

Let me hear from you.

I directed an agent sent from Gallatin to Bedford for my man. In the event he refused to give him up the agent was to commence action at law vs him. I wrote to Bedford all I had done. I did not want him taken by surprise. If my agent has sued Bedford the costs must be arbitrated also by you gentlemen.

I do not mean you to say a word about the sale of the man. It is only the colt.

If you look sharp you may hear of ^a race here out of Imp Rosalind by Stan Davis.
I ran him 300 yards last week for $100 dollars & beat the other horse 30 yds. This you think may be his distance

Dear Clay

I have unfortunately become involved in an unpleasant affair with Abe Buford & have written to him by this mail I would leave the price of what he should pay me or I pay him to you & any other gentlemen he might select.
I also wrote him I would write to you today.

It is unnecessary to say more than this. In the spring (May) of 1866 I let Abe Buford have Neutrality to breed to Beamington on shares. He said in a few days afterwards he thought he ought to have her two seasons in as much as she might miss the first. I said to him
