COMMUNION SERVICE

The first Sunday in January, March, May, July, September and November.

SOME OF DUTIES OF DEACONESS

1. To hunt up people who do not belong or regularly attend any church and give them a special invitation to come to our church.
2. To look up absent members and ascertain the cause of their non-attendance.
3. To meet all visitors and to extend to them a hearty welcome.
4. To keep in touch with all sick, needy and aged members and render needed assistance.
5. To see that the communion set is kept in order and to assist in arranging the communion table.
6. To have as their chief aim to advance the Kingdom of God by increasing the spiritual activity and numerical strength of this church.

Members are requested and expected to attend all services of the church.

Let us make our church the best in the city; to do this, each member will have to do his or her duty.
