A Word of Explanation.

During the past two and a half years as an prisoner of war I, along with thousands of others, have been hungry. We have been starved. Result: One thinks of food and from our many different camps recipes have grown up, dinners planned, menus compiled, and drinks concocted. The final outcome of these are ridiculous, some silly, others fair, and reluctantly only a few are damn good. The bug bit me and the following pages are the efforts of my weeding out of the many food diets I've seen.

These recipes are basic for either sweets and desserts. They are not the best - any cook book will give you better, but they caught my fancy. There are a few menus which may prove of interest. The section of "Things to Try" will be of help to people who want to prepare quick items - candy, cakes, ect. And "Kitchen Utensils" is self explanatory of the needs of a well equipped kitchen. This section is followed by a section listing food dealers. Herein you will find sectional foods and odd or strange foods with a few foreign products mentioned.

The section, "Where to Eat in the U.S." has an explanation written to it. Remember it is not complete.

"Dining Car Specialties" was the most interesting to write. I believe this feature of the book is original and the only one of its kind in this camp.

May you enjoy reading this - if it helps you, I'll be glad that it served some purpose. In any event, before you condemn this book - please remember that it is personal property and the result of some work and the source of enjoyment to me both at present and in the future at home.

A word about a Maine Lobster —

The Maine Lobster is the best in the United States. This is due primarily to the cold water in which he lives. The lobster fisherman takes pride in his work and is intent on quality. Maine lobsters in fashionable restaurants command high prices.

The lobster may be served either hot or cold. Methods of cooking are - steamed, broiled, or boiled. It becomes a matter of personal taste which method of preparation. The "chicken" lobster, $\frac{3}{4}$ lb to $1\frac{1}{4}$ lb is the best eating. All State of Maine Lobsters have a metal tag on their claws. Look for it - its guaranteed.

* Costs about 1.25 to 1.75 dependent on size of lobster.

Where to Eat in the United States.

Before listing the many places of note a word of explanation is necessary. Following the name of the particular restaurant, hotel, or bar will be the notation - seafood, steaks, chops, or what ever that particular place is best known for and has received its reputation. In general the places listed are rather expensive, not economical meals. Dinner about $1.50 to $5.00; lunch $1.00 to $3.00; and breakfast about $1.00.

I have not been to all of the places mentioned but those which I have eaten in will have my initials (A.M.V.) following.

For a more complete list - a few pennies will purchase Duncan Hines book - "Adventures in Good Eating." Also for a night's lodging his "Adventures in Good Living" is a well used guide.

Those restaurants I have not been too have been recommended to me by reliable persons and therefore I place them in here.

Because of the method of acquiring this material there will be no order. The index will aid in locating any particular city.

In addition to the usual hotels and restaurants, there is a section of foods and other eatable items served aboard the trains. This section should be particular interest to a business man or the casual traveler alike. A large portion of the American public is unaware of the wonderful food for sale on trains. Perhaps this will enlighten you or /and increase your pleasure aboard the limited.

Cinnamon Toast:

Toast on one side only, slices of bread. Spread on un-toasted side, butter with a drop or two of vanilla added, dust with cinnamon and brown sugar. Place under a broiler until the sugar melts and bread is toasted.

Molasses Pie:

3 eggs (beaten)	$\frac{1}{2}$ lbs cinnamon
$\frac{3}{4}$ cup brown sugar	$\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. salt
$\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. nutmeg	2 lbs. butter
1 lbs. flour	1 lbs. cornstarch
$1\frac{1}{2}$ cups molasses

Mix well and pour into a pie shell (open) and bake for 25 min. in a 450° oven. Cool and serve either plain or with whipped cream.

Milky Way Pie:

2 candy bars	3 lbs. cream
4 lbs. butter	Graham Cracker Crumbs

Melt candy bars, add butter, cream, and enough graham crackers for a filler. Pour into a graham cracker pie crust, chill and serve with whipped cream. Or, roll the thickened melted candy bars in balls, sprinkle with powdered sugar and chill.

Candy Stuffed Cookies.

Roll out any type of cookie dough. Cut into rectangles, fill center with sliced candy bar - about $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick. Fold dough over top, seal, and bake.

Date Puffs.

$\frac{1}{3}$ cup sweetened condensed milk

1 cup chopped dates

2 cups Graham Cracker Crumbs.

Combine and roll into small balls. Fry in deep fat, dust with powdered sugar (after draining) cool and serve.

Crullers:

2 oz. butter

1 lb. flour

4 oz. sugar (brown)

$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. baking powder

2 Eggs

$\frac{1}{4}$ pt. milk.

$\frac{1}{16}$ oz. vanilla extract

Cream butter and sugar together, add in extract. Add well beaten eggs. Mix dry ingredients together and sift on top of mixture. Add milk and make a smooth dough. Roll out $\frac{1}{2}$ in thick, cut with a doughnut cutter and fry in deep fat until a golden brown. Drain and dust with powdered sugar. Make 19 crullers. Instead of cutting like a doughnut. Roll out and cut into square and fill with, honey, peanut butter, grape jelly, or any dried fruit - raisins, dates, prunes, or figs.

Chocolate Ice Cream - My own.

½ qt. milk

½ qt. cream (coffee or whipping)

1½ packages Jell-o Chocolate Ice Cream Mix

2/5 eggs.

A little sugar.

Follow the mixing directions on Jell-o package. Quantities used here are for richer than on box, but mixed the same way. The resulting ice cream will be smooth and extremely rich.

Pancakes:

If you use any of the Aunt Jemima prepared mixes (Pancake or Buckwheat Cakes) use milk in place of water, add 2 lbs. sugar to each cup of flour, add 2 lbs. of butter to each cup of flour, add 1 or 2 eggs to each cup of flour. Condensed or evaporated milk (un-cut) is better than whole milk. Mix your dry ingredients, cut in the butter or melt and add together with eggs. Add enough milk to make a batter that will be smooth, free from lumps, and able to support a spoon. It will pour slowly from a pitcher. Add your milk a little at a time - if you use a large amount of eggs, butter, a quarter teaspoon extra ^{of baking powder} may be needed. Fry cakes on a slow fire and have them ¼ to ½ inch thick. Serve in stacks, hot, with butter and syrup.

Dried Figs:

Soak and stew for sauce on ice cream
Chopped up fine for cakes, breads, cookies
and condis

Fresh Figs:

Either green or black. The black is sweeter and has less seeds.

Serve fresh with thick cream - or you would sliced peaches.

(My thanks to Tom M^r See for the above)

Whole wheat Nut Loaf:

1 egg	½ tsp. salt	½ cup raisins
1 cup milk	4 tsp baking pow.	½ cup brown sugar
2 cups W.W. flour	½ cup nuts

Mix egg, well beaten and milk, add to the dry ingredients which have been mixed. Bake for one hour in a 375° oven in a bread pan.

Fruit Cake (uncooked)

3 lbs. raisins	2 lbs. figs
2 lbs. dates	¼ lb. orange peel
½ lb. candied pineapple	1 cup sugar
¼ lb. citron peel	¼ lb. candied lemon peel
2 lbs. pecans	2 lbs. cinnamon
1 lbs. nutmeg	½ lbs. cloves
1 lbs. salt	1 orange, juice, and rind
½ cup fruit juice

Chop all fruits and nuts fine, put through a mincer three times. Line a bread pan with wax paper, press cake into pan and weight down to form mold. Keep for 10/15 days before using. Will keep longer if needed.

Honey Fritters:

3 cups raisins	milk
3 cups peanut butter	whole wheat flour
3 cups honey	1 tea spoon baking pow
	½ tea spoon salt

Mix raisins and peanut butter together. Add to the whole wheat flour and honey, enough milk to make a dough. Cut off with a spoon, the size of an egg, and fry in deep fat. Salt and baking powder added just before food mixer

MELT CHOCOLATE THE EASY WAY

Baker's Chocolate melts quickly and easily. It need not be grated or cut in small pieces. Simply place squares in small, round-bottomed bowl and melt over hot water — NEVER over direct heat. Cool chocolate slightly before adding to mixture. A rubber plate scraper is an excellent tool to use for removing all melted chocolate from bowl.

For chocolate cream puddings, frozen desserts, etc., the chocolate is melted in the liquid. Simply add squares to cold liquid and heat gradually, so that chocolate will melt slowly. If the liquid is milk or cream, place over hot water to prevent scorching. Beat with rotary egg beater until mixture is smooth.

While eager fingers nervously scribbled out the words that would ally a thousand fears, on any odd scraps of paper they could find, the Japanese Army representative assured them that the messages would reach the addresses of their friends and families in the U.S.

The reproductions on these pages are but a few of the messages written by the U.S. war prisoners, which are so vitally important to their kinsfolk back in the United States.

Model prison—Jap model

Wainwright: unwilling broadcaster

In the morning a brisk walk around the block or, if it is their turn, a brief spell of fatigue duty, is the program of the U.S. war prisoners. An invigorating health schedule is theirs with ample time for recreation.

LIFE AT ZENTSUJI IS ONE LONG STRETCH OF RELAXATION

From early dawn till "Lights Out" is sounded, life in Zentsuji is kept from being boring by a series of interesting and diverse pastimes. A brisk walk around the wind-swept compound, an hour or so of study, time for daily personal chores such as shaving or an occasional haircut... all these are taken in leisurely stride, making existence at Zentsuji a tranquil one.

The study of Japanese is very popular with the war prisoners. The language of one of the world's oldest civilizations is well worth the effort to learn, and internees follow each lesson with interest, given by a Japanese military instructor. Now and then, the latest news on the course of the war is told to the prisoners, and they are surprised by the unexpected weakness of the United Nations... a weakness that Japan had recognized long ago.

Under the hands of skilled Japanese doctors, ailing internees are given perfect medical attention.

THOUGH FAR AWAY FROM THE FRONT... THE MEN FOLLOW THE COURSE OF WAR.

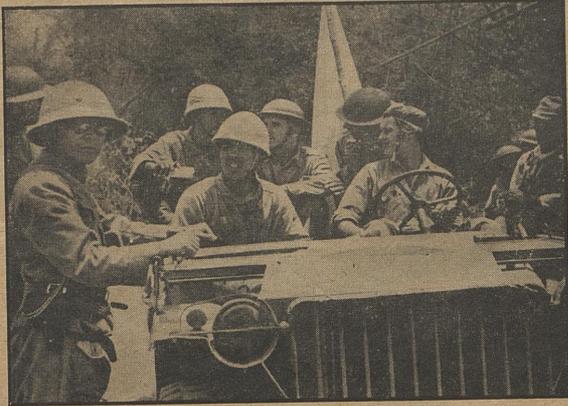

IN THE EVENING... THE MEN DROP OFF TO SLEEPERLAND OR STUDY A LITTLE.

But life at Zentsuji prison camp looks different to American prisoners
