

May 1, 1951.
Tuesday night

ATNE

William P. Perry, Jr.
my Darling.

Today I again observed
the second grade. We observe every Tuesday and Wednesday.
Tonight I studied some and wrote Daddy.

It is really hot here and I have Spring Fever. I don't want to do anything but sit around and think of you as I can't be with you. It would be a wonderful night to go and sit outdoors with you. I hate sitting in this room by myself.

Mary was downstairs studying and I had hoped I would get a chance to write you before she came up for