Sunday Morning

30th June 1842

My Dear Wife,

Your very welcome letter of the post-mark 27th was received this morning & that of the 25th Friday night.

I am glad every thing is going on tolerably at home -

My indignation letter is retracted
But I lacked malice prepense in the sentence objected to -

I have a great piece of good news to tell you - My neuralgia is thank Merciful heaven & a good dentist entirely relieved. I had 3 teeth removed yesterday evening after the races - and although Git & Bally were both beaten I felt better than if they had have won
