

Mr. J. S. M^c The was reported as frequently unnecessarily absent from duties, and then assigning sickness as the cause of his absence. He was required in the future whenever sick to bring a note from Mrs. Bowman (and signed also by Maj. Stoltz) stating that he is unable to attend his duties. Mr. Howell was reported as having broken his arrest. After some explanations on his part it was decided that he should be privately reprimanded. Mr. Arvon's request to be excused from Sunday afternoon service was refused. There being no further business the Faculty adjourned.
 Jas. G. White Sec.

December 10th The Faculty met at 12 o'clock.

Messrs Kelley, Weyford, Morrison, Rye, Metcalf, Judy, Kay, Bocher, Miller, Alexander, Bramlitt Jr, Tucker, Kroop, Capmitt, Riggle, M^c Williams, Jas & H. Brewitt obtained furloughs for a few days in order to spend a short time at home. Mr. Miller was allowed to change his boarding, ^{provided} his club-fee are all paid. Mr. Childress was allowed to change his boarding house. Mr. Curson was placed under arrest till March 1st 1871, for ringing the College bell. His general standing was also reduced 15%. Mr. Gardner was reported for neglect of duty in failing to build a fire in the green-house. The President was requested to privately reprimand him. The President stated that Mr. Brinkerhoff, who was a member of this College last session and then joined the "Arkland Institute", wishes to know whether or not, being a member of the Commercial College, he will be allowed to represent the "A. C." on the 22nd of next February. The Faculty decided in view of some peculiarities in the case, that he ^{will be} is an eligible representative. Christmas day being on Sunday it was decided that the duties in this College be suspended on Monday, Dec 20th. The Faculty then adjourned.
 Jas. G. White Sec.