My dear Miss Helen:

Am passing thru here to-night after having "covered" the principal cities of Texas. I have thought of you so much & just wanted you to know it, even if I didn't have time for much of a letter.

And I have been afraid maybe you weren't doing so well; because I had hoped to get a postal from you saying you were at home doing well. I know you don't feel like writing and that's quite
