OUTSTANDING INFO. SYSTEMS EMPLOYEE

Information Systems is now accepting nominations for its 1989 Employee of the Year Award. This annual cash award will be given to that employee who best demonstrates excellence and commitment to the goals of the University. The Information Systems sector includes the areas of computing, communications, libraries, instructional resources, postal services, printing and duplication. For information and nomination forms, contact Andy Spears, 257-8489.

LIBRARY DELIVERY SERVICE

The University of Kentucky Libraries will be offering a campus-wide service designed to provide handicapped patrons of the library system the convenience of access to library materials without the necessity of visiting the library to retrieve them. This new service will be available beginning February 1, 1990. All handicapped library users on the Lexington and Medical Center Campuses are encouraged to submit requests at any library on campus. The Library Delivery Service will provide 48-hour maximum turnaround time (Monday - Friday, 8:00-4:30) upon receipt of each request. The Library welcomes all comments and suggestions. Please contact the Coordinator for Handicapped Services, Carla Cantagallo, at 257-8397 for additional information regarding this service and other services offered by the Library for handicapped patrons. (Submitted by the Intralibrary Loan Committee.)

SECOND CALL FOR PET PICTURES!

Pet Lovers/Owners --- The date for the LSO-sponsored Pet/Owner Matchup Contest has been extended! We know that there are many more proud "pet parents" on the library staff than those who have submitted photos to date, so a new deadline for pet photo submission has been set for March 9th.

You can submit your pet photo(s) to any of the LSO officers (Judy Brown, Mary Geyer, Kathy Noland, Maggie Johnson). Please remember to include the names of both the pet pictured as well as your name on the back of each photo submitted.

It should be fun to try matching up the pets with their owners, but we need a lot of entries to make it more challenging! Matchup of photos with staff names will be open from March 14 to March 23. A special Morning Break will be sponsored by LSO on Tuesday, March 27th at 9:30 a.m. in the King Staff Lounge to announce the answers and the winner. Complimentary refreshments will be served. So don't delay. Send in your photos NOW!

STAFF ACTIVITIES

Toni Powell is coauthor with Zainuddin H.R. Lenggang and Chan Sirdi of an article titled "Management Techniques for Developing Libraries. The article was published in the IAALD Quarterly Bulletin, XXXIV/4 (1989), p. 167.

An article by Miko Pattie, "Database Reindexing at the University of Kentucky Libraries," appeared in Technicalities, 10/1 (Jan. 1990), p. 7.

The Medical Center Library is pleased to announce that Jon Hagee, Admin. Staff Officer, has won the third annual Library Appreciation Software Department Award which will be presented in Washington, D.C. at the Computers in Libraries '90 Conference, March 3-7, 1990. Jon will receive a check and plaque from the Meckler

Corporation who sponsored the award. The winning entry is a catalog maintenance and search program written for the Audio Visual Library. (Submitted by Omer Hamlin.)

Clay Gaunce, Instructional Resources Audio Visual, has received the following letter from Jon S. Hesseldenz, Project Director, HRS Project:

I want to thank you for your prompt and effective action on our behalf in locating, procuring, and setting up the color projector we needed for our demonstration on last Tuesday. Your people did an excellent job in calibrating the projector. It was as good an image as I have ever seen in such a projector. It was very short notice. We appreciate your efforts greatly.
