

The legality of Col. Whistler's order having been called in question he offered a resolution declaring the order legal. This resolution was passed, Prof. Shackelford voting against it. Cadets Dibrill, Gray and Bailey were also absent from parade, but Faculty adjourned without fixing any punishment for them. Cadets Dibrill, Gray, Bailey and Newby were closely questioned as to their knowledge of ^{the loss of} the mouth-pieces of ^{the} horns, but no information as to who ~~made~~ took and hid the mouth-pieces could be obtained. The Faculty then adjourned till Friday June 4th.

Sec. of Faculty.

June 4th

The Faculty met at the usual hour and resumed the business unfinished at the last meeting.

Col. Whistler having ^{as possible} thoroughly investigated the circumstances connected with the removal and hiding of the mouth-pieces of horns ^{as possible} and being satisfied that the young men, mentioned in minutes of June 3rd, had nothing to do with the removal & hiding of the pieces withdrew that charge made against them.

Cadets Dibrill, Gray and Bailey stated that they absented themselves from the parade, ^{June} June 29th, on account of their political feelings. It was resolved to place Messrs Dibrill, Gray and Bailey under arrest for the remainder of this session and also to place a demerit against each of them. Prof. Shackelford voted against punishing D. G. and B. Cadets White and Triplett were reported as having broken their arrest. In the investigation of the loss of mouth-pieces, which Col. Whistler conducted from June 3rd to June 4th, Cadet F. Moore by his conduct, when answering some questions, asked him by Col. W., aroused the Col's suspicions as to his connection with the loss of mouth-pieces. Moore, however, in presence of the Faculty signed a written denial of having any knowledge as to who hid the mouth-pieces.

Col. Whistler stated that he thought that Cadets White & Triplett had broken their arrest through ignorance, he therefore requested permission to excuse this offence, if on investigation he should think it best to do so. His request was granted. He then requested permission to ~~procure~~ release Cadets Dohill, Gray and Bailey from arrest if they submit quietly to their punishment, they having, from the first, shown a spirit of submission. This request was granted. Cadets Perry and Townsend, who were reported as indebted to their clubs, were directed to pay at once. Cadet F. W. Hays was reported as having taken strawberries from College patch without permission. His case was referred to Pres, Prof. Shackelford and Col. A resolution was passed, declaring 100 demerits equivalent to a reduction of $\frac{25}{100}$ in conduct. The Faculty then adjourned to meet June 10th if occasion should demand another meeting this session.
