CONSTITUTION.

---

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

Section 1.—This Society shall be called the Ashland Woman's Club.

ARTICLE II.—OBJECT.

Section 1.—Its objects are mutual sympathy and counsel, the culture of its members and the promotion of better conditions in the community.

ARTICLE III.—DEPARTMENTS.

Section 1.—The various lines of work of the Club shall be carried on through departments each of which shall be in charge of a chairman.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS.

Section 1.—The officers of the Club shall be a President, First and Second Vice President, Recording Secretary, Assistant Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer.

These, with the Chairmen of Departments and three Directors and each retiring President in turn, shall constitute the Executive Board, in which shall be vested all authority not delegated to the Club as a whole.

ARTICLE V.—ELECTIONS.

Section 1.—Election shall be held the fourth Saturday in March, service to begin in October.

Section 2.—Nominations and elections shall be by ballot.

Section 3.—Chairmen of Departments shall be nominated by the Board for election by the Club.

Section 4.—Vacancies shall be filled by the Executive Board.

ARTICLE VI.—DUTIES.

Section 1.—Of Officers. The duties of the general officers shall be such as usually devolve upon such officers in similar organizations.

Section 2.—Of Chairman of Departments. The Chairman of each Department shall appoint from her list of members, a committee to assist in planning the work selected. She shall submit her program for the year to the Executive Board and shall be responsible for its fulfillment. She shall also preside during its rendering.

Section 3.—Of Directors. Directors are expected to participate in the deliberations of the Executive Board.

Section 4.—Of Active Members. Active members are expected to perform duties assigned them unless executed therefrom by proper authority. If unable to fulfill duty they shall provide substitutes.

ARTICLE VII.—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1.—Names of candidates for membership shall be submitted in writing by a member of the Club to the Recording Secretary, who shall present same to the Executive Board at the next meeting. On recommendation of the board the candidates shall be voted for in open session, ten negative votes signifying rejection.

Section 2.—Members may be Active or Associate, the latter having no vote nor duties and not being eligible to office.

ARTICLE VIII.—DUES.

Section 1.—Active members must pay an annual fee of one dollar and ten cents, Associate members two dollars and ten cents, the ten cents being State Federation fee.

Section 2.—Payment of dues and enrollment in Departments must be made at the annual reception, which shall be held immediately after the meeting of the State Federation.

ARTICLE IX.—AMENDMENTS.

Section 1.—This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote at any meeting, previous notice of proposed change having been given.

STANDING RULES.

1.—Meetings of the Club shall be held on the first and third Saturdays of each month from October to April inclusive.

2.—A business session not exceeding fifteen minutes shall precede each program.

3.—The work of the Club shall be carried on by Departments: 1—Literature; 2—Work.

4.—The President, First Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary and Chairman of Department number one shall be elected in even years. The Second Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Assistant Recording Secretary, Treasurer and Chairman of Department number two shall be elected in odd years. No officer, chairman or director shall be eligible for re-election.

5.—Three directors shall be elected each year to serve one year only.

6.—A member coming into the Club in April shall be exempt from dues for the closing year.

7.—Fifteen dollars shall be given annually to defray the expenses of the President of the Club to the State Federation.

8.—The Chairman of Departments with the Recording Secretary shall form a standing committee to edit the Year Book.

9.—The House Committee shall have charge of the Club rooms.

10.—It shall be the duty of the Committee on Social Affairs to have charge of the social meetings.

11.—It shall be the duty of the Library Committee to promote and keep up the interest in our local library as well as the State library.

12.—The Committee on Education and Child Labor shall work with the Mothers Clubs of this city, to improve local conditions in the schools, factories and stores.

13.—The Committee on Health and Moral Sanitation shall work with the local Board of Health to better conditions in the community.

14.—It shall be the duty of the Ways and Means Committee to devise plans to meet the financial demands of the Club.

15.—It shall be the duty of the Civic Committee to co-operate with other Civic organizations in all measures tending to the betterment of the City.

16.—It shall be the duty of the committee on courtesies to welcome new members and visitors, and promote a spirit of good-fellowship.

17.—These Committees are to be appointed by the President.
