FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Happy St. Patrick's Day! Attached to the back of this GB is a survey from the LSO Social Committee. Please take the time to read it and fill it out. Remember - the more you tell LSO the better they can serve you.

SPEAKING OF LSO...

LSO NEEDS YOU! This year promises to be a good one for the Library Staff Organization, but to be successful we need your support. Membership dues are $5 and can be paid by cash or check (made out to LSO) and given to me, Jennifer Geran. I can usually be found in the Ref/ILL department in King South. Upon payment of dues, you will receive your very own LSO membership card (personally autographed by Judy Fugate herself) and will be entitled to all the rights and privileges accorded any member of this select yet fun-loving organization. Hurry while supplies last. (Submitted by Jennifer Geran.)

DEAN'S FORUM

The third lecture in the 1985-86 College of Arts and Sciences Dean's Forum is presented by Tom D. Dillehay, Department of Anthropology. Entitled "The Earliest American Cultures: Human Entry and Adaptation to the New World," the lecture will be held in the W. Hugh Peal Gallery at noon on Wednesday, March 26, 1986.

FROM THE "TRY IT--YOU'LL LIKE IT" DEPARTMENT

A recent note to Reference from an anonymous library staff member:

I tried the LS/2000 for the first time yesterday. I loved it. I felt warm towards it. Instructions are just right...I am so happy to love it so and kind of surprised that I do.

If you have not used the staff training packet for LS/2000, pick one up in the Reference Room and use it at one of the online public access terminals there. Medical Center Library also has OPACs, and terminals are available by special arrangement in Circulation, Online Cataloging, and P/N/M. (Submitted by Brad Grissom.)

COMMONWEALTH INSTITUTE FOR TEACHERS

The Kentucky Department of Education is sponsoring its 3rd annual Commonwealth Institute for Teachers at the University of Kentucky this summer. University of Kentucky faculty members are being sought to serve as discussion leaders for the institute. A stipend of $750 will be paid, and it includes participation in the conference (July 13-19) and at two follow-up weekends in October and March (1987). If you are interested in applying, send a curriculum vitae and a letter of application to the Dr. Donald Sands' office (Academic Affairs, 7 Administration Building, 0032). For more information, contact Faith Harders at 257-1585. Deadline is March 17.

GRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIP

The Multidisciplinary Center of Gerontology is sponsoring a graduate research assistantship for the academic year 1986/87 to be awarded to a faculty member interested or engaged in research pertaining to aging or the aged. The assistantship pays $5,400, but does not include the payment of in-state tuition. To apply send a current curriculum vitae and a one or two page proposal to Graham D. Rowles, Multidisciplinary Center of Gerontology, 101 Sanders-Brown Building, 40536-0230. Phone 233-5471 for details.

OMS LIBRARY SKILLS INSTITUTE

The ARL/OMS Basic Library Management Skills Institute will be held in Louisville April 13-16, 1986. This institute was previously announced in the November 18, 1985 Green Bean. Contact Kerry Kresse at 257-5954 for last minute details.

APPALACHIAN CENTER CONFERENCE

The Appalachian Center, in conjunction with the College of Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School, is sponsoring the two-day conference on Multidisciplinary Community Studies, April 3-4, 1986. The conference features Theodore Caplow, author of Middletown Families, and Ann Markusen, author of The Politics of Regions, as well as others. The conference is on Thursday, with small-group discussion on Friday. For more info contact Ronald Eller of the Appalachian Center at 257-4852.
