Dear Brother;

How are you by this time?
I am well and so are all the Tom folks and the remainder as far as I know. Grandma is just about the same as she was when you left. The boys all are inquiring about you and your trip and also is everyone whom I meet. Prof said that he would like to hear from you if only by card. To see how you liked the country and if you had time to write him a letter he would be glad to receive it and also to ans.
it. How is Fred? Has he grown much? And does he
