ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Editor's Note

The deadline for the November 26 Green Bean will be Tuesday noon, November 23.

Coping with Larceny

The Reference Department has received Kit #37 from the Systems and Procedure Exchange Center. This latest SPEC Kit is titled "Theft Detection and Prevention in Academic Libraries."

LC vs Dewey

In their ad for an Assistant Head of Cataloging, Duke University makes the following statement: "Dewey classification is currently in use. A decision will be made soon whether or not to adopt LC classification. ... Duke University Libraries have the 17th largest collection among universities libraries in the U. S. with 2.9 million volumes."

No More Spools, Please

A note from Ellen Baxter:

The response for the paper roll spools has been overwhelming. At this time we have reached our goal and have no storage space for more.

Thank you all very much for your response. We will notify you when more are needed.

UPDATE YOURSELF - L. S. FACULTY FORUM SERIES

The College of Library Science is conducting several "Update Yourself" sessions in a Faculty Forum Series. The cost of each session is $2.50 or $10.00 for the entire series of five. The first two meetings are:

- November 18 - 18th Floor, Patterson Office Tower, 2-5 PM.
Topic: Small Group Leadership and Decision Making.
(Dr. Allen)
- December 2 - Gallery, King Library North, 2-5 PM. Topic: The Role of the Public Library in American Life - Historical Research and its Implication for the Management of Public Libraries. (Dr. Harris)
