RECEIVED PAYMENT,
MAY 19 1903
YALE COLLEGE,
H. M. OSBORN, Bursar,

Per [Signature]

This bill is now due and should be paid promptly. Students whose bills remain unpaid on May 15th, will not be permitted, in the annual allotment of college rooms, to retain or choose a room.

Students whose bills remain unpaid on June 1st, will be liable to suspension from recitations until all dues to the University have been settled.

Owing to the charge for collecting made by the New York banks, it is requested that when payment of this bill is made by check, the check should be drawn on a New Haven or New York bank.

of John yet? It will be of great use to you and you can do what you have always desired, - earn a little money which will help you to buy clothes.

I hope you take your mother and Gracie driving occasionally. Of course the weather is so warm that you cannot go much further than the track but that will be nice to go then.

I hope that our new Regiment will soon be full and then I may be able to come home. Give my best love to mama and Gracie and with much love for you I remain, Your father

My dearest son, this is my fifth Sunday away from home and I feel a little homesickness yet. I wish I were with you all to drive down to church I suppose ~~the~~ pastor has returned from his outing, and is quite restored to his good health. I think Mr Mc Keever is a most excellent man and an earnest Christian I hope you are using your opportunities and learning my health very well. You to be a sailor. Have you been must be careful not to get sea sick yet. If you have sick. You are now old enough suffered, don't yield to it. You to expect your strength to see in the papers that Dewey develop. You must indulge in was sea sick at Manila, and athletics but in moderation. Do I saw an old mate on the simple feats until your confidence Rio Grande who brought us will ~~not~~ allow you to perform to N.Y. from Galveston, and he heavier exercises. He will try suffered from mal de mer every to rig up the punching bag time he left Port but he this winter and you can learn fought it down. to strike straight from the shoulder which will help your arm muscles. Next year you will have more time for such things than you have had.

Have you begun to take care

We had a furious rain storm last evening but it did not last long. It came near blowing some of the tents down. I keep
