Arthur D. Brown Enrichment Center ARISE INC.

In order to fulfill our mission in a manner that maintains the tradition of excellence in people-oriented ministry, First Baptist Church has expanded its outreach through the establishment of the Arthur D. Brown Enrichment Center. Its focus is on 'researched-based practical ministry with an emphasis on empowering the African-American church and community leaders who share a similar mission and goals for the spiritual and cultural enrichment of their people. Leaders are aware of problems facing their communities, which have been identified. Root causes can be traced from racial discrimination in education, geographic isolation, public policies affecting the urban poor, classism, and unequal treatment in the administration of justice.

The CENTER is dedicated to enriching the lives of persons and communities suffering by initiating an effective process for improving the lives of those beyond our church walls. Therefore, we shall identify our target group and devise tools with programs and goals. These programs will be designed to promote appropriate behavior by providing information on bad choices, which result in negative outcomes.

The CENTER therefore will insist on moving from research findings and rhetoric to concrete applications. To achieve these goals, the Arthur D. Brown Enrichment Center OPERATES UNDER ARISE INC - A Not - For- Profit (501-C-3) entity known as: ARISE INC.

Jo's Circle of Love honors Deaconess Jo James and symbolizes "Unselfish Caring for Others". In addition to being a Deaconess, Jo was Church Clerk, a member of the Cora Jiggetts Missionary Ministry and the Usher Board. She was an outstanding member and integral part of the First Baptist Church family and was loved and respected by every member of the congregation and gives unselfishly amount of her time and great wisdom.

After 19 years of service with the State of NJ Morris County Superior Court, Jo retired on September 1, 2008, as Criminal Records Supervisor.

Signature "Kip's Tree" was planted in honor of the late Kip Dudley Hale, a Madison native whole life as a fire-fighter was dedicated to serving others.
