Somewhere else in France

Dear Folks: - Haven't written since about Sept 8. The cause has been our rapid movements and our inability to get material and our letters censored. We are best now where there is a Y.M.C.A. available, and a fellow feels safe to sit down and write a letter without being disturbed.

Since my last letter I have gone "over the top" we advanced several miles, took a ~~village~~ went beyond and dug in and have held our positions. Our company took a large number of German prisoners and material. There are any number
