BON VOYAGE

JoEllen McComb is leaving the Law Library in order to devote herself full-time to law school. Good luck!

WELCOME BACK

Christy Robinson recently received her M.L.S. from UK, and is returning to King Library in Special Collections. She was previously on leave from Cataloging.

ADDED ENTRIES
(Birth Announcements)

Stephanie Andra Shaw (Meg Shaw) was born on November 16.

LS2000 REMOTE ACCESS

Remote access to LS2000 will be limited, for the time being, to UK personnel only. There are not enough ports to allow access to everyone. Please advise patrons of this policy.

JOURNALISM READING ROOM

The Journalism Building renovation is now complete and the Journalism Reading Room is back in Room 124. Their phone is not yet operational, but should be working in a few weeks.

LS2000 DOWN TIME

Just a reminder that LS2000 will be unavailable from December 24 until January 6, as will all other computing operations located in McVey Hall. They are removing asbestos from the machine room.

STAFF ACTIVITIES

Bill Marshall, Special Collections, has published a review of The Kansas City Monarchs: Champions of Black Baseball by Janet Bruce (University Press of Kansas, 1985) in Nebraska History and Record of Pioneer Days, vol. 67 (3), Fall 1986, p. 320-321. He also presented the program "Kentucky in Caricature: A Look at Kentucky and Kentuckians Through Political Cartoons" at the McDowell House in Danville in November.

ARL SPEC KIT

The latest ARL Spec Kit, #129, is on Organization Charts in ARL Libraries. The kit is based on a review of 61 charts. The kits are available in the Reference Department.
