ROBERT PENN WARREN 75th BIRTHDAY SYMPOSIUM

Robert Penn Warren will be honored at a symposium on the occasion of his 75th birthday to be held at the University of Kentucky on 29-30 October, 1980. The Kentucky-born writer will be joined on the program by his wife, the novelist Eleanor Clark, and by several prominent writers who have been associated with him during his life, including Cleanth Brooks, Peter Davison, James Grimshaw, Robert Heilman, R.W.B. Lewis, and Andrew Lytle. The participants will discuss American literature during the two-day program. A special event will be a "Tribute to Robert Penn Warren" on Wednesday evening, 29 October. It will include a dramatic reading of Warren's poetry an audio-visual program created from unpublished interviews and photographs in the university collections, and greetings from distinguished guests with a response from Warren.

Additional events during the program include readings by Warren and Eleanor Clark, a screening of "All the King's Men," the Academy Award film based on Warren's celebrated political novel of the same name, and an exhibit of books, papers, manuscripts, and photographs (including material loaned for the occasion by the Warrens) in the Department of Special Collections.

ACTS EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The ACTS Education Committee (Andrea Bryant, Olivia Buckner, Diane Carrico, and Carolyn Havens) would like to welcome its newest members, Cathy Hunt (Music Library), Mary Welch (Cataloging), and Ruth Brown (Director's Office), who is a guest member.

The future plans of the committee include visits to various libraries and a compilation of a ready-reference booklet about branch libraries. This booklet will be available at Circulation, Reference, and Instructional Services/AIDS/Media.

The first tour, of the Agriculture Library, has been scheduled for Wednesday, November 5, 1980, at 2:00 pm. There will be sign-up sheets at the October 28, 1980, ACTS meeting and in both staff lounges. For those interested persons outside King, please call Diane Carrico at 3-5949. Both professional and support staff are welcome.

SPEC KITS

SPEC Kits #66 entitled "Planning for Preservation" and #67, "Affirmative Action Programs" are available in the Reference Department, King Library.

The next ACTS meeting will be Tuesday, October 28, at 8:45am. LSO will sell refreshments and there will be a door prize.

Agenda: 9:00 Business meeting: Committee reports/New business.

10:00 Visit to Hillbrook Collection (New Fine Arts Building).

LSO's SILVER JUBILEE

In case you have not heard, the LSO is planning to celebrate its Silver Jubilee on Thursday, November 6, at 3:30 p.m. in the Solarium in the Special Collections Department. We are combining this with our Newcomer's Reception and we are inviting back the retirees. Invitations have already gone out but we need to plan the food. Please let Barbara Hahn in the Bindery know whether or not you are coming as soon as possible. She needs to order the food by the 29th of October. A special invitation goes out to the newcomers. Please plan to be there and meet your fellow staff members. See you on the 6th of November.

--- Toni Powell, LSO President

REBEKAH HARLESTON AUTHORS DTP ARTICLE

The September, 1980, issue of Documents to the People, v.8, no.5, pp. 217-219, 234, includes a report by Rebekah Harleston, chairman of the American Library Association/Government Documents Round Table, Federal Documents Task Force, Committee on Review of the Shipping List. "This report is a synthesis of oral and written responses of depository librarians to a request for their thoughts on the Shipping List: its present use, its place in the structure of information concerning government publications, its strengths and weaknesses, together with suggestions for its enhancements.

REFERENCE DEPARTMENT ACQUIRES NEWSBANK

The King Library Reference Department recently began a subscription to Newsbank. This index provides subject access to articles in over 120 U.S. newspapers representing each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. The Frankfort State Journal and the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times are among these 120 papers. Articles which fall within one or more of the following categories are included:

Business and Economic Development	Health
Consumer Affairs	Housing and Urban Renewal
Education	Law and Order
Employment	Political Development
Environment	Social Relations
Government Structure	Transportation
Welfare and Poverty

The corresponding articles are reproduced on microfiche (S80-9), and available in Newspaper/Microtext/Periodicals. Members of the Reference Department would be pleased to instruct interested persons in the use of this index.
