEADERSHIP

The Woman's History Club of Mount Sterling has applied to the Department of University of Kentucky Extension for the establishing of a Lecture Center similar to the one now being conducted at Maysville. A suitable program is now being arranged.

These lectures are given from time to time by members of the University Staff along lines of interest to people making application for the center. At present the Community Club at Maysville is studying Social Service problems and the first lecture, on "Hours of Labor and the Minimum Wage," has already been delivered by Doctor Weist, of the Economics Department. Other lectures to be given at a subsequent date are:

Women and Child Labor by Miss Frances Jewell, Department of English.

Delinquency and Crime by Doctor C. B. Cornell, Department of Psychology.

Charity and Relief Work by Doctor Harry Best, Department of Social Service.

Community Recreation by Doctor J. S. Cleland, Department of Economics. Social Hygiene by Doctor C. A. Shull, Department of Botany.

The History Club of Mount Sterling is studying the public school system and the lectures will be planned along this line.

Before each lecture a bibliography is sent out by which the hearers may prepare themselves on questions to be discussed. Each lecture, also, is followed by a general discussion. The program for the lecture and the lecturers are made out and selected by the Department of Extension whose office is to arrange for these centers wherever there is demand. It is hoped that four or five will be established before the end of the year.

ALUMNI NOMINATE FOR BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Six nominees for alumni members of the Board of Trustees were announced at meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the University of Kentucky in their regular meeting October 2.

The Nominees are: E. W. Webb, Lexington; W. H. Grady, Louisville; H. P. Ingels, New York; W. C. Bronaugh, Chicago; H. A. Babb, Ludlow; A. E. Ewan, Greenville, Ky.

These nominations are indicated by written ballot by members of the Alumni Association and are counted by the Executive Committee of the Board. In a like manner three of their number will be elected by the Alumni Association in December. One other of the nominees will be appointed by the governor.

"WILDCATS" PURSUED BY CRUEL FOOTBALL "JINKS"

During the last two weeks University of Kentucky Wildcats played two of the hardest football games on their schedule and, though fighting gamely against heavy odds, went down in defeat in both.

Saturday, October 11, Indiana University Crimson in a ragged game defeated Kentucky 24 to 0. The outstanding stars of the Kentucky eleven were: William Culp, Louisville; Ernest McIlvain, Cynthiaana; John Heber, Lexington, and James Server, Henderson. October 18, University of Kentucky played Ohio State. The score stood 49 to 0 in favor of Ohio. Willaman and "Chick" Harley, the All-American half back, were contributory causes of Kentucky's defeat.