JUDITH R. LEVINE, PRESIDENT

Central Kentucky Jewish Association

no 2

JUDITH SAXE, COMMUNITY WORKER

Campaign - 1982

Where does the money come from?

You - all the two thousand members of the Central Kentucky Jewish population.

You - be you male or female - head of a household or head of a house.

You - from dimes to dollars - from your pocketbook and from your heart.

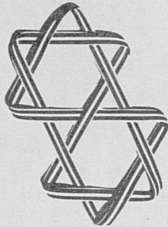

NOW - Campaign 1982 is under way to raise funds. Your money will be divided as follows:

70%	to United Jewish Appeal
20%	to Other Jewish Charities
10%	to Projects in Central Kentucky
100%	to a better world for Jews

Campaign 1982 is divided into divisions:

Men's Division - Steven Caller, Chairperson, Erle Levy, Co-chairperson

Women's Division - Gail Cohen, Chairperson, Gloria Katz, Vinnie Dubilier, Co-chairpersons

WE ARE ONE - ONE PEOPLE INDIVISIBLE 1982 CAMPAIGN

MEN'S UJA CAMPAIGN OPENS

On March 21 the Men's division will kick off its 1982 Campaign at a brunch at the Lafayette Club. The affair will begin at 10:00 a.m. and end before noon. All men who plan to make a contribution are invited at no charge. The main speaker is Zvi Kolitz, a prominent Israeli film maker. An interesting program is scheduled as well as a delicious lox and eggs buffet.

This year's campaign is headed by Chairman Steve Caller and assisted by Erle Levy as co-chairman. Caller and Levy advise that the 1982 drive will involve more workers than ever (40) who will work under the following captains - Mike Ades, Bob Baumann, David Bolotin, Ernie Cohen, Leon Cooper, Alvin Goldman, Allan Slovin and David Wekstein.

Erle Levy stated that "a goal of $250,000 has been set which represents an increase of 20%. We are confident based on worker enthusiasm and the needs of world Jewry that this goal will be reached."

Arthur Salomon is the Men's Division Chairman for Project Renewal, and is directing that part of the Campaign which will raise funds for our adopted neighborhood in Israel known as Netanya-Sela. Lexington and Louisville have joined together in this effort to upgrade the quality of life in this socially and economically depressed neighborhood.

Men: Please RSVP to Steve Caller, 266-1314 (home) or 252-8803 (office) if you plan to attend the brunch.

Project Renewal shows progress

GOOD-BYE GLORIA

Gloria Katz, co-chairperson, Women's Division Campaign '82 will join others from Louisville for an on-site visit to PROJECT RENEWAL in Netanya, Israel. She will visit Sela from March 22-29th and be home just in time to "fill us in" on this exciting part of United Jewish Appeal's commitment in Israel.

Project Renewal is a five year program of community development in depressed neighborhoods in Israel.

Women's Division

SPRING LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Women's Division of the East Central Region of UJA will hold a Spring Leadership Conference in Cincinnati, May 16th-17th at the Carrousel Inn. Marilyn Steinberg, Vice Chairman guarantees a lineup of programming that will assure success in future campaigns.

Let's all go! - (The carpools will stop at Bilkers, Izzies, and Loehmanns.)

For further information contact Women's Division chairman Gail Cohen (272-1459), or Co-chairmen Gloria Katz (272-3194), and Vinnie Dubilier (277-0549).

CAMP SHALOM NEWS

CKJA's Camp Shalom committee is pleased to announce the selection of Becky Kuc as camp director for the 1982 summer session.

Becky will graduate from the University of Kentucky in May with a Bachelor's degree in Parks and Recreation Administration. She has worked for the Lexington Parks and Recreation Department in positions ranging from camp counselor to a summer park director. She is enthusiastic about the job and has begun recruiting her staff. Becky's training, experience, and energy promise to make this one of the most successful seasons in the history of Camp Shalom.

Camp Shalom's session will run from June 14th thru July 2nd with an overnight experience for the older campers during the last week. The Adventure Program for four and five year olds will run from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. daily; six to ten year olds in the regular camp will attend from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. daily. The theme of camp this year will be Kibbutz life; activities will demonstrate and recreate lifestyles on a Kibbutz.

Brochures will be sent out in April to everyone on the CKJA mailing list. Applications for camp will be included in this mailing. If you have any questions now, please call Nancy Hoffman 266-2380.

CKJA RUSSIAN RESETTLEMENT PROGRAM

Please continue to save furniture, linens and other household goods and small appliances. Call Judy Baumann - 223-1299.

CALL KAREN

Have you always wanted to break into the circle of people who are having all the fun dancing at weddings and parties? Don't know how?

Learn! A six week beginner course in Israeli Folk Dancing is scheduled to begin in April. Karen Edelstein and her assistants Beth Genya Cohen and Sharyn Shearer will have you ready to participate in this fun and beautiful expression of modern Israeli culture. Call Karen - 266-5465

DANCE

MITZVAH CORPS

Temple Adath Israel's Mitzvah Corps brings together men and women over 55, married or single. The group, formed in the fall of 1981, gets together to "share experiences, entertainment, lectures, lunches, trips and friendships."

Previous programs have presented sing-alongs, a question and answer session with a representative from the local Social Security office and a Chanukah Latke Party. In February, Alberta Gerson spoke and showed slides from her China trip. THIS MONTH . . . Tuesday, March 23rd the Mitzvah Corps will go to Frankfort to visit the Capital and sit in on the State Legislature in session. If you would like to share in this exciting experience be in the parking lot at Temple Adath Israel at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday March 23. There will be a bus for those who choose not to drive.

Need more information?

Call: Chairperson Lore Pappas - 272-7395

Co-Chairs Ruth Kessler - 266-7168 Carolyn Weinberger - 272-4833

ANNOUNCING

FORUM FINALE

CKJA's 1981-82 dynamic Forum series concludes with a most exciting program on Sunday, April 11th.

Cantor Sarah Sager, one of the world's few female cantors will give a performance at 8:00 p.m. at Temple Adath Israel. Her repertoire includes liturgical music, Hebrew and Yiddish art song, as well as lighter forms of musical comedy and folk song.

If you need transportation, call Judy Saxe or DeDe at the CKJA office - 277-8048.

P.S. if you would like to be on the Selection Committee for the 1982-83 series call Judy Baumann - 223-1299

CLAIMS CONFERENCE HARDSHIP FUND

The Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany announced the extension of the deadline for the filing of applications by Jewish victims of Nazi persecution, who may be eligible to receive grants from the Claims Conference Hardship Fund until December 31, 1982. More than fifty million D.M. were paid out already to eligible claimants.

The Hardship Fund is intended primarily to handle applications from such Jewish victims of Nazi persecution who left Eastern Europe after 1965 when the deadline for filing claims under the German Indemnification laws expired. Other persecutees who failed for very valid reasons to file timely indemnification claims in the past may also apply to the Hardship Fund.

Applications may be obtained from the:
Claims Conference Hardship Fund
15 East 26th Street
Room 1355
New York, N.Y. 10010

bar mitzvah

Ellie and Alvin Goldman take pleasure in inviting you to the Bar Mitzvah of their son Douglas at Temple Adath Israel, on Saturday, April 3, at 10:30 a.m., and luncheon in the Temple Vestry following the service.

On Friday evening, April 2, Douglas will recite the Kiddush, and be honored at the Oneg Shabbat following services.

PASSOVER'S HERE

If your child is 3 to 5 years of age, let him celebrate Passover at the CKJA Pre-school Passover Party! It will be held on Sunday, April 11th, at 3:00 p.m. at Ohavay Zion Synagogue. Call Joan Flashman for reservations - 276-1066. A reply by April 8th would be appreciated.

Attention - Anyone who feels alone as Passover Seder time comes closer.

There are many homes in our Jewish community with room for one or two more. There will also be a Community Seder at Temple Adath Israel on the second night of Pesach.

If you would enjoy home hospitality on April 7, the evening of the first Seder, call the CKJA office, 277-8048, and we will try to find a place for you.

If you would like to attend the Community Seder on April 8, call Marilyn Lieber, 266-1240.

Kosher for Passover foods are available in Lexington at:

Warehouse Foods
Krogers
Randalls
Foodtown

It's never too early, but alas, often it's too late.

THE 1981-82 FORUM SERIES

CANTOR SARAH SAGER
April 11 - 8:00 p.m.
Temple Adath Israel

Sarah Sager is presently serving as the Cantor of the Fairmont Temple in Cleveland, Ohio. She was invested by the Hebrew Union College-School of Sacred Music in New York and is one of only a few women in the world to hold the title of cantor. She is a graduate of Brown University and also holds a Master's Degree from the New England Conservatory of Music.

Cantor Sager has performed extensively for the Jewish community in such cities as Chicago, Boston, and New York as well as being featured on television and radio.

In addition to her cantorial career, Ms. Sager has appeared with the Santa Fe Opera Company, and the New York Lyric Opera. She sang in the world premiere of Rossini's La Gazzetta in Barga, Italy, and has filmed the role of "Juliet" for European Television.
