BORN: 4/1/58

HOMETOWN:

Knoxville, Tennessee

HS: Knoxville Catholic

Coach: Bill Deatherage

First becoming interested in Kentucky two years ago at Wildcat summer basketball camp, Gettelfinger was slowed by illness his senior year in high school and when he became dissatisfied with college offers, he chose to join the Wildcats as a walk-on . . . Has been impressive with hustle, desire and a willingness to work extra hard in any job . . . One of the squad's quickest members, he is a fine ball-handler and shooter . . . All-State, Catholic All-American and prep All-American . . . Averaged 24.0 in 15 games as a senior . . .

COACH HALL SAYS: "Chris is more than a walk-on to us. His enthusiasm and confidence rub off on others, as well as his tenacity and ability to work hard. He definitely could contribute to the team this year."
