

HT: 6' 5" WT: 230

BORN: 1/17/56

HOMETOWN:

Lexington, Ky.

HS: Henry Clay

Coach: Al Prewitt

The "King of Dunk" has become the champion of Rupp Arena fans, who delight in seeing him drive and soar for his "patented" slammers . . . Could be the quickest and most mobile strong forward in collegiate basketball today . . . Has all the inside shots and is sensational at using the board on seemingly impossible shots in a crowd . . . Lifted 460 lbs. in power squat during weight training . . . 1976 All-UKIT . . . Prep All-American and twice All-State at Henry Clay . . . Set school records there in scoring, 1,671 points, and rebounds, 1,194 . . .

COACH HALL SAYS: "James uses his strength well inside and his quickness on the fast break. Improvement on defense would make him a complete player."
