KIDNAPEE'S APPEAL HEARD

Trenton, N. J., March 28.—(INS)—After a 15-minute discussion, the 14 judges of New Jersey's court of errors and appeals retired from their courtroom here today and began a conference expected to result in setting the date for argument on the appeal of the late Richard Hauptmann, convicted slayer of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr.

GERMANY, FRANCE ACCUSED

Berlin, March 28.—(INS)—With unexpected vigor, the Nazi government took the offensive today and lashed out at press reports accusing the Reich of vast territorial acquisitions and committing against Italy in Abyssinia. At the same time, through semi-official news agencies, the charges were hurled that France, and not Germany, has pushed itself in the Italo-Abyssinian dispute by supplying arms and military instructors to Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia.

DICTATORSHIP IN POLAND

Warsaw, March 28.—(INS)—In a series of swift moves, the Nazi government hurriedly has taken over the reins of government in Poland today. A virtual dictatorship over Poland today. A new constitution, drafted on semi-Fascist lines, was adopted and the cabinet headed by Premier Janusz Paderewski stripped of its power.

PRESIDENT VACATIONS

Miami, March 28.—(INS)—President Roosevelt today had resumed the informal routine of cruising and fishing aboard the Vincent Astor yacht "Nona" and was on a brief call in the Bahamas where he received the Duke of Kent, younger son of the King and Queen of England, with his bride, the former Princess Marina of Greece.

HAITI-U. S. SIGN AGREEMENT

Washington, March 28.—(INS)—A new reciprocal trade agreement between the United States and Haiti was signed at the state department today. Designed to increase the flow of commerce between this country and the little republic, the agreement will benefit American meat, dairy, fresh and dried fruit products at the expense of the domestic rum industry and the Florida pineapple industry.

FRANCE PAYS ON 'OLD DOLLAR'

Paris, March 28.—(INS)—France will pay the gold standard rate of $149 on the 5 1/2 per cent French loans issued in the United States, the "Agence Economique" said today. The decision was taken in spite of the recent ruling of the United States Supreme Court that American bonds were paid on the basis of the current dollar.

LEXINGTON GIRL PLAYS

Augusta, Ga., March 28.—(INS)—The semi-final round of the Augusta Women's fifth annual invitational golf tournament was played here today with Marion Milley, of Lexington, Ky., paired with Deane York, of Lexington, Charlotte, N. C., and Peggy Wattle, Buffalo, N. Y., medalist paired with Lily Harper, 18 year old Virginia state champion, of Norfolk.

BELGIUM OFF GOLD STANDARD

Paris, March 28.—(INS)—Belgium is already technically off the gold standard, and is expected to devalue the Belgia tomorrow by about 25 per cent, according to well-informed French financial experts. French authorities say that Belgium, in deserting the gold bloc after a long and bitter fight, will probably join the sterling bloc.

KING HEARS MINISTER

London, March 28.—(INS)—King George today heard direct from Sir John Simon, his foreign minister, the result of Sir John's talks with Chancellor Hitler in Berlin. Passing in his preparations for tonight's court, the King received Sir John in a lengthy audience in Buckingham Palace.

OVER THE FENCE

Certainly for the last two years, Guignol theater seasons have been tremendously marred by an attempt to do the impossible—give a commendable and truly interesting performance of the classics with an amateur cast. This season, the nick has been attempted at Boone and Juliet. While the work of the cast Mr. Fowler, and Mrs. Robinson was admirably enthusiastic and conscientious, the campus little theater possesses neither the equipment nor the necessarily experienced talent to produce the classic drama.

We are fully aware of the fact that the Guignol theater is a subdivision so to speak, of the little theater movement, the purpose and aim of which is to acquaint communities with the classics, and to desire to exercise dramatic talents, and to spread generally an understanding and respect for the best the stage has to offer. But under the circumstances, it is advisable for the Guignol theater to cast aside its chances for student patronage as well as a brilliant season in suburbia clinging to the unwritten constitution of the little theater movement, or the pipe dreams of a few instrumental in the maintenance of the amateur.

The argument of the opposition that the Guignol theater is somewhat of an experimental laboratory for the Department of English, can be quibbled by the fact that, if such be the case, a severe reduction in the price of the tickets for each performance is in order. Furthermore, if it is a dramatic laboratory, townspeople (practically the mainstay of the theater) should not be allowed to appear on the Guignol stage. And we do not believe that this should be.

The city of Lexington boasts a cultured population among that portion of it which has a desire and interest in the better things life has to offer. The Guignol theater, despite arguments to the contrary, is a part of the University, and from all signs, has been actively engaged in an effort to create respect and patronage among the students. The University is situated a short distance from Louisville and Cincinnati—the latter being an especially active center for sponsoring the best in drama from time to time. What is to keep a student, highly desirous of seeing a classic produced on the stage, from going to either of these cities and seeing the BEST of performances at reasonable prices. Why mar the beauty of the classic and the excellence of a Guignol season for no compensation?

Despite the disbelief of many, the Guignol is capable of setting a standard of little theater performance throughout the country. It has proven this in its remarkable presentations of such plays as Casello's "Death Takes A Holiday," "When Ladies Meet," and many others. The talent of the townspeople is needed, appreciated, and recognized as some of the best in the amateur field. The Guignol theater is a decided asset to the University as well as the City of Lexington. It is unfair to the reputation Guignol rightfully deserves to attempt the classics.

STUDENT OPINION

Dear Editor:
Old Glory has given up! The Stars and Stripes of the United States, for which men have fought and died, the emblem of the liberty and independence of this United States, which hangs the flagpole in front of the Administration building, has given up its right to be a glorified nation. Dirty, ragged and torn, the flag's color is indistinguishable. Whether it is the emblem of the United States or a floor rag cannot be determined. I am not blaming anyone in par-icular for this unpardonable condition of the flag, but I am sure that it is not the fault of Messrs. Crutcher, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, who has stirred hard to make every part of the University campus a pride to be pointed to.

I implore the responsible parties to have a new flag placed on the flagpole as soon as possible.
Sincerely,
E. S.

CAMPUS PERSONALITIES

By CAPEL McNASH

Edward Howard Shannon is an Okian, having been born up in Akron back in 1914. However, he lived there only a year, and then his folks brought him down here to Lexington, thus enabling him to grow up to be managing editor of The Kernel, publicity man for Guignol, a member of the Kentuckian staff, vice-president of the Catholic club, and a sophomore in the College of Arts and Science. His friends hint that he must like being a sophomore, since he has been one for so long, or at least so they say.

He has seen a bit of the U. S., having been over to the Atlantic coast, up to Michigan, and down to Florida. Ed is a Phi Tau by choice, and three-fourths Irish, and one-fourth German because his parents were Wayne King in Ed's mind, produces just about the best music in the country, and when it comes to cards, his choice is poker any time.

In the summer time you are most likely to find him skinning over the Kentucky river in a motor boat. Ed has a great fondness for monkeys, too, especially one named Peter, which belongs to one of his acquaintances. He is very, very fond of any girl just so she is a brunette, a Tri-Deit, and about 5 feet 8. Oh yes, and her initials must also be E. R., which, it seems to me, rather limits the field to one girl. Or am I wrong?

SPEAKS AT ASHLAND

Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, dean of the graduate school, journeyed to Ashland Wednesday where he was the guest speaker at the Junior Woman's club of that city. "Kentucky Archaeology" was the subject of Dr. Funkhouser. The meeting was held in the Ventura hotel.

Hoi Polloi

By CAMERON COFFMAN

SQUIREL FOOD
The words has come to worst... along with our other duties and worries that woman Lepere has gone and quit on us... Yes, from Dean Boyd's office comes the report that she has officially withdrawn from the University... Poor Ole' Bob McDowell, we think he is quite lonesome with his true love way up there in Detroit... She's been up there for several weeks and reports from Debra Road say that she will not return for two more weeks... We had a note from our buddy and former dirt slinger, Walt Girdler, who is now pasturing with the Herald-Peet in Louisville. He sends his regards to all his friends and enemies... To continue our semi-weekly custom, we toss:

The Rose of the Week
Goes to Chlo Betty Moffett... Because she is a delightful person... because she is helping the cause of the Chlo chapter along with her activity on the campus... and because she is to make a trite statement—"Okay."

Now that Betty Moffett is the Rose gal of the week... We nominate Phidelt John Lockhart Davis, the Paris Phidelt lawyer, as the Fairy Boy of the week... The young feller came to school Thursday with a pansy in his lapel.

Hay, Hay, How Ya Doin'?
Scotty Chambers, the attractive little Tridelt, blossomed forth Tuesday morning with the Sigalph badge of Langdon Hay, varsity footballer... How long she has had the pin is secret... Known only by a select few... Sorry, but we promised Scotty we wouldn't divulge.

Concurrent with the above announcement... we think that Delt Dave Dufford has now decided to give up his suppressed desire to go out for spring football so that he might compete with the "Handsome Hay" for the affections of the attractive Scotty.

Spring Has Sprung Again
In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, roller skating, baseball and ice cream comes... So it tis... But Jeff Baynam has dropped the idea of the roller skating, baseball and ice cream... Tridelt Alice Coppage, New Jersey's contribution to the Tridelt, and former courtes of Hargis Hughes, is now the possessor of Jeff's Sigamky badge... Mac Hughes, Hargis' kid brother, tells us that his frater just gets the girls in training, then they fall for another of the brothers.

One of the brothers of the Sigalph lodge tells us that Buddy Dallas, after declaring his immunity to Dan Cupid's art, has finally and definitely fallen in love... Who? He does not know.

That Club Again

During the past week two applicants for the Bachelors Club have been received... One is Leo Spence, who has been labeled as a distinguished youth by his friends... and the other is Betty Morfett, who decides she should apply after asking for a stag bid to one of the formal dances.

Speaking of dance bids, it has been heralded around the campus for the past few days that your correspondent has the embarrassing experience of having two dates for the Sigman dance tomorrow night... 'Tis true, my amigos, and what to do about it?... the irony of the whole affair is that we asked for neither of the dates... the brothers fixed us up.

Another "Dinky" Dean
Delt pleb, Harlowe "Dinky" Dean is happy... in fact he has been whistling and singing for three whole days, the source of his merriment can be traced to the fact that Louise Siston, Lexington ete and true love of the forementioned Dean, is now in town... She has been pursuing her course of study at Randolph-Macon in Virginia.

One of the varsity basketball players whispered to us that their affable coach, Adolph Rupp, has severed his friendship with the ol' Timer, Chic Sale... His reasons can not be explained here.

From over on Lexington avenue comes the report that Chlo Pat O'Rear and a certain Lambdaky are "that way" again.

And from 329 Aylesford Place a telephone call tells us that Tridelt June Curd has suddenly taken a violent dislike for ice cream cones.

Several of the boys at the Phidelt bungalow are earnestly wondering why someone has tacked the moniker "Nancy" onto brother Bob Hess.

Tridelt Louise Johnson has arrived back in town after a sojourn in the sunny state of Florida... Yes, she got her share. A visitor from Chicago attended the Chlo dance Saturday night... Some little lady asked him what he thought of the Chi Omega chapter... He remarked, "Oh they all look the same to me, just a bunch of big wistful blue eyes staring at you."

Meeting of the James Kennedy Patterson Literary Society will be held in the staff room of the University Library at 7:30 o'clock Monday night.

INSTANT INTERVIEWS

By RANDY RASH

QUESTION: "What is your reason for going to the Commons during your free hours or at hours that are not supposed to be free?"
ANSWER: "Scotty" Chambers, "I could go to the library to spend my free hours but I would go to sleep there so I go to the Commons to keep awake."

ANSWER: Georgia Turnpseed, "I go to the Commons to study my next hour's lesson and to help keep Scotty awake."

ANSWER: Leo Spence, "It is something that I have been trying to figure out for a long time. Sort of an unsolved mystery."

ANSWER: Charles Vance, "I go up there to drink a coke and kibitz on the rest of the Phidelt bridge."

ANSWER: Hugh Brent, "To look at the beautiful girls that practically inhabit the place."

ANSWER: John Eversole, "I haven't anything else to do."

ANSWER: Bob Sherman, "To kill time between classes, entertain the girls with parlor tricks and to hold hands."

ANSWER: Dick Robinson, "To pass the time away and see people."

ANSWER: Jean Pat Belt, "Because I can see a lot of people up there that I never see anywhere else."

ANSWER: Micky von Borries, "So that I can see Hunt one of his two Kappa loves which is courting."

WHEN YOU FEEL "FED UP"...

GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

"I'M AN ENGINEER—working on the San Francisco-Oakland Bridge. Before that, six years in the army taught me the value of smoking a Camel when 'below par.' I smoke all the Camels I want, too, without getting jittery nerves. And Camels are mild and gentle to the throat."
(Signed) RALPH A. TUDOR

"I'M SPECIALIZING IN HISTORY—French and English history," says Laurence Brewer. "In addition, I have a job in the library for four hours a day, and I also work up data and material for the debating team. I'll tell you—it keeps me going hard. I've got more work than time. When I'm hard pressed, smoking Camels is not only a pleasure—it's a help, too. For when I feel 'fed up'—and it seems as though my energy were all used up—I smoke a Camel and get a lift in energy. Camels have a swell, rich flavor; due, I presume, to the use of choicer tobaccos. I smoke as many as I want to—for Camels don't ruffle my nerves."
(Signed) LAURENCE ALFRED BREWER, '37

"EVERY WOMAN prefers a milder cigarette. For years I've been smoking Camels because they are mild—and at the same time have a delightful rich flavor. I know these things don't just happen in a cigarette. There must be a reason, and I think it lies in the fact that Camels use finer tobaccos."

MILLIONS MORE FOR YOUR ENJOYMENT!

"Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

Senator Nye Will Discuss Munitions Tomorrow Night

United States Senator Gerald C. Nye, chairman of the senate munitions committee, will speak on "War and Profits" at the Henry Clay high school auditorium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

When the Duke bends over the piano ivories and his masters of melody begin fondling their instruments, one hears the very quintessence of physical Africa moving in staccato and suggestive rhythms.

NEW ARMY OFFICER ORDERED TO U. K.

Captain George N. Randolph, infantry, was ordered transferred from Fort Benning, Ga., to duty as assistant professor of military science and tactics at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, according to information received here today from the War Department by Major B. E. Brewer.

Captain Randolph, who is now an instructor at Fort Benning, will come here as soon as his school work is completed in June. It is not known whom he will replace but Major Brewer stated that two of the members of the staff are due to be relieved this spring although orders have not been received to that effect.

Golfers Will Play Qualifying Round

Six Players Having Lowest Scores Will Comprise Wildcat Team

At a meeting held in the Alumni gymnasium, Wednesday, it was decided that all students wishing to make the University golf team should play a 36 hole qualifying round at the Lexington Country club. All scores must be in at the Kernel office, Monday, April 1.

J. D. Haggard, acting captain of the team, announced that the six players having the lowest scores would be the ones selected to comprise the team. These six in turn will play a round-robin tournament to decide their positions on the team. The team will meet the University of Louisville, University of Dayton, Ohio, and Eastern Normal of Richmond twice during the season, and the University of Tennessee once. They will also be entered in the Kentucky State Intercollegiate meet, to be held in Louisville sometime in May.

They chew it, they smoke it in pipes, they smoke cigars and cigarettes, and here is what an eminent physician said about cigarettes: "I have been something of a student of cigarettes, and it is my belief that they offer the mildest and purest form in which tobacco is used." Yes, nowadays the cigarette is the most popular form in which tobacco is used. A good cigarette certainly gives men and women a lot of pleasure. Have a Chesterfield— For one thing—they're milder. For another thing—they taste better.'
