

UK Establishes Frankfort Center

Extension To Instruct State Clerical Workers

A new extension center designed to answer the needs of the state's clerical and administrative workers has been established at Frankfort by the University.

The venture, called the Frankfort Inservice Training Program, is the result of a survey conducted by Dr. Gladys M. Kammerer, professor of political science, in June, 1948, after a request from the General Assembly.

Miss Kammerer acts as the University's official representative on the committee of the Southern Regional Training Program in Public Administration. The basis of her survey stated the present program. The SRTPT is making an effort to stimulate more inservice training for the improvement of public administration in the South.

Program Under UK Control

The program is under the general supervision and control of Maurice F. Soy, Dean of the university, and Louis A. Clifton, Director of the department of extension. Miss Kammerer has been named co-director of the center and spends half of her time at Frankfort in immediate direction of the project.

Two types of courses are offered by the program. They are (1) courses around particular job requirements and taken on the job at departmental expense by the state employees, and (2) courses given after hours at the employee's expense.

Work Started In Summer

The first type of work which was begun this summer featured two courses in accounting for the step-up of enforcement of state income collection. Twenty-five selected employees spent three weeks on concentrated courses at the center.

These courses were followed by a ceremonial course being conducted at the University during the first week of the semester.

Subjects in supervisory training will be given later this year to select groups of employees in various departments which wish to cooperate.

Departments must be willing to send employees to the center for training and must pay for the instruction out of departmental funds.

Night Courses Offered

Night courses offered are accounting, shorthand, typing, freshman English, and public administration. Additional classes will expand the curriculum during the second semester to meet both vocational and cultural demands of the state employees.

The courses may be taken on credit or noncredit basis. Those who do not desire credit, or who are ineligible to receive credit will be awarded a certificate at the end of their work showing satisfactory completion of their courses.

Commuter's Bill Passed By SGA Urges Car Pool

A bill to form a transportation pool for the aid of student commuters was introduced in Student Government Association meeting Monday night.

The bill calls for ride-sharing by students living in neighboring towns or villages outside the campus. The plan is to have each student who has a means of transportation and who can accommodate others, either to or from the campus, fill out a form giving the necessary information. This form will be grouped with others of the same locale. The form will also be filled out by students wishing a ride. The two forms will be compared and an effort will be made to get the two parties together.

Forms On Pace Two

These forms, which are found on page two of this paper, should be turned in at the post office window, not the letter slot, as soon as possible.

This bill of legislation was brought about primarily as a result of the recent fare raises of the transportation companies.

Plans To Be Printed

Athletic portion of the bill is to have 2000 cards printed to aid in getting a ride to the campus. The cards by an order are designed to be affixed to the back of a notebook for easy accessibility. The bill will read, "Going to UK," in blue.

A committee consisting of Rusty Russell, chairman, Richard Trammell, and Harold Holzebach has been appointed to arrange and manage the pool.

Members of the bar association pointed out that a February commencement ceremony would relieve graduates from the expense and trouble of coming back to Lexington for their health, immediately, June M. White announced.

A plan to provide practical assistance to individual reserve and National Guard units through nationwide cooperation of local veterans organizations was proposed by the University of Kentucky veterans.

The principle point of a definite program of action set forth by the student veterans club consisted of the "adoption" of Headquarters and B. Battery, 441st Field Artillery Battalion, Kentucky National Guard as the particular unit to which the University veterans would devote their assistance. A program of instructional talks to be given at guard meetings by qualified veterans of the club served as a major point in the plan of assistance.

What Price SuKy?

What's the matter with SuKy? Why doesn't it start a card section at games, sponsor huge pep rallies, send all the cheerleaders to out-of-town games? It can't.

SuKy used to be an independent organization, eager with the spirit it tried to promote. Such lively displays as card sections, for instance, appealed not only to students but to alumni, townspeople, and all outsiders.

The Circle financed its many active ventures with money made from concessions at UK games. Two years ago, concession rights were taken away from this student group, on the grounds that its members weren't completely covering the stands.

vote on an expenditure of even 15 cents for poster paper, and that 15 cents has to be requisitioned by a lengthy process. Of course this handicaps a group that has to work fast, and often on short notice. SuKy needs more members, but it has to limit its number to 50 because it can't afford the sweaters and trips which are well-deserved returns for working through the long, tough try-out period.

Of the 125 students trying out now, only 25 can be taken in. One hundred interested students must be turned away from a student pep organization. With the threat of suspension hanging over its head if it goes over its budget, SuKy should have the concession rights at UK games, but the present contract makes that impossible.

Why are so many letter-writers afraid to back up their opinions with their own names? Why must they consistently hide behind false fronts? Take last week's Letters to the Editor column for instance. We find Usset, Student, Hortense Q. Hugo and Frank J. Dornheim... all obviously pseudonyms.

Do these people fear the censure of their friends and acquaintances because they crumble at praise and belief? Are they chickens? I was just wondering. WALT WHITMAN (Please turn this slip in at the Post Office window.)

Dear Editor: Three well-known campus fraternities, I Tappa Keg, I Humma Sig, and I Potta Frigh, have authorized the two undersigned loyal brothers to submit the following plan in dealing with the drinking problem at football games.

1. Have the lights of Stoll Field turned on each Friday night preceding a football game; have the freshman team on hand to scrimp, and invite all those who drink to come and bring their bottles and consume and covet to their hearts desire. 2. Limit all freshmen to at least one pint each. At the Mississippi game one of them turned red, then blue, which was quite unpatriotic considering that those colors were the Rebels! 3. From tire cords to football pants Do you know about nylon's other lives? Here's a surprise for those who think of nylon mainly in terms of stockings and lingerie.

Nylon cords give giant truck and airplane tires the strength and elasticity to absorb tremendous impact shock without bruising. Water won't hurt the nylon strings of this racquet. They resist leakage over an extended period of time. No tiny strands to fray. Nylon football uniforms, as worn by Bobby Jack Stewart, Army back, are not only tough wearing, but much lighter and quicker drying.

Scram, Fellers, This Concerns Only The "New Look" Crowd

By Robbie Robinson
Surely that isn't Grandma trudging across the campus in such a rush toward the 'No? Not this! It must be little Gwendolyn in part of Grandma's wardrobe.

Perhaps this may sound a trifle fantastic to you, but have you really taken a good analytical look at that gal sitting next to you and stopped to compare her costume to one you paragonize in wearing in your parlor-lung slinky?

All the fabulous ruffles and bustles and bows of her time have returned to combine with a few streamlined ideas in making up this year's 'You Look'.

Last year's sudden outburst of fashion with its enormous skirts and hip pads has subsided and styles have become moderate and sensible, tending to create a more natural silhouette. Shoulders are more lightly padded, and dresses are wide with or pencil-slim skirts.

Skirt Lengths Agreed
Skirt lengths are being argued everywhere. UK coeds are wearing them longer while some of the townspeople stick to their shorter skirts. Many experts assert that coats and suits should be 12 inches wide dresses 12 to 13; five o'clock frocks at 10 to 12; and ankle or in-step for informal wear.

New Shades Worn
Fabric and color hold the interest light this season. At last have returned the hush, velvet, slipper, satins, brocades, and failles. Perhaps the most interesting hue this year is the orange, turning up in a large variety of shades including bitersweet, apricot, and burn orange.

There is also the new greige which is, as you might possibly suspect, a grey-beige mixture. Plum, wine, wintergreen, and royal blue are popular with black and brown winning out as the most fascinating color combination.

Carduary Still Good
For school wear we have old faithful corduroy, new printed velveteen, calico, and poplin.

The '48 college girls' sweaters and jerseys are fitted and worn inside her skirts. With the return of cashmere and tweeds the newest ensemble is the one tone costume with sweater, skirt, and scarf matching.

Quilted skirts lined in calico or cotton flannel are the best for the approaching Big Chill. Another trick to keep out the cold is a bright red flannel petticoat under your wool skirts.

Shoe Styles Change
Shoes came out of the dull class this fall and have really shown up in grand style on the campus. Loafers and lace-ups with thick crepe soles are running first with buckled Robin Hood boots and zipper slippers right behind.

Accessories provide an interesting accent for most any costume. Belts are still extremely wide to vary narrow and silk neck scarves are as good as ever.

Reminiscent of Gay Nineties men's styles are the gay scarves that the gals wear on their full sleeved blouses.

In wearing these new fashions it is important to remember that good fit, personal grooming, and carriage

- 2 Every week throughout this dramatic 30-day test, their throats were carefully examined by noted specialists—a total of 2470 acting examinations. And among all these smokers, these famous throat specialists found not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!
- 3 Prove it yourself. In your "T-Zone"—T for Taste and T for Throat. Smoke Camels for 30 days. Let YOUR OWN TASTE tell you about the full, rich flavor of Camel's choice tobacco. Let YOUR OWN THROAT tell you the story of Camel's cool mildness. Yes, prove for yourself that there's

The Spice of Life

By Ruby Graham and Jobie Anderson

Now that the races are here again the campus seems deserted, doesn't it? Looks like the UK fans are trying to win back their money after the Georgia game Saturday.

Bob Carter and Lois Cheek, who were planned a year ago today, are going ahead now.

Jean Finney and Bob Shearer had a fuss, and now he's looking for a new date. Anybody willing?

The Sigma Chi cameras are clicking! No doubt they'll have a flashy page in the annual.

From the latest reports Dick Endicot, Bob Bramfield, and Bill Wren have covered more territory in the four weeks of school than any other males of like caliber on campus. Huzzamum!

El Jackson, who has been having double trouble at Lydia Brown, is getting ready for triple trouble. It seems as though a girl is coming this weekend from Miami University—and she's staying at Lydia Brown too.

Who hears Henry Basse's music or Catherine Harlow's charm that made Kenick Marsh so happy Friday night?

Tinker Baggarly did a swell job at the Kappa Sig formal at the Lexington Country Club Friday night.

What two Triangles have felt the breath of the Joyland Wolves on their necks?

Brian Daugherty and Don Donohue should be able to do better than play solitaire on Saturday night.

Squeaky's ninety cents took 'em all the way to Savoy Hall and back to the Tavern. Sure is nice to pick up a gay date!

Karl Christ is wondering how he can best pay his phone bill this month. What's so good about St. Louis anyhow?

Jim Hubbard shouldn't have gone to Cincy—right, "Chickiee".

The Eternal Triangle, centered around some ZTA plebe, is aided by Jim Haworth, John Tietgen, and George Murray.

Sentiment of the week: Wynn Moseley takes car; Bill Pritchard gets girl—are you satisfied, Beverly? Fred Amest is trying to best Bob Stone's time with Anita Underhill.

Planned: Carol Jacobs and Hilly Bryant; Charles Humston and Gale

For the first time according to the registrar's office, four members of the same family are attending the University at the same time. In back are Louis and John Dusing. Seated are Joseph and Eugene.

Dusing Here --- Dusing There On UK Campus Everywhere

Dusing, Dusing, Dusing! Everywhere Dusing! There are four of them, all brothers, and all are currently lending their talents to the University.

The boys are natives of Lynch, Ky., where the three oldest, Joe, Louis, and John, graduated from high school. Eugene, the youngest, graduated from Lafayette High School in Lexington.

The lives of the Dusing in the last few years have by no means been calm, complacent ones. Joe, the oldest, served four years as a Marine corporal, and was among the first group to land on Guadalcanal in 1942. At present he is a senior in the College of Commerce.

Next in line is Louis, who already has a diploma from the College of Engineering and who, in 1949, will receive another from the College of Commerce, along with Joe. As a graduate assistant, he instructs three engineering classes. He served three years in the China-Burma-India theater as a staff sergeant in the Signal Corps. He is a registered Something schmo has been added, which puts L&U in a sad state. Better no majorities (UK) than L&U's problem. Their drum major-ettes have changed to the "New Look" in fashions. Instead of the usual very-short costumes, the major-ettes' skirt hem-lines will drop to one inch below the knee.

As a Medical Department dietitian, you will probably first be assigned to a large station hospital to assist with the hospital food service. There, and everywhere in the Services, you will find rotation of assignments. Physical and occupational therapists will work with the most modern equipment in treating a wide range of patients, gradually helping them regain physical and mental health. But whatever your specialty, you will have the prestige of a highly respected profession and the excitement which goes with a military career. Graduate nurses, dietitians, physical and occupational therapists are tremendously important to our Army and Air Force at home or overseas, for it would be impossible to operate efficiently without the helpful care of women skilled in those fields.

As a Medical Department dietitian, you will probably first be assigned to a large station hospital to assist with the hospital food service. There, and everywhere in the Services, you will find rotation of assignments. ### Quadectuplets Born In McVey; No Need For Pediatrician

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 15 (KK)—Quadectuplets have been born in McVey Hall.

Tuesday morning for the first time in the history of the University, children were born in one of the buildings—40 of them.

The tots were not born in a maternity ward by any means, but rather in a print shop—the Kernel plant, to be exact.

The most amazing thing about this event however, is not what has happened, but what is happening at this very moment.

Fragery are still coming forth. At the last count, there were 40 in the family—but they are still coming, at the rate of one every hour.

Who is this astounding mother? Why, her name is Sally, and she resides in McVey Hall, in the composting room of the Kernel plant. She is a Black Widow spider. She was captured during the summer by some of the men from the print shop and has lived happily ever since on a diet of grasshoppers and flies.

Flash: The latest count on Sally's beautiful offspring, according to unofficial statistics is 40.

Busy little WIDOW, isn't she?

Leading alumnus and most loyal Wildcat booster on the trip was Earle C. Clements, 20, governor of Kentucky and more than 50 years ago the center of Kentucky's football team. Accompanying him was Dr. John Manning, former professor of political science at the University and now state commissioner of insurance in the Clements administration.

Friday night, preceding the game, B. A. Shively UK athletic director, Helen G. King, 25, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, and Mary Dünnerfeld, 29, active alumna and Wildcat booster, attended a reorganization meeting of Kentucky Alumni in the Atlanta area.

Hugh Adcock, 33, of Atlanta, and Hopkinsville, directed the work of reorganization and gathered a representative group together for the meeting which was held at Harris, Inc., 23 Broad street. A detailed story of the meeting and election will be published in the February issue of the Kentucky Alumnus.

Player Of The Week: Bob Gain

The Kernel selection for Player-of-the-Week honors following the Georgia game goes to Sophomore Bob Gain, the Wildcat's 200-pound tackle, claimed by many as the foremost candidate on the Kentucky squad for All-American honors.

The 19-year-old Weirton, W. Va. griddler has played three outstanding games in a row for the Bryansmen this season. He was named by Georgia's Coach Wally Butts after the Bulldog-Wildcat scrap last Saturday as having played a "fine game" against his crew.

Gain was one of the several Kentucky linemen who took a lot of punishment bucking the three-deep forward wall of the Peach State eleven. Although he played most of the game, the 6'3" West Virginian was forced to leave the field several times to rest for a few minutes. Lack of competent tackles has forced the UK grid tutor to use Bob as much as possible in both the Georgia and the Ole Miss games.

One thing that went without too much notice in last week's encounter was the net yards gained by rushing. In this department, UK

An All-Star team for each division of touch football will be selected by vote of players within that division according to Bill McCubbin, I-M director.

The team will be announced at the end of the tournament, and each member will receive a certificate of merit.

The Intramural Department announces that all types of open blocking will be allowed, as long as the player does not leave his feet. Under this decision, high and low, dip, cross-body, and check blocks will be legal.

Bowling tourney deadline is today and play begins Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. in the University lanes on Euclid.

Only the first twelve teams to enter and pay their $3 dues will be accepted.

John Ladenberger has joined the intramural staff as assistant to Senior I-M Manager Claude S. Rows. John will officiate and score all tennis, badminton, and ping pong matches.

Ping pong and golf elimination are at last under way and hold promises of good matches.

All golf score cards (both single and doubles) must be turned in either to the Intramural Office, or to Claude S. Rows within 34 hours after play.

Freshman Cage Squad Will Be Sliced To 15

By Tom Spillman

Scrimmage and work on fundamentals have featured the week's workouts of the freshman basketball team.

Each day, for the beginning half of the practice session, the frosh have either refreshed their memory or learned the basic essentials of the game. Faking has been stressed heavily, along with guarding, ball-handling, and the positions of each player on throw-ins and free shots.

A hard and fast scrimmage is rounding the men into shape. Since many of the regular varsity players are loosening up with practice shots each day, they sometimes scrimmage the first-year players.

It has been evident that the varsity is as good, if not better, than ever; but they still have trouble holding the freshmen at times.

Ted Price, a tall center from Cincinnati, is having contact lenses made, after having a lens in his present glasses knocked out in a practice game last week.

Between now and November first, when the regulars report for action, the squad is to be pared to fifteen. The men working out are listed below with their position and home town.

William Spivey, Warner-Robins, Ga.
Ted Price, Cincinnati, Ohio

BOBBY BERRY is Vandy's top triple-threat ace. He scored 48 points last year as a sophomore. Berry is six-foot tall, weighs 165 pounds, and is a Nashville lad. He specializes in long, breakaway runs and scoring key touchdowns. A dangerous passer, too.

Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

In 21 previous games with the Vanderbilt Commodores of Nashville, the Kentucky Wildcats have won only three times. Two of these victories have come since Coach Paul Bryant took over the reins of the Cats.

Football relations between the Commodore and Kentucky started back in 1896, but it wasn't until 1929 that the Cats defeated Vandy. That year they won, 21-12. UK's only other conquests have been in 1946 (10-7) and 1947 (14-0). In both of these recent victories, the UK Cats have had to go all out to win.

Two years ago, Paul Cutchin's field goal was the deciding factor. Cutchin threw to Wash Jones for the other cat score in that game. Last season, it was QB George Blanda that proved to be "Johnny-on-the-spot." He threw a TD pass to Chink Sengel for the first and then backed the final marker across in the second quarter to complete the day's scoring. Kentucky's line played a terrific game in this contest, stopping the Vandy team several times deep in our territory.

Wash Wash Jones is the only lineman back for Kentucky from the team that started against Vandy in 1947. In the backfield, Blanda, Bill Bolter, Lee Truman and Bobo Farris started the tilt. Only Farris is no longer on the squad.

In last year's game, Vandy's navy-running fullback, Dean Davidson, looked like a real comer. He will definitely be one to watch tomorrow. Davidson, only a sophomore, also does some of the passing for Coach Bert Saunders' hunkies. Other backs which looked good in last season's skirmish were Bobby Berry, a sharp passer; Jamie Wade, a shifty runner who runs from the tailback position; and Herb Rich, who averaged 6.4 yards per try in 1947. Rich has really developed this year. He has played outstanding games against Tech, Alabama and Ole Miss thus far. In the Ole Miss game, Rich scored the only VU touchdown on a beautiful 42-yard sprint. Little Lee Nalley, Commodore's safety man, is very tricky. He is only 5'9" and 162-pounds but is fast and always a threat on punt and kick-off returns.

Here and There: The people of Athens were still talking about that North Carolina team when the Cats arrived on the scene Friday. Many of the Georgia supporters feel that the Tar Heels rate at the nation's top team. They were quite impressed by the system that Cary Snively, Carolina coach, used against the Bulldogs.

North Carolina had two offensive eleven's, two for defense, and another team strictly for making the points-after-touchdown. "A and the Charlie Justice is like a phantom in back." "Commanded one fan who witnessed the game.

The Cats, with blue shirts, white numerals and pants, came up with exactly the same uniforms as North Carolina wore. For the first five minutes of the game, Georgians must have thought that it was the Tar Heels back for a repeat performance.

Spud Chandler, former All-American footballer at Georgia and Yankee pitching star, witnessed the game. He is a scout for both the New York Yankees professional football and baseball teams.

Only 23,000 witnessed the UK-UG game in Georgia's beautiful Sanford Stadium. Justice and Co. drew $4,000 the week before. The seating capacity for the stadium is 42,000, although one section said that 35,000 were squeezed in two years ago for the Tech-Bulldogs scrap— record attendance.

Two teams will again battle it out at Athens on November 27, in what should be quite a game. Many Georgians feel that Tech will have a date with North Carolina come January 1st, in the Lucern Sugar Bowl classic.

DEAN DAVIDSON, a 19-year-old sophomore fullback for Vanderbilt, he hails from Miami Beach, Fla., stands 5'9", weighs 285 pounds and has plenty of speed. Last season, he crossed the goal line six times for the Commodores. Davidson is a good passer, punter and runner.

Freshman Eleven Upset By Vandy

Some days you can't make a nickle and last Saturday was just such a day for Kentucky. As the Varsity was stopping to Georgia down in Athens, the Fresh jumped out to a first half lead by virtue of Knowlson's one yard plunge for points and Clark's nine yard trip through the line. Cobb booted a placement to make the score read Kentucky 13, Vandy-0 at the rest period.

However Vandy, sparked by Quarterback Bill Wade, pushed the ball into the end zone three times in the last quarter to chalk up 18 points and victory. The Cats fumbled three times deep in enemy territory in the second half.

Right Half John Cobb and End John Griggs were cited by Coach Ernal Allen as playing the best games for the Wildkittens.

Georgia Clips Cats In Wild Tilt, 35-12

The Georgia Bulldogs, led by four hard-running Yankees, clipped Kentucky, 35-12, last Saturday afternoon before 20,000 persons in UG's spacious Sanford Stadium.

The first half was probably one of the wildest played in a Southeastern Conference game in some years, Kentucky scored before five minutes of play had elapsed. Georgia came back to score and go ahead, 7-6. Then, on a blocked kick, the red-shirted Georgians scored again early in the second quarter to lead 14-6.

Then with less than a minute left in the initial half, Georgia moved down the field to score again and hold a 21-12 lead at the half.

In the final quarter, the men of Wally Butts stopped any Wildcat scoring, while adding two more TD's for good measure. The first of these came on 31-yard dash around end and the final was scored as a result of a 70-yard pass interception runback.

Yankees Prominent In Game Four hard-running Yankees did all the scoring for the Georgians. Fullback John Tillitaki, a sophomore from Canton, Ohio, scored the first two scores for UG early in the first quarter on short runs. Then came another fullback, Al Bodine, of Youngstown, Ohio, who raced across the goal after Georgia had moved the ball from their own 23-yard line to the UK 2, immediately before the half ended.

In the third quarter, Halfback Joe Geri, a senior from Phoenixville, Penn., ran 21 yards around end for TD number four. The final marker for the winners came also in this period when elusive Bill Marichik grabbed a Blanda aerial
