27

UK to get $4 million to aid farm families

Money will be used for safety initiatives

By Doug Saretsky Contributing Writer

United States.

At a press conference in the Dorothy Enslow Combs Cancer Research Building, Jones and the members of the UK College of Medicine announced the three-stage project.

Stage project.

The University will receive nearly $4 million in grants over the next five years to fund the pro-nearly $4 million in grants over the next five years to fund the project.

A $1.6 million grant from the Centers for Disease Control will fund the first step of the project, which will create a Southeast Center For Agricultural Health and Injury Prevention.

The center will attempt to reduce the risks associated with farming though research and information. Funding for the first year of this project is set at $400,000. During its first year of operation, the center will introduce 11 research and prevention programs to aid farmers in Southeastern Kentucky. Among these programs will be a study of lip and skin cancer among farmers, as well as long-range planning for agricultural health.

UK organizations playing key roles in the first step of the project include the Colleges of Medicine, Agriculture and Vursing. The Kentucky Department for Health Services and the Kentucky Pen Bureau also will participate in the initiative.

initiative.

The second stage is based on a three-year, $450,000 grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation to UK's Department of Preventive Medicine and Environmental

tucky Partnership for Farm Family Health and Safety."

It will help farm women state-wide in forming coalitions to pro-tect the health and safety of farm families.

families.

Jones will work with farm women to identify the high risks of farming.

The third major component of UK's plan for farm safety is the continued funding of a five-year, $1.9 million grant to conduct the Kentucky Farm Health Survey.

The survey also is funded by the Centers for Disease Control.

Project director Robert McKnight said this survey will be the state's largest and most com-prehensive study of the health and safety of Kentucky farmers.

safety of Kentucky farmers.

The survey is intended to provide information on the presence of safety hazards on more than 2,000 Kentucky farms.

"A proactive approach is needed to keep agriculture a sustainable industry by enhancing the quality of life for farmers and agricultural workers," said McKinight, who is an injury epidemologist and an assistant profiles. mologist and an assistant profes-sor of preventive medicine and en-vironmental health.

The Kentucky Farm Health Sur-

The Kentucky Farm Health Survey is the only one of its kind in the Southeast and is one of six such projects in the United States. To conduct the survey, a health and occupational safety team will make on-site visits to Kentucky farmers to learn first-hand about concerns facing them.

Kentucky is home to more than 91,000 farms, each of which are at high risk for accidents and health hazards, McKnight said.

He stressed that most areas of

He stressed that most areas of rural Kentucky do not have a "911" number that farm families can call in the event of an emer-

Kentucky Gov. Brereton Jones yesterday announced that UK will receive about $4 million in grants to fund safety initiatives for farm families in the Southeast.

Speaker offers tips on dealing with bad credit

By Erica Patterson Contributing Writer

One of the danger signals of bad credit is deciding who not to pay, according to a credit specialist.

"The worst enemy with a credit card is instant gratification because it causes you to buy impulsively," said Alan Piles, a member of the Consumer Credit Counseling Service.

Piles's lecture, titled "Cleaning Up Bad Credit," Thursday night at the Student Center was sponsored by Delta Sigma Theta social sorori-

can be damaging, there are benefits.

"College students should have credit cards to establish credit," Piles said.

However, a person should have no more than three credit card." It can get anything I want," said Bryan Blackburn, a UK student who attended the lecture.

However, students should not put themselves beyond what they are able to pay, he said. "You don't need added wornes of credit card payments."

need added worries of credit card payments."

Piles said other danger signals of bad credit are paying only the mini-mum amount on credit cards, re-ceiving returned checks, borrowing more yo pay other bills, receiving threatening letters or calls from creditors and the inability to save money.

creations and the manning to save money. The mismanagement of money and an automobile with high pay-ments can often lead to bad credit. "People don't recognize prob-lems early enough," said Piles. Credit and saving money are important part of any person's fu-ture, Piles said. Students should pay themselves

Students should pay Inemserves first, by starting a savings account or by investing in stock, and they should distinguish between wants and needs, he said. Students who need credit help can contact the Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Central Ken-tucky at 272-8028.

Journalism faculty analyze media's role in presidential race

By Lance Williams Staff Writer

In the year of Ross Perot, family In the year of Ross Perot, tamily values and spin doctors, many have charged that the news media have moved away from reporting hard news and that election coverage has been biased, two UK officials said in a forum last night.

has been biased, two UK officials said in a form last night.

The discussion, held at the Hilary J. Boone Faculty Center, focused the public's views of the coverage of this year's presidential campaign. David Dick, director of the School of Journalism, and Douglas Boyd, dean of the College of Communications, moderated the discussion, which included several UK students, as well as others from outside the UK community.

Boyd gave his ideas concerning the changes that have dominated this year's political campaign.

He said the increased use of the fax machine, or power faxing, has led to the focus of the campaign from day-to-day to almost hour-by-hour. He pointed to the use of informercials, especially by Perot, as another new trend that is changing the way politicians are trying to convey their messages. He noted the increased appearances of the candidates on "enter-tainment" news programs as a shift from several years ago, when candidates were more likely to appear on straight news programs. He note: that the shift has involved more appearances on Larry King Live, for example, and morning news programs, which do not involve a direct line of questioning. Dick then talked about charges levied against the news media that they are not doing their jobs in getting the right information to the public. He countered these points with comments about the candidates' and the public's need to blame the messenger.

CORRECTIONS

Because of a graphic artist's error, a graphic that appeared in yesterday's Kentucky Kernel mis represented birth control expens at two locations in Lexington. Planned Parenthood charges $90 for 15 packages of birth con

Because of a reporter's error, the name of UK Army ROTC Capt. Philip Hartsfield was misspelled in an article in yesterday's Ken-tucky Kernel.

Perot defends dirty-trick allegations

By Steven Komarow Associated Press

An angry Ross Perot yesterday rehemently defended his accounts venementy detended his accounts of alleged Republican dirty tricks against his family as rivals Bill Clinton and President Bush sought to siphon off supporters of the Tex-as businessman.

as ousnessman.

In an impromptu appearance at a Dallas news briefing. Perot reiterated his belief that Republicans had prepared a doctored photograph to embarrass his daughter. Carolyn,
just before her wedding in August.
He said the alleged smear campaign, which he first spoke about on Sunday, was the real reason he pulled out of the presidential race in

"I decided it was a risk I should not take, could not take, did not have to take," Perot said in a com-bative session with reporters. "I adore her. And I would not risk ruining one of the most important days of her life, and I didn't."

Perot also acknowledged: "I could not prove that this occurred."

Clinton, campaigning in North Carolina, called the Perot imbroglio a strange development, but said he wanted to focus on winning back Perot supporters who may have strayed from the Democratic ticket.

Bush hopes "that the anti-Bush vote will be divided and he can sneak up through the middle," Clinton said. The Democratic nominee added, "This fight that Perot and Bush are in right now may make that more difficult."

that more difficult."

If the American people "want to replace George Bush, they only have one practical alternative," Clinton said. "I've got a chance to replace him."

The White House was in the position of both attacking Perot and appealing to his supporters.

While the president delivered a speech setting out his top domestic

See ELECT, Back Page

Clinton narrowly defeats Bush in UK mock election

Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton nar-rowly defeated George Bush in a mock presidential election held last week at the UK Bookstore, accord-ing to results released yesterday.

Of the 516 UK students who vot-ed, 221 chose Clinton and 208 chose Bush. Independent candidate Ross Perot came in third with 87

The poll showed that 465 of the participants are registered voters

The mock election was part of a nationwide event sponsored by Fol-let College Stores, which manages more than 400 college and univer-sity bookstores

Nationally, 40,698 students voted in the election. Clinton again defeated Bush, 20,293 to 11,887. Perot took in 8,518 votes.

The mock election ballot also

In the nationwide election, only 2,497 students picked the debates as an important issue for choosing a president.

Thursday, a political science class at Lexington Community College will release results of its second political poll of area residents.

CUTTING EDGE

DIVERSIONS

Alternative interpretations fitting for autumn, music

I sense autumn coming on The mist has hung low all day Small birds gather on the wing Preparing to make their way The trees begin to show A trace of gold among the green Bringing back the memories That only you and I have seen — Strawbs, 1974

Perhaps my judgement was somewhat chemically induced at the time, but last Friday morning, at I drove down Tates Creek Road from town to the Valley View ferry on the Kentucky River, I decided that this autumn must be one of the most beautiful of the past 10 years or so.

or so.

In fact, the colors were so phenomenal, I made the round trip up and down Tates Creek Road three times, just to keep riding the experience. I didn't want it to end.

Every new curve in the road brought with it a new vista, with new trees and new colors and infinite variations on the themes of green and gold and brown and tan.

Each tree had its own valid interpetation of autumn — and music, in which we seek to imitate nature, offers us the chance to create alter-

offers us the chance to create alter-nate interpretations of an idea in

we were discussing how a musi-cal masterpiece can sustain multiple interpretations, and how that con-cept relates to the better works of popular music. Often, a good some will be picked up and re-examined by another artist; and if the artist is good, and the song had something of substance to it in the first place, he new interpretation usually will be good, as well. If subsequent interpretations also stand up well to examination, it is safe to say the original must have safe to say the original must have had something good in it to begin with — something that drew the attention of others and inspired them to relate the idea in their own way, something that doesn't crumble or fall apart when it is stripped bare or modified or set in a new context.

modified or set in a new context.

Now, the proliferation or success of alternate interpretations is not a guaranteed sign of quality for any given musical work — but in most cases, this criteria is a good rule of foumb to use in discussing the relative merits of a given work.

Eric Clapton's "Layla" and Queen's "Bohemian Rhapsody" were the two examples we examined earlier. Here are a few more of my favorites for you to chew on. The budget rack always is a good my favorites for you to chew on.

The budget rack always is a good place to find lots of "cover tunes" (or alternate interpretations of someone else's material), and one of the best budget rack values is Nazarch's 1980 live double album,
"Snazz." If you ever see this album,
owhatever you have to do to buy,
beg or borrow it. Don't steal it because if someone stole my copy.
I'd be forced to beat them to death with my bare hands. It's really that good.

This record not only showcases.

good.

This record not only showcases the band's versatility and musicianship in several different styles of music, but also includes their version of several cover tunes — and in some cases, they do more justice a other sevels/convicion this east. to other people's music on this re-cording than they do their own. For

'n' Roll Star," the Yardbirds'
"Shapes of Things" and Rick Danko's "Java Blues" all are pretugood. And their version of Clapton's "Cocaine" is so cleverly disguised in a completely different slow reggae arrangement that you don't recognize the song until the singing starts.

don't recognize the song until the singing starts.

Another budget rack beauty is Ju-das Priest's "Sin After Sin" from 1976. This jewel, their first major-label (CBS) recording, includes a stirring rendition of Join Mitchell's biggest hit song "Diamonds and Rust."

The story goes that this started as a joke — after CBS officials hinted that the album needed to include at least one guaranteed hit and suggested they look through a stack of 45s to find a tune to cover. But the band succeeds in taking Mitchell's solve folk direct and turning it into a slow folk dirge and turning it into a tight, effective heavy metal ballad.

tight, effective heavy metal ballad.

Another radically different interpretation of an existing song is Stanley Jordan's solo jazz guitar version of The Beatles' "Eleanor Rigby," which is the first track on his debut album "Magic Touch," Jordan plays the guitar by tapping on the fretboard with both hands, almost as if he were playing a piano— and the effect is that of hearing several minist at once. several guitars at once

Working within the limitations of his six strings, Jordan creates an exworking within the limitations of his six strings, Jordan creates an ex-citing and interesting interpretation of "Eleanor Rigby" that is moving, haunting and astonishing — and must be heard to be appreciated.

Of course, the world is full of examples of subsequent interpreta-tions that have fallen flat on their faces — and, usually, it's either be-cause the interpreting artist was not talented enough to realize the origitalented enough to realize the origi-nal intent of the work, or because the original work didn't have any-thing worthy of interpretation in it in the first place.

Phil Todd is a graduate student in the UK School of Music and is a Kentucky Kernel contributing col-

AQUARIUM LOVERS

Large selection of coral in various sizes and colors. Cave Rock, Quartz and Lava Rock also available

Lexington Cut Stone

276 Midland Avenue Lexington, KY 255-2496 M-F 8-4:30 Sat 8-12:00 10% Discount w/student I.D.

JOSEPH I

d Human Rights are performing tonight at

'SNL' funny about once a month

Sick of politics and political coverage? Sadly, it's very easy to get tired of the way television covers the election process.

But without going into that (because columnists' complaints about media are almost as tiresome as media itself), let's talk about the media are almost as tiresome as the media itself), let's talk about something else. Have you "Scinfeld" fans seen the new series that follows it Wednesday nights? "Mad About You" stars Paul Reiser and Helen Hunt as a newlywed couple living in New York City. Some critics called it "Scinfeld Gets Married" because it supposedly has that same Scinfeldsegue sense of humor.

If you've seen it, you know that's not quite the case. It's not a bad show. In fact, it's one of the new season's better efforts. But unlike "Scinfeld," which succeeds because of its unique blend of wacky (a vintage sitcom word) yet likable characters, this show has just two interesting people: Reiser and Hunt. The rest have little character in their characters.

rest have find character in their characters.

Reiser can't compete with Seinfeld on the Funnymeter with his similar "did-you-ever-notice" brand of humor. Hunt, though, is absolutely wonderful. It's no "Seinfeld," I'm sorry to say, but it's ahead of most sitcoms. And, thank heavens, there are no kids on the program. Just when I pan a show, it does something halfway decent. A couple of weeks back, I criticized "Saturday Night Live" for losing any sense of what was funny. The first three shows of this season—with hosts Nicholas Cage, Joe Pesci and Tim Robbins—proved the point.

But Saturday's show, with actor
Christopher Walken, was the best
"SNL" I'd seen in months. I have a feeling that installment will prove to be the exception and not the rule, but at least it demonstrated the cast teening that installment will provide to be the exception and not the rule, but at least it demonstrated the cast can be amusing once a month or so. Not that the show was perfect or anything, but at least half the sketches had some humor in them of at least had points).

Watch for "Designing Women" to leave the air after this upcoming season. Annie Potts says she will leave the show at the end of this year. And replacing old, established characters with new, interesting ones isn't exactly this show's strong point. The show has nosedived in quality since Delta Burke and Jean Smart left; the departure of another character spells doom. Why continue a declining program that peaked three of four years ago?

"L.A. Law" might leave the air, as well. It's been declining in ratings and in critical prestige for a couple of years, and also suffers from Boring New Character Syndrome. But, even with all its problems, ratings probably are going to be respectable enough for NBC to justify keeping it on the air.

And they may do so if the rest of the Thursday night line-up continues to sag. Cosby already was falling in the ratings during its last couple of years, but its replacement, "A Different World," gets no ratings at all. "Cheers" and "Wings" still get good ratings, but this will almost certainly be the last season for "Cheers." Without it, Thursday could belong to anyone.

The best pure talk show on the air? It has to be "Later With Bob Costas." I say "pure talk show" to separa: it from entertainment- talk programs like Leno, Letterman or Arsenio. There's nothing wrong with that format, but, if you really want a deep, enlightening discussion from anyone, "Later" is the place to get it.

Instead of seven minutes of act, and discussion with an actor, author, journalist, politician or sports star, you get to see 22 minutes (a half hour, minus commercials). If Costas devotes two shows to the same person, as he does sometimes, you learn more about the person than you do in 10 Arsenio interviews.

Costas proves he knows more than sports. He frequently asks the most interesting, unexpected questions and demonstrates he's well-read and knowledgeable, I"-later" has a guest I like, I'll fire up the VCR with glee. I only wish the show was on earlier.

My advice to you? For the next week, take refuge from the campaign ads and photo ops with Nick at Nite and morally deranged sit-coms that espouse no "family values." (This way, you can avoid Bush commercials.)

I'm not telling you to avoid the election. But, if you've already made up your mind, as most of us have, become a campaign hermit, then emerge from your cocoon on Election Day and vote.

Then you can enjoy TV again, secure in the knowledge you won't see political skullduggery again for several weeks — when the next presidential campaign begins in earnest.

ACT

and a medium drink and get Classes starting October 29 Prepare for December second 6" sub FREE* (After 4 pm only) *Second 6" sub must be of jual or lesser price. Limit one lot good with any other offer. No coupon necessary. 276-5419 KAPLAN 325 S. Lime 233-7811 (Next to Two Keys)

Where The Wildcats Are

—sponsored by SAB Homecoming King & Queen

8 Finalists QUEEN KING Phillip Allen Jennifer Cole Lea Ann Davenport Edward Atchley Kevin Cicci Laura Gum Brad Harris Lisa Keeton Matt Minner Kara Kirby Michael Nett Kalpana Shanmugham Sean Rankin Valerie Shimfessel Kelly Lynn Sullivan Rob Warrington

Royalty Voting Mon-Thur

Classroom Building Student Center M.I. King Library Donovon Cafeteria

11 a.m.-2 p.m 5 p.m.-7 p.m.

Must have student I.D. & activity card

BILLY'S BAR B.O

269-9593

All You Can Eat Ribs $7.49

Restaurant & Bar

Tuesday 6-10pm HOURS: Mon-Sat 11am-10pm Sun 11:30am-9pm

Memorial Coliseum "YELL LIKE HELL" competition

Featuring: Tonight Show Comedian Henry Cho, Head Football Coach Bill Curry, Athletics Director C.M. Newton, UK Football Captains, Homecoming

For more information call 257-8867

ABC DAYTIME IN THE FLESH SWEEPSTAKES WIN $1,000 CASH!

Turn in the completed sweepstakes form in on October 31 at the All University Homecoming Tent Party from 5:00 to 7:30pm behind Wildcat Village at Commonwealth Stadium.

In Cooperation with ABC Daytime Television

Registration forms are available in the Student Activities Office Room 203 Student Center Call 257-8867 for further information

SPORTS

Wildcats trying to forget Georgia

Georgia is only a memory as far as UK is concerned.

as UK is concerned.

Unfortunately, so is any chance of contending for the Southeastern Conference's Eastern Division.

The Bulldogs came to Lexington, reminded UK (4-3 overall, 2-3 SEC) of its rightful place in the SEC and quickly returned it to that place with a 40-7 thrashing that could have been — even worse than it looked Saturday.

So now the universe is in its proper alignment — with UK in its usual place as an also-ran in the SEC.

Does that bother the Cats? Not

Does that bother the Cats? Not really. With Mississippi State (5-2, 2-2) coming to Lexington to try to spoil UK's homecoming festivities, who has time to use of 2.

perience, receiver Alfonso Browning said. "Georgia's a good team and all, and I'll just take it as a learning experience."

learning experience."

The Cats have to worry about collecting at least two — and probably three — more wins in their land four games of the season.

Six wins technically would make the Cats eligible for a bowl invitation under NCAA guidelines, though there might not be too many takers on a team that has beaten only one team with a winning record so far this season.

Realistically speaking, UK needs

record so far this season.

Realistically speaking, UK needs to defeat Vanderbilt Nov. 7 at Commonwealth and Cincinnation the road the following week and also defeat either Mississippi State here Saturday or Tennessee in Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 21.

Seven-and-frew weekl.

c) coming to Lexington to try to il UK's homecoming festivities, bo has time to worry? You can take it as a learning ex-

But the Cats still aren't talking bowl bids. They're talking about ex-ceution of a faltering offense and re-newing the fire that had burnt inside the now-struggling defense.

"We have times when we play real well, and then there's times when we just go into a mental lapse," Browning said.

They're talking about stopping the monumental swings of momentum and confidence — "We're good, we're not good, we're good..."

Sophomore quarterback Pookie Jones said that after UK's first drive ended prematurely against Georgia, the offensive unit threw in the towel. So, now, they're talking about beating the Bulldogs.

"It's going to be easier for us to get back up for a ranked team," linebacker James Simpson said. "We know we gotta win the remainder of

SEC standings

Team	SEC	Overall
Georgia	5-1	7-1
Tennessee	3-2	5-2
Florida	3-2	4-2
UK	2-3	4-3
South Carolina	2-4	2-5
Vanderbilt	1-4	2-5

Western Division

SEC	Overall
5-0	8-0
3-3	4-3
2-2	5-2
2-3	5-3
2-3	2.5
1-4	1-6
	5-0 3-3 2-2 2-3 2-3

Saturday's Games Mississippi State at UK LSU at Ole Miss Georgia vs. Florida (Jacksonvi Arkansas at Auburn Tennessee at South Carolina Vanderbilt, open Alabama, open

Glaser survives two UK coaching changes

Assistant football coach has seen it all in 16 years for the UK football team since 1977, the Wildcats' defensive line coach has not. Bill Glaser is still here.

here.

In 1977, then-UK football head coach Fran Curci hired Glaser to coach the defensive line for the Wildcats. Curci's reign as coach lasted until 1981. He was followed by Jerry Claiborne who coached for eight years. Then, in 1990, current head coach Bill Curry arrived in Lexington. Lexington Lexington.

To remain on the payroll after a coaching change is one thing, but to survive two changes is almost unheard of in this day of "cleaning house" and "fresh starts."

But Glaser has survived. The Louisville, Ky, native was the only full-time assistant retained by both Claiborne and Cury.

Twas worried when coach Clai-

"I was worried when coach Claim-borne came in that I wouldn't be re-tained," said Glaser. "When coach Curry came in, I didn't worry about it. I just made up my mind that I was going to coach somewhere in UK. If I got a chance to stay, that would be great. (And) it was a blessing to say."

"There were several reasons (for keeping Glaser)," Curry said. "He happened to coach the position we needed coached. He had a long-tern relationship not only with the years, Glaser became the defensive coordinator for Morehead State University. A year later, he was hired by Curci. "I wanted to teach," Glaser said. "I didn't even know about coach-

"I didn't even know about coaching. I never thought about coaching, I never thought about coaching, as long as I can have a say in what we're doing and make enough money to pay the bills."

In his 16th eason at UK, Glaser has seen many changes in both staffs and football liself.

"The coaches are approaching spending 18 hours a day on the job," he said. "It was nothing like that in '77. Time spent year round on football has dramatically increased."

The defensive line coach, who also handles the UK punting game, has been a valuable commondity to the new coaches.
"I really know the University.

the new coaches.

"I really know the University.
I've had experience recruiting here and seeing things change over the

But Glaser admits that changing bosses does have its drawbacks.

bosses does have its drawbacks.

"You always start at the bottom of the totem pole again," he said.

"When the previous staff leaves, you're at a certain level (of responsibilities) that you have learned through working with the staff. Then as soon as a new staff comes in, you're right back to square one."

happened to coach the position we needed coached. He had a long-term relationship not only with the University but with the people of the state, as well."

The players seem happy to have coach Glaser around.

"He is demanding, honest and very knowledgeable," said Damon Betz, a sophomore nose guard. "He knows when to pressure people, and he knows when to pressure people, and he knows when to pressure people, and he knows when to pressure people, and of infectious. He coaches to win."

Glaser d he is happy to be coaching, especially considering he never really thought of coaching as a potential occupation. In 1974, Glaser was named head football coach at St. Navier High School in Louisville. After going 25-0-0 and winning two state titles in just two

Bill Glaser has worked under three UK head football coaches — Fran Curcl, Jerry Claiborne and current coach Bill Curry.

In an ice storm (21-10)."

But the biggest victory in Glaser's opinion was a 20-19 victory in the Cats' last bowl appearance.

"When we won the Hall of Fame Bowl against Wisconsin in 1984, that was a heck of a win," he said.

"We were cutmatched, we had four starters on the bench for various reasons. But we went out there and beat a good team."

But it hasn't been a completely smooth road.

In Jerry Claiborne's first season at UK in 1982, the Cats finished a dismal 0-10-1." Tremember the days after the Tennessee game sitting on a couch in my house reading a newspaper that said. 'The first team ever in the history of UK football to not win a game.' It would tear your heart out.

That next year, UK compiled a 6-ft streamed agreed and in the stream was the mass good as they possibly complete the complete of the players of the players have and do the third that the players were either weefully understake them as good as they possibly complete the players of the players of the players were either weefully understake them as good as they possibly complete the players thave and do the players were either weefully understaken the Tennessee game sitting on a couch in my house reading a newspaper that said. 'The first team ever in the history of UK football to not win a game.' It would tear your heart out.

That next year, UK compiled a 6-ft. I mount a decrease a second and the players were either weefully understaken the players were either weefully understaken the transparent the second the players were either weefully understaken the players were

That next year, UK compiled a 6-1 record and earned an invitation to the Hall of Fame Bowl against West Virginia. The Cats lost 20-16.

aser added "We're all in this thing together. I'm not going to turn on them. I try to fight for them, and I expect them to fight for me. We're

Arazi a longshot in Breeders' race

By Ed Schuyler, Jr. Associated Press

HALLANDALE, Fla. - Arazi returned under the cover of dark-

That seemed fitting because the France-based colt will be a dark horse on Breeders' Cup Day, especially if he races in the $3 million Classic.

horse on Breeders' Cup Day, especially if he races in the $3 million Classic.

The colt had received a hero's welcome in May, but he went back to France as the badly beaten favorite in the Kentucky Derby.

Arazi and 25 other European-based horses arrived at Gulfstream Park on Monday shortly after midnight following a flight of almost 11 hours from France.

Trainer Francois Boutin remained in France but is scheduled to be at Gulfstream to watch Arazi breeze tomerow morning. He then will decide whether to start the Kentucky-bred colt in the Mile on the grass or in the 114-mile Classic on the dirt.

Entries for all seven Breeders' Cup races will be taken tomorrow. Since Arazi's eighth-place finish in the 114-mile Clerby in which he faded badly in the stretch, he has raced three times on the grass in england and France. He finished fifth at a mile and third at 1 14 miles, then won the one-mile Prix du Rond Pont on Oct. 4 at Long-champ.

"We asked an awful lot of him as a 2-year-old," co-owner Allen Paulson said recently. "After the Derby he had low blood and a lung infection. I thin he's the real Arazi. It would be nice to prove to the world he can run further and win.

"I think he horse, on any given day, can win at a mile and a quarter.

The horse is in creat shame."

ter.

The horse is in great shape,"

Under an agreement with co-owner Sheik Mohammed al Maktoum of Dubai, Paulson makes the decisions when Arazi races in the United States and the sheik makes the decisions when the colt rares in Europe.

While Paulson favors starting Arazi in the Classic, he has said that Boutin will make the decision whether it will be the Mile or the Classic for Arazi.

The jockey will be Pat Valenzuela, who rode Arazi in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile and the Derby. Steve Cauthen rides the colt in Europe.

It appears both the Classic and the Mile will have full 14-horse felds.

"I hope everybody's hore stays together because it really looks like a great race," said Nick Zito, trainer of Classic starter Strike the Gold, the 1991 Kentocky Derby winner and winner this year of the 1 3-16-mile Pinico Special and 1 1/8-mile Nassau County Handicap. "You can make a case for everbody, but that's good."
Others Arazi would face in the Classic include A.P. Indy, winner of the 1 1/8-mile Santa Anita Derby and 1 1/2-mile Belmont; Pleasant Tap, winner of the Subraban Handicap and Jockey Club Gold Cup, each at 1 1/4 miles; and Rodrigo de Triano. The latter will be making his debut on the dirt, but in his last two starts he wont two important stakes in England at the Classic distance.
One of the horses who accompanied Arazi was French-bred Subotica, winner of the Pixi de l'Arc de Triomphe on Oct. 4 at Long-champ. He will contest the Breeders' Cup Turf at the Arc distance of 1 1/2 miles.

DAUGHTERS OF THE DUST

A Film by Julie Dash

Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1992 7:300 p.m. FREE w/UK I.D. at Center Theater

Winning Combination Plasma Alliance and You!

Giveaway

Meet New Friends!

Check out our new payment plan

$20 - 1st

$15 — 3rd

$15 — 4th $25 - 5th

$95

o plasma alliance $20 — 2nd Committed to being the Best 2043 Oxford Circle 254-8047 Hours:

Mon-Thurs 7a.m.-9p.m. Fri- 7a.m.-6p.m. Sat & Sun 8:30a.m.-3:30p.m.

within 3 weeks

ID Required

All new and 30 day plus inactive donors eligble. Call or stop by for details.

Sun City

11 Wolff Tanning Beds

12 Visits $20 269-5155

Led by Grand Marshal Kathy De Boer and the UK Marching Band Begins at Commonwealth Stadium and ends at Memorial Coliseum

For more information call 257-8867

• Reebok Step Aerobics · Life Steps · Life Cycles · Basketball Treadmills • Free Weights · Oxford Circle Only 2100 Oxford Circle Lexington, 40504 606-252-5121

Build A Great Student Body

Kentucky Kernel Established in 1894

The First Amendment protects all viewpoints, including hate speech

EDITORIAL

Despite its message, hate speech is protected under the vast blanket we call the First Amendment and must be permitted.

The clause in the amendment guaranteeing freedom of expression is one that should be held in the highest respect because it affects us all in one manner or another, regardless of the message being preached.

While hate speech is often associated with ugly messages directed against certain groups of people or people of various lifestyle choices, the right to express those opinions is equal to the the people on the opposing side of the fence.

Intolerance for diversity of opinion — including racist or sexist remarks — is no better than intolerance for diversity of races. By preventing an open discussion of viewpoints, censorship and intolerance subvert the one thing that can free us from the grip of bigotry and insensitivity: rational debate.

Tomorrow at noon in the Student Center Theater, students will have the opportunity to express their views at an open forum on the issue of hate speech

Go and voice your opinion at the forum, regardless of your views. It's your constitutional right.

Starving in college could eventually lead to prosperity

No matter how many times I hear it, I'm still bothered by the term "poor college student." It's not that the label isn' accurate. I'm just annoyed at how well it describes me.

Obviously, some of us are more fortunate than others. There are enough BMWs on campus to prove that to anyone. But, for others, myself included, scraping for dollars and creatively getting by with what you have is a daily reality.

I've been in so many financial pitfalls, I'm beginning to think that I would have a promising career as a blues singer.

My father declared October the pitfalls, I'm beginning to think that I would have a promising career as a blues singer.

My father declared October the last month he and my mother could pay my rent, the total payment owed on my credit card has exceeded the amount of credit I was originally allowed, and I have perhaps the worst luck of anyone I know in finding a job.

Sometimes, I fell like a cartoon character with my own rain cloud following me wherever I go, hanging over my head as a constant reminder of how bad things really are. Being depressed, however, isn't an answer to anything. Desperate situations call for desperate and creative actions.

Just when you think you've hit rock bottom, a brilliant money-making scheme pops into your tape collection and sell everything short of your favorites, getting rid of all the things you've stopped listening to that collect dust and make your collection look enormous. Not tening to that collect dust and make your collection look enormous. Not a bad idea for immediate money needs, but, unless you have a big supply of music to sell, 51 to 52.50 a tape doesn't cut it. What you need are real funds.

What about donating plasma? You see the ads whenever you flip through the naner, and 520 for a

What about donating plasma? You see the ads whenever you flip through the paper, and $20 for a first time visit doesn't sound bad. This is it, you think to yourself, the perfect way to keep your pockets lined for at least a week. But how lined for at least a week. But how long can you keep it up? Donating plasma is an exhausting experi-ence, and, if the holes in your arm don't heal properly, you'll look like you've been doing more taking than giving. Donating plasma defi-nitely is not the answer for every-one.

one.

Looking at the bleakness of my situation, I often think about my high school classmates who by-passed college for the armed forces or full-time jobs after graduation. Maybe they had the right idea: immediate financial gratification, at least a greater amount than what they would have received as college students.

Part I or assessment to sprainful the minimum of the property of the propert legs students.

But I am repeatedly reminded by my mother that my long days of drowning in debt at UR are to keep me from long days of drowning in debt in the future.

And isn't that why were here, to attend college in hopes that our degrees will assure us better and higher paying jobs than we would have received without them? Even if there's nothing but lint in my pockets and pictures in my wallet, my present hardships will lead me to a much more prosperous future. Believing this is what keeps me going.

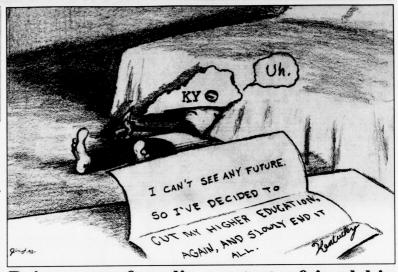

So cheer up, fellow poverty-stricken students. The day will come when we all can eat peanut butter sandwiches and Ramen noo-dles by choice and not by force. Then again, if we become even half as successful as we hope to be, who would want to?

Mitchell L.H. Douglas is an Eng-lish junior and a Kentucky Kernel columnist.

LETTERS POLICY

Readers are encouraged to submit letters to the editor and guest opinions to the Viewpoint page in person or by mail.

Writers should address their comments to "Letters to the Editor", Kentuckly K

Being part of media can test a friendship

Being a member of the media is horrible.

The other night, I was visiting a friend in her residence hall, and after I gave the desk attendant my student ID, he said, "Hey, aren't you that guy from the newspaper? After proving to him that I was in-deed "that newspaper guy," we began to talk discuss my columns and the media.

When students on campus ask

and the media.

When students on campus ask me about my position at the Kentucky Kernel, or my affiliation with the media, I like to try to a way from any direct connection with the news students read in the paper, and what I write in my column space on Tuesdays.

Most students on campus do not crailize what the many writers effi-realize what the many writers, edi-tors and staff of the Kentucky Kernel go through every day to bring you this thin piece of paper you occasionally read. The paper, which is completely independent of the University, is produced by students, for students. This is an admirable task.

During my routine speech about working at the Kentucky Kernel, I usually pause for a moment when describing my personal views about the media, because I hate the industry and everything that surrounds it. Being a member of the media, by some people's standards, means scaling oneself off from your emotions, opinions and, at times, friends. It disturbs me a great deal, but I'm the first one to yell when Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton's national media denies President Bush his equal coverage.

When I first came to UK, I decided I wanted to write for the college newspaper. After filling out an application, I was immediately given an assignment and set about my task.

It was fun, and I eventually broadened my horizons and began to cover a beat. Today, however, this job is no longer fun, or interesting — but necessary. As the scope and depth of my reporting has broadened, my friends have often

Now, as the editorial editor, I am not only forced to write about the happenings of my peers, but I have to comment on their actions based on the views of an eight-member editorial board. This is very difficult because my views often clash with the decided position of the newspaper — but no one can have it his way all the time (except at Burger King). If it was my choice I'd change things, but I can't Supporting the media and writing objectively, either by choice or not, actually has caused me to lose friends over columns, editorials and news articles. Thus, the pause.

Thus, the pause.
When forced to confront a friend I have angered or hurt because of my writing, I often get out the letter of resignation I keep stored on my

of resignation I keep started on ..., computer.
After staring at the letter, I usually realize that someone must be here to stop the liberals from completely having their way all the time. This year's presidential election is a good example. The media has almost convinced the American people Bush has given up and is incapable of winning the election.

Remember though, it was the newspapers of our nation who thought they had manipulated people enough and were so overly confident about it that they declared Thomas Dewey the winner in 1948.

If some weren't defending what they see as right, no one will and challenging the norm is not easy to do while maintaining a professional manner.

This is what the media is all about — sacrificing yourself, your emotions and your life so that others may be informed. It's not easy, and, if today's media was doing their job correctly, I wouldn't have your the this column each week for your the this column each week for their job correctly, I wouldn't have to write this column each week for equal time. Until then, I've still got a lot of work to do. To those people who have acci-dently been hurt in the process, I'm sorry, I really am.

Editorial Editor Joe Braun is a political science and journalism sophomore and a Kentucky Kernel columnist.

Conservative dribble in newspaper often lacks facts

As I was reading the "conserva-tive" articles in the Kentucky Ker-nel from my liberal, cultural elite home, I have been struck by the po-lar opposites in opinion about the presidential election.

The columnists (Joe Braun and his supporters who support President Bush) seem to be living in an era of "Good Feelings" with their support of Republican dogma and bashing of Democratic liberals.

erals" consider ourselves quite servative. As a Democrat. I be conservative. As a Democrat, I be-lieve equal work should get equal pay (whether done by black or white, male or female), the gov-ernment should spend only what it receives (as any individual must), should also stay out of our pockets (and bedrooms for that matter) and that we need better education. I found it amazing that Braun quoted Arkansas's rank as 50th in education (Any source? Objective Republican statistics?). Isn't this like the pot calling the kettle black?

I realize that Kentucky, being the bastion of education as it is, can scoff at other states' lack of commitment or budgetary spending on education. Not that I have taught students (Yes, here at UK.) who don't know the difference between the words "their," "there,"

"they're" and "there are."

"they're" and "there are."

I also was amused to read College Republicans President Quinton Dickerson's guest opinion, in which he quoted statistics from a William Bennett speech that stated he differences in the number of administrators (Which are wha? Principals, cafeteria workers, nurse's aides?) between Northern Virginia/ Maryland and D.C.

I found out that the quoted number of 17 are administrators from Arlington and Alexandria (both, by the way, in Virginia). These cities happen to be two of the wealthiest in the state; however, they are comparable to most Northern Virginia cities (like Falls Church, Vienna, Fairfax) or Maryland cities (like Potomac, Rockville, Gaithersburg). To compare these cities to D.C.

To compare these cities to D.C. is amusing. You can sit on Inter-state 66 during rush hour and see all the BMWs, Mercedes, and New Yorkers drive by and compare their destination to the housing projects of Bellview, Anacostia and Wash-ington Highlands.

Instead of quoting statistics, look at what this self-proclaimed educa-tion president has done for educa-tion. He called the governors to-gether in Charlottesville, Va., to discuss education. How long was the education president there? Half an hour?

the education president there? Half an hour?

The only other program he has supported is the Head Start program, which relates to 4- and 5-year-old children. What happens to the rest of us?

I realize the attitude of the president only reflects the general attitudes of society toward education. You need only look at the budget problems of the University to understand.

derstand.

There are thousands of ideas on how to improve education, and the media often reports on success stories. So, Braun and friends, other than sending the vice president to a spelling bee, how is George Bush our education president?

R.L. Andrews is a graduate student and teaching assistant in the Department of Spanish and Italian.

Should the government continue to pursue efforts to build a manned space station at an estimated cost of more than $30 billion?

CLASSIFIEDS

Call 257-2871

FOR SALE

professionally rebuilt engine. $2000. 255-4221 '92 TREK 7000 - Brand new, excellent 2154.

*HOUSE FOR SALE - Near Alumni Drive.
$69,000, 3 bedroom, 2 bath, garage, fireplace, deck, Jim Lindsey. 266-6656. Lexington Realty deck, Jim Lindsey. 200-0000.
268-1818.
268-ATCOMPUTER - 40 meg HD, 1 meg RAM, 5 1/4" floopy, Magnovox VGA,
Panasonic 9-pin dot matrix printer with expanded buffer, Logitec mouse, 2400 Baud modern, 3950. Also, Sory cordiess prince with expanded buffer and the sory cordiess prince with the sory and the sory cordiess prince with the sory and th modem, $950. Also, Sony cordiess phone with helical rubber antenna, $50. 873-6668. 1982 VW SCIROCCO Blue 5-speed, air, 110,000 mi. excellent condition but some rust.

110,000 mi. excellent conclusion but solven $2800 0BD 266-3378. 1987 JETTA VOLKSWAGON VW - Red, 5-speed, high mileage, newly tuned. Looks 8 runs great $3,000, or best offer. 254-8183. 1990 BMW 325I Silver with grey cloth, 5-speed, sunroof, air, ABS, airbag, 12,000 mi. speed, sunroof, air, AUS, energy, 276-2750 $14,000 OBO. ALPINE PULLOUT CD PLAYER -

Programmable $375 also, ALPINE remote ca alarm $125. Call 273-2109. APPLE MACINTOSH COMPUTER - 512k, Imagewriter printer, mouse, many programs. 299-1221 days, 268-8395 nights. $450. CLASSY 1940'S CLOTHING - $1-$25. 631 E.

Main, after 5 p.m.

CONFERENCE TABLE - w/4 chairs, 5&1/2 x COMPERENCE TABLE - Will chairs, SST/2 COMPERENCE TABLE - Will chair SST/2 COMPENSATION CONTROL COLOR ST/2E Available to individuals at Wholestale Prices Phone: 263-1647. FUTON MATTRESSES AND COUCHBEDS! THORTOM COMPENSATION COUNTRY STATEMENT OF THE CONTROL COUNTRY STATEMENT OF THE COUNTRY STATEME

FREE DELIVERY! (Lexington).
GOVERNMENT SEIZED - Surplus vehicles as low as $100, BMW's, Cadillac's, Chevy's, Ford's, Mercedes, Porches+ trucks & vans.
Amazing recording reveals details, 1-800-723.

7322.
IBM PS/2 - NEW MOUSE HD KEYBOARD &
MANY FREE EXRAS AT THE UNBEATABLE
OFFER OF $545. CALL 258-2655 10PM.
MAINTENANCE FREE CONDO - Near UK, 3

TRUMPET ACCESSORIES - Trumpet stand, Harmon mute & hat, Stone-Lined Cup Mute, Clear Tone, Velvet Tone, Combo wi Plunger. Harnition stand for hat & mutes. $120. Phone 252-0196 after 5 pm.
TWO WATERBEDS - King size full floatation.

$275. Call 272-6414. YOU CAN GIVE 5 MONTH OLD PUPPY A

FOR RENT

2BR APARTMENTS AVAILABLE with complimentary clubhouse, tanning bed, video library, and resident parties starting at just $359. Call today West Chase Apartments 231

8112.

APARTMENT AND HOME LOCATING SERVICE: "Hassie-Free" hunting. Relax while we find the right apartment for you. OUR SERVICE IS FREE. Call: 268-1022 or 1-800437-1022 out of state ONLY. 2891

A37-1022 out of state ONLY, 200 -RICHMOND ROAD SUITE 110. EFFICIENCIES & ONE BR APTS. - $260/mo. a up + electric, one block from campus, secure off street parking 281-1310. ONE BR APT - One block from UK, heat furnished, private parking available ASAP, call 253-1033 or stop by at Garden Court Apts. Virginia Ave.

Virginia Av.

ONE BR LYNDHURST PLACE - North campus, Grad-students preferred, All bills paid, clean, quiet, older building, Cail 2691999(days), 252-7023 (evenings).

PARKING PLACES NEAR UK - & Downtown. Near High & Upper, $20/mo. 269-4831. STUDENTS - Chery Chase area, nicely furnished, efficiencies & one bedrooms, all utilities paid, close to campus, absolutely no pets. 266-6401.

THE HUNNINGTON - 2 bedroom, 2 & 1/2 bath townhouses available close to campus for details call 255-5454.

THREE BR HOUSE - (515 Park Ave.) Walk to Available now. $550 a month. Eric.

281-8077.
TWO / THREE BEDROOM HOUSE Transcript Avenue, $550 plus utilities. 233-0128. UNFURNISHED EFFICIENCY - Available $250 - selectricity per month, parking & laundry facilities provided. Lease until May 1993. Call 255-9148 after 3pm.

HELP WANTED

help unloading trucks on the following shifts: 4-45am-8.0am, 11:30am-3.00pm, 8. 11:30pm-3.00am, Mon-Fri, all students (maile 8 female) are encouraged to apply. Paying $8/hr. Apply at Dept. for Employment Services Office at 300 S. Upper St. E/OE. Mon-Fri. ATTENTION - Spring Break!! Earn cash & iffing envelopes at home. All materials ovided. Send SASE to Homemailing coram-B. P.O.Box 1961 Manhattan, KS

provided. ServiProgram B. P.O. Box 1961 Mannatum
Program B. P.O. Box 1961 Mannatum 60502. Immediate Response.
Attention-CRISTMAS CASH Now filing temporary and permanent openings. Evenings are weekends available. $8.20 starting pay.

&or weekends available. $8.20 starting pay. Call 293-946.

BE ON T.V. - many needed for commercials. Now hiring all ages, for casting info. Call (615)/79-7:11 ext. T-1618.

BW-3. SUDSYS - A new restaurant / laundry / bar is hiring for full & part-time kitchen & bartending positions. Previous restaurant experience a - inquire between 1 & 4, Mon-Fri experience a - inquire between 1 & 4, Mon-Fri bations as a require between 1 8.4, nonrespective of a superior of a sup nessage. All calls returned.

FREE ROOM & BOARD - in exchange for Call for more info 276-1832.

HOME MAILERS NEEDED - Earn hundred

dorm, call (706) 546-0701. HOME TYPIST PC USERS NEEDED -$35,000 yearly potential 1-800-765-7094

Preferred finance marketing & computer background. Develop marketing & sales skill Experience will look great on resume, good source for references. Call Mike Brannen or Source for Tereful And Matt Kaiser 231-5000.

Matt Kaiser 231-5000.

NANNIES & AU PAIRS. Entry level positions nationwide, east & west coast, Florida, Hawaii and overseas. Great pay and benefits, airfare paid. (612) 643-4399. NATIONAL ACADEMY PRE-SCHOOL - Now hours 3-6 p.m. 273-3292 ask for Bae. NOW HIRING SERVERS - All shifts available

Apply in person, PHISCH 5 BIG BOY RESTAURANT, 2304 Versailles Rd. Now hiring for new franchise restaurant Apply in person M-F between 9-3 at 874 E. High. Also accepting resumes for all management positions at P.O. Box 21852 Lexington 40522. Excellent opportunity for advancement in all positions, 268-7427.

OVERSEAS JOBS $900-$2000/mo. Su r-round, all countries, all fields. Free info e LIC, P.O. Box 52 Corona Del Mar, CA

92625.
PART-TIME RECEPTIONIST - downtown area PART-TIME RECEPTIONIST - downtown are 5-7-30 Mon-Thurs 253-2615. SALES REPS WANTED - for the imprinted and embroidery wearables market. Sell fun products, sweats, jackets, 1-shrits, etc.. Marketing Majors excellent experience opportunity. Eam great commissions as well call 278-8418 leave message on machine or with receptionist.

STUDENTS OR ORGANIZATIONS. - Promote
our Florida Spring Break packages. Earn MONEY & FREE trips. Organize SMALL or LARGE groups. Call Campus Marketing. 800423-5264.

PERSONALS

8867.

IIIIIIII NEEDED CONVERTIBLES - For HC
parade Oct. 30 for more information, 257-8867.

!!!!!!!! NEEDED CONVERTIBLES - For HC
parade Oct. 30 for more information. 257-

8867.
IIIIIIIIINEEDED CONVERTIBLES - For H
parade Oct. 30 for more information. 257-

needed for Project Similar 2445 for more information. KERNEL STAFF MEETINGS NOW AT 3 p.m. ON TUESDAYS. NEW WRITERS, PHOTOGRAPHERS AND GRAPHIC PHOTOGRAPHERS AND GRAPHIC PHOTOGRAPHERS AND GRAPHIC ARTISTS ESPECIALLY WELLOOME
A GATHERING OF WORKS BY KENN MINTER ON DISPLAY AT VIBITUAL GALLERY 117 SOUTH UPPER COTOBER 17 THAN 20 RECEPTION IS AT 8 JM. SATURDAY OCTOBER 17
A LONDON NEW YEAR'S CAN BE YOURS through UK's LONDON WINTER BREAK.

A LONDON NEW TEAR'S CAN BE TOOMS through UK's LONDON WINTER BREAK PROGRAM. Earn 3 hrs. college credit studying British culture from Dec. 26-Jan. 8. For information call 257-3377. AGD SHARON - Congratulations for being accepted into TEP.

AGD VALERIE - Congratulations for being selected "Top 8" for Homecoming Court. We're selected 1 op 8" for Homecoming Court, We so proud of you.

AGL Presents Athol Fugand's MY.

AGL Presents Athol Fugand's MY.

CHILDREN! MY AFRICA! based on a true story of apartheid in South Africa. Oct. 29-31, Nov. 5-7. at 8pm, Nov. 1 &8 at 2pm, Nov. 1 performance is signed for the hearing impaired. Call for $8 Student Tickets. 233-0663.

AGR PAUL A. & NICK C. - Thank you for coaching us in football. We'll get them next yearl The KD's.

AMA! AMA!! Meeting Oct. 27, 7:30pm Room
204 CB Building Speaker Susan McNeece, Louisville Convention & Visitors Bureau.

AMA! AMA!! Meeting Oct. 27, 7:30pm Room
204 CB Building Speaker Susan McNeece, Louisville Convention & Visitors Bureau.

AOPI FOOTBALL PLAYERS - Get excited for our first playoff game tonight at the second of the convention of the conv uck.

ITTENTION!! ATTENTION!! NEW PROJECT
MART VOLUNTEERS NEEDED Directation Wednesday Oct. 28 6.00pm Roo SMART VOLUNIERS NEEDED Orientation Wednesday Oct. 28 6:000m Room 502 A&B HSLC (nursing building.) 257-2440.
ATTENTION!! ATTENTION!! NEW PROJECT SMART VOLUNIERS NEEDED Orientation Wednesday Oct. 28 6:000m Room Crientation Wednesday Oct. 28 6:00pm Roo. 502 A&B HSLC (nursing building.)257-2440. ATTENTION!! Lances Junior Honorary ATTENTION!! Lances Junior Honorary meeting Thursday night 7:30pm Room 115 Old Student Center. Officers please call Michael if you cannot attend 268-2969.

BEADS FROM AROUND THE WORLD!!!!

r buy pre-made earrings, bracelets, , necklaces & more. Paisley Peacock the Homecoming nost trill week burst. Doc.

Select State 11, 1900, as in intressed in a

New York of the State 11, 1900, as in intressed in a

Bowling team last year stop by the SAB office
Room 203 Student Center and sign upill

BOWLERSHIP by our entressed in a UK

BOWLERSHIP by our entressed in a

BOWL

CUNTON / GORE CUNTON / GORE
CLINTON / GORE - Carravan for Civinon
CLINTON / GORE - Carravan for Civinon
Weenheedigo / C.2 Shan Efrorer Hall at Transylvana University. All UK students are crocuraged to go for more info call Bill at 266
COLLEGE PERIOCRATS - Will meet Tues
parking to to Carravan to the Central Kentage Democrate Rally. The Rally will be at the emporate Rally. The Rally will be at the emporate Rally. The Rally will be at the emporate Rally - Ra

269-0013.
COLLEGE REPUBLICAN MEETING!!!!
TUESDAY ROOM 206 8:00PM STUDENT CENTER!!!!!! This is our last meeting befor election so all Republicans attendillill
DDD PLEDGES & ACTIVES - Halloween Party tonight 6:30 be at the house & wear your

DISABLED STUDENT UNION - Meeting Oct 27.7pm Holmes Hall Lobby. Everyone is invited to attend.

DISABLED STUDENT UNION - Meeting Oct 27, 7pm Holmes Hall Lobby. Everyone is invited to attend.

DZ DUERR - You did a great job with Founders Day'l Love, Your Sisters.

DZ TRACY P. - Thanks for helping your sisters and more! You're the best from Shore to and more 1 four e me best nom shore to Shorel Love, Your Sisters. EARN UP TO 25% OFF NEW COMICS WITH A SUBSCRIPTION FOLDER AT THE COMIC DIMENSION 431 SOUTHLAND DRIVE 277-2362.

EK ASHLEY - You ARE the GREATEST!

Thank your for all your help with Homecomi

Thanks! Betsy.

EXPERIENCED ESL TEACHER AVAILABLE - CALL 252-7883.

FIJI'S - We had a blast at Comedy Night! Get off that last exit!! Love, The Sisters of Delta Zeta.

FOR THE LATEST UK SPORTS NEWS, WRFL 88.1 MON-FRI. 1 P.M.
GREAT HALLOWEEN STUFF!! Jewelry. Peacock 371 S. Limestone, 253-9228. HALLOWEEN PARTY WHERE?? TWO

i TAVERN. Best Counciliais. October 28th.
IIII Eormer Project SMART vonKS FOR YOUR SERVICE!! 1 orientation Wednesday Oct. 26 3.350 m; no. 502 A8B HSLC (nursing building) 257-2440 HEY!!!! former Project SMART volunteers THANKS FOR YOUR SERVICE!! 1992 orientation Wednesday Oct. 28 5.30 pm Roo orientation Wednesday Oct. 28 5.30 pm Roo 502 A&B HSLC (nursing building.) 257-2440.
HOMECOMING COMMITTEE - Homecoming Week is finally here, almost time to break ou the beer. All your hard work is almost done. My homecoming committee is #1! Thankyou

Betsy. KKG & PIKA - Grab-a-Date was a blast! Hope everyone had a great time!

KE - We had a wonderful time at the exchange dinner! Thanks for the pumpkin'. New Years a Wooden's action of the pumpkin'.
Low Kappa Alpha Theia
Low Kappa Alpha Theia
Low Kappa Alpha Theia
SIVER AGE, & NOEPENDENT COMIC
SIVER AGE, & NOEPENDENT COMIC
SIVER AGE, & NOEPENDENT COMIC SOOKS - THE COMIC DI

LAST CHANCE FUN PROBLEM Peacock 371 S. Limestone 253-928. LOOKING FOR A TOP FRATERNITY, SORORITY, OR STUDENT ORGANIZATION - That would like to make 500-1500 for a week Marketing Project right or campus. Must be organized a hard working, Call 800-592-2121 of value. (606) 299-0713.

308. ORCYCLE LEATHERS $99 AND UP. e supplies last. Paisley Peacock 371 S.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA - has extended it's

29. Please return application to 575 POT.
PART-TIME PUPPETEERS WANTED $10/HR. NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY. 269-3440. PI PHI'S & SAE'S - We had a great time at Barn Dance, Love, The KD's.

RADIATION WEDNESDAY! STUDENTS
THE VIOLATION OF THE RADIATION WEDNESDAY! STUDENT IS AGAINST THE WOLATION OF THE ENVIRONMENT ARE WEARING "RADIATION SUITS" COT. 28 AS PART OF A NATIONAL CAMPAIGN TO PROTEST OZONE OEPLETON GET INFORMATION FROM SAVE MEMBERS OR AT THE STUDENT CENTER WEDNESDAY 10-2PM. REPUBLICAN AND CONSERVATIVE RALLY.

DOI, LCC. I read the call bloades at J. g. Rev. LCC. I ROSE 59.98 A DOZEN - cash & carry, $15.98 delivered in git box MC/VISA/AX/DIS accepted, 233-7486. IMPERIAL FLOWERS SHAC. - Will hold a very important meeting on Wednesday Oct. 28 at 4 ym Room 307 in the Commons, VERY IMPORTANT, GUEST

Commons, VERY Important meeting on SPEAKER. SHAC - Will hold a very important meeting on Wednesday Oct. 28 at 4pm Room 307 in the Commons, VERY IMPORTANT, GUEST

Commons, VERY IMPORTANT, GUEST SPEAKER,
SIG EP'S - We had a great time at Crush!
Love, The Sisters of Delta Zeta.
SKEET & TRAP CLUB - Open to all skill levels for more information call 258:2428.
SKYDIVING INSTRUCTION - Train & jump the same day 606-623-6510.

Leave a message! Serious inquiries only!! SPRING REGISTRATION IS NOVEMBER 4-INSTRUCTIONS.
STUDENT HEALTH ADVISORY COUNCIL.

a very important meeting on ay Oct. 28 at 4pm Room 307 in the i. VERY IMPORTANT. GUEST Commons, VERY IMPORTANT, GUEST SPEAKER. STUDENT HEALTH ADVISORY COUNCIL-Will hold a very important meeting on Wednesday Oct. 28 at 4 wm Room 307 in the Commons, VERY IMPORTANT, GUEST

Commons, VERY IMPORTANT, GUEST SPEAKER.
STUDY THEATER IN LONDON ENGLANDthrough UK's LONDON WINTER BREAK PROGRAM Earn 3 hrs college credit studying the British stage from Dec. 26 - Jan. 8. For the Brissh stage from Lete. 20 - Search of the Brissh stage from Lete. 25 - 3377.

TELEPHONE WORKERS - Earn extra Christmas money. Part-time $5thr. No Selling. Call American Heart Association at 223-0981.

10/27-29.9-4.

THE COMIC DIMENSION - HOW OPEN - 431

THETA & SIGMA PI - Trans to making to Halloween Pay, but I cov. The KD'S. Or Halloween Pay, but I cov. The KD'S. Or CAUSES AIDS. IF YOU THINK YOUR BEHAVIORS MIGHT HAVE PUT YOU AT IRSK FOR CONTRACTIVE HIVY COMSIDER TAKING THE HIV ANTIBODY TEST. FOR INFORMATION ON THIS FREE, AMONYMOUS CONFIDENTIAL TEST, CALL YOUR LOCAL HEALTH DEPARTMENT OR

E KENTUCKY AIDS HOTLINE AT 1-800 THE KENTUCKY AIDS HOLLING STANDS.

654-AIDS.

TROY AND ATO'S - Thanks for a great time has Seal on Thursday! Love- the Tequilla

Girls1
TUTOR AVAILABLE - CHE 104, CHE 105, CHE 107, PHY 211, MA 109, MA 113, MA 123, STA 291, STA 200, ECO 201, ECO 391

Conducted by experienced graduate student.

$5 per person.
TWO-KEYS ANNUAL HALLOWEEN PARTY!! October 28th. Costume contest. $200 1st prize, $100 2nd prize, $50 3rd prize. TWO-KEYS TAVERN PRESENTS 1ST HALLOWEEN PARTY OF THE YEAR! Costume Prizes, Drink Specials, Octobe daytime counter help. Call 254-8692 for info. WINNERS MON. NIGHT FOOTBALL 75 cent i dogs, $1.25 beer. Winners Taco Tu i taco bar: 4-7 p.m. Winners Wednes cent Buffalo wings 3-7 p.m. Winners r Mon -Fri: 3-7 p.m. 50 cents off Al I

WANTED

TISTICS TUTOR NEEDED - $7.50/HR

278-2764.
WANTED! FOUR UK SEASON
BASKETBALL TICKETS, 271-5626
WANTED TO RENT - Photographer

ROOMMATE WANTED

FEMALE ROOMMATE NEEDED $250 + utilities 273-4145 Cris Miller.
FEMALE ROOMMATE NEEDED - To sha

3437.
FEMALE ROOMMATE WANTED - 3 BR
Limestone Sq. Apts. Bedroom w/bath, one block from campus. Reasonable rates. 266 5802 or 254-1097. HOUSE MATE WANTED FOR 4-BEDROOM HOUSE - on Kentucky Ave. $180/mo. Non-mokers please call Bob 257-7459 or Pete smokers please call 1800 257-7493 w. rever 257-3936. NCN-SMOKING FEMALE TO SHARE TWO BEDROOM APT - $212/mo, +1/2 utilities. 263-2212 between 7-8. NCN-SMOKING ROOMMATE WANTED - for a room available in country house. 30 minutes from campus. Dog may be possible. $200/mo call 873-4808. call 873-4808.

ROOM FOR RENT - Transylvania Area. $250

Private entrance, 255-0526.

ROOMMATE FINDERS - We have a great selection of people with housing to share. Our service is HALF-PRICE TO STUDENTS CALL TODAY, 258-2400

SERVICES

ACCURATE WORD PROCESSING- APA LA, NURSING. ALL PAPERS, THESES, ESUMES, LETTERS, GRAPHICS. LASER RINTED. FAX, NEAR CAMPUS. NORMA PRINTED. FAX, NEAD 277-0991.
ACCURATE WORD PROCESSING - Free medical, APA, MLA Styles everything Guaranteed Doris 273-214

ALL TYPING / WORD PROCESSING Weekends, 254-1076 or 299-7639.
BUSY BODY TYPING SERVICE - Quick, accurate & affordable, Pick-up & Delivery, 252 accurate & affordable. Pick-up o course, 8943 days, 293-1136 nights. 19ILL BABYST IN MY HOME - for all ages. flexible hours. References call 258-2403. UtV-IN CHILOCARE - by screened and experienced European Au Pairs. Up to 45 hrs. per week: $170 per week. Call Au Pair Care. per week $170 per week.
271-9033 or 800-288-7786.
RESUME SERVICE We write, design, & print resumes ... Student packages available. By appointment. Administrative System Idle Hour Center 268-2621.
SGA TUTORS AVAILABLE-FREE!! Room

120 Student Center.

TYPING BY M.E. - Wordperfect 5.1, APA,
MLA, Laser Printing, All Student Req., MCA, Laser Printing, All Student Heq., Reasonable Rates, Mary Ellen 231-3805.
WORD PROCESSING IN BUSINESS
SUPPORT SERVICE. Administrative System

Idle Hour. 268-2621.
WRITTEN WORDS - Word Processing. technical writing, desktop publishing rinted, FAX, Pick-up & Delivery. All easonable rush jobs O.K. Near UK 9-3437

LOST & FOUND

SENTIMENTAL VALUE. IN VALUE.

SE8-6707. Jennior.

FOUND - Gold chain, found in front doorway of B & E building gam Wed. morning. Call after 6pm, 231-9083.

FOUND - Gold chain wildamend cross, outside Bandeng Tower. Call to identify 256-6018.

LOST-T We ongs, 19795 cass mp, cuty and damond mig. Peats call Teachel 223-2930.

Kentucky Kernel

Managing Editor
Mary Madden

Executive Editor Dale Green

News Editor

Arts Editor Dave Lavender

Editorial Editor Joe Braun

Sports Editor

John Kelly

Design Editor Tyrone Johnston

Photography Editor

Editorial Cartoonist Jerry Voiat

(606) 257-1915

General Manager Mike Agin

Production Manager Robin Jones

Night Production Manager Brian Jent

Advertising Director

Display Advertising (606) 257-2872

Classified Advertising (606) 257-2871

The Kentucky Kernel is published on class days during the academic year and weekly during the summer session.

Readers are encouraged to submit letters and guest opinions to the Kentucky Kernel in person or by mail.Writers should address their comments to: Editorial Editor, Kentucky Kernel 035 Journalism Building, University of Kentucky Lexington, KY 40506-0042

Randall's Super Value

NOW HIRING!

All Departments

All Hours

 Flexible Work Schedule

Part-time Positions Available Apply in person 344 Romany Rd.

CONFIDENTIAL PREGNANCY ASSISTANCE Birthright

2134 Nicholasville Rd. 277-2635

MAINTENANCE PREE CONDO - Near UK, 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, private decks & pool. $64,900. Jim Shropshire The Prudential A.S. deMovellan Real Estate. 266-0451. MOBILE HOME - Five min. from UK 14x65 two BR, two full baths, LR, KIT, AC, W/D, & all personal producted at $700,000.050,000.050. appliances included. $7000 OBO. 252-3970.

NIKON N-2000 - 35/75 zoom lens lens +flash. $200. 271-5101.

ONKYO COMPONENTS - Tx 866 Receiver,
Dx 1800 CD Player, TAR 301 Tape Deck, Jbl Lx 55 Speakers, Also Jbl pro III Speakers. Will part out, call 266-0232 or 258-0038 ask for Jonathan.
ONKYO TA-RW 404 - Dual tape deck excellent condition, top of the line, paid $300. excellent currants, 293-5062.

ROLLERBLADES - for sale, size 12, excellent condition, good price call 258-2308.

SAMURAI SWORD - wiscabbard. Many practical applications, $95. Phone 252-0196 after 5pm.

SMITH-CORONA - Typewriter, electric, spoolto-spool, 4 BUICK HUBCAPS 272-0271.

TOAD THE WET SPROCKET TICKETS.

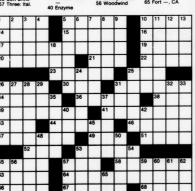

CALL 271-5526.

TODAY'S CROSSWORD PUZZLE

58 Adorns 63 Final bio 64 Prejudiced 66 Excellent 67 Unit of volume Brit. 68 — Preminger 69 Unpleasant look 70 British city 71 Type of fuel

- 1 Quarrel
 5 Knife handles
 10 Some letters
 14 Actress —
 Anderson
 15 Stand by for 16 Staircase part
 17 Oversize
 19 Eight: pref.
 20 Take umbrage
 at
- at 21 Kitten sound 22 Trial 23 Put off 25 Drink slowly 26 Research rooms 30 US patriotic org.

- remark 2 Native of Warsaw 4 Car part 5 Stopped 5 Mittelian 5 Cook slowly 10 Of towe 11 Simple beast 12 is the right 1 Simple pease 22 Month 2 Servillicate 25 Vampire 24 Ook Soundary 25 Certificate 25 Vampire 25

42 Exist instrument
45 Actress Bening
50 car
50 Military instruments
53 Tennessee 51 Inner: pref.
54 Before
55 Woodwind
55 Fort -, CA

Allegations not first for Perot

DALLAS — Ross Perot's past is peppered with instances in which he made conspiracy allegations that turned out to be unprovable or false.

false.

This time, he says, Republican operatives drove him from the campaign in July by threatening to embarrass one of his daughters. The charge has been stoutly denied by President Bush's campaign.

And, as before, Perot took offense when pressed for evidence.

"I am sick and tired of you all questioning my integrity without a basis for it," Perot told reporters in a surprise appearance at his campaign's daily news briefing yesterday.

Perot repeatedly has raised alle-gations against competitors, cli-ents, government officials and re-porters as he built a multibillion-dollar fortune in the computer services business

He has even alleged assassination conspiracies against him and his family by enemies as varied as North Vietnam, the Black Panthers and Texas drug dealers. In the last presidential debate, Perot repeated his account that in 1970, "The Vietnamese had sent people into Canada to make ar-rangement to have me and my fam-ily killed.

"At this point, there is no evidence that we have found that would indicate that any of the presidential campaigns, at least here in Dallas, have directed any dirty ricks at any other campaign," Buck Revell, agent in charge of the Dalas FBI bureau, told "60 Minutes." "The most significant effort they had one night is five people com-ing across my front yard with ri-fles."

Perox said yesterday that a guard turned a dog loose on the intruders and it bit one of them. He declined to identify the guard, saying, "I don't have to prove anything to you people."

Dallas police say there is no record of any such event. Paul McCaghren, who headed the Dallas police intelligence operations at the time, told ABC News that "It did not happen..." If five members of the First Baptist Church with rifles had come onto his lawn, we would have found out about it."

In his latest allegations, Perot

nave round out about it."

In his latest allegations, Perot also charged that GOP operatives tried to wiretap his Dallas office. But an FBI "sting" operation against Texas Bush-Quayle chairman Jim Oberwetter turned up nothing.

Oberwetter save he sent nacking

Ultimately Bradford was paid by the state to drop its bid and EDS continued the work without further challenge until 1988.

OUT OF TIME

Fine arts major Bill Thomas, 23, of the Society for Creative Anachronism, participates in the group's demonstration Sunday at UK.

Kentucky congressional races offer one less seat, fewer incumbents

The big difference in Kentucky's congressional races this year is in the numbers: One less seat and three fewer incumbents.

three fewer incumbents.

Because of the state's slim population growth between 1980 and 1990, Kentucky's U.S. House delegation was reduced from seven to six. But the Census isn't the reason three longtime representatives aren't on the ballot this year.

U.S. Rep. Chris Perkins (D-7th District) announced his decision not to seek a sixth term shortly before the public learned he had written 514 insufficient-funds checks at the rouse Bank.

U.S. Rep. Larry Hopkins (R-6th District) also had overdrafts and chose not to seek re-election. The 152 overdrafts U.S. Rep. Carroll Hubbard (D-1st District) logged were a key issue in the primary race
he lost.

The result could be an almost complete face lift for Kentucky's House delegation.

Here are the choices Kentucky

voters will face next Tuesday: 1st District

Tom Barlow, a Paducah busi-nessman who defeated Hubbard, faces Hopkinsville Republican Steve Hamrick, a textbook sales-man and minister.

Steve Hamrick, a textbook sales-man and minister.

Each appears to toe the party line on such issues as health care and free trade. Hamrick has hammered on Barlow's former career as a con-gressional lobbyist. In fact, 56 per-cent of Barlow's campaign money comes from political action com-nitiess, compared with Hamrick's 20 percent.

2nd District
Democratic U.S. Rep. William Natcher of Bowling Green has spent 39 of his 83 years in the House. Republican challenger Furce Barley, a 25-year-old col-lege student from Glasgow, has ac-knowledged that his chances of un-seating Natcher are slim.

seating Natcher are slim.

scating Natcher are slim.

Natcher, whose seniority this year allowed him to serve as acting chairman of the powerful House Appropriations Committee, has avoided many of the image problems facing other incumbents. He does not solicit campaign contribu-tions, he consistently underspends his office budget, uses no franked mail and had no overdrafts at the House bank. Bartley didn't even raise the $15,000 needed to qualify for a contribution from the national Re-nublican Part.

the undercover agent who offered him tapes that were purportedly of Perot.

Still, Perot repeated the wiretap-ping allegation Monday, claiming he had GOP sources he could not name publicly. Another example of past allega-tions by Perot:

tions by Perot:

-When his Electronic Data Systems Corp. lost a 1980 bid to manage the data work for Texas Medicaid, he charged that the state bureaucrat who had reviewed the bids had been influenced by the winning bidder, Bradford National Corp. Investigations by state and federal prosecutors turned up nothing, but in the interim EDs was awarded the work.

Ultimately Bradford was paid by

Ultimately Bradford was pa

publican Party.

3rd District

3rd District

The race between 22-year incumbent Democrat Romano Mazzoli and Republican Anallenger Susan Stokes has received a lot of national attention, mostly because Stokes a pro-choice Republican running against an anti-abortion Democrat. But Stokes, a former teacher and two-term state representative who lost her seat to reapportionment, said the abortion issue isn't the most important one dividing her and Mazzoli. She said Mazzoli is part of a "good of' boy system" that part of a "good ol' boy system" that has run up a $3 trillion debt.

Stokes also has argued that Mazsolices also last argued unta Waz-zoli, who was temporarily stripped of his only committee leadership position, has failed to distinguish himself in his two decades in Con-gress. But Mazzoli had enough clout last year to keep the Louis-ville Naval Ordnance Station, a big employer in Jefferson County, off the Department of Defense chop-ping block.

4th District

when they aren't slinging personal insults at each other, incumbent Rep. Jim Bunning (Rounds) and Dr. Floyd G. Poore, of Florence, are talking most about health care.

Bunning, seeking a fourth term, supports a GOP health-care plan called "Action Now." The plan would try to increase coverage through tax incentives, cost-containment measures and a requirement that insurance companies offer low premiums to small business. Poore, a physician, said Bunning's plan would not cover people whose employers chose not to participate.

Poore supports a Democratic pro-Poore supports a Democratic pro-posal to require all businesses to provide insurance or pay into a gov-ernment fund that would supply the coverage. Bunning said the propo-sal is the first step toward socialized medicine.

Jefferson County — where he had done well — and added heavily pro-union counties from the old 70 bistrict — where Poore has labor support. Bunning has taken the "re" off his "Elect Bunning" signs to avoid looking like an incumbent. Sth District Republican Harold "Hal" Rogers of Somerset faces the toughest race of the state's incumbents. The old 5th District was a Republican stronghold that elected Rogers six times, but redistricting has given Pikeville Democrat John Doug Hays a 53-45 percentage edge in registration.

registration.
Rogers is running on his record Rogers is running on his record of bringing home jobs and public-works projects such as flood control, roads and water lines. He touts his position on the House Appropriations Committee and says Hays "will be lucky to find the bathroom" in the first few years if electrod.

Hays, an attorney and former rays, all atomicy and former state senator, has tried to connect Rogers with the "failed" economic policies of the Reagan-Bush years. He paints Rogers as an enemy of the district's working poor, citing

■Read the Kernel for the ■Straight Dope on Election '92

Don't Believe the Hype...

votes against raising the minimum wage to $4.55 an hour and full funding of nutritional programs for women and children.

Rogers accused Hays of misrep-resenting those votes.

Despite the Democratic registra-tion edge, Rogers had $327,000 in his campaign warchest as of Sept. 30 — 13 times that of Hays.

6th District

Democratic Lexington Mayor Scotty Baesler is sort of an incum-bent in this race — or so Republi-can Dr. Chuck Ellinger would have the voters think.

ue voters funk.

During a recent debate, Ellinger,
a UK dentistry professor, accused the 11-year mayor of deserting the city with a $3 million deficit and a $147 million debt. He said Baesler was a career politician who will be looking for work when his mayoral term expires in 1993.

Baesler, who also farms tobacco, noted that Ellinger voted for six of Baesler's budgets during his seven years on the Urban County Council. He noted Ellinger never made a single motion for budget cuts.

Elect

Continued from Page 1

priorities for a second term, his spokesman went on the attack.

Perot "seems to have latched onto this theory much like other people latch onto UFO theories and he seems to believe it," Fitzwater said.

seems to believe it, "Fitzwater said.

The Bush campaign issued a statement saying it had never "attempted, directly to rindirectly, to tap Mr. Perot's telephones, disrupt his daughter's wedding, alter photographs of Mr. Perot or his family, or take any other action to interfere with the private lives of Mr. Perot of his family."

Perot has surged in public opin-ion polls since the presidential de-

w on his plans to create jobs

bates, where he shared the podium with Bush and Clinton. In addition, the Texan has been buying big blocks of TV time to push his programs and persona.

He aired an hour-long commercial at 7 pm, vesterday on ABC, half a rerun of a segment featuring family members and half a new and ensuring access to health care.

"DAYS OF OUR STUDENTS: A MINI-SERIES ON STUDENT LIFE"

sponsored by the Commuter Student Office for all students "Chilling Out: Juggling Roles-

Student, Job-Holder, and Significant Other"

Panelists: By Hensley, Chairman of SAB Performing Arts Committee & Aman da Gibbons, President of Student Activities Board, and Greg Strouse, U.K.

day, October 27, 1992 • 1:15–2:15 P.M. • 117 Student (
ALL STUDENTS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND! PLEASE CALL 257-6598 FOR MORE INFORMATION Nine Ball Tournament

TUESDAY, OCT. 27 at 7:30 P.M. Worsham Theater $2.00

269-6605 Rent One Get One FREE (Of equal or lesser value) Not valid with any other offer. Limit one coupon per person per day. Valid at Chevy Chase

Exp. 11/12/92

"ONE OF THE

"AN EXCEL-LENT MOVIE."

FREE DELIVERY 269-4693

Sub Center

438 S. Ashland Ave.

Chevy Chase

Share Lunch With A Friend!

ONE-MEAT MINI SUB 2 BOWLS OF SOUP, $5.25 2 DRINKS