Hamilton College
Lexington Ky.
Wed. evening.

Dear Edna.

You will be surprised to hear from me know don't. But I think of you kids so often. And wish we were all back in high school for we all sure did have good time. I have been so home sick down here. As I did not know any one. But I am getting over it now. I have to work so hard. Now this is all I have to take English, Education, Home Ec, Expression, History of Art, Free hand drawing; Design and gym. I twenty one hour a week keeps me busy. Lexington is a lovely place to be and the school is like an old souther colonial home. The teachers are dear but the girls are not like our dear clubhouse girl.

My roommate is Helen Lloyd and she is a nice girl she is taking art too.

I hear that Bernie is home sick I feel sorry for him for I know how it is not funny.

Please write Edna and tell me all about your self and what you are doing for I would love to hear from you.

Love your friend.

my dear Edna.

Edna was glad to here from you Edna. mail mean so much down here maybe you will be surprized to here I was home week end before but I did not think I would go till Christmas but I could not stand it that long. I sure did have a good time at home. But it seemed funny with out you kids in Weyerstown.

I just know you must like your work a lot. It is so nice for you to have some thing to do. You and Virginia must have a good time together its so grand that you can be together.

I should love to come up to Cincy some week end. It was darling of you to ask me. Edna. I should love to have you and Virginia come down to see me some week end.

I know you would like it here with all the girls.

I am begining to like it better. I guess it is all in getting use to it. It is so different from home life. But I like my work fine of course you have to work hard.

But, one of the teachers took my roommate and I out to the race (the famous Kentucky trials) it was a change and we had lots of fun.

Oh here that dear old H H S has quite a team this year have there first game the 23 of this month. I sure would love to see it.

I bet your new home is darling and I know just how glad you are to get into it and you will like it better now.

How is Marie? Is she going to school in Cincinnati. Tell her I said hello.

There is not much to write about down here. We can go to town once a week and of course I went today Monday now I can't go the rest of the week. (We had quite a fast life)
But you do have fun in the school with all the girls.

Be sure to write and tell me if you think you could come down ~~some~~ weeks and I would so love to have you.

DISCUSS CHURCH AT JOINT MEETING

Representatives of the Board of Trustees of the University, the trustees of the local Methodist church, and a joint commission of trustees of the University and Area Council of the Methodist church, met to discuss ways and means of bringing the financial campaign to a successful close. The meeting was held Thursday night at the Columbia club in Indianapolis in the form of a dinner.

It was decided to increase the forces in the field now engaged in soliciting funds for the church, and launch an aggressive campaign both in Greencastle and in other parts of the state in order to finish the raising of the $300,000 before Christmas. The campaign will close about December 22.

President L. H. Murlin and Dr. H. B. Longden of the University were present at the meeting, and A. G. Brown of the First National bank of Greencastle, and Fred O'Hair of the Central National bank, both members of the Board of Trustees of the University, were also present.

May Organize New Departmental Club

Professors H. B. Gough and R. E. Williams are making plans for a Public Speaking Club for members of the department. They have distributed questionnaires to those likely to be interested, requesting their advice on the desirability of the plan and the character of the work it should undertake. They also ask for information relative to the period and time of the meetings.

More definite arrangements will be made when all the questionnaires are returned. At present the plans are being made to include everyone who is taking work in the department regardless of their major.

CULVER CADETS DOWN OLD GOLD RHINIES, 19-0

On last Saturday afternoon the Tiger Frosh tackled the tough Culver Cadets for their first experience as warriors for the Old Gold. The Cadets have an exceptionally good team this year with many of the regulars from last year's Varsity again in uniform. Their line averages 180 pounds and the backfield averages 175. DePauw was outweighed almost twenty pounds to a man and yet they put up a real fight and held the Cadets to two touchdowns until the last five minutes of play. The final score was 19-0.

Coach Todd Kirk was pleased with the showing of his proteges however and is not in the least downhearted over the defeat. There was no outstanding player for the Old Gold rhinies with the exception of Scott and Brandenburg, every man doing his bit. The Cadets had a fast team and the yearlings were just outclassed in weight. They deserve a lot of credit for their showing.

Helen Schudel, '25, who is now teaching in Plymouth High School, was a guest at the Delta Zeta house over Sunday.

THOMPSON IN UNUSUAL RECITAL AT SUNDAY SERVICE

Professor Van Denman Thompson gave an unusual organ recital at the regular University Service yesterday afternoon. An appreciative audience, heard the program. Professor Samuel C. Ham, tenor, accompanied him.

MEMORIAL FOR RECTOR FRIDAY

PLANS COMPLETED FOR HONORING FRIEND AND BENEFACTOR THIS WEEK

All plans have been completed for the Edward Rector Memorial Service to be held here Friday morning at 10 o'clock. In order to accommodate the large numbers who will probably attend, the services will be held in the Bowman Memorial Building. The principal address will be made by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, former President and perhaps the best known of DePauw's bishops. Other speakers on the program are Franklin Parker Davis, of Mr. Rector's Chicago law firm, Dr. Henry B. Longden, and Mr. Roy O. West.

All classes will be dismissed after 10 o'clock Friday morning. Letters have been sent to Roy O. West, Mr. Frank Parker Davis, Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, of Chicago; Bishop Frederick E. Leete; Dr. Henry B. Longden; and the Rector Scholarship Foundation asking that they furnish the University with manuscripts of their addresses to be made on the occasion of the Rector Memorial ceremony.

It is planned to publish these manuscripts in the form of a University bulletin.

According to the latest announcement, Mrs. Rector will be in Greencastle on Friday to attend the service.

On Friday, The DePauw will publish a special Edward Rector Memorial Edition, in honor of Mr. Rector.

Campus Goes Back To Normal As Open House Becomes History

Once more the evening dresses are restored to their padded hangers and muslin covers, once more the houses of residence close their doors with ominous click at the stroke of 10, Open House for the year 1925 is but history. Eight o'clock classes Saturday morning will bear witness to the fact that at least the majority of students participated or should one say, dissipated, here at DePauw.

We dance until the dawn, stand for hours at the Boulevard with our best heart throb, walk miles every Sunday night and find them not nearly so fatiguing as Open House. And, of course, hiking to Illinois or Purdue or Indiana has nothing on Open House for making one weary. "Well, I had a good time but it was awfully tiresome" and "I am so sleepy I can hardly keep my eyes open" and "It was lots of fun but a terrible bore" etc. are some of the remarks we hear. Just a bit of advice to the new students—it is customary for DePauw to be "bored" with Open House—but they haven't given it a try yet.

FORTY-EIGHT MEN ARE CHOSEN FOR UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB

Owing to the large amount of vocal and instrumental talent among the one hundred thirty men trying out for a place on the University Glee Club, it was necessary to select a number twice the size of the club which will make the spring trip. Forty-eight men were chosen to start this year and as practice progresses this number will be cut down not to exceed twenty-five members for the concert tour in April.

The members of the club selected are:

First Tenors—Russell Fletcher, Clarence Glick, Paul Miller, James Murdock, Charles Palmer, Russell Vollmar, Leslie Wilborn.

Second Tenors—Dale Anderson, Harlan Beem, W. E. Bixler, Leo J. Costello, Dolph Veatch, Paul Driscoll, Charles Kendall, Harold M. Porter, Donald Wilson, Horace M. Lilly, William Blanchard, Charles Wagner, Robert R. McCullough, Jay Fornsshell.

Baritone—Claude Adams, Earle Barnes, Oliver Black, Walter Bullock, Carol Cross, H. Burnell Curless, David Hughes, Hollis Hull, Robert Parkin, Francis Turler, Walter Von Brock, and Wayne Ritter.

Basses—Norman Beeson, Carroll, Bonnell, Landon Carter, Wayne Fuestenberger, Russell Hassler, Rush Hughes, John Lockwood, Howard Losson, George Kendall, Miller Pierce, Merritt McFall, J. Reed George, Charles S. Sanford, Arnold Small, and Douglas Swartz.

The above named groups will report at seven o'clock Tuesday evening Oct. 13 at the University Music School for the first rehearsal. Immediately following the rehearsal there will be tryouts for the Tiger Quartette. Only the men whose names appear on the glee club roll are eligible for these tryouts. The Tiger Quartette is always a headliner on the concert program and the talent this year promises an excellent quartette as well as other specialties.

DEPAUW STUDENTS ARE IGNORANT CONCERNING BIBLE, SAYS BARTLETT

Answers to Questions Say Barnabus Lead Elephant; Gideon In Egypt

"Answers to one-fourth of the Bible questionnaires distributed to classes in DePauw University and to 250 students in Kansas indicate that the students were so devoid of biblical knowledge that they would have to reach up to touch bottom," Dr. Edward R. Bartlett, head of the religious education department of DePauw said recently in addressing the annual county convention of Marion County Sunday School Council of Religious Education, held in the First Presbyterian Church at Indianapolis.

"Barnabus was the man who led the elephant," one student wrote evidently getting the biblical character mixed up with a more recent man known in the circus world. "That Gideon is a province in Egypt and Cornelius was the wife of David, were other answers to the questionnaires," Doctor Bartlett said.

Bible Knowledge Limited "Knowledge of the Bible as indicated in the answer to the questionnaires was very low and averaged only 70 per cent in all the groups, where the tests were made," Doctor Bartlett said.

"You may perhaps think that a questionnaire can not show a student's knowledge of the Bible but does it not seem reasonable to expect students to have some knowledge of the outstanding events of the Bible and to be able to tell at least one fact about David or Peter?" Doctor Bartlett said in urging schooling for church and Sunday school leaders.

Cosmetics and artificial make-up were discussed in one of the group meetings among other qualifications for Sunday School teachers in the primary department.

"A natural complexion instead of paint and makeup should be included in the qualifications for a primary Sunday School teacher," D. T. Albertson, executive secretary of the council said.

W. A. A. TO HOLD OPEN MEETING WEDNESDAY

W. A. A. will hold an open meeting Wednesday afternoon in Daugherty Hall. The meeting will be at 4:30 and all coeds who are interested in athletics, either soccer or tennis or those sports of later seasons, are asked to be present. A program of interest to all new girls as well as old is promised.

W. S. G. A. DRIVE OPENS TODAY

BEGIN SOLICITATION OF FUNDS FOR ANNUAL ENDOWMENT—CLOSES THURSDAY

The W. S. G. A. drive for funds began this afternoon and will end on Thursday. The object of this drive is to collect seventy-five cents from every girl on the campus. Every girl in school becomes automatically a member of W. S. G. A. on registration, and no one will be permitted to vote in the W. S. G. A. elections in the spring unless he has paid her dues.

Various members of the board and captains of the out-in-town districts are working as solicitors. Florence Vickery, treasurer of W. S. G. A., has charge of the drive. The money raised in this way is expended for the annual scholarship of $125, the Little Sister campaign, three parties and a faculty tea, the maintenance of the rest room in East College, the school in Madras, the W. S. G. A. endowment pledge, national dues, and the convention.

The convention of W. S. G. A. organizations is to be held at Indiana University this year and at present the board is planning to entertain the delegates on the DePauw campus for one day.

PURDUE LEAVES MARK ON TIGERS

MINOR INJURIES INCURRED IN FRAY AS BOILER MAKERS SCORE 39-0

Several minor injuries were received by the Tigers in the fray Saturday, and may prove a handicap by the next tilt on Saturday. Weaver is still on the bench with an injury, received last week, while Nesbit, Cushman, Messersmith, Struck, Vance all received injuries of a more or less serious nature.

The DePauw gridgers met a stumbling block when they lined up against the Purdue eleven Saturday afternoon in the Ross-Ade stadium and after spectators had ceased cheering were holding onto the lean end of a 39-0 count.

While Purdue was having a great day on the field, one of its half backs whose name is Chester Wilcox from New Albany, and who is playing his first year in intercollegiate football, was kept busy making some history for himself. He crashed the line, skirted the ends, tossed and received passes, punted and, last but not by any means least, ran back punts as no Boilermaker has done recently.

Jimmie Phelan, mentor of Purdue combine sent in a lineup composed almost wholly of second string men who started right off to do more than was expected of them. Receiving the oval on the initial kick-off, Merko-brad running behind some excellent interference returned the ball more than fifty yards. A series of first downs followed and Merko-brad darted through the line of scrimmage for a touchdown.

Shortly after Purdue kicked off to its opponents Coach Phelan called for his first string to take the field. For a time it looked as though the new Boilermaker machine was incapable of coping with the Methodist backs but the question of supremacy was not to go long unsettled and the home team got down to business. A twenty-five yard gain on a pass from Sturridge to Kerr was the visitor's most substantial gain in the first period.

Early in the second quarter the "Old Gold and Black" started a march for its opponents' goal with Capt. Harneson, Wilcox and Gladders carrying the ball on plays that netted four first downs. Within a few feet of the goal line the Greencastle warriors tightened and forced their opponents to lose the ball on down. On the next play DePauw punted to Wilcox who returned within three yards of the goal but lost the ball on being tackled hard. With the ball in their possession in dangerous territory the visitors punted again to Wilcox who returned the ball to within a few yards of a goal.

A plunge by Harneson and two by "Cotton" Wilcox put the ball over the line. Harneson kicked for the added point.

In the closing minutes DePauw tried desperately to score but was repelled. Koransky, Purdue half back intercepted a pass that would have meant a DePauw touchdown had the intended man received it. Koransky sped for sixty yards before he was brought to the ground by a tackle.

THIS TIME OF YEAR

This is the time of year when a student can be made or broken. It is the time of year when he, especially the new student, is still making impressions, and the nature of those impressions is of vital importance to him, especially with respect to his various instructors. Instructors, in taking up a new class almost invariably within the first five or six weeks divide their classes into three groups: The very good student, the mediocre or indifferent, and the very poor. What group he falls into depends not entirely on his first six weeks attitude, and whatever it is, the instructor is prone to keep that opinion, despite the student's efforts to change it.

Term examinations will soon be in order, or possibly are in order in some cases now. These, although they do not form the sole basis for judging, do in a large measure give some idea of the classification of the individual student.

Fall into the right class, for it is easier to stay there, than it is to get there.

CAMPUS OPINION

Should swimming and tennis be made a minor sport by the athletic authorities?

Harry Williams: Tennis and swimming should in my opinion be made a minor sport, especially since scarcely any expense would be incurred for equipment.

Rosecoe Scott: I am strong in favor of having swimming and tennis made a minor sport at DePauw, and numbers should be given to the members of the teams. I would also like to see boxing, wrestling and fencing put in the same category. Water basketball is another good game that is not played here, but both Purdue and Indiana are represented by teams. DePauw should get up a team and play them.

Raymond Struck: Tennis and swimming are good sports and I believe that they should be made one of the minor branches of athletics at DePauw. Many men who are not able to make the football team, basketball or baseball, or track squads would go out for either tennis or swimming, if they would get some recognition for the time they put in practicing. Moreover they would get some good exercise that they would not otherwise receive.

Mary Elizabeth Houck: I think tennis and swimming should be included as a minor sport. There are many students who are interested in these sports, and should have a chance to demonstrate their ability. Lets put DePauw on the map again by a swimmer or a tennis player.

Joe Pearson: Swimming and tennis are very beneficial to a school's field of athletics, but as to making them a minor sport, in a school of this size, would be a very poor one. The enrollment is not large enough to insure enough men of ability to make either sport a success.

Heard and Overheard

George sez:—Someone remarked that Thibideaux would have made a fine lap dog for one of the girls he met at Open House.

Now that it is all over, name-plates, such as are used in the R. O. T. C., have been suggested for Open House.

After noting the comparative ease with which the automobile rule (rule 104 in the Handbook for Instructors and Students of DePauw University) was passed, we have hereby designed the following which we expect to be included next year:

92 b. Social Regulations. All men students of the University, whether living in dormitories, fraternity houses or out-in-town, must be in their respective houses by 10:00 P. M. The University Dormitories and Fraternity Houses will close business at this hour. The services of Marshall O'Hair, the Greencastle Police Department, the Fire Department, and if need be, the police departments of Cloverdale, Bainbridge and Fillmore will aid the University in enforcing this enactment. Although no trouble will be expected, this is designed to help give these arms of the law something to do.

Dear Mr. George Sez:—
I am very much in trouble! The other day a man called me up and said that he met me at Open House two years ago and he wants a date with me. What shall I do?
T. H.

Dear T. H.:
We would advise that you investigate the case and find out if he has just completed his two year correspondence in The Development of a Forceful Personality and the Subjection of Bashfulness, or whether he has spent these two years in the South Eastern Hospital for the Insane, trying to recover from the effects of Open House. This should really make an interesting study.

HIGH FINANCE Bulletin

It was announced here early today that 493 slickers exchanged hands at Open House, Friday between the hours of six and nine. This record shatters all previous records made on the DePauw Campus.
(Who followed you?)

Here lies what's left of Archibald Bim
He fell on the ball and the team fell on him.

"Well, clothes," said the girl as she left the house, "I'm going downtown and you can come along if you want to."

After looking at his blind date, "What the deuce! She's ugly and old. She squints, has bad teeth, and bleary eyes."

Friends: "You can talk louder too, she is deaf."

Open House

Freshman:—"I know what I wish I had."

Soph:—"Whiskey?"

Freshman:—"No—Walking Typhoid."

When I was a Freshman, I thought Open House was a post graduate course for burglars.

"GOOD SAMARITAN" IS SUBJECT OF CHAPEL TALK

Professor W. E. Bundy was in charge of chapel this morning and based his talk upon the story of the Good Samaritan. He made application of the story to our modern life and of the next few years to come. In part he said, "The Good Samaritan of tomorrow will be the intelligent citizen who makes the road safe for the Levite."

Edna dear,
well here I am writing again. I was so glad to hear from you, you all must have had a grand at Freda. I have a letter from the next day telling all about it.

I was home last week end. There was not much going on. There is a dance this tonight. I just better me to miss a dance.

There has not been so much going on there either because of exam. I sure am glad that two of mine are over.

We are just waiting till the time to roll around to spring vacation. It will be so grand to be home for a whole week.

It has been so long since I have seen you I think I have most forgot what you look like ^{now}. I have not heard of any every thing happening here you? It seem like for a while every in the town was getting married. And I have been wondering what will happen next! I guess from that I here every thing is quite different in high school. These girls were taken out of the girl reserve. I guess thing had been pretty bad.

I think you all could come over and see me some time it real is not far from Anunnati afternoon.

Edna dear,

I heard you were coming home for the dance, and I decided all at once I could go home too. Ronnie told me you were coming through Oxford on the Air bus this afternoon, so I thought I would go home too then. And I want you to come to my house I would so love to have you. It has been a long time since you have to my house. I had not plan to go home because I did not think I could leave. But I just found out in the last few days that I could go. So I thought it would be nice to go together since you come this way.

And I would be so happy to have you with me Edna.

I don't suppose you will have time to answer this little but it does not make any different.
You would die if I tell you who I have a date with. I had told all the kids I would not be come. Two of the kids who ask me to go I said I could not come home. So I feel awful funny about going. Will any way I can suppose to have a date with Charles Ferkner. I never dance with him but once. So I don't know much about his dancing. I think it is funny any way. I guess I don't not make much difference as long as you have a good time I guess.
Well honey I don't have time to write more doubt if you can read this. I suppose I shall see you

Wed afternoon

Edna dear,

I am sorry I have been so long writing. I have been so busy ever since I have been here. I was home last week end. I thought maybe you might be there too for the dance.

We had a little party here last night as it was Founders day the college had been founded 46 years ago

We are happy as it is not long till our spring vacation in March they are going to lay the corner stone to the new building along the last of March. And they surely do need a new building here.

You can have lot of fun here there is must always some things to do. Althought Sunday is a rather dead day for every one.

I am hoping to go home next week end. Since I am here about all thinks about is going home being so close. Althought they keep you pretty busy with work.

I suppose you and Virginia are having a good a time as ever running around. How Drounie,

Say there sure has been some thing going on at home from what I hear. I am afraid I am losing out on things and the rate they have been happening. I guess the High School and Junior High are going rather fast and wild. I am sorry ~~we~~ we are not there to see it all.

Dear Edna.

I so glad to get your letter. I know you and Virginia must have a grand time it is so nice that you can be together.

Have you here about the Hagerstown game with Connersville. Well dear old H. H. S. got beat there first game to bad. There was a big dance after ward. I sure would have liked to have been ^{there} for I do so hard to miss any thing (the)

I suppose you are going to some Halloween parties or dance. We are having our Halloween party tonight. I don't know just what it will be like.

But we are going out to Kentucky to foot ball game. There sure cute kids go out there to school.

I like my work so much down here. I think I will take pottery it is very interesting work.

I am real proud of my self as I have not been home sick for two whole weeks.

I bet Virginia knows lots of the Lexington girl who come here to school. They are all so cute.

How do you like my envelope.. I did not have any thing to do so just wasted a little time.

I suppose you know that Mr + Mrs
