

W. B. & H. M. WINSLOW,

Lawyers,

Practice in the Circuit Courts of Carroll, Trimble, and Gallatin Counties, and Court of Appeals.

Carrollton, Ky. March 28th 1876

Rod Perry, Warsaw, Ky.

Rod Perry Esq

Dear Sir - As a friend to you and the Bannock^{city}, I have concluded to drop you a few lines which, if they turn out to be of any worth, you are perfectly welcome to them, and if not there is no harm done, I on the first place I came down from Warsaw on Saturday evening last on the Franklin, with J. W. Thomas of the Madison Pearl Starch Factory. There being very little freight^{to} and few passengers aboard the conversation turned on that subject very naturally and he told me that some of the officers, (I think the captain had told him) that they would lose about 200. on that round trip from Madison to Cincinnati and return. We then got on the subject of the Bannock city and he told me that he would have given her a lot of starch or freight if he had been at home the day before, and thought likely he would make arrangements