CATS MEET CINCY IN INITIAL NET GAME

STUDENTS' LOAN FUND IS IN DIRE NEED OF MONEY

Four Out of Five Applications Are Rejected

$20,000 IN LOANS OUT

Seniors and Juniors Are to be Given Preference

Due to a great increase in the number of applications for loans, and to the lack of funds available, it will be more difficult in the future for students to borrow money from the Student Loan Fund of the university. At the present time the entire $16,000, and in addition $2,000 borrowed by the Fund committee, is loaned out. More than $5,000 in notes is now due and unpaid, and according to Prof. W. S. Webb, chairman of the committee, it will be practically impossible to make any more loans until these notes are paid.

Professor Webb states that it was necessary to reject four out of five applications made for loans during the past week due to lack of money. He stated that in the future very few loans will be made for more than $50, and preference will be given to seniors and juniors, men with good scholastic standing and with a sound reason for desiring a loan, for these is only enough in the fund to take care of the best students and then only in a very meager way.

Students are asked to help relieve the situation by refraining from making application for loans unless it is absolutely necessary and unless it is impossible to raise the money through any other source. If, however, they still need to apply to the student loan fund, they are asked by the committee to make applications for as little as possible.

The student loan fund was founded seven years ago and since then has rendered a great service to the student body of the university. Contributions have been secured from many sources until the fund at present amounts to a total of $18,000, which, however, is inadequate for the present demands made upon it. Loans are made to students for a period of one year, but the time is frequently extended. Interest is charged at the rate of 6 percent per annum.

DR. McVEY TALKS AT CONVOCATION

President Explains the Purpose of an Education

President Frank L. McVey, taking as his subject "What is the Purpose of an Education?" addressed the second general convocation of all the students of the university last Wednesday at the third hour.

The Reverend T. C. Eton, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, gave the invocation. Christmas carols were sung by the men's and women's glee clubs in unison.

Dr. McVey stated that education is a process of preparing human beings for a life's duties. All education from a national basis, according to the speaker, rests upon the philosophy of the state. The democratic state serves as a means for the development of the individual. The education of the individual points to a conception of civilization and to a mastery over the conditions of life which embodies a knowledge of man's scientific, literary, institutional and religious inheritances.

He pointed out that a student's attitude in college toward his intellectual pursuits largely determines his attitude toward his life work.

Dr. McVey extended holiday wishes from the university to the faculty colleagues and himself to the students. After the student body joined the glee clubs in singing "On, on, U. of K.," the meeting closed with a benediction by the Reverend Kleiser, of Park Methodist Church.

4 MEN NAMED FOR SPEAKERS' BUREAU

New Members Are Chosen by Try-Outs

John Y. Brown, Rhodes K. Myers, William Simpson and G. Samuel Milane were selected as new members of the Student Speakers' Bureau of the university at tryouts held in the Little Theatre Tuesday night at 7 o'clock. The new men were chosen from fifteen contestants, speaking on the subject, "Higher Education in Kentucky."

The judges for the tryouts were Prof. W. R. Sutherland, head of the department of Public Speaking; Dean C. J. Turck, of the college of Law; and Dr. J. T. C. Noe, of the college of Education.

C. M. C. Porter, James S. Darnell, Henry C. Johnson, H. H. Grooms and K. H. Tuglie, members of the bureau of last year, will continue to represent the university in this capacity.

Mr. Porter was elected president of the bureau and K. H. Tuglie secretary at the election of officers which was held immediately following the tryouts.

SEATS FOR BOYS; SOME FOR GIRLS; BUT NONE FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

A new seating arrangement for the students will be instituted at the Cat-Cincinnati basketball game Saturday night. There will be a section of seats for the boys and one for the girls. Young gentlemen may bring young ladies to the games but must part with them at the door and rejoin them after the game. A girls' cheer leader has been selected, who will lead the yelling in the girls' section, and a boy will lead it in the boys' section. The townspeople will have a third section and the band will be seated in front and center of the three sections. The new plan was suggested by Coach Applegran after he had seen it in effect at one of the eastern colleges. He says that the psychology of the arrangement makes it a success and that the girls and boys yell against each other, making more noise than could otherwise be gotten out of them.

Representatives of the Sy-Ky Circle discussed the plan with "Daddy" Boles and Coach Applegran and it was decided to put the proposed plan into effect at once. The Cincinnati game is the first game of the year and the promoters of the plan feel that if they can get the students accustomed to the new arrangement early in the season the students will be more responsive to the cheer leaders.

It is pointed out that the students may have dates at the games, but there will be no student section where they can sit together.

U. K. IS AWARDED NINTH PLACE IN CHL. STOCK SHOW

24 TEAMS COMPETE

Miss Gladys Platts is Only Girl Contestant

The University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Experiment Station won 29 ribbons on 23 sheep at the twenty-fifth annual International Livestock Show held last week at Chicago. Twenty-four wethers and one Cheviot buck were included in the exhibit which won in practically every class in which they were shown. The winnings included seven purple ribbons for champion, reserved champion and reserved grand champion placings; nine blue ribbons given for first placing; six red ribbons given for second rating, four third, one fourth and two fifth prizes. The best prize winner was the grade South-down wether lamb which was made champion in that section after winning his class and later was declared reserved grand champion wether of the entire show against all breeds and ages. Most of the sheep were produced on the university farm and only a few were from various breeders over the state. The Kentucky Agricultural college stood first, second, third and fourth in the class for Cheviot wether lambs, and also

DR. FUNKHOUSER ELECTED OFFICER OF CONFERENCE

Is Secretary-Treasurer of Southern Organization

Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, of the university of Kentucky, was elected secretary and treasurer of the Southern Conference of Colleges and Universities for the year 1925, at the annual convention which was held at New Orleans, La., December 4 to 6. His nomination was made by a special committee, composed of representatives from different southern schools, and his election was made unanimous by the Conference body.

Doctor Funkhouser is a member of the athletic council of the university, and his election, according to Kentucky athletic fans, means furtherance of Kentucky's athletic policy and a recognition of her leadership in sports in the south.

S. A. (Daddy) Boles, another of Kentucky's representatives at the Conference, was a member of the committee which fixed the dates of the Southern Conference track meet which is to be held at the University of the South, Sewanee, May 15 and 16. Dates for the basketball tournament, which is to be held at Atlanta were set for February 27 and 28 and

TRUSTEES DECIDE U. K. WILL HAVE PHONE BRANCHES

Dr. McVey Stresses the Need for More Equipment

O. K. CANDIDATES

President Formally Accepts New Football Stadium

The board of trustees, at their quarterly meeting held yesterday in the office of President McVey, faced many problems and difficulties confronting the university and took definite steps toward handling them.

It was decided that a private telephone branch exchange connecting all departments will be placed on the campus in connection with the exchange at the Experiment Station, as proposed by the Fayette Home Telephone Company.

President McVey's report was a plea for more buildings and for better equipment to care for the increase of students. Realizing that only 195 girls out of 600 enrolled have access to dormitory room, the problem of housing assumes utmost importance. The total enrollment at present is 2,026 and at the present rate of increase, ten years hence the enrollment will be more than 4,000.

The new football stadium was formally accepted by President McVey and a report of the building committee was submitted and approved by the trustees.

D. H. Peak, business agent of the university, read the financial report for the quarter and bills for the university were approved.

The trustees present were Gov. W. J. Fields and McHenry Rhodes, superintendent of public instruction, members ex-officio; Senator H. M. Froman, Lexington; R. J. Bassett, Leitchfield; Robert G. Gordon, Louis-

RADIO CLUB HEARS RUSSIAN PROGRAM

Bi-Monthly Meetings Are Open to Visitors

Radio Station WAX, of Petrograd, Russia, was plainly heard by members of the University of Kentucky Radio Club Thursday night, November 27, between 10:30 and 11:00 o'clock. This is believed to be the record for long distance reception by a Lexington radio apparatus.

The identity of the station was established when the announcer spoke in English after having repeated his announcements in Russian, French, Italian and German. The program consisted of a piano selection, several vocal selections and a lecture in the Russian language. This program is only one of the many foreign stations that have been heard by the club members during international radio week.

The Radio Room is located in the rear of Mechanical Hall on the campus and is at all times open to visitors. Membership in the club is open to any student interested in radio communication. Meetings are held the first and third Thursdays of each month.

'CAT BASKETBALL SEASON TO OPEN TOMORROW EVE

University of Cincinnati Will Furnish Opposition

BEARCATS STRONG

Game Marks Opening of Hardest Schedule in Years

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock the doors of Kentucky's new gymnasium will be opened for the first basketball game of the year and the Wildcats will endeavor to calm the fighting Bearcats of the University of Cincinnati. This will be the first game for the Blue and White in the huge building which was completed after the close of last season, and the players are determined to open it with a victory.

Coch Applegran has a good aggregation which has been practicing daily and it is going to be a hard job for the mentor to make his selections for the first team. Most all of the players of last year's squad are back, with several of the '27 freshmen bidding for a berth on the varsity squad. The team will more than likely be formed around Captain Jimmy McFarland and Lovell Underwood at forwards and Will Milward at center.

Applegran has, for the past week, been working his men out in secret, allowing only a few officials to watch the practice. During his earlier practice sessions he stressed mostly the fundamentals of the game, but has now gotten down to real work. The players have been sent through stiff scrimmages each afternoon this week, followed by work on formations, pivoting, turns, both reverse and side, free shooting and foul shot practice.

The Cincinnati Bearcats are said to be a crack bunch of not artists, are sure to make the Wildcats use their claws freely if they expect to win. As to who will be in the lineup of the "cat" team is a question. In addition to the players men-

FOOTBALL SEASON CLOSES

Saturday, December 6, the Wildcats closed what may be well termed a successful football season in many respects. During the fall they scored 120 points to their opponents' 99, and eliminating the post-season game, the record stands at 122 to 75.

More spectators saw the 'cats in action in the Alumni Stadium on Stoll Field than have ever seen a University of Kentucky team before. We attribute this to the fact that the stadium afforded comfortable seats, each permitting a good view of the game, and probably to the increasing interest in this form of sport.

We find no fault with Coach Fred Murphy and believe that he did as well as anyone could have done with the material present at the university this year. Line material was lacking and for this reason it was not possible to build up a defense that is essential to the complete success of a team.

An excellent schedule is in the making and we believe that the alumni should begin planning to see as many of these contests as possible.

NEW YORK CLUB HAS BANNER MEETING

Between forty and fifty of Kentucky's most loyal alumni met at the famous Keop House, 72 West 30th street at 7:30 o'clock and we predict that there will be some real scrambling for positions on the varsity next fall.

Telegrams of good wishes were sent to Doctor McVey and Prof. A. M. Miller. A similar one containing congratulation for splendid work done in connection with construction of the Stadium was sent to D. V. Terrell '10, head of the department of Civil Engineering.

A big meeting of the Lexington Alumni Club will be held at 12:00 in the private dining room of the Lafayette Hotel, Saturday, December 13. Mr. S. A. Boles, the coaching staff, and the football boys of the senior class have been invited to this luncheon, and it is expected that this will be a record-breaking meeting.

Freshman Engineers' Dance
 The freshman engineers entertained with a delightful dance Saturday evening in Dicker Hall from 8 to 11 o'clock. The programs were small white booklets tied with blue cord. The Blue and White orchestra furnished the music and about 300 guests were present. The Engineers' Ball will be held in the spring and is one of the most enjoyable dances of the year.

Graphic pie enough to satisfy the hunger of a life-time; no end of graphic mountains to scale and toboggan down. That's what the man who loves to analyze graphs and statistical symbols can look forward to when he comes with the electrical industry.

Economic study is one of many branches in this broad field. If you have thought of electricity as limited to engineers, this other side of the picture will interest you.

The commercial organization with its problems of distributing, selling, advertising; the manufacturing end with its opportunity for trained technical men; the legal and accounting branches—all this and more totals electrical industry.

It may pay you to keep this in mind against graduation.

ories, no agency is present in the university to provide for the spiritual thirst of the students. This supposition is due to a lack of familiarity with conditions as they are.

The Y. M. C. A. conference is only one of the many religious and spiritual agencies that are in operation on the university campus, and the convocation of this assembly is cited merely for the fact of recording that there is a fine apportionment of scholastic and spiritual values in the program of the university.

IN each of the last four issues of the Kernel there has appeared an editorial by a member of the faculty. Dean Anderson, Mr. Bart Peak, and Professor Dentler and Dean Boyd have contributed their authoritative and literary comment on university problems. The result of these contributions in improving the editorial tone of the Kernel has been very marked. It is hoped that all members of the faculty and student body will feel at liberty, in fact they are requested, to submit their opinions and policies in editorial form.

AN article on the sporting page of the Kernel in its last issue has elicited so many favorable comments that it is felt that some acknowledgment should be made of its authorship. The old English epic relating how the Wildcats did unto defeat the Volunteers came from the vivifying pen of its gifted sporting editor, Frank K. Hoover. Becoming modesty on the part of Hoover caused the story to appear anonymously, but so many questions as to the identity of its author have been asked that this opportunity is taken to give credit where credit is due.

THE power of the press, and especially of the Kentucky Kernel, appears to be unlimited. Only recently the Voice of the Student Body received a request from Edinburgh, Scotland, asking that advertising rates be submitted, and that the writer be entered for a subscription. This enlarged range of influence of the Kernel bespeaks eloquently its appeal to all humanity. This last subscription brings the foreign circulation up to over a score. It could not be learned from the advertising manager whether the "ad" to be run was for Haig & Haig, or some other of Scotland's famous products.

JUST A WORD We miss the big Cadillac from its accustomed parking place near our office. Its owner told us he was letting it rest while he walked. There is only one conclusion to be drawn when a corpulent man walks in preference to riding!

We have always contended that the Patt Hall telephone number was more important than the football signal to most students; we had the popularity of "2988" impressed on our minds as we walked by a top shop down town a few days ago. A toy automobile in the window had a license number "2988."

It seems odd that the parist of the girls' gym should play "Just a Kiss in the Dark" while the girls are talking their neck exercises. Do the two go together?

A freshman on the campus was complaining to us the other day about what a hard life the first year men lead here. Listen, freshman, at Minnesota University, the freshmen must wear green caps everywhere, "but on" upon call, step off the sidewalk upon meeting an upperclassman, roll the right trouser leg eight inches above the shoe tops from noon until 6 p. m., and must not be seen walking or running on campus. Stuff that into your cranium, digest it and stop squawking.

HYGIENE SUGGESTIONS

Editor's Note:—A series of articles on hygiene, written by a local physician, will appear in the Kernel from time to time.

IF IT is immoral to needlessly impair the body's vitality, then lack of sleep is our most prevalent immorality. Students who ought to be firm-nerved, straight-thinking, and clear-eyed, go through their college course with a perpetual tired feeling, irritable, sluggish-eyed, and languid-brained. They sit torpidly through classes and wonder why the professors are so someone. They slump dismally into a chair and feed their minds on whatever takes the least mental effort. They wish that something would happen and wonder why they do not have enough "pep" to start anything. Fatigue poison has lost far more athletic contests for the school than nicotine or alcohol.

A few men seem to be able to operate indefinitely on a very little sleep. But the chances are a hundred to one that you are not. You can get along on five or six hours a night for a long time, but the accumulated fatigue will eventually take its toll. Nature always collects her bills.

This would be a better place to live in if the nerves of all the men were kept toned and sweet by a generous measure of sleep. Let us pray with "Robert Louis the Beloved": "Give us to go blithely about our business all this day and bring us to our resting bed weary, content, and undishonored, and grant us in the end the gift of sleep."—The Colby Echo.

FACTORY PLUMBING CAN CONTRIBUTE TO EFFICIENCY

Supplying dependable valves, fittings and steam specialties that exactly satisfy all piping requirements is only one of the ways Crane Co. serves American industry. Crane provides another important means of lowering manufacturing costs in its complete line of factory plumbing fixtures.

In many ways this sanitary equipment can be used to bring up efficiency. Toilet rooms and lavatories of ample capacity, placed close to the "population centers" of the departments they serve, save many wasted minutes. Enough drinking fountains, convenient to machines and benches, increase production by shortening the time taken off by workmen in quenching their thirst. Because Crane plumbing materials stand up under ordinary, careless usage, they perpetuate these savings of time. Their upkeep cost is low, their life much longer than could be expected of fixtures made to sell on price alone.

When you plan plumbing installations, a Crane specialist at the nearest Crane Branch or Sales Office will be glad to help you select the correct type of fixture for each particular requirement. One hundred two Crane branches and offices bring this service within easy reach of every industrial plant in the United States and Canada.

Smooth, well-kept hair is now so easy to have!

UNKEMPT hair was once as nearly universal as smooth, neatly-combed hair is today.

Of course, well-dressed men realized then as well as now that nothing spoils the whole appearance so quickly as hair that is out of place.

That's why Stacomb was introduced.

At last—a way to keep the hair in place

At first known only in California colleges, the story of Stacomb quickly spread. Today, well-dressed men everywhere have found in Stacomb what they have always needed—an easy, natural way to keep the hair looking just as they want it to look at all times.

Perhaps you part your hair in the middle. Perhaps on the right side. Perhaps on the left. Perhaps you comb it straight back. It makes no difference; Stacomb will keep it just the way you like it best. A touch of it in the morning, and your hair will stay just the way you want it all day long.

No matter how uncontrollable your hair may be after being washed—no matter how dry and straggly by nature—Stacomb will keep it in perfect order, always smooth, trim, lustrous.

Women use Stacomb, too. They find it excellent to control stray hairs, to make the curl stay in, and to keep the hair severely close to the head in the prevailing fashion.

Use Stacomb tomorrow morning, and look your best all day! A delicate, invisible cream—non-staining and non-greasy. In jars and tubes at your college drug store.

FRESHMEN CLOSE SEASON; 'CATS DROP LAST GAME

KENTUCKY KITTENS RANK AS ONE OF LEADING TEAMS OF THE SOUTH

Jenkins, Van Arsdale, Ellis, Loom as Varsity Material; Freshmen Win 3, Lose 1, Tie 1, During Year

On November 27 the University of Kentucky freshman football team closed a successful season by winning over the Centre Lieutenants 10 to 7...

Georgetown, the first team to feel the "Kittens' Klaws," went down on a 50 to 0 count, the game being an easy workout for the Kentucky outfit...

Tennessee was too good for the dope upset than when the Rats romped across Stoll Field to the tune of 14 to 0.

However, the Kittens sought and found their revenge in Tennessee after all for the defeat of the Vanderbilt freshmen by two touchdowns served to satisfy and soothe Kentucky backers for the defeat of the week previous.

The return game with the Centre Lieutenants was a glorious one and Kentucky is still singing the praises of Gayle Mohney, the prize halfback who was put into the game about ten minutes before he made a dropkick which spelled victory for the Kittens.

Raymond Ellis, another "find," scored the only touchdown made by Kentucky. Ellis hails from a Grange and has piled up more scores than any other member of the team.

Van Arsdale did a more brilliant playing at halfback, and his punting was exceptionally good. The end positions were well taken care of by Martin and Travor, while Jenkins' ability as quarterback was a deciding factor in all Kitten victories.

The line was strong, and each individual linesman played high grade football. A summary of the season's games ranks the Kentucky Kittens among the best of the southern freshman teams, and the able manner in which Coach Ecklund has developed this eleven has proved that next year's varsity will have a wealth of new material.

Ecklund, picked by Eckersall as All-American end while playing at the University of Mississippi, has shown unusual ability in rounding out a first year team from an aggregation of high school stars from all over the state of Kentucky.

U. K. C. C. SEASON IS UNSUCCESSFUL

Lack of Experience is Cause of Failure in Meets

The Wildcat cross-country season which closed on Thanksgiving Day, was the first unsuccessful one that the university has ever experienced in that particular sport. Last year the Felines boasted one of the strongest teams in the country, but of this spectacular array of cross-country performers, but one man returned this year.

With the exception of this man, the remainder of the team representing Kentucky was composed of inexperienced men. These, however, developed into fair runners before the end of the season.

Kentucky entered only one meet in which they competed against the strongest teams in the middle-west, Indiana and Butler, and made a good showing under the circumstances.

The failure of a large number of men to come out for cross-country also decreased Kentucky's chances for a successful season. Men going out for cross-country must train harder than in any other sport, and long distance running affects the eyes greatly.

ROYAL WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO 'CAT DELEGATION

Charleston, West Va., Warmly Greets Kentuckians

4,000 ATTEND GAME

Governor Morgan Officially Welcomes Visitors

By Ted McDowell Charleston, W. Va., host of the University of Kentucky football team on their recent trip to that city, where they met West Virginia Wesleyan in a post-season game, has the unqualified and unanimous vote of every Kentuckian who made the trip for the title "The Most Hospitable City of the Universe." Other and better writers have told of the wonderful playing of the Wildcat team, of the indomitable courage of Captain Sanders, who played the Bobcat line time after time, of the two greatest ends ever seen in the east, Kirwan and King, and how they made the All-American end, Bullman, look pale and anemic, and of the superb passing and running of Turkey Hughes, who did more than the famous Syracuse team was able to do, and scored a touchdown against the powerful Wesleyan eleven.

But of all these incidents, glorious as they were, the thing that will remain longer with the wearers of the Blue and White is the wholesome and warmhearted reception given them by former Kentuckians and other citizens of the city of Charleston.

The reception accorded the team and their supporters at Knoxville on Thanksgiving day was unusually fine and was greatly appreciated by the Wildcats and fans, but there was a marked difference between that reception and the one accorded the team at Charleston. In the latter city far more than half the town was hoping with all their hearts that Kentucky would win, and spent the night and day announcing to the wide world that they were from Kentucky, for Kentucky and that they believed in Kentucky.

Have Parade

The official celebration was in the charge of Messrs. Roy Smarr '09, Dewey Welch '23, and a number of other alumni of the university, who were ably assisted by a large number of former Kentuckians and Tennesseans, who were loyal to the nth degree. A parade composed of 250 automobiles decorated in Blue and White streamers, met the party at the station and moved in a triumphant procession to the Kearse Theatre, where the entire party were the guests of the management at an excellent show. Mrs. Opal Poe Graham appeared on the stage between performances and sang the Wesleyan school song to the audience. She reappeared in a Kentucky sweater and sang "Oh, on, U. of K." to the accompaniment of the theatre orchestra. The Kentucky delegation rose as a man and sang their battle song as it is sung on Stoll Field.

Going to the hotel, which was beautifully decorated in Kentucky colors, the party was visited by Governor Morgan of West Virginia, who extended an official welcome to the visitors. Saturday morning, the entertainment committee arrived at the hotel in automobiles and took the entire party of visitors over the city and showed them some of the most beautiful scenery in the country.

4,000 View Game

Four thousand people saw the game on Laidley Field Saturday afternoon and a conservative estimate would place 2,000 of them as being for Kentucky. Two bands played during the game, the Charleston High School band and the municipal band, which took turns serenading the Kentucky side of the field. A large party of alumni and supporters of the university yelled all during the game and went away from the magnificent struggle convinced that if Kentucky had received the breaks, victory would have been chalked up for the Blue

WILDCATS OUTPLAY WEST VIRGINIA, CONQUERERS OF NAVY, BUT LOSE

Frecka, Bullman and Bobcats Defeat Felines 24 to 7 in Game Which Dedicates West Virginia Stadium

SMITH IS VICTIM OF BROKEN NOSE

Star Back In Hospital; Result of W. Va. Game

Frank Smith, star halfback on the Wildcat football team, underwent an operation for a broken nose Monday morning at 8:00 o'clock at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Smith has had trouble with his nose since last year's freshman football season and suffered new injuries to the member in the Alabama and West Virginia games. He had an operation performed upon his nose at the close of school last year.

The Wildcats went to Charleston, they saw, they conquered—yet they did not win.

Outplaying two all-American prospects, one backfield man and an end, the University of Kentucky last Saturday lost to a team which conquered Syracuse 7 to 3, and the Navy 10 to 7. The final count was 24 to 7 but the score does not in the least reflect on the fight that the Wildcats put up against the sturdy mountaineers.

Playing with the grit and unquarable courage that failed to characterize the regular season, the Wildcats held at every stage and were defeated by Fate, as they were defeated in two other games this year.

The slippery Frecka and his crossword puzzle style of making touchdowns brought the stands to attention with his 95-yard run across the goal line in the fourth quarter after Gregg had punted. In the third quarter he raced through the entire Kentucky team for a touchdown after he had caught Hughes' punt on his own 33-yard line.

Kentucky's Near Score

In the second quarter, after Sanders had plowed through the center of the Wesleyan line for 16 yards, Kirwan over-ran a long pass which was grounded. Another pass was successful when Kirwan heaved the ball to King for a 25-yard gain. The rally was short-lived when the timekeeper's whistle put an end to hostilities as the quarter ended. It was Kentucky's ball on the three-yard line.

The "cats, displaying the same fight that defeated Tennessee, made three long marches up the field, but only one of them resulted in a touchdown. Breakers of the game not only nipped two of the marches in the bud, but gave Wesleyan chances to score which she quickly seized.

The defensive playing of the Wildcats was the illuminating feature of the contest and the Charleston fans, whose hearts were with Kentucky, were loud in their praise for the way in which the Felines outfooted and outgeneraled the all-American Bullman and his team.

The Blue and White passing attack worked like a top, as it has for the last two games, and only breaks prevented them from winning. The Bobcats completed a double pass at the beginning of the second half on which Wehl ran 56 yards over the goal line only to be called back because both teams were offside. This pass was the prettiest of the afternoon. Frecka's two spectacular runs, however, outshined this play.

Frecka Outplays Bullman

Frecka looked to be more of an all-American man than did Bullman and Captain Sanders was the equal of Frecka on both the offense and defense, although he did not thrill with lucky, cross-country runs. Kirwan and King played the best game they have played during the season and only one long run was made by the Bobcats outside Wildcat wings, the two Kentucky ends proving to be sure-fire tacklers.

Wildcats' Play Superior

A summary of the game shows that Kentucky made 11 first downs to 9 for Wesleyan and that Kentucky gained 182 yards through the line to 132 yards for Wesleyan. The Bobcats, however, excelled the Wildcats in running the ends, gathering 82 yards to Kentucky's 21, this due to two long end runs by the West Virginians.

Kentucky's punts averaged 38 yards while Wesleyan's averaged 34. Kentucky gained 59 yards by passes to 9 for Wesleyan. Kentucky's kick-offs were superior, totaling 273 yards to 121 for their opponents, although Wesleyan gained 229 yards to 35 for Kentucky in running back punts.

The closing minutes of play were on a field that was fast darkening, and when the final whistle sounded, the sun which had appeared only for a short time toward the end of the game had gone behind the hills.

The curtain had been rung down for 1924 football on two smooth-running elevens and the Bobcats had turned their thumbs down on the snarling Wildcats from the State of Old Kentucky.

AS SEEN FROM THE PRESS BOX

By FRANK K. HOOVER The sports editor of the Charleston, W. Va.) Gazette was full of praise for the showing of the University of Kentucky football team and their supporters in the post-season contest with the Bobcats of West Virginia Wesleyan last Saturday.

In his story on the day following the game he says: "A little band of Kentuckians, small in numbers, but mighty in its support of the Blue and White warriors, and scattered followers of the Wesleyan Bobcats, both aided and abetted by two hands, peddled things up along the sidelines prior to the initial kickoff and during lulls on the playing field.

"Even when there remained only a few seconds to play and the Wildcats were burdened with a 24 to 7 score the strains of "My Old Kentucky Home" kept coming from the Kentucky side of the field and the last minute march of the Kentuckians toward the Bobcat goal found no lack in accompaniment from the Blue and White followers. Charleston's municipal band was at the scene and its parade, between halves to the Kentucky side of the field where "My Old Kentucky Home" was given as a tribute to the fighting Wildcats and their loyal followers was one of the high lights of the afternoon."

Wildcats Favorites "When the Wildcats opened up through the air and later crossed the Bobcat's line the Kentuckians got a hand from the stands for the Wildcats had made themselves favorites with the fans who had watched their defeat. Grass team instead of the West Virginia aggregation. Saturday night the visiting party was entertained at the Shawnee Club at a delightful dance, attended by many of the belles of Charleston and surrounding towns. The Lexington party left Charleston at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning amid the goodbyes of many newly made friends.

One of the most joyful parts of the trip was a reception given the party by the students when the train reached Lexington at 8:30 Sunday morning. Although a driving rain was falling and the team had returned home defeated, more than fifty students were at the station to greet them and to show their approval of the magnificent fight they had made, and of their love for the men who represented their school.

LEXINGTON TO SEE PARTIAL ECLIPSE

Total Eclipse Visible in East On January 25, 1925

According to Professor Downing, astronomer at the university, Lexington will be visited by a partial eclipse of the sun on Saturday morning, January 24, 1925, at which time more than half of the sun's surface will be darkened from sunrise at 6:45 o'clock until 9:10.

Provided weather conditions are favorable, eastern sections of the United States will be in total darkness for a part of the day, in the path stretching from Minnesota, just east of Red Lake, extending over Michigan, part of Canada, New York, Pennsylvania, to New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. This will be the first total solar eclipse in several decades.

The central path of the eclipse will run through Buffalo, N. Y., and New Haven, Conn., and has its termination in the Atlantic ocean, north of the British Isles, and the region will be in total eclipse. Sections outside the shadow path will witness only a partial eclipse.

SOUTHERN SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEETS

Eleven Ky. High Schools Admitted to Organization

The Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, composed of thirteen southern states, met at Nashville, Tenn., on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week to take up the work of accrediting colleges and secondary schools and problems of education. This information was given out by Dean Paul P. Boyd, of the college of Arts and Sciences of the university, who attended the conference.

The first two days were spent in the accrediting of colleges and secondary schools in the thirteen states of the Association. Forty-five applications from colleges were made for entrance but only three were admitted. These were: Citadel College, Charleston, S. C.; Texas A. & M., and Furman University.

The situation at Centre college was investigated and that school was reinstated in good standing in the Association. Approximately one hundred high schools were admitted, eleven of which are in Kentucky.

The latter part of the conference was devoted to educational subjects. President Frank L. McVey represented the University of Kentucky on the committee in accrediting colleges and Mr. M. E. Ligon, professor of secondary education of the university, was chairman of the committee for accrediting secondary schools.

U. K. IS AWARDED NINTH PLACE IN STOCK EXHIBIT

won first in the class for a pen of three Cheviot lambs.

In addition to the ribbons and prize money won by the sheep of the university, the college will receive from the United States Department of Agriculture one silver and six bronze medals, by a special act of congress for the highest ranking prize winners, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the world's leading livestock show.

The University of Kentucky had the best educational exhibit on the grounds, demonstrating what is being done to standardize spring lamb and chicken breeding. It was attractively illustrated with charts, live animals and carcasses of the right and wrong kinds of animals.

The stock judging team from the university stood ninth among twenty-three contesting teams. This was the best record ever made by a University of Kentucky team. R. H. Lickert was the highest scoring member of the team, ranking nineteenth in a field of 120 contestants. Miss Gladys Platts, of the university team, had the distinction of being the only girl in the entire contest.

Twenty-four teams entered the contest, two of which were from Canada. Of this contest the University of Nebraska finished first.

Among those from the university who made the trip were: E. S. Good, J. L. Horlacher and W. J. Harris, of the faculty, H. G. Sellards and Way-lane Rhodes, members of the Extension department, and the stock judging team composed of R. H. Lickert, Gladys Platts, W. S. Ligon, C. B. Godbey, Stewart Brabant and B. Y. Redford. This is the same team which won the national swine show contest in Illinois last September. Before going to Chicago the team traveled for a week visiting agricultural colleges of other states, and judging their stock, which is some different from that in Kentucky. They visited Ohio State University, Purdue, The University of Illinois and the University of Wisconsin.

CATS MEET CINCY IN INITIAL NET GAME

tioned above, the Kentucky mentor has Chuck Rice, Burgess Carey, Turkey Hughes, Foster Helm, members of last year's varsity squad, and Beauden, McCann and White, a new member of the Blue and White camp. "Speedy" Alberts, a crack player on the freshman squad two years ago, will be watched carefully by the reg.

The Kentucky team will make only three trips of importance this year. The first will be to Cincinnati soon after Christmas and from whence they will go to Champaign, Ill., for a game with the University of Illinois. Their next journey will be a five-day jump into the heart of Dixie, where they will play Alabama, Georgia Tech and Georgia on successive nights. The last trip will find the 'cats in Atlanta for the annual Southern Conference tournament on February 27 and 28 and March 2 and 3. Other short invasions will be made by the 'cats to Georgetown and Danville.

This year's schedule is one of the hardest that a Wildcat team has ever faced. The card to date shows that seventeen games have been definitely arranged. Three "Big Ten" quintets will furnish opposition for the 'cats, one Ohio Conference team and an eastern team. All the holiday games are non-conference and should be good starters for the coming season.

Coach Applegren has been coaching the Blue and White netmen along the same lines that George Buchheit did last year when Kentucky won the state championship. All of the Wildcats have a good eye for the basket and their defense will be hard to penetrate.

Sunday morning at the First Methodist Church, Mrs. Stoiber completed her talk on the "Golden Rule in Business." Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Church, Professor Carver gave his second address. At 5:30 the Epworth League of the Methodist Church entertained with a social hour, after which Dr. Henry Morrison, president of Asbury College, spoke on "The Attributes of God." This meeting closed the conference.
