

2/ joy in living and
our devotion to one another.

I am so happy
to learn from Miss Mary's note to-day
that you are able to be up and have walked the length of the hall and still better that you
were not so weak or dizzy
as you expected to
be. Oh how glad I am
and she said that you were coming
home Wednesday
or Thursday and
so I hope by now

at home

New Year Day
1920

my darling:

To-day begins "our"
year; for I hope we will soon be united and can enjoy the unfolding year together - a year other than its forebodings; but I start this one with a strong heart and heart full
of a new happiness.
May it be your best
year so far, and may
there never be a cause
for pain or sadness
to you; but each day
and increase you
