Dearest Bill,

I hope you got back all right. Jim told me about the ride that you missed. It is too bad that we didn't come home five minutes earlier so you could have caught that ride. Getting up at five - forty five is no easy job. When I got up at seven I thought about you having to get up so early but I imagined that you were back in bed by then. I know I would have been.

I really had a wonderful week - end. I hope you did.

Thank you so much for
