Judged the most improved player on the team . . . Bigger, stronger and more confident, Williams will be a great asset if he can shake the "freshman jitters" that held down his shooting to 36.7 percent last year . . . A sound and rugged defensive players whose quick jumping ability makes him very effective on the boards . . . A three-year All-Stater at Manual, he was selected the 1976 Four-Corners (Utah, Colorado, Arizona & New Mexico) Player-of-the-Year . . . A graceful and swift runner, he lettered in track in the 440 . . .

COACH HALL SAYS: "LaVon is a real competitor who gives everything he has to the team effort. He needs that one break-away game to give him the confidence to become a great one."
