FITZGERALD & FOSTER, PROPRIETORS

Great Falls, Montana. June 23 1902

Old Friend:

Will write you a few lines tonight & tell some of my doings since I came in. Idaho was not what I thought it would be. Was in Ida. Falls,ampa. Pocatilla & Boise. The sage down there is fierce. Was out in the mountains from Boise & it was some better; but Mont. is good enough for me. Came up to G. Falls & hired out to a fellow who called himself Mr. Givens. Well he was all kinds of a he bitch & I just worked ten days. He was a cattle man. Am going out again ⁱⁿ for an outfit down in the mountains south of Millegan. Forty dollars per month. There are all kinds of deer down there & once in a while
