

Kansas City, May 14th /61

My dear Wife

I rec'd your letter of the 2nd inst this morning and as the mail leaves in a few minutes I have only time to write a few lines, I am sorry to see you in such poor spirits and hope that you will not give way to your feelings so as to let it affect your health, I have been staying here for a few days disposing of my com and will return to the mountains tomorrow and in the course of 10 or 12 days will have everything under headway as the grass will then be sufficient. You may set your mind at rest about my engaging in the present political difficulties, Although my feelings would prompt me to rally to the Standard of the Confederate States my duty to my family restrains me, I am not willing to risk my life in the present unsettled condition of my business. My family & their happiness is all that I have to live for, and so long as my wife continues to be what she is I shall esteem it my first duty to consult her wishes & happiness — Direct your letters hereafter to Central City instead of Denver City — The coach is hitched up
