Dearest Bessie,

received your letter this morning. was more than glad to hear from you and that you are well.

This leaves me in fine health. and Dearie it is only four days until I will be with you. but that is a long time when I want to see you so bad. it is awfully sweet of you to spend your supper hours in writing to me. I know that you will have to work hard during meal. and I don't like to see you work
