Dear Sir:-

Since writing you on June 20th in response to your inquiry of June 17th regarding #7 Sideboard, we have not heard from you.

We endeavored to give you as complete and definite reply as possible, but if everything was not clear to you or you have any further questions to ask do not hesitate to write us, We will gladly answer any further questions you may desire.

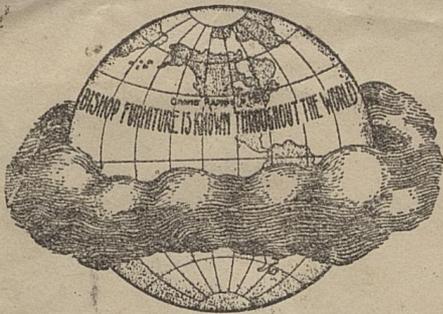

We have such confidence you will be pleased with our furniture, we are willing to ship subject to five days examination in your home, to be returned at our expense and your money refunded if you are not perfectly satisfied and do not feel that we have saved you money as we claim in our catalogue.

Assure you that your commands will receive our best attention, we beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

Bishop Furniture Co.,

My dear Mr. Anderson:

Cards announcing your marriage were received shortly before I left my home to spend some time in this city.

Allow me to congratulate you, and to extend best wishes for happiness to both of you. Mrs Weida and I had our ninth wedding anniversary ten days ago; and we look back with pleasure over the time spent together.

I do not know whether I shall get to Carlville (or not).

Remember me kindly to your parents as well as to the bride, and believe me

Very truly
Geo. J. Weida

We sent our cards to Mrs & Mrs Patchen.

After 5 days, return to 517 FREMONT ST.,
MANHATTAN, KANS.

Dear Sir:-

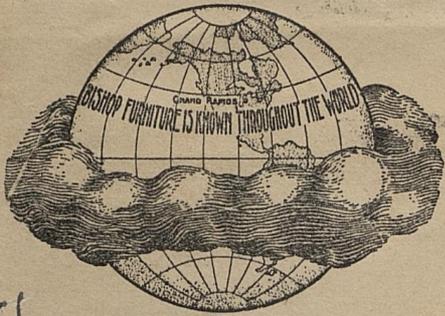

In reply to your courteous favor of 17th, we are pleased to say we can finish our #7 sideboard in antique or light finish at the same price we charge for golden oak. This sideboard is an excellent value at the price we name, and we are so sure you will be pleased with it, we are willing to ship with the understanding that if, after it has been in your home five days, you are not perfectly satisfied and do not feel that we have saved you money, we will take it back without one cent of expense to you, and refund your remittance.

Hoping an early reply will contain your order, and assuring you the same will receive prompt and careful attention, we remain,

Yours truly

C. H. Anderson,

Carlinville, Ill.

Dear Sir:-

We note with regret we have not heard from you since sending catalogue as per your request. If you did not receive catalogue, kindly advise us and another will be promptly mailed.

Our profit saving plan may not appeal to you, but if you will consider the enormous amount lost in bad debts (the full extent of which you will never know) that the dealer must make off those who pay, in addition to his expense and that of the agents selling him, it will be apparent that here is a great saving you can have the benefit of.

We have sufficient confidence you will be convinced there is a saving to you, to ship subject to your examination, five days in your home, freight prepaid and guarantee against damage in transit.

If you have made your selection do not hesitate to take advantage of our LIBERAL OFFER

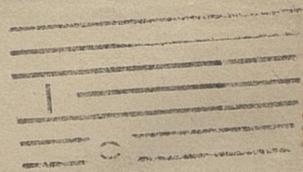

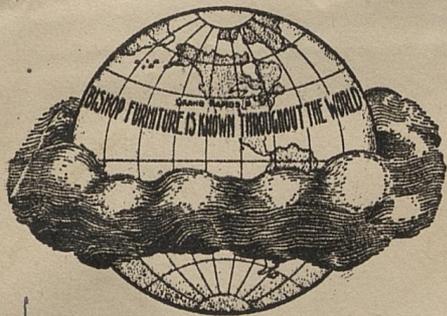

The obligation is ours if you are not satisfied. If you have postponed purchasing, or decided not to buy, we will thank you to write us, advising in the former instance about when you do expect to buy.

Awaiting with interest your response, for which we thank you in advance, we beg to remain,

Yours very respectfully,

Dis. W.D.B. #7.

Dear Friend

I received the invitation to your wedding and I regret very much that I can not come. And I wish I could send you a nice wedding present but I have no money to do this summer and will try and bring you some things. I want to come to the wedding so bad but have sickness in the house and dont forget me and if convenient send me some case. I wish you and yours all the happiness in the world.

Give my love to all the rest of the folks and tell them
I give them of you all.

Dear Crit.—

I want to thank you and Nell for the lovely book that I received Tuesday night. It was very nice of you to send it.

Allow me to congratulate you, I am so glad that you will soon be so

Happy.

Thanking you again for so kindly remembering me, I am,

sincerely your friend,
