

Excuse my badly written hurried letter. I will try to do better.
J. M. C.

Stoughton Warrmouth Co. N.D.

3rd June 1892

My Dear Wife,

Your welcome letter of the 28th but postmarked the 30th just only came into my hands to-day, although it reached this place on the 1st inst, I having left that morning for the Jerome Park Races where I had to put up $100 in the Belmont Stake.

My health is only tolerable having at this time a cold in the head which if I were at home I think I could work off in about three days. Sorry your back is hurt but suppose you hurt it working too hard - which, honey, there is no necessity for.

I attended Mass & Vespers both yesterday at the Jesuit College Church near $\frac{1}{4}$ mile from the Village Hotel.