

Charles A. Taft,
A. S. Taft,
112 East Third Street,
Cincinnati, O.

February 10, 1904.

Mr. John Means,
Ashland, Ky.

My dear Mr. Means:-

Do you ever come to Cincinnati? If so, I should like to see you very much in regard to Mr. Mack's affairs.

I understand that he owes you something like $10,000.: financially, he has got into a very bad condition and steps must be taken to protect what money his creditors may have claims for. I should like to talk it over with you, if you come to the city.

Very truly yours,

Charles A. Taft